REGULATIONS FOR THE CARE, PROTECTION, AND MANAGEMENT OF THE RESERVE FOR PUBLIC
RECREATION AND SHOW YARDS IN THE PARISH OF BRIGHT.

WE, Henry Seymour Smith, Henry Symonds, Robert Beveridge, George Holstein, John Brückner, Thomas Caesar Kaighin, George Seymour Larkan, Eustace Lyndon Smith, and Hartley Taylor, the duly appointed Committee of Management of the Reserve for Public Recreation and Show Yards in the parish of Bright, having framed the following Regulations for the care, protection, and management thereof, and for the preservation of good order and decency therein, and also for the collection and receipt of tolls, entrance fees, or other charges for entering therein or thereupon, submit the said Regulations to the Board of Land and Works, to be made by such Board in pursuance of the powers conferred by section 136 of the Land Act 1890:-

REGULATIONS.

1. The reserve shall be open to the public, free of charge, from sunrise to sunset, except as hereinafter provided.
2. No person shall enter or remain in the reserve who may offend against decency as regards dress, language, or conduct; and no society, club, picnic party, or other combined body shall be allowed the use of the reserve without the written consent of the committee of management.
3. No person shall climb or jump over the fences or gates, stick bills thereon, or cut names on the fences, trees, or seats, or in any way damage any of the buildings, gates, fences, or other property in or around the reserve, or leave, throw, or roll stones therein, or pollute any water in the reserve, or remove therefrom any soil, sand, or manure.
4. No person shall depasture in the reserve any horses or cattle without the permission, in writing, of the committee of management, and then only in such portions thereof as may be specified in such permission. Provided always that the moneys received for agistment shall be expended in the maintenance and improvement of the reserve, and that an account thereof shall be furnished annually to the Board of Land and Works.
5. No person shall interfere with the trees, shrubs, or other property in the reserve, or throw stones or other missiles, or commit any nuisance therein, or leave therein any bottles, orange peel, paper, cast-off clothing, or any litter.
6. No person shall erect any booth or other structure in the reserve, or hawk or offer for sale therein any goods or articles of any description without having first obtained the written permission of the committee of management; and no person shall light any fires in the reserve without the special permission, in writing, of the committee of management.
7. No person, except labourers or workmen employed in the reserve, shall enter any plots therein which may be enclosed for plantations of young trees or shrubs.
8. No person shall bring into the reserve any dog for coursing or other purposes of sports, or for bathing, and all dogs so brought in and all goats and poultry found in the reserve shall be liable to be destroyed.

No. 71.—MAY 22, 1894.—1.

9. The following shall be the scale of fees which may be charged and taken for admission to the reserve on such days (not exceeding twelve in any one year) as the same may be set apart for the holding therein of fêtes, sports, or shows:-

- For the admission of every adult to the reserve, such a sum as the committee of management may determine, not exceeding One shilling.
- For the admission of every saddle-horse to the reserve, exclusive of rider, such a sum as the committee of management may determine, not exceeding One shilling and sixpence.
- For the admission to the reserve of every carriage, cart, or vehicle drawn by one horse, exclusive of passengers, such a sum as the committee of management may determine, not exceeding Two shillings.
- For the admission of every additional horse, One shilling.

Every person offending against these Regulations shall, in accordance with section 136 of the Land Act 1890, on conviction before any justice, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for each offence; and every person who knowingly and wilfully offends against any such Regulations, and who, after he has been warned by any bailiff of Crown lands or any constable, does not desist from so offending, may be forthwith apprehended by such bailiff or constable and taken before some justice of the peace, and shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.

Dated at Bright this 7th day of March, 1894.

REGULATIONS FOR THE CARE, PROTECTION, AND MANAGEMENT OF THE RESERVE FOR PUBLIC RECREATION IN THE TOWN OF OAKLEIGH.

WE, Charles Nelson and Thomas Davey, Councillors of the Borough of Oakleigh, being a majority of the duly appointed trustees of the land permanently reserved by Order of 7th May, 1884, as a site for Public Recreation in the town of Oakleigh, having framed the following Regulations for the care, protection, and management thereof, and for the preservation of good order and decency therein, and also for the collection and receipt of tolls, entrance fees, or other charges for entering therein or thereupon, submit the said Regulations to the Board of Land and Works, to be made by such Board in pursuance of the powers conferred by section 136 of the Land Act 1890.

REGULATIONS.

1. The reserve shall be parcelled out into the following divisions:—

- (1) The cricket and football pavilion and enclosure.
- (2) The tennis court enclosure, including the asphalt courts and pavilion.
- (3) The remainder of the reserve.

2. All persons shall be admitted to the third division of the reserve, free of charge, from sunrise to sunset, except on such days (not exceeding twelve in any one year) as the reserve may be set apart for cricket or football matches, athletic, or other sports or holiday amusements, on any of which occasions a sum not exceeding One shilling may be charged for the admission of every adult to the third division of the reserve.

3. The trustees shall be at liberty from time to time to authorize the issue of tickets of admission to the first and second divisions respectively, and upon such issue no person shall enter at any time into either of such divisions except on production of a ticket so issued.

4. No person shall erect any building or booth in the reserve for the purpose of offering for sale any article, without the consent, in writing, of the trustees first obtained.

5. No person shall enter or remain in the reserve who may offend against decency as regards dress, language, or conduct.

6. No person shall damage in any way any buildings, fences, asphalt, netting, posts, trees, shrubs, or flowers in the reserve, nor shall fires be lighted therein.

7. No person shall climb or jump over the fences or gates, stick bills thereon, or cut names on the fences, trees, or seats, or roll or throw stones in the reserve.

8. No person shall put in the reserve any horses (except for necessary work), cattle, goats, pigs, or geese.

9. No person shall bring into the reserve any dog, unless led by a cord or chain, without the consent, in writing, of the trustees first obtained.

10. No person, except labourers or workmen employed in the reserve, shall enter into any plots therein which may be enclosed for plantations of young trees or shrubs.

11. Any person committing in any part of the reserve, or in any of the buildings or erections for the time being thereon, any of the following offences shall be liable to be removed from the reserve, notwithstanding such person may have paid for admission or have a ticket for admission thereto:—

- (1) Assaulting any other person.
- (2) Being drunk.
- (3) Crossing or trespassing upon the playing ground or tennis court enclosure (as the case may be) during any cricket match, football match, tennis match, or sports, or during practice at cricket, football, or tennis, or when crossing or trespassing upon the playing ground or tennis court enclosure would be injurious to either of them as a cricket ground, football ground, or tennis court respectively.
- (4) Using profane, indecent, or obscene language.
- (5) Using any threatening, abusive, or insulting words.
- (6) Behaving improperly or riotously.
- (7) Improperly interfering with or interrupting any cricket match, football match, or tennis match, or practice, or any athletic or other sports or holiday amusements.
- (8) Obtaining admission to any part of the first, second, or third division when not entitled to such admission under these Regulations.
- (9) Offering to the public any wager or bet.
- (10) Calling the odds upon any race or event.

Every person offending against these Regulations shall, in accordance with section 136 of the Land Act 1890, on conviction before any justice, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for each offence; and every person who knowingly and wilfully offends against any such Regulations, and who, after he has been warned by any bailiff of Crown lands or any constable, does not desist from so offending, may be forthwith apprehended by such bailiff or constable and taken before some justice of the peace, and shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.

Dated the 4th day of May, 1894.

CHARLES NELSON.
THOS. DAVEY.

THE Board of Land and Works, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Land Act 1890, section 136, doth hereby make the foregoing Regulations in respect of the land permanently reserved by Order of 7th May, 1884, as a site for Public Recreation in the town of Oakleigh.

The common seal of the Board of Land and Works was hereunto affixed this 14th day of May, 1894, in the presence of—
