Ratepayers, holders of miners' rights, business licenses, or carriers' licenses, and farmers, residing within a distance of five (5) miles from the common, may respectively depasture thereon four head of large cattle, or the equivalent of the whole or a portion thereof in small cattle, on the basis that one head of large cattle be deemed equivalent to three head of small cattle. 2. The following shall be the scale of fees, payable quarterly in advance, for depasturing stock on the common:—

For every horse	10s. per annum.

5. All stock remaining on the common fourteen (14) days after the period for which payment has been made will be liable to be impounded, without notice to the owners of such stock.

6. All persons desiring to remove their stock from the common shall give the herdsman two days' notice thereof in writing, during which period he will muster or collect such stock in the paddock or yards, as the case may be, and give notice thereof to the owners. In no case shall the herdsman be allowed to take stock to the owner's residence.

7. No person shall be allowed to remove stock from the common without first applying to the herdsman, to whom a receipt shall be given for all stock removed.

8. The herdsman shall, when required by the managers, muster the stock legally depasturing on the common, but not oftener than twice in any one year.

9. If any stock legally depasturing on the common shall stray therefrom and be impounded from private lands or from any other common, the herdsman shall release the same at his own expense.

10. No animal affected with any contagious disease shall be allowed to depasture on the common, and any stock so affected found depasturing thereon must, within twenty-four (24) hours, after notice thereof, in writing, from the herdsman, be either removed or destroyed by the owners of such stock.

11. No bull or entire horse shall be allowed to depasture on the common without the permission, in writing, of the managers.

12. All carcasses and offensive matter on the common shall be thoroughly burned by the herdsman, as soon as found by him, and, if he neglect or fail to do so, the work may be carried out by the officers of the Public Works Department to the satisfaction of the resident inspector at Yan Yean, at the cost of the Shire Council of Merriang.

13. The register and other books in connection with the common may be inspected at the Shire Office by any person, on payment of a fee of sixpence for each inspection.
