Income Tax Acts.

REGULATIONS.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the twentieth day of December, 1900.

PRESENT :

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor.

Mr. Morrissey
Mr. Burton
Mr. Gurr

Mr. Crooke
Mr. McGregor.

WHEREAS by the Income Tax Act 1895 (58 Vict. No. 1374) it is amongst other things enacted that the Governor in Council may make regulations not inconsistent with the said Act for the purposes, or any of them, therein mentioned : Now therefore His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth by this Order make the following Regulations (that is to say) :—

1. The notice to make Returns for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, shall be in the following form :—

“ Income Tax.

“ NOTICE TO MAKE RETURNS.

“ Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of the Income Tax Acts and the Regulations made thereunder, every person and company (other than a company under section 10 of the Income Tax Act 1895) liable to make any return or declaration under the said Acts or Regulations, is hereby required to duly make and furnish to me in the prescribed form such return or declaration on or before the 1st day of March, 1901.

"And every company liable to make a return under section 10 of the Income Tax Act 1895 or under the Regulations is hereby required to duly make and furnish to me in the prescribed form such return on or before the 31st day of March, 1901.

"Every such return or declaration shall be addressed to the Commissioner of Taxes, and be delivered at, or forwarded by post to, the Income Tax Office, Queen-street, Melbourne.

"Any person or company failing or neglecting to furnish a return or declaration at the prescribed time, or making a false return, is under the said Acts liable to a penalty of not less than £2 nor more than £100, and will be assessed and charged a double amount of tax in addition to the tax for which he would have been otherwise liable; and under the said Acts the Commissioner may assess any such defaulter for such sum as the Commissioner thinks ought to be charged.

"Any person making a false declaration is liable to be prosecuted for perjury.

"Dated this . . . day of . . . , 1901.

"Commissioner of Taxes.

"Income Tax Office, Queen-street, Melbourne."

2. A return for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, in the form in Schedule A hereto, containing the information and particulars mentioned or referred to in such form, and verified by the declaration therein set forth, and accompanied by such balance-sheets, statements, lists, and other documents as may be mentioned in such form or as may be requisite, shall be furnished to the Commissioner on or before the 1st day of March, 1901, by—

- (a) Every person carrying on any profession, vocation, trade, business, calling, employment, occupation, manufacture, adventure, or concern, and every person employed at wages, salary, or other remuneration, or receiving pension allowance, superannuation, or other emolument, and those receiving income from property or from any other source whatever, whose income, earned in or derived from Victoria, amounts to £200 per annum or upwards;
- (b) Every attorney or agent for any taxpayer permanently or temporarily absent from Victoria;
- (c) Every trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, committee, or receiver entitled to or having the management, receipt, care, or control of any income earned in or derived from Victoria.

3. Every return required by the Commissioner in pursuance of any of the provisions of the Income Tax Acts shall be furnished to the Commissioner within fourteen days from the date of the notice requiring the return to be furnished.

4. The return for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, to be furnished on behalf of a company within the operation of Section 10 of the Principal Act and carrying on in Victoria the business of bankers shall show the assets and liabilities of such company, and the return for the like period to be furnished by any other company within the operation of such section shall show the gross receipts of such company, and all such returns shall be in such one of the forms set forth in Schedule C hereto as may be applicable, and shall contain all the information and particulars therein mentioned, and shall be verified as therein set forth.

5. The form of declaration in lieu of return under the provisions of Section 18 of the Income Tax Act 1896, No. 1467, for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, shall be in the form Schedule H hereto.

6. The returns to be furnished for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, under the provisions of Section 38 (1) and (3) of the Principal Act shall be in the form in Schedule B hereto.

7. The returns to be furnished for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, under the provisions of Section 38 (2) of the Principal Act shall be in the form in Schedule D hereto.

8. The assessments of incomes for the period commencing on 1st day of January, 1901, shall be prepared on or before the 16th day of May, 1901.

9. Notice of the making of the assessment of income of any taxpayer for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, shall be given to such taxpayer pursuant to Section 23 of the Principal Act in the form in Schedule E hereto, with such additions to or variations of the particulars thereof as may in any particular case be required by the Commissioner.

10. The income tax on assessments of incomes for the period commencing on the 1st day of January, 1901, shall be paid in one sum on or before the 31st day of May, 1901.

SCHEDULES.
