II. Reading letters received, and ordering thereon.

III. Reception of, and reading petitions and memorials, and ordering thereon.

VII. Examination of and passing accounts for payment.

VIII. Reading notices of motion for consideration at a future meeting.

4. Every petition or memorial addressed to the council must be in writing, and presented by a councillor, who shall affix his name at the beginning thereof, and shall be responsible for its being in proper form and respectfully worded; and no debate shall take place thereon, except as to its being received. Every such petition or memorial, when received, shall be taken into consideration at such time as the council may direct.

6. Every notice of motion shall be given in writing to the secretary, and shall be read aloud by that officer, at the meeting previous to that at which the same is to be taken into consideration, and every such notice shall be considered in the order in which it is given. After a notice of motion has been given, the terms thereof may be altered by the mover, on delivering an amended notice to the secretary, at least ten days prior to the meeting at which such motion is to be discussed.
