LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

I HEREBY notify that I have this day received a Return to the Writ issued by me on the fifth day of June instant, for the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly of Victoria for the Electoral District of Emerald Hill, in the place of the Honorable George Frederic Verdon, who resigned his seat, and that by the Return endorsed on such Writ it appears that

JOHN WHITEMAN, Esquire, was duly elected member for the said district.

FRANS. MURPHY, Speaker.
Legislative Assembly Chamber,
Melbourne, 18th June, 1868.

GENERAL REGULATIONS BY THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

THE subjoined General Regulations, framed by the Board of Education, have been laid before the Governor in Council, and approved, in accordance with the provisions of the Act No. 149.

CHARLES SLADEN, Chief Secretary.
Chief Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 15th June, 1868. 5117.

APPENDIX B.

AMENDED REGULATIONS AS TO THE APPOINTMENT, EXAMINATION, CLASSIFICATION, AND SALARIES OF PUPIL TEACHERS.

1. The Board of Education will not register a school for pupil teachers unless it is reported to be—

- (1.) Under a head teacher holding a certificate equal at least to the second division of competency.
- (2.) Held in suitable premises.
- (3.) Well furnished and well supplied with books and apparatus.
- (4.) Instructed under a suitable time-table which is strictly carried out.
- (5.) Under satisfactory discipline.
- (6.) Properly classified and instructed.

2. Pupil teachers shall not be appointed under the age of 14 years for males, and 13 for females; they must be of sound and healthy constitution and free from any physical defect likely to impair their efficiency as teachers.

3. Salaries will not be granted to pupil teachers until they shall have passed the examination for the fourth or lowest class, and salaries when granted will date from the commencement of the month succeeding that in which the pupil teachers pass such examination.

4. Pupil teachers will be divided into four classes, and will be paid at the following rates, one-half of which must be locally contributed from school fees or other sources:—

	Males.	Females.
First class (highest)	£50	£40
Second "	40	32
Third "	30	24
Fourth "	20	16

5. The local contributions towards pupil teachers' salaries must be paid in cash, and no other allowance, such as board or residence, will be allowed in lieu of such cash payments.

6. A general examination of public teachers will be held at the commencement of every year, both orally and by means of papers, when all pupil teachers who have been appointed not less than six months, will be required to attend under pain of forfeiting their salaries. At this examination they will be classed for the year.

No. 74.—JUNE 19, 1868.—1.

7. Every pupil teacher will be expected to advance at least one class at each annual examination, and those who undergo two such examinations without promotion will forfeit their claims to aid altogether.

8. Head teachers will be required to give to their pupil teachers instruction out of school hours as follows:—

In a school having but one pupil teacher, five hours per week.
In a school having more than one pupil teacher at least six hours per week; and the time for such instruction must in all cases appear on the time-table.

9. Pupil teachers cannot at their first examination be placed in a class higher than the lowest, but at the annual examination they will be allowed to advance as many classes as they may show themselves competent for.

10. Pupil teachers will not be examined for payments under Rule 16.

11. The services of pupil teachers will be retained till the completion of their course, although the attendance would otherwise necessitate a reduction in the teaching staff of the school.

12. Pupil teachers will be liable to dismissal without notice, for idleness, disobedience, or immoral conduct, subject to appeal to the Board as in the case of teachers.

13. In every school registered for pupil teachers when a vacancy in the head teachership occurs, the new head teacher must be one qualified to train and instruct pupil teachers.

14. Bonuses will be paid to the head teachers, for every pupil teacher who shall pass the annual examination for promotion, according to the following scale:—

For one pupil teacher	£10
" two " " " " " " " " " "	18
" three " " " " " " " " " "	24
" four " " " " " " " " " "	28
" five " " " " " " " " " "	30

subject to a proportionate reduction for every pupil teacher who shall fail to pass or to attend the examination,* and no bonus will be paid for more than five pupil teachers in any one school although a greater number may be employed.

15. The Board do not absolutely require that local committees shall enter into written agreements with the parents or guardians of pupil teachers, but they recommend them to do so. Where the head teacher is classified in the second division of competency the agreement should be for three years only, in order that the pupil teacher may have an opportunity of completing the course under a teacher holding a first division certificate. Where the head teacher is in the first division of competency, the agreement should extend over four years. Forms of agreement can be obtained on application to the Secretary.

16. The following are the subjects which will be required to be known by the candidates for admission to the several classes respectively:—

For the Fourth or Lowest Class.

Reading.—To read fluently the Irish National Board's Third Book of Lessons, or some book equivalent to it.

Writing and Composition.—To write out neatly in small hand, with correct spelling, any passage dictated from the Third Book, or its equivalent.

Grammar.—To point out the parts of speech in a simple sentence.

* The reduction is thus calculated:—

If five pupil teachers are employed in a school and they all pass the examination, the school will be entitled to £30 bonus; but if two fail, two-fifths will be deducted from £30, leaving the amount payable £18.

Again, if three pupil teachers are employed and they all pass, the school will be entitled to £24; but if two fail, two-thirds of the £24 or £16 will be struck off, leaving only £8 payable.

Geography.—To have a knowledge of the elements of geography, and the outlines of the map of the world.
Arithmetic.—To write from dictation sums in the first four rules of arithmetic, simple and compound, and work them correctly, and to know the tables of weights and measures.
Needlework for Girls.—To sew neatly and to knit.

For the Third Class.

Reading.—To read the Irish National Board's Fourth Book of Lessons, or some book equivalent to it, with fluency and proper emphasis, and to be acquainted with the subjects contained in the Third Book (or equivalent), except stories, fables, and poetry.

Writing and Composition.—To write from dictation, neatly and in small hand, with correct spelling and fair punctuation, any passage from the Fourth Book of Lessons, or its equivalent.

Grammar.—To know the first part, and first two chapters of the second part of Morell's Grammar, or their equivalent.

Geography.—The Geography of Australasia.
Arithmetic.—To know simple proportion and practice, with the elements of mental arithmetic.

Art of Teaching.—(1.) Ability to give a class a reading lesson, and to examine on the meaning of what has been read.

(2.) Ability to drill a class in marching and exercises, and to conduct it through the movements necessary for preserving order.

Needlework.—Girls to instruct the younger ones in sewing and knitting.

For the Second Class.

Reading.—To read with fluency and proper emphasis, to know the subjects of the Irish National Board's Fourth Book of Lessons, or its equivalent.

Writing.—To write from memory, neatly and in small hand, with correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation, the substance of a narrative read aloud.

Grammar.—To know the first two parts of Morell's Grammar, or their equivalent, and the elements of parsing.

Geography.—The geography of Europe, and the first four chapters of Sullivan's "Geography Generalized," or equivalent.
Arithmetic.—To vulgar and decimal fractions, and mental arithmetic.

Art of Teaching.—To teach a class the rudiments of grammar and arithmetic, and to keep the class in attention, order, and activity.

Needlework.—Girls to exhibit increased skill in needlework.

For the First Class.

Reading.—To read with ease and expression either prose or poetry, and to know the subjects of the Fifth Book of Lessons, or its equivalent.

Writing and Composition.—To write from memory, neatly and in small hand, with correct grammar, spelling and punctuation, the substance of an easy essay previously read.

Grammar.—The whole of Morell's Grammar, or its equivalent.

Geography.—The geography of the World, and the mathematical and physical geography of Sullivan's "Geography Generalized," or its equivalent.

Arithmetic.—To vulgar and decimal fractions, interest, mental arithmetic, and the elements of book-keeping.

Art of Teaching.—Ability to give a gallery lesson.
Needlework.—Girls to exhibit some skill in fancy work, and to do plain work well.

APPENDIX D.

AMENDED PROGRAMME OF EXAMINATION FOR CERTIFICATES OF COMPETENCY.

First Division of Competency for Head Teachers of Schools in which one or more Assistants are employed.

Reading.—To read fluently, and with proper expression and emphasis, both prose and poetry.

Writing and Composition.—To be able to write from dictation with correct spelling and punctuation from an ordinary book or newspaper, and to compose a short essay on some given subject from, or reproduce the substance of some lesson in, the 5th or 4th book.

Grammar.—Morell's Grammar and Analysis.

Geography.—Descriptive geography of the four continents, Australasia, and Victoria, and to have a fair knowledge of the products, governments, and manners of the various nations, and the mathematical and physical geography of Sullivan's "Geography Generalized," or equivalent.

Arithmetic.—The simple and compound rules. Practice, proportion, interest, principles of mental arithmetic, vulgar and decimal fractions, elements of book-keeping. Females to mental arithmetic only, inclusive.

Art of teaching.—Penmanship.—To set fair copy head-lines in large and small hands.

Time-table.—To draw up a time-table.

Notes of a lesson.—To compose the notes of a lesson.
School management.—To give a collective lesson in the presence of the inspector, and to keep all classes fully employed in accordance with the time-table, and in proper discipline.

Second Division of Competency for Head Teachers of Schools in which no Assistants are employed, and for Assistant Teachers.

Reading.—To read clearly, fluently, and with proper emphasis.

Writing and Composition.—To write from memory neatly with correct grammar, spelling, and punctuation, the substance of a short narrative read aloud.

Grammar.—To parse an easy sentence in prose.

Geography.—The elements of mathematical and physical geography, and the principal features on the maps of the World, Europe, Australasia, and Victoria.

Arithmetic.—The simple and compound rules, practice, proportion, principles of mental arithmetic, interest, vulgar and decimal fractions—females to mental arithmetic only—inclusive.
Art of teaching.—To give a satisfactory lesson to a class in reading, writing, arithmetic, grammar, or geography; to understand class drill, and to keep a class in order, attention, and activity.

The above regulations will take effect from the 1st October, 1863, from which date Appendix B, and that part of Appendix D which relates to the programme of examination for certificates of competency, will be rescinded.

TEACHING STAFF IN COMMON SCHOOLS.

1. In addition to the head teacher a pupil teacher will be allowed for every twenty-five scholars in average attendance over the first twenty-five, or an assistant teacher for every fifty scholars over the first twenty-five, provided that there shall be one assistant teacher for every hundred scholars in average attendance; but in schools employing one or more pupil teachers, should the attendance increase to such an extent as to entitle the local committee to substitute an assistant for a pupil-teacher, the full number of pupil teachers already employed may be retained until a vacancy in the pupil teachers' staff shall occur.

2. A workmistress will be allowed in mixed schools where the head teacher is not a female, when the average attendance exceeds 30, and when the pupil teacher is not a female, or is not competent to give instruction in needlework; and when the average attendance is from 75 to 100, the local committee may, with the approval of the Board of Education, employ a second pupil teacher instead of an assistant, and retain the services of the workmistress, the salary of the workmistress to be £20 a-year when the average attendance is below 30, and £30 a-year when above that number; not less than one hour's instruction to be given in each school day.

3. In schools where the average attendance is below 25, the salary of the head teacher shall not exceed that allotted to the second division of competency.

4. Applications for increased staffs will be received at any time, and staffs will be increased from the commencement of the month succeeding that in which the application is received, such increase being based upon the average attendance for the three months preceding the date of application, but no increase will be recognised unless the sanction of the Board shall have been previously obtained.

5. The above regulations will take effect from the 1st October, 1863, from which date Rules 14 and 15 will be rescinded.

FEES FOR DESTITUTE AND DESERTED CHILDREN, AND ORPHANS.

The following General Regulation will take effect from the 1st July, 1863, from which date Rule 69 will be rescinded.

In the case of destitute children, and of orphans and deserted children, who have no means of paying the prescribed school fees, payments will be made by the Board according to the following scale:—

For a single scholar above eight years of age, 4d. per week.

For a single scholar under eight years of age, 3d. per week.

When more than one attend from the same family, per scholar, 3d. per week.

But in every such case a certificate must be furnished to the local committee, signed by a justice of the peace or registered clergyman, in form of A. or B, Appendix K, and a copy thereof forwarded to the Board, and the Board will require to be satisfied that such case really exists. Every such certificate must be renewed half-yearly.
