DISTRICT WHERE PUBLICANS' LICENSES MAY BE SPECIALLY GRANTED.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Honorable Sir WILLIAM FOSTER STAWELL, Knight, the Chief Justice of the Colony of Victoria, and Administrator of the Government of the said Colony, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Licensing Act 1876 (No. 566, section 44) it was amongst other things enacted that, notwithstanding the provisions thereinbefore contained, it should be lawful for the Governor in Council from time to time to proclaim any place or district a place or district where, owing to a sudden increase of population or otherwise, the necessity for the immediate grant of publicans' licenses exists, to be a place or district wherein publicans' licenses might be specially granted, and from time to time to revoke any such proclamation: Now therefore I, the Administrator of the Government of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby proclaim the place hereinbefore mentioned to be a district where publicans' licenses may be specially granted under the provisions of the 44th section of the said Act, that is to say:—

The Village of ULLINA, Smeaton Plains.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this thirtieth day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and in the forty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

By His Excellency's Command,

ALFRED DEAKIN,

Solicitor-General.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

"THE EXPLOSIVES ACT 1877."

EXEMPTION FROM CERTAIN PORTIONS OF THE REGULATIONS
FRAMED UNDER "THE EXPLOSIVES ACT 1877."

THE Administrator of the Government in Council has exempted the Safety Blasting Powder, proposed to be manufactured by Mr. Joseph Thomson Arblaster, whose works are situated at Job's Gully, Borough of Eaglehawk, from the operation of the following portions of the Regulations framed under The Explosives Act 1877, and published in the Government Gazette of 13th December 1878, viz:—

That portion of Clause 4 commencing with the word "other" in the fourth line of the second paragraph, and ending with the word "building" in the eighth line thereof.

That portion of Clause 8 commencing with the word "and" in the fourth line of the first paragraph, and ending with the word "thereof" in the seventh line thereof.

The whole of the first and ninth paragraphs of Clause 11.

And has made the following Regulation to apply only to the safety blasting powder above mentioned in lieu of the ninth paragraph of clause 11 aforesaid, viz:—

All carriages used for the conveyance of safety blasting powder shall be of good and substantial make, and shall be so constructed that the explosive conveyed therein shall be properly protected from the weather by fire-proof tarpaulins, and such carriages shall have the name of the explosive conveyed therein in plain and conspicuous letters on both sides thereof, and no such carriage shall at any time be used for the conveyance along a public road of a quantity of such explosive exceeding fifteen hundred weight (15 cwt.)

PROHIBITION AGAINST CUTTING, ETC., LIVE RED-
GUM TIMBER FROM CERTAIN CROWN LANDS
REVOKED.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Honorable Sir WILLIAM FOSTER STAWELL, Knight, the Chief Justice of the Colony of Victoria, and Administrator of the Government of the said Colony &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Land Act 1869 it was amongst other things enacted, that notwithstanding anything thereinbefore contained the Governor might by proclamation declare that no person, although he be duly licensed or otherwise authorized, should cut, dig, or remove live or dead timber or particular description of timber or bark, stone, gravel, sand, loam, brick, or other earth from such portions of Crown lands as were named in such proclamation, or should exercise on any such portions the powers, or any of them, conferred by any license granted under the authority of Part III. of the said Act: And whereas by a proclamation under the hand of the Governor and the seal of the colony, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of September in the year One thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, the cutting, digging, or removing of live red-gum timber on or from the Crown lands referred to in such proclamation was prohibited: And whereas it is expedient to revoke in part the said proclamation: Now therefore I, the Administrator of the Government of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby revoke the said proclamation of the twenty-fourth day of September One thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, so far only as it affects the cutting or removal of red-gum timber of a greater diameter than eighteen inches, on or from allotments 13B and 14, parish of Cobram, in the county of Moira.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this thirtieth day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and in the forty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.
