ACT OF PARLIAMENT

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency Sir HENRY BROUGHAM LOCH, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

I, THE Governor of Victoria, do hereby declare that I have this day assented, in Her Majesty's name, to the Bill passed by the Parliament of Victoria, the title whereof is hereinafter set forth, that is to say :—

An Act to authorize Municipalities to expend Money in celebrating the Queen's Jubilee.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this eighteenth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and in the fifty-first year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.)

HENRY B. LOCH.

By His Excellency's Command,

D. GILLIES,

Premier.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be clearly documented, including the date, amount, and purpose of the transaction. This ensures transparency and allows for easy reconciliation of accounts.

In the second section, the author provides a detailed breakdown of the monthly expenses. These include rent, utilities, groceries, and transportation. Each category is carefully tracked, and the total monthly outlay is calculated. This helps in understanding the overall financial picture and identifying areas where costs can be reduced.

The third section focuses on income sources and how they are allocated. It details the monthly salary and any additional income from investments or other sources. The author explains how these funds are used to cover essential expenses and how a portion is set aside for savings or future investments.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the financial status. It highlights the progress made in managing expenses and the importance of staying on top of one's finances. The author encourages regular reviews of the budget to ensure it remains effective and adjusted to changing circumstances.
