POPULATION OF VICTORIA.

ESTIMATED Population of Victoria on the 31st March 1889:—

First Quarter of 1889.	Males.		Females.		Total.
	Males.	Females.	Males.	Females.
Births	4,593	4,234	21,054	12,647	33,701
Arrivals by sea ...	16,461	8,413
Deaths	3,247	2,524	18,072	9,494	27,566
Departures by sea ...	13,477	6,576
Unrecorded departures (estimated)	1,348	394
Increase during the quarter			2,982	3,153	6,135
Estimated Population on the 31st December 1888			581,833	509,536	1,090,869
Estimated Population on the 31st March 1889			584,315	512,689	1,097,004

NOTE.—During the first quarter of 1889, the excess of registered births over registered deaths was 3,056, viz., 1,346 males and 1,710 females; and the excess of recorded arrivals over recorded and unrecorded departures (the latter being estimated) was 3,079, viz., 1,636 males and 1,443 females. The total gain to the population was thus 6,135, viz., 2,982 males and 3,153 females, as shown in the table.

The total allowance for unrecorded departures since the census of 1881 was taken has been 42,999, viz., 34,240 males and 8,759 females. Had no such allowance been made, the apparent population at the end of March would have been 1,140,003, viz., 618,555 males and 521,448 females.

An estimate based upon returns made annually by the municipal authorities of the population of their respective districts, supplemented by an allowance for such portions of the colony as have not been brought under local self-government, gives the total population at the end of March as 1,103,605, or 6,601 more than the estimate given in the table.

The total excess of recorded arrivals over recorded departures during the quarter was 4,821, the greatest gain to the population being from Tasmania (2,348), the next from the United Kingdom (1,627), then from South Australia (389), foreign countries (180), New Zealand (149), and New South Wales (128). All the arrivals and departures referred to are by sea.

PROCEEDINGS AT AND FOR THE ELECTION FOR THE ELECTORAL DISTRICT OF OVENS FURTHER DECLARED VALID.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency Sir WILLIAM CLEAVER FRANCIS ROBINSON, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Administrator of the Government of the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Electoral Act 1865 it was amongst other things enacted, that no election should be void in consequence only of there having been no Returning Officer at the time of the issue of the writ or of any delay in the return of the writ; and where any accidental or unavoidable impediment, misfeasance, or omission should have happened the Governor in Council might take all such measures as might be necessary for removing such impediment or rectifying such misfeasance or omission; or might declare any or all of the proceedings at or for any election valid as to and notwithstanding such impediment, misfeasance, or omission; and that every such Order in Council should state specifically the nature of the impediment, misfeasance, or omission, and should be forthwith published in the Government Gazette: And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 7th

May instant, the proceedings at and for the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly for the Electoral District of Ovens, held on the 28th March last, were declared valid notwithstanding an accidental misfeasance or omission which had happened, such accidental misfeasance or omission having been the default on the part of the Deputy Returning Officer presiding at certain of the polling places in the said district to ascertain immediately on the close of the poll the number of votes given to each candidate at such polling places, respectively, at such election: And whereas a further accidental omission has happened at the said election for the said Electoral District of Ovens, such further accidental omission being that the Returning Officer did omit to include the nomination papers of the respective candidates for election for the said district in the sealed parcel to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, as directed by the said Act: And whereas it is expedient that such further accidental omission should be rectified: Now therefore I, the Administrator of the Government of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and under the authority given in and by the 131st section of The Electoral Act 1865, No. 279, do hereby order that such accidental omission be rectified accordingly, and direct the Returning Officer for the said Electoral District of Ovens to transmit to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly in a separate sealed parcel the nomination papers so omitted as aforesaid, and do likewise declare valid all the proceedings at or for the aforesaid election for the Electoral District of Ovens, notwithstanding such further accidental omission.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this fourteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and in the fifty-second year of Her Majesty's reign.
