LIABILITY TO QUARANTINE OF VESSELS, ETC.,
ARRIVING FROM THE ISLAND OF MAURITIUS.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency Sir HENRY BROUGHAM LOCH, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Public Health Statute 1865 (23 Vict. No. 264) it is amongst other things enacted that if the Governor in Council shall by Proclamation notify that any place beyond the seas is infected with the cholera or other infectious or contagious disease, and that it is probable such disease may be brought from such place to Victoria, immediately after such notification all vessels whatever arriving from or having touched at any such place, and all vessels and boats receiving any person or thing whatsoever from or out of any vessel so coming from or having touched at any such infected place as aforesaid (whether such person or thing shall have come or been brought in such vessel or such person shall have gone or have been put on board the same either before or after the arrival of such vessel at any place in Victoria, and whether such vessel was or was not bound to any place in Victoria), and all persons and things whatsoever on board of any vessel so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid or on board of any such receiving vessels or boats as aforesaid, shall be liable to quarantine within the meaning of Part VI. of the said Act, and of any order made by the Governor in Council and notified by proclamation concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection from the time of the departure of such vessels from such infected place as aforesaid or from the time such persons or things should have been received on board respectively; and it is also enacted that all such vessels and boats as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), and all things whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats from such infected place as aforesaid, or going or being put on board the same either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any place in Victoria, and all persons or things as aforesaid on board such receiving vessel or boat as aforesaid, shall upon their arrival at any place in Victoria be obliged to perform quarantine in such places for such time and in such manner as shall be from time to time directed by the Governor in Council and notified by proclamation as aforesaid: Until such vessels and boats persons and things as aforesaid shall have respectively performed and shall be duly discharged from quarantine, no such persons or things shall either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any place in Victoria come or be brought on shore or go or be put on board any other vessel or boat in order to come or be brought on shore in any such place (unless in such manner and in such cases and by such license as shall be directed or permitted by any such order as aforesaid): Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do by this Proclamation notify that is infected with Small-pox, and that it is probable that such disease may be brought from thence to Victoria.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this nineteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and in the fiftieth year of Her Majesty's reign.

PUBLIC AND BANK HOLIDAYS.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency Sir HENRY BROUGHAM LOCH, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

IN pursuance of the provisions contained in the eighty-eighth section of The Public Service Act 1883, and the fifth section of The Bank Holidays Act 1873, I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do by this my Proclamation appoint a special day to be observed as a Bank Holiday at Jung Jung, and within the Shires of Bairnsdale and Maffra;

THURSDAY THE 21ST DAY OF APRIL INSTANT

TUESDAY THE 26TH DAY OF APRIL INSTANT

to be observed as a Public and Bank Holiday within the Shire of Alexandra;

TUESDAY THE 26TH, WEDNESDAY THE 27TH, AND THURSDAY THE 28TH DAYS OF APRIL INSTANT to be observed as Public and Bank Half-Holidays at Warrnambool, from the hour of Twelve o'clock noon on each day.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this nineteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and in the fiftieth year of Her Majesty's reign.

HENRY B. LOCH.

By His Excellency's Command,
CHARLES H. PEARSON,
For the Chief Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

MURDER.

ONE HUNDRED POUNDS REWARD.—FREE PARDON TO AN ACCOMPLICE.

WHEREAS early on the morning of Tuesday the 22nd ultimo Samuel McDonald Maddocks, while in company with his family in Cole's Paddock, Richmond, was inveigled away by four young men, who pretended to be members of the police force, and who left two of their associates keeping guard over Mrs. Maddocks and her children: And whereas shortly afterwards Maddocks was heard to cry out in Buckingham street as if he was being assaulted, and was subsequently found by his friends in an injured state, resulting in his death at the Melbourne Hospital on the 4th instant: And whereas at an inquest a verdict of wilful murder was returned against some person or persons unknown: Notice is hereby given that a reward of One hundred pounds will be paid by the Government for such information as will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who committed the murder aforesaid. The Governor will also extend Her Majesty's Free Pardon to an accomplice giving the required information, provided such informant did not actually commit the murder.

The men referred to are described as being between 20 and 30 years of age, and seemingly well clad.

CHARLES H. PEARSON,
For the Chief Secretary.

TENDERS FOR THE ERECTION OF VERMIN PROOF FENCE ON THE SOUTH AUSTRALIAN BORDER.

Extension of time for receipt of tenders to Wednesday, 4th May 1887, at Twelve noon.

TENDERS endorsed as above are invited for the erection of one hundred and eleven (111) miles of Vermin Proof Fencing, more or less, consisting of wooden strainers and posts, wrought-iron standards, and galvanized wire netting, on the boundary line with South Australia, extending from the south-west angle of Mallee Block number 40 to the River Murray, as per sample erected at Dimboola.

2. Standards 10 feet apart, with straining posts at every 100 yards. Straining posts to be of pine, box, or gum, 7 feet 9 inches in length, and measuring 8 inches in diameter at the small end, and sunk 3 feet in the ground. Posts, also 100 yards apart, of pine, box, or gum, 6 feet 3 inches in length, measuring 7 inches x 4 inches or 6 inches round, sunk 2 feet in the ground; both strainers and posts to be charred for full depth in the ground. Round side of posts and strainers to be placed against netting. Iron standards to be 1 foot 6 inches in the ground, and one wire and two barbed wires run through standards where bored and notched, also through posts. Wire netting to be sunk 6 inches in the ground, leaving 3 feet out of the ground. The line to be cleared (including porcupine) 20 feet on either side of the fence.

The trench in which netting is sunk must be sunk perpendicularly to allow netting to run in a straight line with posts. Trench to be afterwards filled up. Netting and barbed wires to be stapled to posts and strainers in same manner as sample fence at Dimboola. Netting to be attached to a number 10 wire running along the top edge. Netting and barbed wires to be braced twice between each standard with number 14 wire. Netting to be fastened with number 14 wire to iron standards 6 inches from ground.

3. Work to be completed within five months from date of acceptance of tender. Payments on account to contractors to be at the rate of seventy-five per cent. on fencing completed; certificate to be given by supervisor of works. Should the distances of sections of fencing be longer than distances mentioned, contractors to complete same at schedule prices of tender.

4. Wire netting, iron standards, staples, barbed and galvanized wire, to be delivered to contractors at undermentioned places, viz., Material for 40 miles at Serviceton; 36 miles at the border line on the Murray; 35 miles at the landing on the Murray where the Pinaroo road strikes it, 10 miles below A. W. Murray's Bookpurnong Station.

5. Tenders, accompanied by preliminary deposit of £25, are to be addressed to the Honorable the President of the Board of Land and Works, and placed in the Public Works Tender Box, at the Public Offices, Treasury Gardens, Melbourne, before Twelve o'clock noon on Wednesday the 4th May 1887.

6. Final deposit, 5 per cent. on total amount of tender.

7. Tenders will be received for the line in three sections, viz., 40 miles from commencement at southern end, next 35 miles, and next 36 miles.

8. The Board of Land and Works will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

9. The successful tenderers to sign agreement and general conditions of contract.
