DECLARATION BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND SERBIAN GOVERNMENTS RELATIVE TO THE TREATY OF COMMERCE.

THE Governor has directed the subjoined Declaration, received from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State, to be published for general information.

Chief Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 7th February 1882.

(By His Excellency's command)

J. M. GRANT,
Chief Secretary.

DECLARATION BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND SERBIAN GOVERNMENTS RELATIVE TO THE STIPULATIONS OF THE TREATY OF COMMERCE BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND SERBIA, SIGNED ON THE 7TH FEBRUARY 1880.

Signed at London 4th July 1881.

THE Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Government of His Highness the Prince of Serbia, being desirous to avoid all misunderstanding with regard to the stipulations of the treaty of friendship and commerce concluded between Her Majesty and the Prince of Serbia on the 7th of February 1880, have, with this object, resolved to make a Declaration to the following effect:—

It is agreed that the stipulations of the aforesaid treaty of the 7th February 1880, shall not apply to the hereinafter-named colonies or foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, that is to say:

The Dominion of Canada;
The British South African colonies.

It is further agreed that the duty to be levied on the importation into Serbia of certain classes of British goods which, as stated in Article III. of the aforesaid treaty, is not to exceed 8 per cent. ad valorem, shall, in the case of woollen and cotton yarns, not exceed 5 per cent. ad valorem.

Inasmuch as by Article XIV. of a treaty of commerce concluded on the 6th May 1881, between His Highness the Prince of Serbia and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, certain provisions are made for the mutual protection of trade marks, trade labels, and designs, which provisions are further explained in the final protocol attached to the said treaty of the 6th May 1881.

It is further agreed that a period of six months shall be assigned, (from the date upon which the new Serbian law relating to trade marks, trade labels and designs (alluded to in the aforesaid Article XIV, and Explanatory Protocol of the said Treaty of the 6th May 1881) may come into force, within which period British owners of trade marks, trade labels and designs, may take steps to establish, in conformity with Serbian law, their claim to trade marks, trade labels and designs which may have been previously registered in Serbia as the property of foreigners; and full protection shall be accorded in Serbia to British subjects in respect of any such trade marks, trade labels or designs, to which they shall make good their claim.

Subject to the foregoing stipulations, Her Britannic Majesty's Government offer no objection, so far as British interests are concerned, to the provisions of the Treaty concluded on the 6th day of May 1881 between His Highness the Prince of Serbia and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria.

The present Declaration shall be submitted to the Serbian Skoupchtina at their next Session, and after receiving the approval of the Legislative Body, it shall have the same force and validity as if it formed an integral part of the Treaty of Friendship and Commerce between Her Majesty and His Highness the Prince of Serbia, signed on the 7th day of February 1880.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorized for this purpose, have signed the present Declaration, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at London, in duplicate, the 4th day of July 1881.

(Signed) GRANVILLE.
MARINOVICH.

Le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume Uni de la Grande Bretagne et d'Irlande, et le Gouvernement de Son Altesse le Prince de Serbie, animés du désir d'éviter tout malentendu par rapport aux stipulations du traité d'amitié et de commerce conclu entre Sa Majesté et le Prince de Serbie le 7 Février 1880, se sont à cet effet entendus et ont décidé de faire la Déclaration suivante:—

Il est entendu que les stipulations du traité susmentionné du 7 Février 1880, ne seront pas appliquées aux colonies ou possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique ci-après nommées, c'est-à-dire:

Au Domaine du Canada; et
Aux colonies Britanniques de l'Afrique du sud.

Il est également entendu que les droits de douane à percevoir à leur importation en Serbie sur certaines classes de marchandises Britanniques, qui, comme il est statué dans l'Article III. du dit traité, ne peuvent pas dépasser 8 pour cent. de leur valeur, ne pourront pas, sur les fils de laine et de coton, dépasser 5 pour cent. de leur valeur.

Comme il a été pourvu, par les stipulations de l'Article XIV. du traité de commerce conclu le 6 Mai 1881, entre Son Altesse le Prince de Serbie et Sa Majesté l'Empereur d'Autriche, à certaines mesures pour la protection des marques de commerce, et des étiquettes et dessins de commerce, lesquelles stipulations se trouvent ultérieurement expliquées dans le protocole final annexé au dit traité du 6 Mai 1881.

Il a été, en outre, entendu, qu'à partir de l'époque de la mise en vigueur d'une loi Serbe sur les marques de commerce et sur les étiquettes et les dessins de commerce (loi à laquelle il est fait allusion dans le dit Article XIV et le Protocole explicatif du dit Traité du 6 Mai 1881) un délai de six mois sera fixé, dans le courant duquel les propriétaires Britanniques des marques de commerce, et des étiquettes et dessins de commerce, pourront prendre des mesures pour faire valoir, conformément à la loi Serbe, leurs droits sur les marques de commerce, et les étiquettes et dessins de commerce qui auraient pu antérieurement être enregistrés en Serbie comme propriété des étrangers; et toute la protection sera accordée en Serbie aux sujets Britanniques par rapport aux marques de commerce, et aux étiquettes et dessins de commerce, sur lesquelles ils auraient démontré leur bon droit.

En égard aux stipulations qui précèdent, le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique n'élève aucune objection, autant que cela concerne les intérêts Britanniques, relativement aux arrangements du traité conclu le 6 Mai 1881, entre Son Altesse le Prince de Serbie et Sa Majesté l'Empereur d'Autriche.

La présente Déclaration sera soumise à la Skoupchtina Serbe dans sa prochaine Session, et dès qu'elle aura reçu l'approbation Législative, elle aura la même force et valeur comme si elle faisait partie intégrante du Traité d'Amitié et de Commerce, signé entre Sa Majesté et Son Altesse le Prince de Serbie, le 7<sup>e</sup> jour du mois de Février 1880.

En foi de quoi les Soussignés, dûment autorisés à cet effet, ont signé la présente Déclaration et y ont apposé les sceaux de leurs armes.

Fait à Londres, en double, le 4<sup>e</sup> jour du mois de Juillet 1881.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

NAVIGATION OF THE WEST CHANNEL—KNOLL NEAR THE SWAN SPIT LIGHTSHIP.

PILOTS, masters of vessels, and others are informed that a Shoal has again formed in the vicinity of the Lightship at the Swan Spit. It bears N.E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  N. (magnetic) from the Lightship, from which it is distant  $1\frac{1}{2}$  cables' length. This knoll is a cable's length to the westward of that reported in a Notice to Mariners dated 18th February 1874.

The shallowest water now found on this knoll is 14 feet 4 inches at low-water springs. Owing to its being found directly in the fairway, and great inconvenience to steamers having previously been experienced from the screws fouling the moorings, it is not intended to mark its position with a chequered buoy as heretofore.

Point Nepean well open to the eastward of the Swan Spit Lightship will lead clear of the shoal, but during the night vessels should not approach the lightship nearer than two (2) cables' length in passing.

REEFS NEAR LOW ISLAND, NATUNA ISLANDS.—CHINA SEA.

ACCORDING to information of Lieutenant R. F. Hoskyn, commander of the English surveying vessel Flying Fish, 1881, the Island Midai, or Low Island, is about 3 miles long from E. to W., and 2 miles broad, thickly overgrown, 545 feet high till the tops of the trees, and surrounded by a coral reef. Ordinary is to land on the lee side, and, during the N.E. monsoon, also on the south side of the island.

On the west side is undeep water ending in a coral patch, on which is 4 fathoms, extending W.S.W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W., 2 miles from the S.W. point of the island.

Many extensive reefs on the north side are not examined. The fairway northward of the island is dangerous.

On the east side of Midai, between the bearings E.N.E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. and S.E. by E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. from the east point, are the Jackson Reefs, the inner side of which are 2 miles distant from that point, the outer side  $\frac{3}{4}$  miles. These reefs are irregular of form, and inside the line of 5 fathoms they have some resemblance with a horseshoe, the opening being on the east side; the depth varies from 3 to 7 fathoms.

The fairway between Jackson Reefs and Midai is not recommended.

Bearings magnetic. Var.  $2^{\circ} 30'$  E. in 1881.

forces in Neth.-India, VAN GOGH.

Hydrographic Office,
Batavia, November 1881.

REEFS IN CARIMATA STRAIT.

THE following information relating to Carimata Strait has been given by Lieutenant and Commander R. F. Hoskyn, H.B.M. surveying vessel Flying Fish, 1881:—

Condor Bank.—The reported position of this bank, bearing from Nangka Island N. by E.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. distant  $\frac{3}{4}$  miles was carefully sounded over without finding any shoal water. But on proceeding on the same bearing from Nangka Island a reef was discovered in lat.  $2^{\circ} 13' 20''$  S. and long.  $108^{\circ} 33' 15''$  E., this is considered to be Condor Reef. From it Nangka Island peak bears S.  $15^{\circ} 41'$  W. (true), distant 18 miles. The least water is 3 fathoms. Within a distance of half a mile are several patches of 8 and 10 fathoms, beyond this distance the depth is over 20 fathoms.

Ontario Reef.—This dangerous reef, situated in lat.  $2^{\circ} 0' 55''$  S. and long.  $108^{\circ} 38' 55''$  E. is composed of dead coral about  $\frac{3}{4}$  cables long, E.S.E. and W.N.W., and at half-tide a patch about yards in diameter uncovers. On the S.W. side of this reef there are 18 to 22 fathoms close to, and at a distance of one mile N.W. there is a patch of 11 fathoms, and another of 7 fathoms lies N.N.E. distant three-quarters of a mile, between these two patches and the reef the bottom is very uneven, in some places there being as little as 5 fathoms. At half a mile E.S.E. of the reef there is a depth of 10 fathoms.

Waller Rock.—Said to lie about  $\frac{3}{4}$  miles westward of the Ontario Reef. The Flying Fish was at anchor in this position for more than one day. No indication of shoal water could be discovered in the neighborhood. This rock has consequently been removed from the chart.

Rival Reef, reported to be in lat.  $1^{\circ} 47' 30''$  S., long.  $108^{\circ} 15' 30''$  E. The Flying Fish was at anchor in the neighborhood of this reef for more than two days. No indication of a shoal could be found within a radius of 3 miles of the reported position; the depths obtained averaging about 22 fathoms, bottom principally mud. This reef has consequently been removed from the chart.

Hooghly Rocks.—The reported position of these rocks (lat.  $1^{\circ} 35'$  S. long.  $108^{\circ} 12'$  E.) was traversed on two separate occasions by the ship and boats. No rocks were seen above water, nor was any indication of shoal water obtained by the lead. These rocks have consequently been removed from the chart.

With regard to these rocks, which were said to have been seen at night, may be observed, that often in the neighborhood of the Greig and Gwalia shoals, large floating masses of vegetable matter and other debris were seen. One of these was so large that it could be seen from the bridge at a distance of 7 or 8 miles, and so dense it might readily have been mistaken in daylight for a rock. Another bore a striking resemblance to a small sand bank with a bush on it, and was visible from 5 to 6 miles.

Wellesley Shoal (doubtful), said to lie in lat.  $1^{\circ} 18'$  S. and long.  $108^{\circ} 34' 30''$  E. No indication of shoal water could be found within a radius of three miles of this position. This shoal has consequently been removed from the chart.

Crescent Shoal (doubtful), said to lie in lat.  $1^{\circ} 10'$  S. and long.  $108^{\circ} 38'$  E. No indication of shoal water could be found within 4 miles east and west, and two miles north and south of this position. This shoal has consequently been removed from the chart.

Gwalia Shoal.—The wreck of the Gwalia lies in lat.  $1^{\circ} 6' 27''$  S. and long.  $108^{\circ} 34' 7''$  E., on the southern edge of a round coral patch about two cables in diameter, which has less than 6 feet upon it at low-water. On the west side the depth close to it is between 9 and 11 fathoms. On the south and east sides from 7 to 10 fathoms. On the north there is a small outlying patch of  $\frac{3}{4}$  fathoms, distant about  $\frac{3}{4}$  cables from the wreck.

Erikson Shoal, in lat.  $1^{\circ} 4' 20''$  S., long.  $108^{\circ} 32' 50''$  E., consists of coral about 2 cables long north and south, with a depth of water varying between  $\frac{4}{5}$  and 5 fathoms. At a distance of one cable on the north and east sides there is a depth of 10 to 11 fathoms, and on the south and west side 7 to 8 fathoms.

China Shoal.—The centre of this shoal in lat.  $0^{\circ} 58'$  S. and long.  $101^{\circ} 31' 55''$  E., is composed of coral about 5 cables long, N.N.W. and S.S.E., and 3 cables broad. The depth of water on it varies from less than 6 feet to 4 fathoms.

Greig Shoal.—South Greig Shoal is a small patch of coral with 5 fathoms water on it.

Middle Greig Shoal, with 12 feet water on it, is about 2 cables in length, N.N.W. and S.S.E. It is steep-to on the south and west sides, there being 10 to 14 fathoms close to its edge; on the north and east sides the soundings are more gradual.

North Greig Shoal, in lat.  $0^{\circ} 52' 45''$  S., long.  $108^{\circ} 33' 5''$  E. has 4 fathoms water on it. This shoal is of very small extent; at a distance of one cable all round the depth varies between 11 and 13 fathoms.

Columbus Shoal, reported to have a depth of 5 fathoms, and to lie in lat.  $0^{\circ} 51'$  S., and long.  $108^{\circ} 16'$  E. This shoal, with much adjoining ground, was sounded over by the ship and boats without obtaining any indication of shoal water. The shoal has consequently been removed from the chart.

Caution.—These shoals, embraced between the Gwalia and North Greig shoals, rise from a depth of 10 to 13 fathoms. They are rarely visible, either from the deck or mast head, and from the green nature of the surrounding bottom, and the abruptness with which they rise, the lead will seldom give sufficient warning to enable a danger to be avoided. Vessels are therefore recommended to give this neighborhood a wide berth. On the western side of the reefs this may always be secured by keeping in not less than 16 fathoms water.

forces in Neth.-India, VAN GOGH.

21. All Parcels, Perishables excepted, whether stamped or not, must be brought to the station at least fifteen minutes before the train is to start.
22. The delivery of Stamped Parcels, after they have been carried by railway, may be made, irrespectively of the ownership of the Parcel or other evidence, appears to represent the owner or his agent, or to any licensed carrier.

24. A receipt will be given, if demanded, for Parcels not stamped carried at the rates provided by Clause 1, and for Perishables.

CHAPTER 69.

An Act to amend the Law with respect to Fugitive Offenders in Her Majesty's Dominions, and for other Purposes connected with the Trial of Offenders. [27th August 1881.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

1. Short title.—This Act may be cited as the Fugitive Offenders Act 1881.

PART I.

RETURN OF FUGITIVES.

2. Liability of fugitive to be apprehended and returned.—Where a person accused of having committed an offence (to which this part of this Act applies) in one part of Her Majesty's dominions has left that part, such person (in this Act referred to as a fugitive from that part) if found in another part of Her Majesty's dominions shall be liable to be apprehended and returned in manner provided by this Act to the part from which he is a fugitive.

A fugitive may be so apprehended under an endorsed warrant or a provisional warrant.

3. Endorsing of warrant for apprehension of fugitive.—Where a warrant has been issued in one part of Her Majesty's dominions for the apprehension of a fugitive from that part, any of the following authorities in another part of Her Majesty's dominions in or on the way to which the fugitive is or is suspected to be; (that is to say,)

- (1.) A judge of a superior court in such part; and
- (2.) In the United Kingdom a Secretary of State and one of the magistrates of the metropolitan police court in Bow street; and
- (3.) In a British possession the governor of that possession.

if satisfied that the warrant was issued by some person having lawful authority to issue the same, may endorse such warrant in manner provided by this Act, and the warrant so endorsed shall be a sufficient authority to apprehend the fugitive in the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which it is endorsed, and bring him before a magistrate.

4. Provisional warrant for apprehension of fugitive.—A magistrate of any part of Her Majesty's dominions may issue a provisional warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive who is or is suspected of being in or on his way to that part on such information, and under such circumstances, as would in his opinion justify the issue of a warrant if the offence of which the fugitive is accused had been committed within his jurisdiction, and such warrant may be backed and executed accordingly.

A magistrate issuing a provisional warrant shall forthwith send a report of the issue, together with the information or a certified copy thereof, if he is in the United Kingdom, to a Secretary of State, and if he is in a British possession, to the governor of that possession, and the Secretary of State or governor may, if he think fit, discharge the person apprehended under such warrant.

5. Dealing with fugitive when apprehended.—A fugitive when apprehended shall be brought before a magistrate, who (subject to the provisions of this Act) shall hear the case in the same manner and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as near as may be (including the power to remand and admit to bail), as if the fugitive were charged with an offence committed within his jurisdiction.

If the endorsed warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive is duly authenticated, and such evidence is produced as (subject to the provisions of this Act) according to the law ordinarily administered by the magistrate, raises a strong or probable presumption that the fugitive committed the offence mentioned in the warrant, and that the offence is one to which this part of this Act applies, the magistrate shall commit the fugitive to prison to await his return, and shall forthwith send a certificate of the committal and such report of the case as he may think fit, if in the United Kingdom to a Secretary of State, and if in a British possession to the governor of that possession.

Where the magistrate commits the fugitive to prison he shall inform the fugitive that he will not be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days, and that he has a right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus, or other like process.

A fugitive apprehended on a provisional warrant may be from time to time remanded for such reasonable time not exceeding seven days at any one time, as under the circumstances seems requisite for the production of an endorsed warrant.

6. Return of fugitive by warrant.—Upon the expiration of fifteen days after a fugitive has been committed to prison to await his return, or if a writ of habeas corpus or other like process is issued with reference to such fugitive by a superior court, after the final decision of the court in the case,

- (1.) If the fugitive is so committed in the United Kingdom, a Secretary of State; and
- (2.) If the fugitive is so committed in a British possession, the governor of that possession, may, if he thinks it just, by warrant under his hand order that fugitive to be returned to the part of Her Majesty's dominions from which he is a fugitive, and for that purpose to be delivered into the custody of the persons to whom the warrant is addressed, or some one or more of them, and to be held in custody, and conveyed by sea or otherwise to the said part of Her Majesty's dominions, to be dealt with there in due course of law as if he had been there apprehended, and such warrant shall be forthwith executed according to the tenor thereof.

The governor or other chief officer of any prison, on request of any person having the custody of a fugitive under any such warrant, and on payment or tender of a reasonable amount for expenses, shall receive such fugitive and detain him for such reasonable time as may be requested by the said person for the purpose of the proper execution of the warrant.

7. Discharge of person apprehended if not returned within one month.—If a fugitive who, in pursuance of this part of this Act, has been committed to prison in any part of Her Majesty's dominions to await his return, is not conveyed out of that part within one month after such committal, a superior court, upon application by or on behalf of the fugitive, and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given, if the said part is the United Kingdom to a Secretary of State, and if the said part is a British possession to the governor of the possession, may, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, order the fugitive to be discharged out of custody.

8. Sending back of persons apprehended if not prosecuted within six months or acquitted.—Where a person accused of an offence and returned in pursuance of this part of this Act to any part of Her Majesty's dominions, either is not prosecuted for the said offence within six months after his arrival in that part, or is acquitted of the said offence, then if that part is the United Kingdom a Secretary of State, and if that part is a British possession the governor of that possession, may, if he think fit, on the request of such person, cause him to be sent back free of cost and with as little delay as possible to the part of Her Majesty's dominions in or on his way to which he was apprehended.

9. Offences to which this part of this Act applies.—This part of this Act shall apply to the following offences, namely, to treason and piracy, and to every offence, whether called felony, misdemeanour, crime, or by any other name, which is for the time being punishable in the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which it was committed, either on indictment or information, by imprisonment with hard labor for a term of twelve months or more, or by any greater punishment; and for the purposes of this section, rigorous imprisonment, and any confinement in a prison combined with labor, by whatever name it is called, shall be deemed to be imprisonment with hard labor.

This part of this Act shall apply to an offence notwithstanding that by the law of the part of Her Majesty's dominions in or on his way to which the fugitive is or is suspected of being it is not an offence, or not an offence to which this part of this Act applies; and all the provisions of this part of this Act, including those relating to a provisional warrant and to a committal to prison, shall be construed as if the offence were in such last-mentioned part of Her Majesty's dominions an offence to which this part of this Act applies.

10. Powers of superior court to discharge fugitive when case frivolous or return unjust.—Where it is made to appear to a superior court that by reason of the trivial nature of the case, or by reason of the application for the return of a fugitive not being made in good faith in the interests of justice or otherwise, it would, having regard to the distance, to the facilities for communication, and to all the circumstances of the case, be unjust or oppressive or too severe a punishment to return the fugitive either at all or until the expiration of a certain period, such court may discharge the fugitive, either absolutely or on bail, or order that he shall not be returned until after the expiration of the period named in the order, or may make such other order in the premises as to the court seems just.

11. Power of Lord Lieutenant in Ireland.—In Ireland the Lord Lieutenant or Lords Justices or other chief governor or governors of Ireland, also the chief secretary of such Lord Lieutenant, may, as well as a Secretary of State, execute any portion of the powers by this part of this Act vested in a Secretary of State.

PART II.

INTERCOLONIAL BACKING OF WARRANTS, AND OFFENCES.

Application of part of Act.

12. Application of part of Act to group of British possessions.—This part of this Act shall apply only to those groups of British possessions to which, by reason of their contiguity or otherwise, it may seem expedient to Her Majesty to apply the same.

It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to direct that this part of this Act shall apply to the group of British possessions mentioned in the Order, and by the same or any subsequent Order to except certain offences from the application of this part of this Act, and to limit the application of this part of this Act, by such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient.

Backing of Warrants.

13. Backing in one British possession of warrant issued in another of same group.—Where in a British possession of a group to which this part of this Act applies a warrant has been issued for the apprehension of a person accused of an offence punishable by law in that possession, and such person is or is suspected of being in or on the way to another British possession of the same group, a magistrate in the last-mentioned possession, if satisfied that the warrant was issued by a person having lawful authority to issue the same, may endorse such warrant in manner provided by this Act; and the warrant so endorsed shall be a sufficient authority to apprehend, within the jurisdiction of the endorsing magistrate, the person named in the warrant, and bring him before the endorsing magistrate or some other magistrate in the same British possession.

14. Return of prisoner apprehended under backed warrant.—The magistrate before whom a person so apprehended is brought, if he is satisfied that the warrant is duly authenticated as directed by this Act and was issued by a person having lawful authority to issue the same, and is satisfied on oath that the prisoner is the person named or otherwise described in the warrant, may order such prisoner to be returned to the British possession in which the warrant was issued, and for that purpose to be delivered into the custody of the persons to whom the warrant is addressed, or any one or more of them, and to be held in custody and conveyed by sea or otherwise into the British possession in which the warrant was issued, there to be dealt with according to law as if he had been there apprehended. Such order for return may be made by warrant under the hand of the magistrate making it, and may be executed according to the tenor thereof.

A magistrate shall, so far as is requisite for the exercise of the powers of this section, have the same power, including the power to remand and admit to bail a prisoner, as he has in the case of a person apprehended under a warrant issued by him.

15. Backing in one British possession of summons, &c., of witness issued in another possession of same group.—Where a person required to give evidence on behalf of the prosecutor or defendant on a charge for an offence punishable by law in a British possession of a group to which this part of this Act applies is or is suspected of being in or on his way to any other British possession of the same group, a judge, magistrate, or other officer who would have lawful authority to issue a summons, requiring the attendance of such witness, if the witness were within his jurisdiction, may issue a summons for the attendance of such witness, and a magistrate in any other British possession of the same group, if satisfied that the summons was issued by some judge, magistrate, or officer having lawful authority as aforesaid, may endorse the summons with his name; and the witness, on service in that possession of the summons, so endorsed, and on payment or tender of a reasonable amount for his expenses, shall obey the summons, and in default shall be liable to be tried and punished either in the possession in which he is served or in the possession in which the summons was issued, and shall be liable to the punishment imposed by the law of the possession in which he is tried for the failure of a witness to obey such a summons. The expression "summons" in this section includes any subpoena or other process for requiring the attendance of a witness.

16. Provisional warrant in group of British possessions.—A magistrate in a British possession of a group to which this part of this Act applies, before the endorsement in pursuance of this part of this Act of a warrant for the apprehension of any person, may issue a provisional warrant for the apprehension of that person, on such information and under such circumstances as would in his opinion justify the issue of a warrant if the offence of which such person is accused were an offence punishable by the law of the said possession, and had been committed within his jurisdiction, and such warrant may be backed and executed accordingly; provided that a person arrested under such provisional warrant shall be discharged unless the original warrant is produced and endorsed within such reasonable time as may under the circumstances seem requisite.

17. Discharge of prisoner not returned within one month to British possession of same group.—If a prisoner in a British possession whose return is authorized in pursuance of this part of this Act is not conveyed out of that possession within one month after the date of the warrant ordering his return, a magistrate or a superior court, upon application by or on behalf of the prisoner, and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to the person holding the warrant and to the chief officer of the police of such possession or of the province or town where the prisoner is in custody, may, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, order such prisoner to be discharged out of custody.

Any order or refusal to make an order of discharge by a magistrate under this section shall be subject to appeal to a superior court.

18. Sending back of prisoner not prosecuted or acquitted to British possession of same group.—Where a prisoner accused of an offence is returned in pursuance of this part of this Act to a British possession, and either is not prosecuted for the said offence within six months after his arrival in that possession or is acquitted of the said offence, the governor of that possession, if he thinks fit, may, on the requisition of such person, cause him to be sent back, free of cost, and with as little delay as possible, to the British possession in or on his way to which he was apprehended.

19. Refusal to return prisoner where offence too trivial.—Where the return of a prisoner is sought or ordered under this part of this Act, and it is made to appear to a magistrate or to a superior court that by reason of the trivial nature of the case, or by reason of the application for the return of such prisoner not being made in good faith in the interests of justice or otherwise, it would, having regard to the distance, to the facilities of communication, and to all the circumstances of the case, be unjust or oppressive, or too severe a punishment, to return the prisoner either at all or until the expiration of a certain period, the court or magistrate may discharge the prisoner either absolutely or on bail, or order that he shall not be returned until after the expiration of the period named in the order, or may make such other order in the premises as to the magistrate or court seems just.

Any order or refusal to make an order of discharge by a magistrate under this section shall be subject to an appeal to a superior court.

PART III.

Trial, &c., of Offences.

20. Offences committed on boundary of two adjoining British possessions.—Where two British possessions adjoin, a person accused of an offence committed on or within the distance of five hundred yards from the common boundary of such possessions may be apprehended, tried, and punished in either of such possessions,

21. Offences committed on journey between two British possessions.

—Where an offence is committed on any person or in respect of any property in or upon any carriage, cart, or vehicle whatsoever employed in a journey, or on board any vessel whatsoever employed in a navigable river, lake, canal, or inland navigation, the person accused of such offence may be tried in any British possession through a part of which such carriage, cart, vehicle, or vessel passed in the course of the journey or voyage during which the offence was committed; and where the side, bank, centre, or other part of the road, river, lake, canal, or vessel passed in the course of such journey or voyage is the boundary of any British possession, a person may be tried for such offence in any British possession of which it is the boundary:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorize the trial for such offence of a person who is not a British subject, where it is not shown that the offence was committed in a British possession.

22. Trial of offence of false swearing or giving false evidence.

A person accused of the offence (under whatever name it is known) of swearing or making any false deposition, or of giving or fabricating any false evidence, for the purposes of this Act, may be tried either in the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which such deposition or evidence is used, or in the part in which the same was sworn, made, given, or fabricated, as the justice of the case may require.

23. Supplemental provision as to trial of person in any place.

Where any part of this Act provides for the place of trial of a person accused of an offence, that offence shall, for all purposes of and incidental to the apprehension, trial, and punishment of such person, and of and incidental to any proceedings and matters preliminary, incidental to, or consequential thereon, and of and incidental to the jurisdiction of any court, constable, or officer with reference to such offence, and to any person accused of such offence, be deemed to have been committed in any place in which the person accused of the offence can be tried for it; and such person may be punished in accordance with the Courts (Colonial) Jurisdiction Act 1874. [37 & 38 Vict. c. 27.]

24. Issue of search warrant.—Where a warrant for the apprehension of a person accused of an offence has been endorsed in pursuance of any part of this Act in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or where any part of the Act provides for the place of trial of a person accused of an offence, every court and magistrate of the part in which the warrant is endorsed or the person accused of the offence can be tried shall have the same power of issuing a warrant to search for any property alleged to be stolen or to be otherwise unlawfully taken or obtained by such person, or otherwise to be the subject of such offence, as that court or magistrate would have if the property had been stolen or otherwise unlawfully taken or obtained, or the offence had been committed wholly within the jurisdiction of such court or magistrate.

25. Removal of prisoner by sea from one place to another.—Where a person is in legal custody in a British possession either in pursuance of this Act or otherwise, and such person is required to be removed in custody to another place in or belonging to the same British possession, such person, if removed by sea in a vessel belonging to Her Majesty or any of Her Majesty's subjects, shall be deemed to continue in legal custody until he reaches the place to which he is required to be removed; and the provisions of this Act with respect to the retaking of a prisoner who has escaped, and with respect to escaping or attempting to escape, or aiding or attempting to aid a prisoner to escape, shall apply to the case of a prisoner escaping while being lawfully removed as aforesaid, in like manner as if he were being removed in pursuance of a warrant endorsed in pursuance of this Act.

PART IV.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

Warrants and Escape.

26. Endorsement of warrant.—An endorsement of a warrant in pursuance of this Act shall be signed by the authority endorsing the same, and shall authorize all or any of the persons named in the endorsement, and of the persons to whom the warrant was originally directed, and also every constable, to execute the warrant within the part of Her Majesty's dominions or place within which such endorsement is by this Act made a sufficient authority, by apprehending the person named in it, and bringing him before some magistrate in the said part or place whether the magistrate named in the endorsement or some other.

For the purposes of this Act every warrant, summons, subpoena, and process, and every endorsement made in pursuance of this Act thereon, shall remain in force, notwithstanding that the person signing the warrant or such endorsement dies or ceases to hold office.

27. Conveyance of fugitives and witnesses.—Where a fugitive or prisoner is authorized to be returned to any part of Her Majesty's dominions in pursuance of Part One or Part Two of this Act, such fugitive or prisoner may be sent thither in any ship belonging to Her Majesty or to any of her subjects.

For the purpose aforesaid, the authority signing the warrant for the return may order the master of any ship belonging to any subject of Her Majesty bound to the said part of Her Majesty's dominions to receive and afford a passage and subsistence during the voyage to such fugitive or prisoner, and to the person having him in custody, and to the witnesses, so that such master be not required to receive more than one fugitive or prisoner for every hundred tons of his ship's registered tonnage, or more than one witness for every fifty tons of such tonnage.

The said authority shall endorse or cause to be endorsed upon the agreement of the ship such particulars with respect to any fugitive prisoner or witness sent in her as the Board of Trade from time to time require.

Every such master shall, on his ship's arrival in the said part of Her Majesty's dominions, cause such fugitive or prisoner, if he is not in the custody of any person, to be given into the custody of some constable, there to be dealt with according to law.

Every master who fails on payment or tender of a reasonable amount for expenses to comply with an order made in pursuance of this section, or to cause a fugitive or prisoner committed to his charge to be given into custody as required by this section, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds, which may be recovered in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in like manner as a penalty of the same amount under the Merchant Shipping Act 1854 (17 and 18 Vict. c. 104) and the Acts amending the same.

28. Escape of prisoner from custody.—If a prisoner escape, by breach of prison or otherwise, out of the custody of a person acting under a warrant issued or endorsed in pursuance of this Act, he may be retaken in the same manner as a person accused of a crime against the law of that part of Her Majesty's dominions to which he escapes may be retaken upon an escape.

A person guilty of the offence of escaping or of attempting to escape, or of aiding or attempting to aid a prisoner to escape, by breach of prison or otherwise, from custody under any warrant issued or endorsed in pursuance of this Act, may be tried in any of the following parts of Her Majesty's dominions, namely, the part to which and the part from which the prisoner is being removed, and the part in which the prisoner escapes, and the part in which the offender is found.

Evidence.

29. Depositions to be evidence, and authentication of depositions and warrants.—A magistrate may take depositions for the purposes of this Act in the absence of a person accused of an offence in like manner as he might take the same if such person were present and accused of the offence before him.

Depositions (whether taken in the absence of the fugitive or otherwise) and copies thereof, and official certificates of or judicial documents stating facts, may, if duly authenticated, be received in evidence in proceedings under this Act.

Provided that nothing in this Act shall authorize the reception of any such depositions, copies, certificates, or documents in evidence against a person upon his trial for an offence.

Warrants and depositions, and copies thereof, and official certificates of or judicial documents stating facts, shall be deemed duly authenticated for the purposes of this Act if they are authenticated in manner provided for the time being by law, or if they purport to be signed by or authenticated by the signature of a judge, magistrate, or officer of the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which the same are issued, taken, or made, and are authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of a Secretary of State, or with the public seal of a British possession, or with the official seal of a governor of a British possession, or of a colonial secretary, or of some secretary or minister administering a department of the government of a British possession.

And all courts and magistrates shall take judicial notice of every such seal as is in this section mentioned, and shall admit in evidence without further proof the documents authenticated by it.

Miscellaneous.

30. Provision as to exercise of jurisdiction by magistrates.—The jurisdiction under Part One of this Act to hear a case and commit a fugitive to prison to await his return shall be exercised,—

- (1.) In England, by a chief magistrate of the metropolitan police courts or one of the other magistrates of the metropolitan police court at Bow street; and
- (2.) In Scotland, by the sheriff or sheriff substitute of the county of Edinburgh; and
- (3.) In Ireland, by one of the police magistrates of the Dublin metropolitan police district; and

If a fugitive is apprehended and brought before a magistrate who has no power to exercise the jurisdiction under this Act in respect of that fugitive, that magistrate shall order the fugitive to be brought before some magistrate having that jurisdiction, and such order shall be obeyed.

31. Power as to making and revocation of Orders in Council.—It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council from time to time to make Orders for the purposes of this Act, and to revoke and vary any Order so made, and every Order so made shall while it is in force have the same effect as if it were enacted in this Act.

An Order in Council made for the purposes of this Act shall be laid before Parliament as soon as may be after it is made if Parliament is then in session, or if not, as soon as may be after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament.

32. Power of legislature of British possession to pass laws for carrying into effect this Act.—If the legislature of a British possession pass any Act or ordinance—

- (1.) For defining the offences committed in that possession to which this Act or any part thereof is to apply; or
- (2.) For determining the court, judge, magistrate, officer, or person by whom and the manner in which any jurisdiction or power under this Act is to be exercised; or
- (3.) For payment of the costs incurred in returning a fugitive or a prisoner, or in sending him back if not prosecuted or if acquitted, or otherwise in the execution of this Act; or
- (4.) In any manner for the carrying of this Act or any part thereof into effect in that possession.

it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct, if it seems to Her Majesty in Council necessary or proper for carrying into effect the objects of this Act, that such Act or ordinance, or any part thereof, shall with or without modification or alteration be recognised and given effect to throughout Her Majesty's dominions and on the high seas as if it were part of this Act.

Application of Act.

33. Application of Act to offences at sea or triable in several parts of Her Majesty's dominions.—Where a person accused of an offence can, by reason of the nature of the offence, or of the place in which it was committed, or otherwise, be, under this Act or otherwise, tried for or in respect of the offence in more than one part of Her Majesty's dominions, a warrant for the apprehension of such person may be issued in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he can, if he happens to be there, be tried; and each part of this Act shall apply as if the offence had been committed in the part of Her Majesty's dominions where such warrant is issued, and such person may be apprehended and returned in pursuance of this Act, notwithstanding that in the place in which he is apprehended a court has jurisdiction to try him:

Provided that if such person is apprehended in the United Kingdom a Secretary of State, and if he is apprehended in a British possession, the governor of such possession, may, if satisfied that, having regard to the place where the witnesses for the prosecution and for the defence are to be found, and to all the circumstances of the case, it would be conducive to the interests of justice so to do, order such person to be tried in the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he is apprehended, and in such case any warrant previously issued for his return shall not be executed.

34. Application of Act to convicts.—Where a person convicted by a court in any part of Her Majesty's dominions of an offence committed either in Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere, is unlawfully at large before the expiration of his sentence, each part of this Act shall apply to such person, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, in like manner as it applies to a person accused of the like offence committed in the part of Her Majesty's dominions in which such person was convicted.

35. Application of Act to removal of person triable in more than one part of Her Majesty's dominions.—Where a person accused of an offence is in custody in some part of Her Majesty's dominions, and the offence is one for or in respect of which, by reason of the nature thereof or of the place in which it was committed or otherwise, a person may under this Act or otherwise be tried in some other part of Her Majesty's dominions, in such case a superior court, and also if such person is in the United Kingdom a Secretary of State, and if he is in a British possession the governor of that possession, if satisfied that, having regard to the place where the witnesses for the prosecution and for the defence are to be found, and to all the circumstances of the case, it would be conducive to the interests of justice so to do, may by warrant direct the removal of such offender to some other part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he can be tried, and the offender may be returned, and, if not prosecuted or acquitted, sent back free of cost in like manner as if he were a fugitive returned in pursuance of Part One of this Act, and the warrant were a warrant for the return of such fugitive, and the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

36. Application of Act to foreign jurisdiction.—It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to direct that this Act shall apply as if, subject to the conditions, exceptions, and qualifications (if any) contained in the Order, any place out of Her Majesty's dominions in which Her Majesty has jurisdiction, and which is named in the Order, were a British possession, and to provide for carrying into effect such application.

37. Application of Act to, and execution of warrant in United Kingdom, Channel Islands, and Isle of Man.—This Act shall extend to the Channel Islands and Isle of Man as if they were part of England and of the United Kingdom, and the United Kingdom and those islands shall be deemed for the purpose of this Act to be one part of Her Majesty's dominions; and a warrant endorsed in pursuance of Part One of this Act may be executed in every place in the United Kingdom and the said islands accordingly.

38. Application of Act to past offences.—This Act shall apply where an offence is committed before the commencement of this Act, or, in the case of Part Two of this Act, before the application of that part to a British possession or to the offence, in like manner as if such offence had been committed after such commencement or application.

ARRANGEMENT BETWEEN VICTORIA AND SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

THE subjoined arrangement between Victoria and South Australia for facilitating trade across the Border is published for general information.

Chief Secretary's Office, Melbourne, 9th February 1882.

J. M. GRANT,
Chief Secretary.

ARRANGEMENT made between His Excellency the Most Honorable GEORGE AUGUSTUS CONSTANTINE, Marquis of Normanby, Earl of Mulgrave, Viscount Normanby, and Baron Mulgrave of Mulgrave, all in the County of York, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom, and Baron Mulgrave of New Ross, in the County of Wexford, in the Peerage of Ireland, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Colony of Victoria, of the one part: And His Excellency Sir WILLIAM FRANCIS DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Major-General in Her Majesty's Army, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Province of South Australia, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Province, of the other part.

For the purpose of enabling the Colony of Victoria and the Province of South Australia to admit goods from one to the other by land over their respective boundaries by permits without payment of duties of Customs, the following arrangement has been agreed to:—

1. Date of commencement and period of operation.—This arrangement shall commence and come into operation in the Colony of Victoria and the Province of South Australia above recited on the first day of February 1882, and shall continue in full force and effect until the expiration of one month after notice to terminate this arrangement shall have been given by either party to the other party hereto, or until determined or altered by mutual consent.

2. Permit may be obtained in Victoria to take goods by land to South Australia without payment of duty.—When any person desires to take from Victoria into South Australia, by land, over the boundary between the colonies, any goods chargeable with duty on their importation into South Australia, it shall be lawful for any officer duly appointed in that behalf by the Government of Victoria to grant to such person a permit. Such permit will entitle the holder thereof to import the goods mentioned therein into South Australia by land over the boundary without payment of duty.

3. Like permits may be obtained in South Australia for Victoria.—When any person desires to take from South Australia into Victoria, by land, over the boundary between the colonies, any goods chargeable with duty on their importation into Victoria, it shall be lawful for any officer duly appointed in that behalf by the Government of South Australia to grant such person a permit. Such permit will entitle the holder thereof to import the goods mentioned therein into Victoria by land over the boundary without payment of duty.

4. Production of permit.—No goods will be admitted into Victoria or South Australia without payment of duty, unless the permit herein provided for be produced to the officer of Customs duly appointed to verify and pass the same, or to any officer of Customs or member of the police force who shall at any time demand to see the same.

5. Adjustment of accounts.—As soon as possible after March 31st, June 30th, September 30th, and December 31st in each year, an account shall be made up by the Customs Department of the Colony of Victoria and the Province of South Australia of all goods imported into each respectively during the preceding quarter, in pursuance of permits granted under this arrangement; and such accounts shall be mutually exchanged; and if it shall appear that the amount of duties of customs which would have been chargeable (except for the provisions of this arrangement) on the goods imported into Victoria in accordance with the Victorian tariff, under permit from South Australia, during any such aforesaid period, is greater than that which would have been chargeable on the goods admitted into South Australia under the South Australian tariff, under permit from Victoria, then the difference in the amounts shall be forthwith paid by the Government of South Australia to that of Victoria, or, if less, then the difference shall be forthwith paid by the Government of Victoria to that of South Australia.

6. Export of goods overland to South Australia.—In order to carry out this arrangement, the Governor in Council of Victoria will make the Regulations "A" hereto annexed; and the Governor in Council of South Australia will make the Regulations "B" hereto annexed; and no additions to or alterations of any such Regulations shall be made by either Government without the written consent of the other.

7. Regulations to be made.—This arrangement shall only apply to goods duty paid, or duty free on their importation into the colony or province whence it is desired to export them by land over the boundary, or to goods manufactured in or the produce of such colony. And nothing herein contained shall apply to agricultural implements, live stock, engines, boilers, condensers, and fittings, jewellery and watches, machinery, opium, spirits and cordials, tobacco, cigars and snuff, wine and cheese. The singular number shall include the plural, and the plural the singular, unless the context be repugnant thereto.

No. 14.—FEBRUARY 10, 1882.—1.

REGULATIONS "A" REFERRED TO.

1. Interpretation.—Persons desirous of exporting goods from Victoria to South Australia by land across the boundary without payment of duty, should apply personally to one of the officers duly appointed for the purpose, and called "permit officer," for a permit for the conveyance of such goods accordingly. Should such persons be unable to apply personally, they should send invoices of the contents of the packages which they desire to forward, with full particulars of quantities and values at which they may have bought or sold the goods. They will then be supplied with permits for the entry of such goods into South Australia.

2. Export of goods overland to South Australia.—On the goods being produced, with the permit, to any officer of Customs in South Australia duly appointed for the purpose, he will, after verification of the goods with the permit, by such examination as he may deem advisable, duly pass them, if correct.

3. Permits will be recognised in South Australia.—Every permit officer in Victoria will be furnished with books containing blank forms of "permit," consecutively numbered, also butts corresponding thereto. He will duly issue to any person applying for the same a permit on the following conditions:—If personal application be made, such person should fill in, on the form supplied, the detailed particulars of the goods which he is desirous of exporting, both on the permit and butt, and on the duplicate export entries, affixing his signature to the certificate at foot. If written application be made, such officer will fill in the particulars from the invoices directed to be furnished to him, filing the invoices for reference. One copy each of export entry to be forwarded daily to Collectors of Customs, Port Adelaide and Melbourne.

4. Synopsis of permits.—Immediately after the end of every month every permit officer in Victoria shall transmit to the Collector of Customs, Melbourne, a synopsis of all permits granted during the month. Statistics relating hereto to be compiled from the export entry.

5. Permit books.—No goods will, under these regulations, be admitted into Victoria by land from South Australia without payment of duty, unless covered by a permit from a permit officer of South Australia, and such goods must be produced, with the permit, to the proper officer of Customs in Victoria, duly appointed for the purpose, who will verify the goods with the permit, by such examination as he may deem advisable, and duly pass them if correct. All goods not chargeable with duty must be duly entered in accordance with the provisions of the Acts relating to Customs.

6. Import of goods overland from South Australia.—All permits must be produced to any officer of Customs or member of the police force, on demand.

7. Production of permits.—In the event of any goods not being found to correspond with the permit in respect of them, or if any goods are found in course of conveyance without a permit, they will be dealt with as goods imported without payment of duty and liable to forfeiture, and the importer to penalties.

8. Forfeiture.—By the 14th section of the Act of Parliament of Victoria, No. 624, it is provided that if any person shall be guilty of a contravention of any of these regulations, he shall, in any and every such case, forfeit a sum not exceeding One hundred pounds, in addition to any other penalty to which he may by any law be liable. This provision will be strictly enforced.

9. The officers of the respective Governments may refuse, and are hereby directed to refuse, permits if they have reason to believe that goods are being forwarded with a view to take advantage of the dissimilarity of the tariffs, and not intended for bond fide Border Trade or use. No permit will be granted for goods of over £30 value, without first reference to the Collector of Customs.

10. By Border Trade is to be understood consumption or use of the goods covered by any permits within the country twenty miles east or west of the boundary-line between the two colonies.

They will then be supplied with permits for the entry of such goods into Victoria.
