April 1876 ...	664	483	56.8°	29.923 inches.
" 1877 ...	627	442	58.0°	30.070 "

" 1885 ...	999	565	57.2°	30.148 "
Mean of ten years ..	761	492	58.6°	30.034 "

The births of 975 children, viz., 507 boys and 468 girls, were registered in Melbourne and suburbs during the month of April. In the month of March, 1,176 births were registered, or 201 more than in the month under review. The births were 214 above the average of the month during the previous ten years, but only 51 above that average, if allowance be made for the increase of population.

The deaths registered in April numbered 600, viz., 352 of males and 248 of females; the births thus exceeded the deaths by 375, or 62½ per cent. The deaths were fewer than those in March by 58, but exceeded the average of April during the previous ten years by 108. If, however, allowance be made for the increase of population, they will be found to have exceeded that average by only 3.

To every 1,000 of the population of the district the proportion of births registered was 2.82, and of deaths registered 1.74.

The highest temperature in the shade recorded at Melbourne Observatory during the month was 90.2° on the 3rd, and the lowest was 37.0° on the 30th. The mean temperature of the month (59.1°) was half a degree above the average. The greatest range of the thermometer in any one day (30.9°) took place on the 2nd, viz., from a maximum of 89.9° to a minimum of 59.0°. The least range (5.9°) was on the 16th, viz., from a maximum of 58.7° to a minimum of 52.8°. The mean daily range was 18.0°. 5. If the licensee desire a renewal of this license, notice to that effect must be given to the responsible Minister aforesaid one month prior to the expiration thereof, but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer the right to any renewal.

7. No claim whatever shall be made or entertained by reason of this license not being renewed or transferred.
8. This license is to be used under and in accordance with the regulations made or to be made under the provisions of the said Act and for the time being in force.
9. This license may be forfeited if the licensee commit a breach or neglect to comply with any of these conditions.
