TREATY FOR THE MUTUAL SURRENDER OF BRITISH AND BRAZILIAN CRIMINALS.

THE Governor has directed the subjoined Despatch and Order of Her Majesty in Council to be published for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
J. G. FRANCIS,
Chief Secretary.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 9th February 1874.

Downing street, 29th November 1873.

SIR,—I have the honor to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of a Treaty between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Brazil for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals, as well as a copy of the Order in Council of the 20th instant, for carrying into effect that Treaty.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) KIMBRLEY.

The Officer Administering the Government of Victoria.

At the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of November 1873.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by An Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted, that where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the thirteenth day of November, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Brazil for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice, and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories and jurisdictions, that persons accused or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, being fugitives from justice, should under certain circumstances be reciprocally delivered up, have resolved to name their Plenipotentiaries for the celebration of a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, George Buckley Mathew, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil;

And His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, the Marquis of S. Vicente, a Counsellor of State, Dignitary of the Order of the Rose, Senator and Grandee of the Empire;

Who, having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up reciprocally, those persons who, being accused or convicted of having committed crime in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other, under the circumstances and conditions that are laid down in the present treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition shall be granted are the following:—

1. Murder, or attempt to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Illegal fabrication, counterfeiting or falsification, uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or falsified money.

Sua Magestade a Rainha do Reino Unido da Grã Bretanha e Irlanda, e Sua Magestade o Imperador do Brazil, julgando conveniente, com o fim de melhorar a administração da justiça e prevenir o crime dentro de seus respectivos territorios e jurisdicções, que as pessoas accusadas ou convictas dos crimes abaixo enumerados, refugiadas do alcance da justiça, sejam reciprocamente entregues, mediante certas circunstancias, resolverão nomear seus Plenipotenciarios para a celebração de um Tratado com esse objecto, a saber:—

Sua Magestade a Rainha do Reino Unido da Grã Bretanha e Irlanda, o Senhor George Buckley Mathew, Cavalleiro da muito honrada Ordem do Banho, Seu Enviado Extraordinario e Ministro Plenipotenciario junto de Sua Magestade o Imperador do Brazil;

E Sua Magestade o Imperador do Brazil, o Marquez de S. Vicente, Conselheiro d'Estado Dignitario da Ordem da Rosa, Senador e Grande do Imperio;

Os quaes, depois de terem communicado seus respectivos plenos poderes, achados em boa e devida fórma, ajustarão e accordarão nos seguintes Artigos:—

ARTIGO I.

As Altas Partes Contractantes se obrigão a entregar reciprocamente os individuos que sendo accusados ou convictos de ter commettido crime no territorio de uma dellas, forem encontrados no territorio da outra mediante as circunstancias e condições que são estabelecidas no presente Tractado.

ARTIGO II.

Os crimes pelos quaes se deverá conceder a extradição são os seguintes:—

1. Homicidio sujeito á pena de morte ("murder"), e tentativa d'elle.
2. Homicidio ("manslaughter").
3. Fabricação illegal, contrafacção ou falsificação de moeda, emittir ou introduzir na circulação moeda contrafeita ou falsificada.

4. Forgery, or imitation, counterfeiting or falsification of any document or paper (comprising the crimes designated in the criminal code of Brazil as imitation, counterfeiting, or falsification of paper money, notes of banks, or other securities public or private, as well as the intentional use or the bringing into circulation of any papers imitated, counterfeited, or falsified.

5. The purloining or embezzlement of moneys or effects, public or private, by abuse of confidence.

6. Frauds, or false or fraudulent pretences, to obtain moneys or effects from another.

7. Bankruptcies subject to criminal prosecution, according to the laws applicable thereunto.

8. Malversation or fraud, committed by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director, or member or officer, of any company, made criminal by any law in force.

9. Rape, by force or threats.

10. Abduction.

11. Childstealing.

12. Housebreaking, with intent to steal, or commit other crimes.

13. Crimes resulting from the act of wilfully setting fire to a house or to buildings connected therewith to the prejudice of another.

14. Robbery with violence.

15. Piracy according to the law of nations.

16. Sinking or destroying a vessel on the high seas, or the attempt to perpetrate such acts.

17. Crimes arising from assault on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to cause death, or grievous bodily injuries.

18. Crimes arising from the revolt of two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the captain.

19. Extradition will also take place for participation in any of the above-named crimes, provided that such participation shall be punishable by the laws of both the States of the High Contracting Powers.

ARTICLE III.

No British subject shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of the United Kingdom to the Government or authorities of the Empire; and in like manner no Brazilian subject shall be delivered up by the Government or authorities of the Empire to the Government or authorities of the United Kingdom.

If, however, the person who has taken refuge in the territory of the other High Contracting Party shall have become naturalized there after the perpetration of the crime, such naturalization shall not be an obstacle to his extradition according to the stipulations of this Treaty.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed has already been tried and acquitted, or punished, or if he is under trial, for the same crime for which extradition is asked. If he should be under trial for any other crime, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the fulfilment of the punishment, when such may have been awarded.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall also not take place if, after the perpetration of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution, or the conviction thereon, the refugee shall have acquired exemption from prosecution, or punishment, by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State appealed to.

ARTICLE VI.

The person claimed shall not be delivered up for crimes of a political character, and when he shall have been delivered up on other grounds he shall not be punished for anterior political crimes. He shall not, moreover, be delivered up if he can clearly prove that the requisition is made with the object of trying him, or of punishing him, for a political crime.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered cannot be kept in prison, or brought to trial, in the State to which the surrender is made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matters, than those for which the extradition has been granted. This statement is not applicable to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

If the person whose extradition is demanded by one of the High Contracting Parties shall be also claimed by one or more other Governments, on account of crimes committed in their respective territories, the following rule shall be observed:

If he shall be a subject of the High Contracting Party who claims him, the surrender shall be made to it. If he be not so, the other High Contracting Party shall have the power of delivering him up to the reclaiming Government which in the case in question may appear to the former best entitled to the preference.

ARTICLE IX.

A requisition for extradition shall be made through the respective Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Powers.

When it relates to a person accused only, it must be accompanied by the warrant of arrest, issued by the competent authorities of the State applying for it, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify the arrest if the crime was there committed.

If the extradition refers to a person already convicted, the application must be accompanied by a copy of the sentence of condemnation passed against him given by a competent tribunal of the State making the requisition.

4. O crime de falsidade, ou imitação, contrafeição, ou falsificação de qualquer documento ou papel, comprehendendo os crimes designados na lei criminal do Brazil, de imitação, contrafeição, ou falsificação do papel moeda, notas dos bancos, ou outros títulos publicos ou particulares; assim como o uso premeditado ou introdução na circulação de quaisquer papies imitados contrafeitos ou falsificados.

5. Subtração, ou extravio, de dinheiros ou valores publicos ou particulares, com abuso da confiança.

6. Artificios, ou pretextos falsos ou fraudulentos, para aquisição de dinheiros ou valores de outrem.

7. Crimes de banca rota sujeitos ao processo criminal na forma das leis que lhes são applicaveis.

8. Malversação ou fraude commettida por depositario, banqueiro, agente, corrector, curador, director, membro, ou empregado de alguma companhia, considerada crime por lei em vigor.

9. Defloração ou violação ("rape") por violencia ou ameaças.

10. Rapto violento.

11. Subtração de criança.

12. Arrombamento de caza com o fim de roubar ou para commetter outro crime.

13. Crimes resultantes do incendio voluntario de uma caza, ou de edificios conexos com ella, em prejuizo de outrem.

14. Roubo.

15. Pirataria segundo o direito das gentes.

16. Destruição de navio no alto mar, ou facto de mettê-lo a pique, ou tentativa de taes actos.

17. Crimes resultantes de assolto a bordo de um navio no alto mar, com intenção de causar a morte, ou graves offensas physicas.

18. Crimes resultantes da revolta por duas ou mais pessoas de bordo de um navio em alto mar contra a auctoridade do capitão.

19. A extradição terá tambem logar por cumplicidade em algum dos crimes acima declarados, uma vez que tal cumplicidade seja punivel pelas leis de ambos os Estados das Altas Partes Contractantes.

ARTIGO III.

Nem um subdito Britannico será entregue pelo Governo ou auctoridades do Reino Unido ao Governo ou auctoridades do Imperio; e semelhantemente nem um subdito Brasileiro será entregue pelo Governo ou auctoridades do Imperio ao Governo ou auctoridades do Reino Unido.

Entretanto si o refugiado no territorio da outra Alta Parte Contractanteahi se tivesse naturalizado depois da perpetração do crime, tal naturalisação não servirá de obstaculo a extradição segundo as estipulações deste Tractado.

ARTIGO IV.

A extradição não terá logar si o individuo reclamado já tiver sido processado, e absolvido, ou punido, ou si estiver sendo processado, pelo mesmo crime pelo qual se pede a extradição. Si estiver sendo processado por outro qualquer crime; a sua extradição será demorada até a conclusão do processo, e cumprimento da pena, quando lhe tenha sido imposta.

ARTIGO V.

A extradição não terá tambem, logar, si depois da perpetração do crime, ou da instauração do processo criminal, ou da sentença condemnatoria, tiver o refugiado adquirido, por meio da prescripção, segundo as leis do país ao qual se fez o pedido, a isenção, da accusação ou da punição.

ARTIGO VI.

O reclamado não será entregue por crimes de caracter politico, e quando for entregue por outros fundamentos não poderá ser punido por crimes politicos anteriores. Não será tambem entregue si elle evidentemente provar que a requisicao é feita com o fim de processal-o ou punil-o por crime politico.

ARTIGO VII.

O individuo entregue não poderá ser conservado preso ou submettido a processo no Estado ao qual se fez a entrega por outro crime, ou em virtude de outras causas que não sejam aquellas pelas quaes se conceden a extradição. Esta estipulação não é applicavel aos crimes commettidos depois da extradição.

ARTIGO VIII.

Si o individuo cuja extradição uma das Altas Partes Contractantes pedir, for igualmente reclamado por outro ou outros Governos, em consequencia de crimes commettidos nos seus respectivos territorios, observar-se ha o seguinte:

Si for subdito da Alta Parte Contractante que o reclamar, a entrega será feita á ella. Si não for, a outra Alta Parte Contractante terá a facultade de entregal-o ao Governo reclamante que no caso dado lhe pareça que deve ter a preferencia.

ARTIGO IX.

A requisicao para a extradição será feita por intermedio dos respectivos Agentes Diplomaticos das Altas Partes Contractantes.

Si ella referir-se a um individuo sómente accusado, deverá ser acompanhada do mandado de prisão expedido pela auctoridade competente do Estado que a solicitar, e de provas que segundo as leis do logar onde o accusado for encontrado justificassem a captura quando o crime fosse ahi commettido.

Si a extradição referir-se a um individuo já sentenciado, o pedido deverá ser acompanhado do traslado da sentença condemnatoria expedida contra elle pelo Tribunal competente do Estado que fizer a requisicao.

The requisition cannot, however, be founded on a sentence passed in contumaciam, that is to say, when the delinquent has not been personally cited to defend himself.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition has been in conformity with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State to which it has been addressed shall proceed to the capture of the refugee. The prisoner shall be brought before a competent authority, who is to examine him and conduct the preliminary investigations of the case just as if the apprehension had taken place for crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE XI.

The extradition shall in no case take place before the expiration of fifteen days counted from the apprehension, and after that delay it shall only be carried out when the evidence has been found sufficient according to the laws of the country applied to, either for subjecting the prisoner to trial if the crime had been there committed, or to prove the identity of the person convicted and condemned by the tribunals of the State making the requisition.

ARTICLE XII.

In the examinations which are to be made in conformity with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State to which application is made, shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or declarations of witnesses, which were taken in the other State, or the respective copies thereof as well as the judicial documents, warrants, or sentences, transmitted therefrom, provided they are signed or certified by the hand of the judge, magistrate, or public officer of that State, and authenticated, either by the oath of some witness, or by the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIII.

If within two months, counting from the date of arrest, sufficient evidence for the extradition shall not have been presented, the person arrested shall be set at liberty. He shall likewise be set at liberty if, within two months of the day on which he was placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Agent, he shall not have been sent off to the reclaiming country.

ARTICLE XIV.

All the articles found in the possession of the person demanded, at the time of his apprehension, shall be seized in order to their delivery with him, when his extradition shall take place.

This delivery shall not be limited to effects or articles robbed, stolen, or obtained by other crimes, but shall extend to all that might serve as evidence of the crime; it shall be made even when the extradition could not be made after orders to that effect, on account of the flight or death of the person claimed.

ARTICLE XV.

The High Contracting Parties renounce whatever claims they may have for the reimbursement of the expenses incurred for the apprehension and maintenance of the persons to be delivered up, and for their conveyance until they shall be placed on board ship, as they agree to defray these outgoings in their respective countries.

ARTICLE XVI.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall apply to the colonies and other possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to the Governor, or to the chief authority, in the Colony or Possession, by the highest Consular Agent of Brazil.

The surrender shall be made by the Governor or the chief authority, who shall, however, have the power either to make it or to refer the matter to his Government.

Both in the requisitions and in the surrender the conditions established by the foregoing Articles of this Treaty shall be, as far as may be possible, adhered to.

As Her Britannic Majesty has the power to adopt special arrangements in the colonies and possessions, respecting the delivering up of delinquents, Her Majesty will facilitate the reclamations of Brazil in this respect, as far as may be possible, with due regard, however, to the provisions of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, and in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the countries of the High Contracting Parties. It will remain in force until one of these shall give notice for its termination, but it shall then remain in force for six months, counted from the day of this notification.

This Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged in Rio de Janeiro, within three months, or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Rio de Janeiro, on the thirteenth day of the month of November, of the year of our Lord Jesus Christ One thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

A reclamação não pode porem ser fundada em sentença proferida in contumaciam, isto é, quando o reo não for pessoalmente citado para defender-se.

ARTIGO X.

Si a requisição estiver de conformidade com as anteriores estipulações, a auctoridade competente do Estado a que ella se tiver dirigido procederá á captura do refugiado. O preso será levado á presença da auctoridade cômpetente, que terá de examinal-o, e dirigir as investigações preliminares do caso como si a captura fosse effectuada por crime committido no mesmo paiz.

ARTIGO XI.

A extradição nunca terá logar antes da expiração de 15 dias contados da captura, e depois d'esse prazo só se effectuará quando as provas forem julgadas sufficientes segundo as leis do paiz á que for pedida, ou seja para sujeitar o preso á processo si o crime fosse ahi committido, ou seja para justificar a identidade da pessoa convicta e condemnada pelos tribunaes do Estado que fez a requisição.

ARTIGO XII.

Nos exames á que se tiver de proceder de conformidade com as precedentes estipulações, as auctoridades do Estado, á que se fez o pedido, admitirão como provas os depoimentos sob juramento, ou as declarações, das testemunhas, que foram tomadas no outro Estado ou as respectivas copias, assim como os documentos judiciaes, mandados, ou sentenças, expedidos d'alli, com tanto que sejam assignados ou legalizados pela propria mão do juiz, magistrado ou empregado publico d'aquelle Estado, e authenticados ou por juramento de alguma testemunha ou com o sello official do Ministro da Justiça, ou de qualquer outro Ministro d'Estado.

ARTIGO XIII.

Si dentro de dous mezes contados da data da captura, não forem apresentadas provas sufficientes para que se realice a extradição, o preso será posto em liberdade. Tambem será posto em liberdade si, dentro de dous mezes contados do dia em que for declarado que está á disposição do Agente Diplomatico, este não o tiver remettido para o Estado reclamante.

ARTIGO XIV.

Todos os objectos encontrados em poder do individuo reclamado, ao tempo de sua prisão serão apprehendidos afim de serem entregues com o individuo quando se verifique sua extradição.

Essa entrega não se limitará ás propriedades ou artigos furtados, roubados, ou obtidos por outros crimes, mas se extenderá á tudo quanto possa servir para a prova do crime; ella terá logar ainda quando a extradição depois de ordenada não se possa verificar por fuga ou morte do individuo reclamado.

ARTIGO XV.

As Altas Partes Contractantes renuncião quaesquer reclamações que tenham por fim o reembolso das despesas feitas com a prisão e manutenção dos individuos que tem de ser entregues, e com a sua conducção até serem postos á bordo, por isso que concordão fazer essas despesas em seus paizes reciprocamente.

ARTIGO XVI.

As estipulações do presente Tractado serão applicaveis ás colonias e outras possessões de Sua Magestade Britannica.

A requisição para a entrega será feita ao Governador, ou á auctoridade principal, da colonia ou possessão, pelo respectivo Agente Consular mais graduado do Imperio do Brazil.

A entrega será feita pelo Governador ou auctoridade principal, a qual todavia terá facultade de realisa-la, ou de submeter o assumpto ao seu Governo.

Tanto na requisição como na entrega, observar-se ha, quanto possivel, as regras estabelecidas nos precedentes Artigos deste Tractado.

Como Sua Magestade Britannica tem a facultade de adoptar disposições especiaes quanto ás colonias e possessões, em relação á entrega de delinquentes, Sua Magestade facilitará as reclamações do Brazil á semelhante respeito, quanto possivel, cingindo-se todavia as bases deste Tractado.

ARTIGO XVII.

O presente Tractado começará á vigorar dez dias depois de sua publicação, e de conformidade com as formulas prescriptas pelas leis dos Estados das Altas Partes Contractantes. Elle perdurará até que qualquer d'ellas denuncie a sua cessação, mas ainda então terá vigor por seis mezes contados do dia de tal notificação.

Este Tractado será ratificado, e as ratificações trocadas no Rio de Janeiro dentro de trez mezes, ou antes si for possivel.

Em testemunho do que os respectivos Plenipotenciarios assignarão o presente Tractado, e lhe pozerão o sello de suas armas.

Feito no Rio de Janeiro aos treze dias do mez de Novembro do anno de nosso Senhor Jesus Christo de mil oitocentos e setenta e dois.

The undersigned, Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil, charged with making a Treaty for the extradition of criminals, upon which they have at this present agreed, having met in conference, took into their consideration the following subjects:—

Reunidos em conferencia os Plenipotenciarios de Sua Magestade a Rainha do Reino Unido da Grã Bretanha e Irlanda, e de Sua Magestade o Imperador do Brazil, abaixo assignados, encarregados, de ajustar um Tractado de extra-

They directed their attention to the fact that the criminal law of England punishes the crime of infanticide with the same penalty as that of murder, when accompanied by corresponding circumstances, and that it results therefrom that extradition should take place even for attempting to commit that crime.

On the other hand, they observed, that according to the Brazilian law, infanticide is not punished as murder, nor even as manslaughter, but as a crime distinct from both, and by a minor punishment, and that consequently extradition should not take place for the attempt.

They consequently resolved to declare that extradition shall solely take place for the crime of infanticide, and not for an attempt to commit that crime.

With this declaration they agreed to close this conference, from which the present Protocol emanates, which being found in conformity, was signed, each having a copy thereof.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Rio de Janeiro on the twenty-eighth day of August last:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of December, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Brazil.

POLLING-PLACES APPOINTED FOR ELECTORAL DISTRICTS.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the sixteenth day of February 1874.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Governor.
Mr. Francis	Mr. Kerferd
Mr. Langton	Mr. Cohen
Mr. Casey	Mr. Mackay
Mr. Stephen	Mr. Ramsay.
Mr. Gillies

IN pursuance of the provisions contained in the 73rd section of The Electoral Act 1865, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, doth by this present Order appoint the undermentioned places to be Polling-places for the districts within which they are respectively situate, that is to say:—

EAST CHARLTON

to be a Polling-place for the Korong Division of the Electoral District of Avoca.

DRIK-DRIK

to be a Polling-place for the Heywood Division of the Electoral District of Normanby.

BARRY'S REEF

to be a Polling-place for the Blackwood Division of the Electoral District of West Bourke.

MITIAMO

to be a Polling-place for the Mount Hope Division of the Electoral District of Mandurang, in lieu of Mitiamo as incorrectly named in a previous Order in Council of 9th February 1874.

And the Honorable James Goodall Francis, Her Majesty's Chief Secretary for Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

HENRY D. PITT,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

DISTRICT WHERE CERTIFICATES MAY BE GRANTED FOR PUBLICANS' LICENSES CHARGEABLE WITH FEE OF £10.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE FERGUSON BOWEN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Wines, Beer, and Spirits Sale Statute 1864 amendment Act it is amongst other things enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, upon the application in writing of the council of any shire or road district, to proclaim any part of such shire or road district, to be defined by such council, and not being in or within one mile of any city or town, a part within which the licensing magistrates for such district may grant certificates for publicans' licenses as aforesaid, for which shall be charged the annual license fee of Ten pounds, and on the like application of the council of any borough not being within fifty miles of the city of Melbourne, the Governor in Council may, if he shall think fit, proclaim any portion of such borough as a part within which the licensing magistrates for the district may grant certificates for such publicans' licenses, and for which license shall be charged a like fee of Ten pounds, and the said Governor in Council may from time to time revoke any such proclamation, such revocation to take effect from the time of the expiration of the last issued license under such proclamation: Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby proclaim the district hereinafter mentioned as a district within which Licensing Magistrates may grant Certificates for Publicans' Licenses for which shall be charged the annual License Fee of Ten pounds, that is to say:—

Ponderou-se que a lei criminal Inglesa pune o crime de infanticidio com a mesma pena do crime de murder, quando acompanhado das circunstancias deste, e que dahi resulta ter lugar a extradição mesmo por tentativa.

Por outra lado ponderou-se que segundo a lei Brasileira, o infanticidio não é punido como o homicidio sujeito á pena de morte, nem mesmo como homicidio, sim como crime distincto d'elles, e com pena menor, e que consequentemente não deve ter lugar a extradição por tentativa.

Resolverão pois declarar que a extradição só poderá verificar-se pelo crime de infanticidio, e não pela tentativa d'elle.

Com esta declaração entenderão terminar esta conferencia, da qual se lavrou o presente Protocollo, que depois de achar-se conforme foi assignado, ficando cada um com o seu exemplar. Feito na Corte do Rio de Janeiro aos treze dias de Novembro de 1872.

time of the expiration of the last issued license under such proclamation: Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby proclaim the district hereinafter mentioned as a district within which Licensing Magistrates may grant Certificates for Publicans' Licenses for which shall be charged the annual License Fee of Ten pounds, that is to say:—

The whole of the Shire of Benalla, save and excepting the township of Benalla, and the area comprised within a radius of one mile from the boundaries of that township.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this sixteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and in the thirty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.) G. F. BOWEN.

By His Excellency's Command,
GEO. B. KERFERD,
Solicitor-General.

2. Construction of Act.—This Act shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, and the said Acts and this Act may be cited collectively as the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873.

REGISTRY (PART II. OF MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1854).

3. Particulars to be marked on British ships.—Every British ship registered after the passing of this Act shall before registry, and every British ship registered before the passing of this Act shall, on or before the first day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, be permanently and conspicuously marked to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, as follows:—

Her name shall be marked on each of her bows, and her name and the name of her port of registry shall be marked on her stern, on a dark ground in white or yellow letters, or on a light ground in black letters, such letters to be of a length not less than four inches, and of proportionate breadth:—

Her official number and the number denoting her registered tonnage shall be cut in on her main beam:—

A scale of feet denoting her draught of water shall be marked on each side of her stem and of her stern post in Roman capital letters or in figures, not less than six inches in length, the lower line of such letters or figures to coincide with the draught line denoted thereby. Such letters or figures shall be marked by being cut in and painted white or yellow on a dark ground, or in such other way as the Board of Trade may from time to time approve.

The Board of Trade may however, exempt any class of ships from the requirements of this section or any of them.

If the scale of feet showing the ship's draught of water is in any respect inaccurate, so as to be likely to mislead, the owner of the ship shall incur a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds.

The marks required by this section shall be permanently continued, and no alteration shall be made therein, except in the event of any of the particulars thereby denoted being altered in the manner provided by the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873.

Any owner or master of a British ship who neglects to cause his ship to be marked as aforesaid, or to keep her so marked, and any person who conceals, removes, alters, defaces, or obliterates, or suffers any person under his control to conceal, remove, alter, deface, or obliterate any of the said marks, except in the event aforesaid, or except for the purpose of escaping capture by an enemy, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds, and any officer of customs on receipt of a certificate from a surveyor or inspector of the Board of Trade that a ship is insufficiently or inaccurately marked may detain the same until the insufficiency or inaccuracy has been remedied.

Provided that no fishing vessel duly registered, lettered, and numbered in pursuance of the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868, shall be required to have her name and port of registry marked under this section.

Provided also, that if any registered British ship is not within a port of the United Kingdom at any time before the first day of January One thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, she shall be marked as by this section required within one month after her next return to a British port of registry subsequent to that date.

4. Particulars to be entered in record of draught of water.—The record of the draught of water of any sea-going ship required under section five of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, shall, in addition to the particulars thereby required, specify the extent of her clear side in feet and inches.

The term "clear side" means the height from the water to the upper side of the plank of the deck from which the depth of hold as stated in the register is measured, and the measurement of the clear side is to be taken at the lowest part of the side.

Every master of a sea-going ship shall, upon the request of any person appointed to record the ship's draught of water, permit such person to enter the ship and to make such inspections and take such measurements as may be requisite for the purpose of such record, and any master who fails so to do, or impedes or suffers any one under his control to impede any person so appointed in the execution of his duty, shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

5. Rules as to names of foreign ships placed on British register.—Where a foreign ship, not having at any previous time been registered as a British ship, becomes a British ship, no person shall apply to register, and no registrar shall knowingly register such ship, except by the name which she bore as a foreign ship immediately before becoming a British ship, unless with the permission of the Board of Trade, granted in manner directed by section six of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871.

Any person who acts or suffers any person under his control to act in contravention of this section shall for each offence incur a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds.

6. Restrictions on re-registration of abandoned ships.—Where a ship has ceased to be registered as a British ship, by reason of having been wrecked or abandoned, or for any reason other than capture by the enemy or transfer to a person not qualified to own a British ship, such ship shall not be re-registered until she has, at the expense of the applicant for registration, been surveyed by one of the surveyors appointed by the Board of Trade and certified by him to be seaworthy.

MASTERS AND SEAMEN (PART III. OF MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1854).

7. Agreements with seamen.—Any agreement with a seaman made under section one hundred and forty-nine of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, may, instead of stating the nature and duration of the intended voyage or engagement, as by that section required, state the maximum period of the voyage or engagement, and the places or parts of the world (if any) to which the voyage or engagement is not to extend.

8. Agreements with fishermen.—The owner or master of any British vessel engaged in fishing off the coast of the United Kingdom may enter into an agreement with any person employed on such vessel that such person shall be remunerated wholly by a share in the profit of the fishing adventure.

Every such agreement shall be in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and shall be signed by the contracting parties in the presence of a superintendent or deputy superintendent of a mercantile marine office.

The superintendent or deputy superintendent shall, before such agreement is signed, read and (if necessary) explain the same to the contracting parties, and shall attest the signature of the agreement, and certify that it has been read to and agreed to by the contracting parties.

Any such agreement, if made in the manner by this section required, shall be valid and binding on all the contracting parties, notwithstanding anything contained in section one hundred and eighty-two of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

9. Compensation to seamen for unnecessary detention on charge of desertion.—If a seaman or apprentice belonging to any ship is detained on a charge of desertion or any kindred offence, and if upon a survey of the ship being made under section seven of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, it is proved that she is not in a fit condition to proceed to sea, or that her accommodation is insufficient, the owner or master of the ship shall be liable to pay to such seaman or apprentice such compensation for his detention as the court having cognizance of the proceedings may award.

10. Power for Board of Trade to establish mercantile marine offices and to hold examinations at certain ports.—In any case where the business of a mercantile marine office is conducted otherwise than under a local marine board, the Board of Trade may, if they think fit, instead of conducting such business at a custom-house or otherwise, establish a mercantile marine office, and for that purpose procure the requisite buildings and property, and from time to time appoint and remove all the requisite superintendents, deputies, clerks, and servants. They may also in the like case make all such provisions and exercise all such powers with respect to the holding of examinations for the purpose of granting certificates of competency as masters, mates, or engineers, to persons desirous of obtaining the same, as might have been made or exercised by a local marine board.

11. Power for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to apply certain provisions of Merchant Shipping Acts to foreign ships.—Whenever it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the Government of any foreign state is desirous that any of the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873, relating to the engagement and discharge of seamen, shall apply to the ships of such state, Her Majesty may by Order in Council declare that such of the said provisions as are in such order specified shall, subject to the limitations, if any, contained in the order, apply, and thereupon, so long as the order remains in force, such provisions shall apply, subject to the said limitations, to the ships of such state, and to the owners, masters, officers, and crews of such ships, when not within the jurisdiction of such state, in the same manner in all respects as if such ships were British ships.

It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to add to, alter, or repeal any order made under this section.

SAFETY AND PREVENTION OF ACCIDENTS (PART IV. OF MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1854).

12. Survey of ships suspected of being unseaworthy.—Where the Board of Trade have received a complaint or have reason to believe that any British ship is by reason of the defective condition of her hull, equipments, or machinery, or by reason of overloading or improper loading, unfit to proceed to sea without serious danger to human life, they may, if they think fit, appoint some competent person or persons to survey such ship, and the equipments, machinery, and cargo thereof, and to report thereon to the Board.

Any person so appointed may, for the purposes of such survey, require the unloading or removal of any cargo, ballast, or tackle, and shall have all the powers of an inspector appointed under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Any person who (having notice of the intention to hold such survey) wilfully does or causes to be done any act by which the person appointed to make such survey is prevented from or obstructed in ascertaining the condition of the ship, her equipments, machinery, and cargo, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds.

The Board of Trade may, if they think fit, order that any ship be detained for the purpose of being surveyed under this section, and thereupon any officer of customs may detain such ship until her release be ordered either by the Board of Trade or by any court to which an appeal is given under this Act.

Upon the receipt of the report of the person making any such survey, the Board may, if in their opinion the ship cannot proceed to sea without serious danger to human life, make such further order as they may think requisite as to the detention of the ship or as to her release, either absolutely or upon the performance of such conditions with respect to the execution of repairs or alterations, or the unloading or reloading of cargo, as the Board may impose. They may also from time to time vary or add to such order.

A copy of any such order and of the report upon which it was founded, and also of any variation of or addition to such order, shall be delivered as soon as possible to the owner or master of the ship to which it relates.

When a ship has been detained under this section she shall not be released by reason of her British register having been closed.

13. Costs of survey.—If upon the survey of a ship under this Act she is reported to have been at the time of the survey, having regard to the nature of the service for which she was then intended, unfit to proceed to sea without serious danger to human life, the expenses incurred by the Board of Trade in respect of the survey shall be paid by the owner of the ship to the Board of Trade, and shall, without prejudice to any other remedy, be recoverable by them in the same manner as salvage is recoverable.

If upon such survey the ship is not reported to have been unfit to proceed to sea, having regard to the nature of the service for which she was intended, the Board of Trade shall be liable to pay compensation to any person for any loss or damage which he may have sustained by reason of the detention of the ship for the purpose of survey, or otherwise in respect of such survey.

Where a complaint has been made to the Board of Trade that a ship is not fit to proceed to sea, they may, if they think fit, before ordering a survey of the ship, require the complainant to give or provide such security as they may think sufficient for the payment of the costs and expenses which they may incur in respect of the survey of the ship and of the compensation which they may be rendered liable to pay for loss or damage caused by her detention for the purpose of such survey, or otherwise in respect of such survey.

Where a ship has been surveyed under this Act in consequence of a complaint made to the Board of Trade, if upon such survey being made it appear that such complaint was made without reasonable cause, the expenses incurred by the Board in respect of the survey of the ship and the amount, if any, which the Board may have been rendered liable to pay in respect of any loss or damage caused by her detention shall be recoverable by the Board from such complainant.

All moneys payable by the Board of Trade in respect of or by reason of the survey or detention of a ship under this Act shall, subject to the right by this section provided of recovering such moneys from the complainant, be paid out of moneys to be provided by Parliament.

14. Appeal from decision of Board of Trade.—If the owner of any ship surveyed under this Act is dissatisfied with any order of the Board of Trade made upon such survey, he may apply to any of the following courts having jurisdiction in the place where such ship was surveyed, that is to say:—

In England, to any court having Admiralty jurisdiction:

In Ireland, to any court having jurisdiction under the Court of Admiralty (Ireland) Act, 1867:

In Scotland, to the court of the sheriff of the county.

The court may, upon such application, if they think fit, appoint one or more competent persons to survey the ship anew; and any surveyor so appointed shall have all the powers of the person by whom the original survey was made. Such survey anew shall, if so required by the Board of Trade or the shipowner, be made in the presence of any person or persons appointed by them respectively to attend at the survey.

The court to which such application is made may make such order as to the detention or release of the ship, as to the payment of any costs and damages which may have been occasioned by her detention, as to the payment of the expenses of the original survey, and of the survey anew, and otherwise as to the payment of any costs of and incident to the application, as to the court may seem just.

Where an application is made under this section to a county court, or in Ireland to a local court, the matter of the application shall be deemed to be an Admiralty cause within the meaning of the County Courts Admiralty Jurisdiction Act, 1868, and the Court of Admiralty (Ireland) Act, 1867.

15. Power for Board of Trade to vary requirements as to boats.—In the case of any ship surveyed under the fourth part of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, the Board of Trade may, at the request of the owner, authorise the reduction of the number and the variation of the dimensions of the boats required for the ship by section two hundred and ninety-two of that Act, and also the substitution of rafts or other appliances for saving life for any such boats, so nevertheless that the boats so reduced or varied and the rafts or other appliances so substituted be sufficient for the persons carried on board the ship.

Section two hundred and ninety-three of the said Act shall extend to any such rafts or appliances in the same manner as if they were boats.

16. Duties of Masters in case of collision.—In every case of collision between two vessels it shall be the duty of the master or person in charge of each vessel, if and so far as he can do so without danger to his own vessel, crew, and passengers (if any), to stay by the other vessel until he has ascertained that she has no need of further assistance, and to render to the other vessel, her master, crew, and passengers (if any), such assistance as may be practicable and as may be necessary in order to save them from any danger caused by the collision; and also to give to the master or person in charge of the other vessel the name of his own vessel, and of her port of registry, or of the port or place to which she belongs, and also the names of the ports and places from which and to which she is bound.

If he fails so to do, and no reasonable cause for such failure is shown, the collision shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to have been caused by his wrongful act, neglect, or default.

Every master or person in charge of a British vessel who fails, without reasonable cause, to render such assistance or give such information as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, if he is a certificated officer, an inquiry into his conduct may be held, and his certificate may be cancelled or suspended.

17. Liability for infringement of regulations in cases of collision.—If in any case of collision it is proved to the court before which the case is tried that any of the regulations for preventing collision contained in or made under the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873, has been infringed, the ship by which such regulation has been infringed shall be deemed to be in fault, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the circumstances of the case made departure from the regulation necessary.

18. Signals of distress.—The signals specified in the first schedule to this Act shall be deemed to be signals of distress.

Any master of a vessel who uses or displays, or causes or permits any person under his authority to use or display, any of the said signals, except in the case of a vessel being in distress, shall be liable to pay compensation for any labor undertaken, risk incurred, or loss sustained in consequence of such signal having been supposed to be a signal of distress, and such compensation may, without prejudice to any other remedy, be recovered in the same manner in which salvage is recoverable.

19. Signals for pilots.—If a vessel requires the services of a pilot, the signals to be used and displayed shall be those specified in the second schedule to this Act.

Any master of a vessel who uses or displays, or causes or permits any person under his authority to use or display, any of the said signals for any other purpose than that of summoning a pilot, or uses or causes or permits any person under his authority to use any other signal for a pilot, shall incur a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds.

20. Power to alter rules as to signals.—Her Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, repeal or alter the rules as to signals contained in the schedules to this Act, or make new rules in addition thereto, or in substitution therefor, and any alterations in or additions to such rules made in manner aforesaid shall be of the same force as the rules in the said schedules.

21. Private signals.—Any shipowner who is desirous of using, for the purposes of a private code, any rockets, lights, or other similar signals, may register such signals with the Board of Trade, and the Board shall give public notice of the signals so registered in such manner as they may think requisite for preventing such signals from being mistaken for signals of distress or signals for pilots.

The Board may refuse to register any signals which in their opinion cannot easily be distinguished from signals of distress or signals for pilots.

When any signal has been so registered, the use or display thereof by any person acting under the authority of the shipowner in whose name it is registered shall not subject any person to any of the penalties or liabilities by this Act imposed upon persons using or displaying signals improperly.

22. Notice to be given of apprehended loss of ship.—If the managing owner, or, in the event of there being no managing owner, the ship's husband of any British ship have reason, owing to the non-appearance of such ship, or to any other circumstance, to apprehend that such ship has been wholly lost, he shall, as soon as conveniently may be, send to the Board of Trade notice in writing of such loss and of the probable occasion thereof, stating the name of the ship and her official number (if any), and the port to which she belongs, and if he neglect to do so within a reasonable time he shall incur a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds.

23. Restrictions on carriage of dangerous goods.—If any person sends or attempts to send by, or not being the master or owner of the vessel carries or attempts to carry in any vessel, British or foreign, any dangerous goods (that is to say), aquafortis, vitriol, naphtha, benzine, gunpowder, lucifer matches, nitro-glycerine, petroleum, or other goods of a dangerous nature, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, and giving written notice of the nature of such goods and of the name and address of the sender or carrier thereof to the master or owner of the vessel at or before the time of sending the same to be shipped, or taking the same on board the vessel, he shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds:

Provided that if such person show that he was merely an agent in the shipment of any such goods as aforesaid, and was not aware and did not suspect and had no reason to suspect that the goods shipped by him were of a dangerous nature, the penalty which he incurs shall not exceed Ten pounds.

24. Penalty for misdescription of dangerous goods.—If any person knowingly sends or attempts to send by, or carries or attempts to carry in any vessel, British or foreign, any dangerous goods or goods of a dangerous nature, under a false description, or falsely describes the sender or carrier thereof, he shall incur a penalty not exceeding Five hundred pounds.

25. Power to refuse to carry goods suspected of being dangerous.—The master or owner of any vessel, British or foreign, may refuse to take on board any package or parcel which he suspects to contain goods of a dangerous nature, and may require it to be opened to ascertain the fact.

26. Power to throw overboard dangerous goods.—Where any dangerous goods as defined in this Act, or any goods which, in the judgment of the master or owner of the vessel, are of a dangerous nature, have been sent or brought aboard any vessel, British or foreign, without being marked as aforesaid, or without such notice having been given as aforesaid, the master or owner of the vessel may cause such goods to be thrown overboard, together with any package or receptacle in which they are contained; and neither the master nor the owner of the vessel shall, in respect of such throwing overboard, be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, in any court.

27. Forfeiture of dangerous goods improperly sent.—Where any dangerous goods have been sent or carried, or attempted to be sent or carried, on board any vessel, British or foreign, without being marked as aforesaid, and where any such goods have been sent or carried, or attempted to be sent or carried, under a false description, or the sender or carrier thereof has been falsely described, it shall be lawful for any court having Admiralty jurisdiction to declare such goods, and any package or receptacle in which they are contained, to be and they shall thereupon be forfeited, and when forfeited shall be disposed of as the court directs.

The court shall have and may exercise the aforesaid powers of forfeiture and disposal notwithstanding that the owner of the goods have not committed any offence under the provisions of this Act relating to dangerous goods, and be not before the court, and have not notice of the proceedings, and notwithstanding that there be no evidence to show to whom the goods belong; nevertheless the court may, in its discretion, require such notice as it may direct to be given to the owner or shipper of the goods before the same are forfeited.

28. Saving as to Dangerous Goods Acts.—The provisions of this Act relating to the carriage of dangerous goods shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in substitution for or in restraint of any other enactment for the like object, so nevertheless that nothing in the said provisions shall be deemed to authorise that any person be sued or prosecuted twice in the same matter.

MISCELLANEOUS AND REPEAL.

29. Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare certain foreign ports ports of registry.—Where, in accordance with the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, Her Majesty exercises jurisdiction within any port out of Her Majesty's dominions, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to declare such port a port of registry (in this Act referred to as a foreign port of registry), and by the same or any subsequent Order in Council to declare the description of persons who are to be the registrars of British ships at such foreign port of registry, and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat.

Upon such Order coming into operation it shall have effect as if it were enacted in the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873, and shall, subject to any exceptions and regulations contained in the Order, apply in the same manner, as near as may be, as if the port mentioned in the Order were an ordinary port of registry.

30. Fees in respect of surveys, &c.—There shall be paid in respect of the several measurements, inspections, and surveys mentioned in the third schedule hereto such fees, not exceeding those specified in that behalf in the said schedule, as the Board of Trade may from time to time determine.

31. Board of Trade may sue in name of its officers.—In any legal proceedings under the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1873, the Board of Trade may take proceedings in the name of any of their officers.

32. Certain sections not to come into force until 1st November 1873.—The following sections of this Act, that is to say, sections sixteen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, shall not come into operation until the first day of November One thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

33. Repeal of certain sections of the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1862 and 1871, and of certain other sections of Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854, 1862, and 1871.—Section twenty-nine of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, and sections four and ten of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, are hereby repealed; and on and after the first day of November One thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, sections three hundred and twenty-seven and three hundred and twenty-nine of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, sections thirty-three and thirty-eight of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, and section nine of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, shall be repealed; but this repeal shall not affect—

- (1) Anything duly done before this Act comes into operation;
- (2) Any right acquired or liability accrued before this Act comes into operation;
- (3) Any penalty, forfeiture, or other punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence committed before this Act comes into operation; or,
- (4) The institution of any legal proceeding or any other remedy for ascertaining, enforcing, or recovering any such liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid.

SCHEDULES.

SCHEDULE I.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS.

In the daytime.—The following signals, numbered 1, 2, and 3, when used or displayed together or separately, shall be deemed to be signals of distress in the daytime:—

1. A gun fired at intervals of about a minute;
2. The international code signal of distress indicated by N C;
3. The distant signal, consisting of a square flag having either above or below it a ball, or anything resembling a ball.

At night.—The following signals, numbered 1, 2, and 3, when used or displayed together or separately, shall be deemed to be signals of distress at night:—

1. A gun fired at intervals of about a minute;
2. Flames on the ship (as from a burning tar barrel, oil barrel, &c.);
3. Rockets or shells, of any colour or description, fired one at a time, at short intervals.

SCHEDULE II.

SIGNALS TO BE MADE BY SHIPS WANTING A PILOT.

In the daytime.—The following signals, numbered 1 and 2, when used or displayed together or separately, shall be deemed to be signals for a pilot in the daytime, viz.:—

1. To be hoisted at the fore, the Jack or other national colour usually worn by merchant ships, having round it a white border, one fifth of the breadth of the flag; or
2. The International Code pilotage signal indicated by P T.

At night.—The following signals, numbered 1 and 2, when used or displayed together or separately, shall be deemed to be signals for a pilot at night, viz.:—

1. The pyrotechnic light commonly known as a blue light every fifteen minutes; or
2. A bright white light, flashed or shown at short or frequent intervals just above the bulwarks, for about a minute at a time.

SCHEDULE III.

TABLE OF MAXIMUM FEES TO BE PAID FOR THE MEASUREMENT, SURVEY, AND INSPECTION OF MERCHANT SHIPS.

1. For measurement of tonnage.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.—VICTORIA.

THE subjoined information relating to the navigation of the West Channel, and a notice to mariners consequent thereon, are published for general information.

EDWARD COHEN,
Commissioner of Trade and Customs.

Department of Trade and Customs,
Melbourne, 19th February 1874.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.—NAVIGATION OF THE WEST CHANNEL.

EXTRACTS from Captain Stanley's Report, relative to the re-survey of the southern portion of the West Channel, are published for general information.

1. Royal George Bank.—This bank has shoaled one foot, and moved four hundred (400) feet outwards towards the Heads.

2. Swan Island is gradually washing away, but the sand from this place is going (apparently) towards filling up the Queenscliffe bight, and not in any great degree towards the formation of banks in the West Channel.

3. Swan Spit.—A shoal is forming south of the Swan Spit Pile Light; at present the depth at a distance of three hundred (300) feet from the light is twelve feet. There is another shoal forming to the northward of the light, at a distance of one and three-quarter (1 $\frac{3}{4}$) cables; upon this there is as little as six feet.*

4. The most dangerous shoal is that known to exist (and marked with a black buoy) laying N.E. by E. three and one-half (3 $\frac{1}{2}$) cables from Pile Light, with thirteen (13) feet of water on it. There is a good channel to the northward of the shoal with not less than eighteen (18) feet, and a probability of not getting less than twenty (20) feet of water. The black buoy marking the shoal is in sixteen (16) feet of water; the shallowest depth—thirteen (13) feet—lies nearly three hundred (300) feet to the north-westward.

Queenscliffe Bight.—Great changes have taken place since 1864. Six (6) banks with three and four feet of water have been found, and four of the six are each nearly a cable in extent. The outer two of these banks are in a line between Queenscliffe High Light, and Swan Spit Pile Light, the south-west one being nine (9) cables from the Queenscliffe High Light, and the other nine (9) cables from the Pile Light, the two being distant from each other four (4) cables.

Notice is hereby given that in consequence of the above changes—

1. A chequered buoy will be immediately placed on the dangerous shoal to the N.E. of the Swan Spit Pile Light, in lieu of the present black buoy, to allow vessels to pass on either side of it. The channel recently formed between it and the Swan Spit Pile Light is one and one-half (1 $\frac{1}{2}$) cables wide.

2. A small black cask buoy will also be placed on the shoal to the southward of the Swan Spit Pile Light until it is removed.

The old sailing directions cautioning vessels not to approach within sixty (60) fathoms of Lighthouse will still keep ships clear of this recently formed shoal to the southward of the Pile Lighthouse.

3. The recently formed banks in the Queenscliffe bight being out of the navigable channel, the old clearing marks, viz.:—Lonsdale Lighthouse open of Shortlands Bluff will clear the edge of the bank referred to.

4. Plans of the recent changes will be posted at the Custom House, and all the harbor offices for general information, and can also be obtained at this office.

* This shoal bears nearly due north (magnetic), and is one and one-fourth (1 $\frac{1}{4}$) cables distant from Pile Lighthouse, and is out of the channel.—C. B. PAYNE, C.H.M.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.—QUEENSLAND.

THE accompanying Notice to Mariners, which has been received from the Harbor Authorities at Brisbane, is published for general information.

Deputy Postmaster-General,
Post and Telegraph Department,
Melbourne, 28th January 1874.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1874-5.

FIRST CALL.

FIFTY-EIGHT SERVICES.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received until Noon of Tuesday the twenty-fourth day of March 1874, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails as undermentioned, from the 1st July 1874 to 30th June 1875.

The covers of Tenders for these services must be endorsed "Tenders for First Call."

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, prepaid) addressed to the Honorable the Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for. The amount of the tender must be stated in words as well as figures.

Every tender must bear the bonâ fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to TEN PER CENT. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by successful tenderers will be returned to them on application, on the bond and contract being completed.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

In the event of a portion of railway affecting any particular service being opened for traffic during period of contract, and it being decided that the mails shall be conveyed by rail, the place of departure for the mail coaches shall be altered in such way as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct; a rateable reduction shall be made in the amount paid for the service as then rendered by the contractors, such reduction to be computed on the basis of the average mileage rate of the lump tender or the average mileage rate of the single tender, in whichever form the tender may be accepted.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service; but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover and on the tender itself.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used, Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and the districts in which they reside and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

The covers of Tenders for these services must be endorsed, "Tenders for Second Call."

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, prepaid) addressed to the Honorable the Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for. The amount of the tender must be stated in words as well as figures.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfillment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to Tex ren Cash, of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by successful tenderers will be returned to them on application, on the bond and contract being completed.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

In the event of a portion of railway affecting any particular service being opened for traffic during period of contract, and it being decided that the mails shall be conveyed by rail, the place of departure for the mail coaches shall be altered in such way as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct; a rateable reduction shall be made in the amount paid for the service as then rendered by the contractors, such reduction to be computed on the basis of the average mileage rate of the lump tender or the average mileage rate of the single tender, in whichever form the tender may be accepted.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service; but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover and on the tender itself.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used, Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and the districts in which they reside and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

EDWARD LANGTON,

Minister administering the Post Office and Telegraph Department.

General Post Office,
Melbourne, 12th February 1874.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS 1874-75.

THIRD CALL. FIFTY SERVICES.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received until Noon of Tuesday the seventh day of April 1874, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails as undermentioned, from the 1st July 1874 to 30th June 1875.

The covers of Tenders for these services must be endorsed "Tenders for Third Call."

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, prepaid) addressed to the Honorable the Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for. The amount of the tender must be stated in words as well as figures.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank-deposit receipt for a sum equal to TEN PER CENT. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by successful tenderers will be returned to them upon application, on the bond and contract being completed.

In the event of a portion of railway affecting any particular service being opened for traffic during period of contract, and it being decided that the mails shall be conveyed by rail, the place of departure for the mail coaches shall be altered in such way as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct; a rateable reduction shall be made in the amount paid for the service as then rendered by the contractors, such reduction to be computed on the basis of the average mileage rate of the lump tender or the average mileage rate of the single tender, in whichever form the tender may be accepted.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service; but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover and on the tender itself.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and the districts in which they reside and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

Tenders are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for. The amount of the tender must be stated in words as well as figures.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to TEN PER CENT. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by successful tenderers will be returned to them on application, on the bond and contract being completed.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

In the event of a portion of railway affecting any particular service being opened for traffic during period of contract, and it being decided that the mails shall be conveyed by rail, the place of departure for the mail coaches shall be altered in such way as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct; a rateable reduction shall be made in the amount paid for the service as then rendered by the contractors, such reduction to be computed on the basis of the average mileage rate of the lump tender or the average mileage rate of the single tender, in whichever form the tender may be accepted.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service; but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover and on the tender itself.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used, Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and the districts in which they reside and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

TENDERS FOR GRAZING LICENSES.

TENDERS will be received by the Board of Land and Works, at Melbourne, up to Noon of Friday the 27th day of February instant, under the 47th section of The Land Act 1869, for the occupation for grazing purposes only of the following unappropriated portion of land, subject to the following conditions, and to the provisions of the 103 and 104 sections of Land Act 1869 :—

1. The period of occupation will be one year from the date of the acceptance of the tender.
2. The license fee must be paid every year in advance; the first fee must accompany the tender or be paid by the successful tenderer or his agent immediately on the declaration of the acceptance of the tender, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who may be prepared to comply with this condition will be accepted.
3. The license will be subject to the granting of licenses under the 19th section of Land Act 1869, without any reduction of the license fee or allowance for compensation during the current year of occupancy.
4. If the land be not required for sale or for other appropriation, the license will be renewable at the option of the said Board, on the same terms and conditions, provided application be made by licensee two months prior to the expiry of the current license, and payment of license fee for the ensuing year be made on the approval of the Board being signified.
5. If any error whatsoever be made to appear in the description or area of the portion of land to be licensed hereunder, the same shall be rectified, and a compensation or equivalent in satisfaction thereof shall be determined by the Board of Land and Works, and accepted by the licensee in full of claim for loss or damage sustained thereby; or in the event of the licensee being dissatisfied with the amount so determined, the Board may cancel such license, and return to the licensee the proportionate part of the license fee for the unexpired term of such license.
6. Any improvements made upon the land will be so made at the risk of the licensee, as no compensation will be made for such improvements, neither will any time after the expiration of this license be allowed to remove any improvement so made.
7. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
8. Tenders to be endorsed "Tender for Lot 1, 2, 3," or as the case may be.

Plans and information may be obtained in this office.

TENDERS FOR GRAZING LICENSES.

Under 47th section "Land Act 1869."

TENDERS will be received by the Board of Land and Works, at Melbourne, up to Noon of Wednesday the 10th day of March next, under the 47 section of The Land Act 1869, for the occupation for grazing purposes only of the following unappropriated portions of Land, subject to the following conditions, and to the provisions of the 103 and 104 sections of Land Act 1869.

1. The period of occupation will be from date of acceptance of tender to 31st December 1874.
2. The license fee must be paid every year in advance; the first fee must accompany the tender or be paid by the successful tenderer or his agent immediately on the declaration of the acceptance of the tender, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who may be prepared to comply with this condition may be accepted.
3. If the land be not required for sale or for other appropriation, the license will be renewable at the option of the said Board, on the same terms and conditions, provided application be made by licensee two months prior to the expiry of the current license, and payment of license fee for the ensuing year be made, on the approval of the Board being signified.
5. No claim whatever shall be made by any licensee, or allowed by the Board, on the ground that any portion of the land so licensed has not been given to or taken from the licensee; but the Board may, if it think fit, allow a rateable reduction of the rent to be refunded to the licensee.
6. This license shall not be deemed to prevent the said land, or any part thereof, from being sold, leased, or licensed, under Parts I, II, or III, of The Land Act 1869, or proclaimed a common, or occupied by virtue of any miner's right or business license, or any license for other than pastoral purposes, or from being alienated or dealt with under the authority of this or any other Act now or hereafter to be in force.
7. If the licensee or any person claiming an interest through or under the licensee in the land for which this license has been issued, employ any person to apply for a license of an allotment under The Land Act 1869, contrary to the true intent of the provisions thereof, or shall make or cause to be made any agreement or contract, or shall give or take or cause to be given or taken any negotiable security for the purpose of defeating or evading the provisions of, or shall in any way whatsoever directly or indirectly commit or be privy to a fraud upon, the said Act, the license shall be liable to be forfeited and revoked.
8. No land comprised in roads from time to time surveyed and marked out within the boundaries of the said land, and no lands temporarily or permanently reserved, and no land within the meaning of the latter part of the 63rd section of The Land Act 1869, shall be deemed to be unappropriated Crown lands, or within the operation of this license.
9. Any improvements made upon the land will be so made at the risk of the licensee, as no compensation will be made for such improvements.
10. Tenders to be for so much per lot per annum.
11. Tenders to be endorsed "Tender for Lot 1, or 2, or 3," &c., as the case may be.
12. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
