SEVERAL new Lighthouses being in course of erection, in New Zealand, the following preliminary description of them is published for general information; more exact and detailed descriptions will be published when the works are more advanced.

It is anticipated that the lights will be ready for exhibition early in 1870.

JAMES M. BALFOUR,
Colonial Marine Engineer.
Marine Department,
Wellington, 22nd April, 1869.

1. LIGHTHOUSE ON FAREWELL SPIT, COOK STRAIT.

The lighthouse is to be erected in the immediate vicinity of "Bush End," on Farewell Spit, at the western entrance to Cook Strait.

The light is intended to show all round, and is to be a revolving white light, of the second order dioptric, attaining its greatest brilliance once a minute.

Over the Spit end it is intended to make the light show red instead of white as elsewhere, in order to caution mariners of their approach to that danger.

The light will be elevated about 120 feet above the sea level, and will be visible in clear weather about 17 nautic miles, allowing 15 feet for the height of the observer's eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The tower is to be an open-framed structure of timber, and will be 118 feet in height from the ground to the top of the lantern.

2. LIGHTHOUSE ON CAPE CAMPBELL, COOK STRAIT.

The lighthouse will be erected on a knoll at the northern extreme of the high land of Cape Campbell, on the south side of the eastern entrance to Cook Strait.

The light will show all round where not intercepted by the land, and is to be a revolving white light of the second order dioptric, attaining its greatest brilliance once a minute.

The light will be elevated about 155 feet above the sea level, and will be visible in clear weather about 19 nautic miles, allowing 15 feet for the height of the observer's eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The tower is to be an open-framed structure of timber, and will be about 73 feet in height from the ground to the top of the lantern.

3. LIGHTHOUSE ON NUGGET POINT, MOLYNEUX BAY.

The lighthouse is to be erected on a well defined knoll, about 240 feet high, at the outer extremity of Nugget Point, the southern limit of Molyneux Bay, in 46° 27' south latitude, and 169° 51' east longitude, as measured on the Admiralty chart.

The light will show to seaward over an arc of 225°, and will be a fixed white light of the first order dioptric.

The light will be elevated about 252 feet above the sea level, and will be visible in clear weather about 23 nautic miles, allowing 15 feet for the height of the observer's eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The tower will be of stone, and painted to suit the background. It will be 31 feet in height from the ground to the top of the lantern.

4. TEMPORARY LIGHT AT MANUKAU HEADS.

A small fifth order apparatus has been ordered from England, and will be erected on one of the beacons on the South Head of Manukau Harbor, on its arrival.

The light will be a fixed white light of moderate power, though from the great elevation of the land (about 500 feet) it may be seen, in very exceptionally clear states of the atmosphere, at a distance of nearly thirty nautic miles.

This light is only meant to benefit vessels accustomed to trade on the coast; it is not intended in any way to encourage vessels to attempt to enter Manukau Harbor during the night, nor is it meant to encourage strangers to approach the port.

ARARAT MINING DISTRICT.

BYE-LAW No. 1.—REGULATING ALLUVIAL MINING IN THE RAGLAN DIVISION OF THE ARARAT MINING DISTRICT.—
[11th March, 1869.]

At a Meeting of the Mining Board of the Mining District of Ararat, begun and holden at the Mining Board Room, Ararat, in the said district, on the eleventh day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, it is ordained by the said Board as follows, that is to say:—

1. Classification of workings.—Alluvial gold mining shall be divided into two classes, viz.:—Wet workings and dry workings. Wet workings shall comprise all ground in which, by the occurrence of water below the surface or gravel drift, slabbing of the shaft from the top to the bottom becomes necessary. Dry workings, all ground in which such slabbing is not required.

2. Definition of lead.—The term lead shall be held to mean the alluvial deposits or wash-dirt containing gold, and running in a continuous course or occurring successively in patches.

DRY WORKINGS—ORDINARY CLAIMS.

3. Frontage claims, marking out.—All claims in dry workings, except in cases provided for in clause 5, and except also in claims in hill surfacing and hill sinking hereafter provided for, shall be frontage claims and of an indefinite width, and shall be marked with a conspicuous peg at each end (the upper and the lower) on the supposed course of the lead, until the discovery of the same in the claim within twenty-eight (28) days, after which the boundaries must be defined by a peg projecting not less than three (3) feet above the surface, and placed at each corner of the claim, and in such manner that the boundary lines which meet at each peg shall form right angles with each other; but no such claim shall exceed one hundred and sixty (160) feet in width.

4. Size of frontage claims after discovery of the lead.—The size of claims in flats and gullies shall be (without regard to depth) forty (40) feet along the course of the lead by a width of one hundred and sixty (160) feet for each man. No claim shall exceed in extent the area allowed for four (4) men.

5. Block claims on frontage leads.—After the boundaries of a frontage claim are defined by four pegs, any person or persons may take up the ground on either side after leaving the distance required for the wall.

6. Size of block claims.—The size of such block claims shall be forty (40) feet in length by a width of one hundred and sixty (160) feet for each man. No claim shall exceed in extent the area allowed for four (4) men.

7. Hill surfacing and hill sinking.—Size of claims.—The size of claims in hill surfacing and hill sinking shall be as follows, viz.:

- One man, forty (40) feet by eighty (80) feet.
- Two men, eighty (80) feet by eighty (80) feet.
- Three men, one hundred and twenty (120) feet by eighty (80) feet.
- Four men, one hundred and sixty (160) feet by eighty (80) feet.

No claim shall exceed in extent the area allowed for four (4) men. All claims must be marked by pegs at each corner, such pegs shall project not less than three (3) feet above the surface, and be placed at each corner of the claim and in such manner that the boundary lines which meet at each peg shall form right angles with each other.

8. Walls to be left.—A wall of neutral ground three (3) feet in width must be left between all claims, which ground may be worked by either of the adjoining claimholders, provided they securely timber the same. Walls exceeding three (3) feet in width shall not be considered neutral ground.

9. To prevent shepherding.—Working on claims must be proceeded with within forty-eight (48) hours after the time of marking out until the claim is abandoned, except in cases of illness, attendance at courts of justice, public holidays, or any other cause of absence satisfactory to the warden or warden and assessors. A breach of this clause shall render the share or shares affected liable to forfeiture.

10. Over-sized claims.—When a miner or miners have marked out or are holding more ground than they are entitled to, any person or persons who may be, by a competent court, put in possession of such excess of ground, shall be entitled to choose from which end of the claim it shall be taken.
