TREATY OF FRIENDSHIP, COMMERCE, AND NAVIGATION BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND MUSKAT.

Signed at Muskat, 19th March, 1891.

[Ratifications exchanged at Muskat, 20th February, 1892.]

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Highness the Seyyid Feysal-bin-Turki-bin-Saeed, Sultan of Muskat and Oman, being desirous to confirm and strengthen the friendly relations which now subsist between the two countries, and to promote and extend their commercial relations, have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, Colonel Edward Charles Ross, Companion of the Star of India, Her Britannic Majesty's Political Resident in the Persian Gulf;

And His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, in person;

Who have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The Treaty concluded between the British Government and Sultan Seyyid Saeed-bin-Sultan of Muskat and Oman, on the 31st May, 1839 (17 Rabia 1st, 1255), is hereby cancelled and declared void, and the present Treaty, when ratified, shall be substituted for it.

ARTICLE II.

Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall, for the purposes of this Treaty, include subjects of native States in India in alliance with Her Majesty. Such subjects shall enjoy, immediately and unconditionally, throughout the dominions of His Highness the

No. 111.—AUGUST 26, 1892.—1.

Sultan of Muskat, with respect to commerce, shipping, and the exercise of trade, as in every other respect, all the rights, privileges, immunities, advantages, and protection of whatsoever nature, which are, or hereafter may be, enjoyed by, or accorded to, the subjects or citizens of the most favored nation.

They shall more especially not be liable to other or more onerous duties, imposts, restrictions, or obligations, of whatever description, than those to which subjects or citizens of the most favored nation now are, or hereafter may be, subjected.

ARTICLE III.

The two High Contracting Parties acknowledge reciprocally to each other the right of appointing Consuls to reside in each other's dominions wherever the interests of commerce may require the presence of such officers; and such Consuls shall at all times be placed in the country in which they reside, on the footing of the Consuls of the most favored nations. Each of the High Contracting Parties further agree to permit his own subjects to be appointed to Consular offices by the other Contracting Party, provided always that the person so appointed shall not begin to act without the previous approbation of the Sovereign whose subjects they may be. The public functionaries of either Government residing in the dominions of the other shall enjoy the same privileges, immunities, and exemptions which are enjoyed within the same dominions by similar public functionaries of other countries.

ARTICLE IV.

There shall be perfect freedom of commerce and navigation between the High Contracting Parties; each shall allow the subjects of the other to enter all ports, creeks, and rivers with their vessels and cargoes, also to travel, reside, pursue commerce and trade, whether wholesale or retail, in each other's dominions, and therein to hire, purchase, and possess houses, warehouses, shops, stores, and lands. British subjects shall everywhere be freely permitted, whether personally or by agent, to bargain for, buy, barter, and sell all kinds of goods, articles of import, or native production, whether intended for sale within the dominions of His Highness or for export, and to arrange with the owner or his agent regarding the price of all such goods and produce, without interference of any sort on the part of the authorities of His Highness.

His Highness the Sultan of Muskat binds himself not to allow or recognise the establishment of any kind of monopoly or exclusive privilege of trade within his dominions to any Government, association, or individual.

ARTICLE V.

Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall be permitted, throughout the dominions of His Highness the Sultan, to acquire by gift, purchase, intestate succession, or under will, or any other legal manner, land, houses, and property of every description, whether movable or immovable, to possess the same; and freely to dispose thereof by sale, barter, donation, or otherwise.

ARTICLE VI.

His Highness the Sultan shall be permitted to levy a duty of entry not exceeding 5 per cent. on the value of all goods and merchandise, of whatever description, imported by sea from foreign countries into His Highness' dominions. This duty shall be paid at that port in His Highness' dominions where the goods are first landed, and, on payment thereof, such goods shall thereafter be exempt, within the Sultan's dominions, from all other customs duties or taxes, levied by or on behalf of the Government of His Highness the Sultan, by whatever names these may be designated, and no higher import duty shall be claimed from British subjects than that which is paid by subjects or citizens of the most favored nation.

This duty, once paid, shall cover, from all other charges on the part of His Highness the Sultan, goods of whatever description coming from foreign countries by sea, whether these are intended for local consumption or for transmission elsewhere in bulk or otherwise, and whether they remain in the state in which they are imported or have been manufactured.

There shall, however, be exempted from payment of all duty the following, namely:—

1. All goods and merchandise which, being destined for a foreign port, are transhipped from one vessel to another in any of the ports of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, or which have been for this purpose provisionally landed and deposited in any of the Sultan's custom houses to await the arrival of a vessel in which to be re-shipped aboard. But goods and merchandise so landed shall be exempted only, provided that the consignee or his agent shall have, on the arrival of the ship, handed over the said goods to be kept under customs seal, and declared them as landed for transshipment, designating at the same time the foreign port of destination, and also provided that the said goods are actually shipped for the said foreign port as originally declared, within a period not exceeding six months after their first landing, and without having, in the interval, changed owners.

2. All goods and merchandise which, not being consigned to a port within the dominions of the Sultan, have been inadvertently landed, provided that such goods are re-shipped within a month of being so landed and transported abroad. Should, however, such goods or merchandise, here spoken of, be opened or removed from the custody of the Customs authorities, the full duty shall then be payable on the same.

3. Coals, naval provisions, stores, and fittings, the property of Her Majesty's Government, landed in the dominions of His Highness for the use of the ships of Her Majesty's navy.

4. All goods and merchandise transhipped or landed for the repair of damage caused by stress of weather or other disaster at sea, provided the cargo so discharged shall be re-shipped and taken away on board of the same vessel, or if the latter shall have been condemned, or her departure delayed, in any other manner.

ARTICLE VII.

No article whatever shall be prohibited from being imported into or exported from the territories of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, and no export duties are to be levied on goods exported from those territories except with the consent of the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, such consent being subject to the conditions that may be laid down in the notifications intimating the same.

ARTICLE VIII.

It is agreed and understood by the High Contracting Parties that, in the event of an arrangement being entered into hereafter between His Highness and the Powers having Treaty relations with Muskat, and to which Great Britain shall be a consenting party, whereby vessels entering the port of Muskat shall be charged with shipping, tonnage, or harbor dues, such dues to be administered under the control of a special Board for the improvement of the harbor and construction and maintenance of lighthouses, &c.; nothing in the afore-mentioned provisions shall be construed so as to exempt British vessels from payment of such shipping, harbor, or tonnage dues as may hereafter be agreed upon.

ARTICLE IX.

It shall be at the option of the British subject in each case to pay the percentage duties stipulated in Article VI., either in cash, or, if the nature of the goods allows of it, in kind, by giving up an equivalent amount of the goods or produce.

In the event of payment being made in cash, the value of the merchandise, goods, or produce on which duty is to be levied, shall be fixed according to the ready-money market price ruling at the time when the duty is levied. In the case of foreign imports, the value shall be fixed according to the market price at Muskat, and in that of native goods and produce, by the market price at the place where the merchant shall choose to pay the duty.

In the event of any dispute arising between a British subject and the custom-house authorities regarding the value of such goods, this shall be determined by reference to two experts, each party nominating one, and the value so ascertained shall be decisive. Should, however, these experts not be able to agree, they shall choose an umpire, whose decision is to be considered final.

ARTICLE X.

His Highness the Sultan of Muskat engages by the present Treaty to provide and give orders to his officials that the movement of goods in transit shall not be obstructed or delayed in a vexatious manner by unnecessary customs formalities and regulations, and that every facility will be given for their transport.

ARTICLE XI.

British vessels entering a port in the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, in distress, shall receive from the local authorities all necessary aid to enable them to revictual and refit so as to proceed on their voyage.

Should a British vessel be wrecked off the coast of His Highness' dominions, the authorities of His Highness shall render all assistance in their power to the distressed vessel, in order to save the ship, her cargo, and those on board; they shall also give aid and protection to persons saved, and shall assist them in reaching the nearest British Consulate; they shall further take every possible care that the goods so recovered are safely stored, and kept for the purpose of being handed over to the owner, captain, agent of the ship, or British Consul, subject always to rights of salvage.

His Highness' authorities shall further see that the British Consulate is at once informed of such disaster having occurred.

Should a British vessel, wrecked on the coast of His Highness' dominions, be plundered, the authorities of His Highness shall, as soon as they come to know thereof, render prompt assistance and take measures to pursue and punish the robbers, and recover the stolen property. Likewise, should a vessel of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, or of one of His subjects, enter a British Port in distress, or be wrecked off the coast of Her Majesty's dominions, the like help and assistance shall be rendered by the British authorities.

ARTICLE XII.

Should sailors or others belonging to a British ship of war or merchant vessel desert and take refuge on shore or on board of any of His Highness' ships, the authorities of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat shall, upon request of a Consular official, or, in his absence, of the captain of the ship, take the necessary steps in order to have them arrested and delivered over to the Consular official or to the captain.

In this, however, the Consular officer and captain shall render every assistance.

ARTICLE XIII.

Subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall, as regards their person and property, enjoy within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat the rights of exterritoriality.

The authorities of His Highness the Sultan have no right to interfere in disputes with subjects of Her Britannic Majesty amongst themselves, or between them and members of other Christian nations; such questions, whether of a civil or criminal nature, shall be decided by the competent Consular authorities. The trial and also the punishment of all offences and crimes of which British subjects may be accused within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan, also the hearing and settlement of all civil questions, claims, or disputes in which they are the defendants, is expressly reserved to the British Consular authorities and Courts, and removed from the jurisdiction of His Highness the Sultan.

Should disputes arise between subjects of His Highness the Sultan or other non-Christian Power, not represented by Consuls at Muskat, and a subject of Her Britannic Majesty, in which the British subject is the plaintiff or complainant, the matter shall be brought before and decided by the highest authority of the Sultan, or some person specially delegated by him for this purpose. The proceedings and final decision in such a case shall not, however, be considered legal unless notice has been given and an opportunity afforded for the British Consul or his substitute to attend at the hearing and final decision.

ARTICLE XIV.

Subjects of His Highness the Sultan, or any non-Christian nation not represented by Consuls at Muskat, who are in the regular service of British subjects within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, shall enjoy the same protection as British subjects themselves.

Should they be charged with having committed a crime or serious offence punishable by law, they shall, on sufficient evidence being shown to justify further proceedings, be handed over by British employers, or by order of the British Consul, to the authorities of His Highness the Sultan for trial and punishment.

ARTICLE XV.

Should a subject of Her Majesty residing in the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat be adjudicated bankrupt, the British Consul shall take possession of, recover, and realize all available property and assets of such bankrupt, to be dealt with and distributed according to the provisions of English bankruptcy law.

ARTICLE XVI.

Should a subject of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat resist or evade payment of the just and rightful claims of a British subject, the authorities of His Highness the Sultan shall afford to the British creditor every aid and facility in recovering the amount due to him. In like manner, the British Consul shall afford every aid and facility to subjects of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat in recovering debts justly due to them from a British subject.

ARTICLE XVII.

Should a British subject die within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, or, dying elsewhere, leave property therein, movable or immovable, the British Consul shall be authorized to collect, realize, and take possession of the estate of the deceased, to be disposed of according to the provisions of English law.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The houses, dwellings, warehouses, and other premises of British subjects, or of persons actually in their regular service, within the dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Muskat, shall not be entered or searched, under any pretext, by the officials of His Highness without the consent of the occupier, unless with the cognisance and assistance of the British Consul or his substitute.

ARTICLE XIX.

It is hereby agreed between the two High Contracting Parties that, in the event of an agreement being hereafter arrived at between His Highness the Sultan of Muskat and the various Powers with which His Highness shall be in Treaty relations, including Great Britain, which must be a consenting party, whereby the residents of a district or town shall, without distinction of nationality, be made subject to the payment of local taxes for municipal and sanitary purposes, the same to be fixed and administered by or under the control of a special Board, nothing contained in this Treaty shall be understood so as to exempt British residents from the payment of such taxes.

ARTICLE XX.

Subjects of the two High Contracting Parties shall, within the dominions of each other, enjoy freedom of conscience and religious toleration, the free and public exercise of all forms of religion, and the right to build edifices for religious worship.

ARTICLE XXI.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to all the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws permit, excepting to those hereinafter named, that is to say, except to—

Newfoundland.
The Cape of Good Hope.

Provided always that the stipulations of the present Treaty shall be made applicable to any of the above-named Colonies or foreign possessions, on whose behalf notice to that effect shall have been given by Her Britannic Majesty's Representative in Muskat to His Highness the Sultan within two years from the date of exchange of the ratifications of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XXII.

The present Treaty has been executed in duuplicate, two copies being written in English and two in Arabic. These are understood to be of similar import and signification; in the event, however, of doubt hereafter arising as to the proper interpretation of the English or Arabic text of one or other of the Treaty stipulations, the English text shall be considered decisive. The Treaty shall come into operation within one month after the date when the ratifications may take place.

ARTICLE XXIII.

After the lapse of twelve years from the date on which this Treaty shall come into force, and on twelve months' notice given by either party, this Treaty shall be subject to revision by Plenipotentiaries appointed on both sides for this purpose, who shall be empowered to decide on and adopt such amendments as experience shall prove to be desirable.

VICTORIAN NAVAL BRIGADE.—REGULATIONS FOR THE ENTRY, PAY, AND SERVICE OF STOKERS.

PRESENT :

Mr. Graham

WHEREAS by the Defences and Discipline Act 1890 it is amongst other things provided that the Governor may make rules and regulations for the employment, removal, or dismissal, and for the better government, of persons engaged by virtue of Part I. of the said Act, and for enforcing good order and discipline among them, and otherwise carrying out the said Part of the said Act, and from time to time annul, alter, or amend the same, and substitute others in lieu thereof: Now therefore His Excellency the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth hereby make the following Regulations for the entry, pay, and service of Stokers in the Victorian Naval Brigade (that is to say):—

REGULATIONS FOR STOKERS OF NAVAL BRIGADE.

Stokers of the Naval Brigade will receive the annual retainer of £8 provided for in paragraph 42 of the Financial and Store Regulations, payable in quarterly instalments, such retainer being subject to their fulfilling the following conditions in regard to drills and attendance on duty:—

- |                 |  |
|-----------------|--|
| 1st Quarter ... | 3 half days afloat2 night drills ashore                            |
| 2nd Quarter ... | 2 night drills ashore* Attendance on board duringEaster cruise |
| 3rd Quarter ... | 3 half days afloat2 night drills ashore                            |
| 4th Quarter ... | 3 half days afloat2 night drills ashore                            |

* The days afloat at Easter must count for retainer, irrespective of the number of hours.

Should Easter fall in the first quarter of the year, the drills detailed for the second quarter will be performed in the first quarter, and vice versa.

During the Easter cruise, and when afloat under steam on occasions other than those specified above, stokers will, in addition to the retainer, receive the special pay provided for in paragraph 44 of the Financial and Store Regulations.

These attendances and hours of drill are exclusive of reviews or inspections called by the Officer Commanding the Imperial Naval Forces.

On drill nights ashore stokers will be limited to rifle and cutlass drill; on occasions of drill afloat they will be detailed to the torpedo boats or other vessels of the squadron to gain a knowledge of the engines and machinery in these vessels, in which steam will be got up when practicable.

They are to attend on board on the Saturdays regularly set apart for drill afloat for the Naval Brigade, and there will be no "make up" days for them, owing to steam being got up on the regular Saturdays only.

They will be provided with two suits—one of duck and one of canvas—and two white cap covers, in addition to one suit of blues as supplied to other members of the Naval Brigade; a white cord under the watch stripe will be worn as a distinctive badge.

They must produce certificates as to qualifications satisfactory to the Fleet Engineer of the Permanent Naval Forces.

Their employment on shore should be of such a nature that their services will be available at any time when required for duty afloat.

Non-attendance when called out for the Easter cruise, or not obtaining three-fourths of the retainer during the year, will render any stoker liable to be dispensed with, as it is expected that the services of all those joining the Naval Brigade will always be available should any emergency arise.

And the Honorable George Davis, Her Majesty's Minister of Defence for Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

LICENCES TO OCCUPY WORKED-OUT AURIFEROUS

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS.

*At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the twenty-second

PRESENT :

His Excellency the Governor.

Mr. Shiels	Mr. Davis
Sir Graham Berry	Mr. Zeal
Mr. McLean	Mr. Gavan Duffy
Mr. Outtrim	Mr. Brown.
Mr. Graham

WHEREAS by the Land Act 1891 (55 Vict. No. 1246) it is amongst other things enacted that, pursuant to the provisions of the Land Act 1890, the Governor in Council may make regulations for carrying out the provisions of the said Land Act 1891: Now therefore His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, doth hereby make the following Additional Regulations regarding applications for licences under section 22 of the Land Act 1891 aforesaid to occupy Worked-out Auriferous Lands, that is to say:—

Applications for licences under section 22 of the Land Act 1891 to occupy Worked-out Auriferous Lands shall, in addition to the Regulations dated the 13th June, 1892, be subject to the following Regulations:—

(a) Every intending applicant for any such licence shall, during office hours, deliver or cause to be delivered an application describing the land applied for in the prescribed form to the Land

Officer for the district in which the land is situated. The applicant shall, before lodging his application, pay to the nearest Receiver of Revenue the sum of One pound (except as provided in sub-section b following) for a certificate of registration, which the said Receiver shall thereupon hand to him, and such sum shall not in any case be refunded.

(b) An applicant for a licence who has paid with his application the sum of One pound for a certificate of registration shall, in the event of such licence not being granted by the Governor in Council, be permitted to lodge, during the period of one year from the date of such application, one or more applications, with each of which the sum of Two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) shall be paid.

(c) The applicant shall post or deliver to the Land Officer with his application the said certificate of registration, and no application shall be deemed to be an application unless the said certificate be forwarded therewith. The Land Officer shall enter the applications as received in the book kept for the purpose. Applications received by the Land Officer upon one and the same day shall be deemed to be equal so far as regards priority of lodging application.

(d) The Land Officer shall notify by post to every applicant and to every person who in his opinion is interested for or against the application, the time and the place of the meeting of the Local Land Board at which such application and the objections (if any) thereto will be heard; but no person shall be deemed to have any right to receive any such notice, and any objection to any such application may be taken by any person, and shall be considered at the hearing, although no notice thereof has been given. Except when specially ordered otherwise by the Minister, all applications for land shall be brought before the Local Land Board sitting at the locality nearest which the land referred to is situated, and the applicants shall attend such Local Land Boards in their own proper persons.

(e) After the consideration of the report of the Local Land Board and approval of the issue of a licence, the applicant shall pay the licence-fee for one year's occupation of the land described therein, and a fee of Two shillings and sixpence (2s. 6d.) for the preparation of the licence; also, if necessary, the charge for survey, together with such other sums as may be required in special cases for value of improvements. The applicant shall be advised to pay the said sums within one month from the date of notification of the approval of the issue of the licence. Every such licence shall bear date as of the first day of the month next after that in which the issue of such licence shall have been approved, and shall be in the prescribed form; but the diagram of boundaries and statement of area shall be deemed as approximate and temporary only. Provided always that the Governor in Council may, if he think fit, order that a licence be subject to such special conditions as may be necessary to meet the circumstances of any particular case.

(f) If any person whose application for a licence has been approved fail to pay the licence-fees, sums, and fees as hereinbefore directed, within one month of the date of the notice of approval, his application shall be liable to be deemed abandoned, and the area applied for shall be liable to be made available for selection.

(g) Unless by the express direction of the Minister, all subsequent payments of licence-fees shall be made to the Receiver in whose district the land is situated; and no Receiver shall receive any moneys on account of licences unless advised from the Department of Lands and Survey so to do.

And the Honorable Allan McLean, Her Majesty's Commissioner of Crown Lands and Survey for Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

G. WILSON BROWN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Every licence granted under section 123 of the Land Act 1890 shall be subject to the conditions set forth in the schedule hereto, and to such special conditions and payment in advance of such fee as the Minister may determine, and shall be issued by an officer of the Department of Lands and Survey duly authorized in that behalf.

Under section 7 of the Vermin Destruction Act 1890, all licensees under the section for which these licences will issue are liable for the destruction of rabbits within the boundaries of their licences.

Conditions :

1. The issue of this licence shall not prevent the land comprised therein, or any part or parts thereof, being sold, leased, licensed, alienated, or dealt with under any of the provisions of the Land Act 1890, except under the 123rd section thereof, under which the licence is issued, or being resumed by order of the Governor or Administrator of the Government of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, for any of the purposes for which land may be reserved under section 10 of the Land Act 1890, or for mining purposes.

2. In case the said land, or any part or parts thereof, shall be sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid, the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation other than the return of such portion of his licence-fee paid by him as the responsible Minister of the Crown for the time being administering Division II. of the Land Act 1890 may think fit. This licence is also subject to the rights of the holders of miners' rights or of mining leases now issued or hereafter to be issued to enter upon the allotment hereby licensed, and to search for gold, and to mine therein, and to erect and occupy mining plant and machinery, without making any compensation for surface or other damage.

3. Subject to these conditions, the licensee shall be entitled to use the land for the purposes for which the licence has been granted, until notice has been given in the Government Gazette that such land, or any part thereof, has been sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid; and immediately upon such notice being given, all the interest of the licensee in the licensed land described in such notice shall cease and be determined, and any person entitled to occupy the licensed land, or any part thereof, may lawfully make entry upon and hold the same without the permission or sanction of the licensee or any one claiming under her, him, or them.

4. No land comprised in roads from time to time surveyed and marked out within the boundaries of the land comprised in this licence shall be deemed within its operation.

5. This licence entitles the holder thereof, during the period for which it is granted, to use the land therein comprised for depasturing purposes only, but does not confer any right to build thereon, or to cultivate or to fence any portion thereof.

6. If the licensee desire a renewal of this licence, notice to that effect must be given to the responsible Minister aforesaid one month prior to the expiration thereof, but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer the right to any renewal.

7. The interest in this licence may not be transferred without the consent of the Minister aforesaid and the payment of a fee of £1.

8. No claim whatever shall be made or entertained by reason of the licence not being renewed or transferred.

9. This licence is to be used under and in accordance with the regulations made or to be made under the provisions of the said Act and for the time being in force.

10. This licence may be forfeited if the licensee commit a breach of or neglect to comply with any of these conditions.

11. The publication of a notice in the Government Gazette, purporting to declare that the Governor or Administrator, with the advice aforesaid, has forfeited this licence, shall be conclusive evidence that the licence is forfeited.

12. The ring-barking of the timber upon the land by the licensee is expressly forbidden, nor is he entitled to destroy or cut and take away any such timber; and should he be found destroying, felling, or removing live or dead timber without a licence authorizing him so to do, he will be prosecuted according to law.

The fee for the period from 1st October, 1892, to 31st December, 1892—for which the licence will be issued—must accompany the tender, or be paid by the successful tenderer or his agent immediately on the declaration of the acceptance of the tender, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who may be prepared to comply with this condition may be accepted.

3. Tenders to be for so much per lot and block per annum.

4. Separate tenders must be lodged for each block.

5. Tenders to be indorsed—"Tender for Lot 1, Block 788," or "Lot 2, Block, 2971," or "Lot 3, Block 3278," as the case may be.

SHIRE OF BACCHUS MARSH.

NOTICE is hereby given that it is the intention of the Council of the Shire of Bacchus Marsh, under section 428 of the Local Government Act 1890, to apply to the Governor in Council to grant to Edward Lynch, of Coimadai, a licence to close, with unlocked swing gates, for a period of three years, the road leading from the Gisborne-road east, in the parish of Coimadai. The said road commences at the north-west angle of allotment 60, and extends along the northern boundary of that allotment, in the parish of Coimadai, and the southern boundary of allotment 16, in the parish of Coimadai, county of Bourke. The following are the reasons for the aforesaid application:—

1. The land adjoining each side of the road belongs to Edward Lynch, and therefore the temporary closing of the road will not create any inconvenience.

2. The said road has been closed with slip panels for about fifteen years.

3. The traffic along the said road is so slight that the continuation of the temporary closing of the same by means of unlocked swing gates will not be injurious to the public.

DIRECTORS' REPORT.

To the Shareholders Yarra Yarra Starr-Bowkett Building Society, Ladies and Gentlemen.

It is with the greatest pleasure that we present to you the Second Annual Balance-sheet, from which you will see that the progress made by the society during the year has fully realized the expectations of the board, and is in the highest degree satisfactory.

There has been a considerable increase in the amount of subscriptions received compared with last year, and lapsed shares are still bringing a premium of £2 per cluster—the total amount of premiums so obtained during the last twelve months amounting to £94.

The sum paid away in ballots amounts to £8,035, as against £4,565 last year, and the sum disposed of by sale £8,490, as against £4,265—showing a total increase in the sums advanced on mortgage as compared with last year of £7,695.

The total premiums obtained on the advances sold and taken up amount to £4,422 5s., being an average of £52 per cent. This is somewhat less than the average of last year, but your Board considered it better to accept smaller premiums and get first-class securities than to hold out for larger premiums and be obliged to accept securities showing an insufficient margin.

We are glad to report that, with two exceptions, all the borrowers are making their repayments regularly. In both of these cases, however, the securities are, in our opinion, ample to protect the society against loss, if we should be obliged to foreclose; but we do not consider that this will be rendered necessary, as the borrowers have in both cases promised to pay up, and, we believe, are making arrangements for doing so.

In valuing properties upon which we have passed loans, we have been most particular to secure the society against any loss.

As will be seen from the supplementary statement appended to the balance-sheet, the total profits, which will in the ordinary course be available for distribution among the members at the termination of the society, amount to the handsome sum of £7,655 19s. 11d., or over 30s. per share on the total number of shares.

Your board have much pleasure in reporting that the removal of the office to Flinders-lane from Lygon-street has given almost universal satisfaction, but they wish to point out that it seems useless to keep the office open after six o'clock on Wednesday evenings, as there are so very few members who take advantage of the two extra hours, and we, therefore, recommend that the two extra hours on Wednesday nights be dispensed with for the future.

The retiring members of the board are Messrs. Brennan, Andrew, and Whitmore, who, being eligible, offer themselves for re-election. The other nominations for the vacancies on the board are Mr. James Bennie, bank manager, Fitzroy; and Mr. P. H. O'Leary, No. 10 Gordon Chambers, Flinders-lane.

A monthly audit of the books of the society has been made regularly during the year by Messrs. Shalders and Edlin, who are the retiring auditors, and are also eligible for re-election, and present themselves accordingly.

The directors have held twenty meetings during the year, four of which they have received no fees for. Their attendances at the various board meetings have been as follow:—Beazley, 19; Brennan, 19; Andrew, 19; Simpson, 20; Whitmore, 20; Fawcett, 20; Warming, 20; Owen, 19; Hancock, 19.

Signed on behalf of the board of management,
WM. D. BEAZLEY, Chairman.
GEORGE A. S. GRIFFIN, Secretary.
