At the Court at Saint James', the 6th day of March, 1902.

PRESENT:

The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Earl of Kintore.

Lord James of Hereford.

Sir Arthur Wilson.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1893, it is amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that His Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of His Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the twenty-ninth day of October, One thousand nine hundred and one, between His Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Belgians for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which treaty is in the terms following:—

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India, and His Majesty the King of the Belgians, having mutually resolved to conclude a new Treaty for the extradition of criminals, the said High Contracting Parties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:—

His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Emperor of India, Constantine Phipps, Esquire, Companion of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of the Belgians; and

His Majesty the King of the Belgians, the Baron de Favereau, Knight of His Order of Leopold, Member of the Senate, His Minister of Foreign Affairs:

No. 79.—JULY 9, 1902.—1.

Sa Majesté le Roi du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, Empereur des Indes, et Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges, ayant résolu de conclure un nouveau Traité pour l'extradition des criminels, les dites Hautes Parties Contractantes ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires, à l'effet de conclure un Traité dans ce but, savoir:

Sa Majesté le Roi du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, Empereur des Indes, Constantine Phipps, Esquire, Compagnon du Très Honorable Ordre du Bain, son Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges; et

Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges, Monsieur le Baron de Favereau, Chevalier de l'Ordre de Léopold, Sénateur, son Ministre des Affaires Etrangères:

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

It is agreed that His Britannic Majesty and His Majesty the King of the Belgians shall, on requisition made in their name by their respective Diplomatic Agents, deliver up to each other reciprocally, under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty, any persons who, being accused or convicted, as principals or accessories, of any of the crimes hereinafter specified committed within the territories of the requiring party, shall be found within the territories of the other party:—

29. Offences in connexion with the Slave Trade punishable by the laws of both States.

Provided that the surrender shall be made only when, in the case of a person accused, the commission of the crime shall be so established as that the laws of the country where the fugitive or person accused shall be found would justify his apprehension and commitment for trial if the crime had been there committed, and in the case of a person alleged to have been convicted, on such evidence as, according to the laws of the country where he is found, would prove that he had been convicted.

In no case can the surrender be made unless the crime shall be punishable according to the laws in force in both countries with regard to extradition.

In no case, nor on any consideration whatever, shall the High Contracting Parties be bound to surrender their own subjects, whether by birth or naturalization.

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué réciproquement leurs pleins pouvoirs, reconnus en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des Articles suivants:—

ARTICLE I.

Il est convenu que Sa Majesté Britannique et Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges, sur la demande faite en leur nom par leurs Agents Diplomatiques respectifs, se livreront réciproquement, sous les conditions stipulées dans le présent Traité, tous les individus qui, étant poursuivis ou condamnés comme auteurs ou complices, pour l'un des crimes ou délits ci-après spécifiés, commis sur le territoire de la partie requérante, seront trouvés sur le territoire de l'autre partie:—

13. Détournement ou dissipation frauduleux au préjudice d'autrui d'effets, deniers, marchandises, quittances, écrits de toute nature, contenant ou opérant obligation ou décharge, et qui avaient été remis à la condition de les rendre ou d'en faire un usage ou un emploi déterminé.

Toutefois, l'extradition ne sera accordée dans le cas d'une personne accusée que si la perpétration du crime ou du délit est établie de telle façon que les lois du pays où le fugitif accusé sera trouvé justifieraient son arrestation et son emprisonnement si le crime ou le délit avait été commis dans ce pays; et dans le cas d'une personne prétendument condamnée, que sur la production d'une preuve qui, d'après les lois du pays où le fugitif a été trouvé, établirait suffisamment qu'il a été condamné.

En aucun cas, l'extradition ne pourra avoir lieu que lorsque le crime ou le délit sera prévu par la législation sur l'extradition en vigueur dans les deux pays.

En aucun cas, ni sous aucun prétexte que ce soit, les Hautes Parties Contractantes ne seront obligées de livrer leurs nationaux, par naissance ou par naturalisation.

ARTICLE II.

In the dominions of His Britannic Majesty, other than the colonies or foreign possessions of His Majesty, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows:—

1. In the case of a person accused—

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to His Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Belgium, together with duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath or upon solemn affirmation before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any particulars which may serve to identify him.

The said Secretary of State shall transmit such documents to His Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, who shall then, by order under his hand and seal, signify to some Police Magistrate in London that such requisition has been made, and require him, if there be due cause, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive.

On the receipt of such order from the Secretary of State, and on the production of such evidence as would, in the opinion of the Magistrate, justify the issue of the warrant if the crime had been committed in the United Kingdom, he shall issue his warrant accordingly.

When the fugitive shall have been apprehended, he shall be brought before a competent Magistrate. If the evidence to be then produced shall be such as to justify, according to the law of England, the committal for trial of the prisoner, if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in England, the Magistrate shall commit him to prison to await the warrant of the Secretary of State for his surrender, sending immediately to the Secretary of State a certificate of the committal and a report upon the case.

After the expiration of a period from the committal of the prisoner, which shall never be less than fifteen days, the Secretary of State shall, by order under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as may be duly authorized to receive him on the part of the Government of His Majesty the King of the Belgians.

2. In the case of a person convicted—

The course of proceeding shall be the same as in the case of a person accused, except that the warrant to be transmitted by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent in support of his requisition shall clearly set forth the crime of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the fact, place, and date of his conviction. The evidence to be produced before the Magistrate shall be such as would, according to the law of England, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

After the Magistrate shall have committed the accused or convicted person to prison to await the order of a Secretary of State for his surrender, such person shall have the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus; if he should so apply, his surrender must be deferred until after the decision of the Court upon the return to the writ, and even then can only take place if the decision is adverse to the applicant.

ARTICLE III.

In the dominions of His Majesty the King of the Belgians, other than the colonies or foreign possessions of His said Majesty, the manner of proceeding shall be as follows:—

1. In the case of a person accused—

The requisition for the surrender shall be made to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of His Majesty the King of the Belgians by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent of His Britannic Majesty, accompanied by a warrant of arrest or other equivalent judicial document issued by a Judge or Magistrate duly authorized to take cognizance of the acts charged against the accused in Great Britain, together with duly authenticated depositions or statements taken on oath or upon solemn affirmation before such Judge or Magistrate, clearly setting forth the said acts, and containing a description of the person claimed, and any other particulars which may serve to identify him.

The Minister for Foreign Affairs shall transmit the warrant of arrest, with the documents thereto annexed, to the Minister of Justice, who shall forward the same to the proper judicial authority, in order that the warrant of arrest may be put in course of execution by the Chamber of the Council (Chambre du Conseil) of the Court of First Instance of the place of residence of the accused, or of the place where he may be found.

The foreigner may claim to be provisionally set at liberty in any case in which a Belgian enjoys that right, and under the same conditions.

The application shall be submitted to the Chamber of the Council (Chambre du Conseil).

The Government will take the opinion of the Chamber of Indictments or Investigation (Chambre des Mises en Accusation) of the Court of Appeal within whose jurisdiction the foreigner shall have been arrested.

The hearing of the case shall be public, unless the foreigner should demand that it should be with closed doors.

The public authorities and the foreigner shall be heard. The latter may obtain the assistance of counsel.

Within a fortnight from the receipt of the documents they shall be returned, with a reasoned opinion, to the Minister of Justice, who shall decide and may order that the accused be delivered to the person duly authorized on the part of the Government of His Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE II.

Dans les Etats de Sa Majesté Britannique, autres que les Colonies ou les possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté, la manière de procéder sera la suivante:—

1. S'il s'agit d'une personne accusée—

La demande d'extradition sera adressée au Premier Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté pour les Affaires Etrangères par le Ministre ou autre Agent Diplomatique de Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges. A cette demande seront joints un mandat d'arrêt ou autre document judiciaire équivalent, délivré par un Juge ou Magistrat dûment autorisé à prendre connaissance des actes imputés à l'accusé en Belgique, ainsi que les dépositions authentiques ou les déclarations faites sous serment ou sous affirmation solennelle devant ce Juge ou Magistrat, énonçant clairement les dits actes, et contenant outre le signalement de la personne réclamée, toutes les particularités qui pourraient servir à établir son identité.

Le dit Secrétaire d'Etat transmettra ces documents au Premier Secrétaire d'Etat de Sa Majesté Britannique pour les affaires Intérieures, qui, par un ordre de sa main et muni de son sceau, signifiera à l'un ou l'autre Magistrat de Police à Londres que la demande d'extradition a été faite, et le requerra, s'il y a lieu, de délivrer un mandat pour l'arrestation du fugitif.

A la réception d'un semblable ordre du Secrétaire d'Etat, et sur la production de telle preuve qui, dans l'opinion de ce Magistrat, justifierait l'émission du mandat si le crime avait été commis dans le Royaume-Uni, il délivrera le mandat requis.

Lorsque alors le fugitif aura été arrêté, il sera amené devant un Magistrat compétent. Si la preuve qu'on produira est de nature à justifier, selon la loi Anglaise, la mise en jugement du prisonnier, dans le cas où le crime dont il est accusé aurait été commis en Angleterre, le Magistrat l'enverra en prison pour attendre le mandat du Secrétaire d'Etat, nécessaire à l'extradition, et il adressera immédiatement au Secrétaire d'Etat une attestation de l'emprisonnement avec un rapport sur l'affaire.

Après l'expiration d'un certain temps, qui ne pourra jamais être moindre de quinze jours depuis l'emprisonnement de l'accusé, le Secrétaire d'Etat, par un ordre de sa main et muni de son sceau, ordonnera que le criminel fugitif soit livré à telle personne qui sera dûment autorisée à le recevoir au nom du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges.

2. S'il s'agit d'une personne condamnée.

La marche de la procédure sera la même que dans le cas d'une personne accusée, sauf que le mandat à transmettre par le Ministre ou autre Agent Diplomatique à l'appui de la demande d'extradition énoncera clairement le crime pour lequel la personne réclamée aura été condamnée, et mentionnera le fait, le lieu, et la date du jugement. La preuve à produire devant le Magistrat sera telle que, d'après la loi Anglaise, elle établirait que le prisonnier, a été condamné pour le crime dont on l'accuse.

Après que le Magistrat aura envoyé la personne accusée ou condamnée en prison pour attendre l'ordre d'extradition du Secrétaire d'Etat, cette personne aura le droit de réclamer une ordonnance d'habeas corpus; l'extradition doit alors être différée jusqu'après la décision de la Cour sur le renvoi de l'ordonnance, et elle ne pourra avoir lieu que si la décision est contraire au demandeur.

ARTICLE III.

Dans les Etats de Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges, autres que les Colonies ou possessions étrangères de sa dite Majesté, on procédera de la façon suivante:—

1. S'il s'agit d'une personne accusée—

La demande d'extradition sera adressée au Ministre des Affaires Etrangères de Sa Majesté le Roi des Belges par le Ministre ou autre Agent Diplomatique de Sa Majesté Britannique; à cette demande seront joint un mandat d'arrêt ou autre document judiciaire équivalent délivré par un Juge ou Magistrat dûment autorisé à prendre connaissance des actes imputés à l'accusé dans la Grande-Bretagne, ainsi que les dépositions authentiques ou les déclarations faites sous serment ou sous affirmation solennelle devant ce Juge ou Magistrat, énonçant clairement les dits actes, et contenant outre le signalement de la personne réclamée, toutes les particularités qui pourraient servir à établir son identité.

Le Ministre des Affaires Etrangères transmettra le mandat d'arrêt, avec les pièces annexées, au Ministre de la Justice, qui fera parvenir les documents à l'autorité judiciaire, à l'effet de voir rendre le dit mandat d'arrêt exécutoire par la Chambre du Conseil du Tribunal de Première Instance du lieu de la résidence de l'inculpé, ou du lieu où il pourra être trouvé.

L'étranger pourra réclamer la liberté provisoire dans le cas où un Belge jouit de cette faculté, et dans les mêmes conditions.

La demande sera soumise à la Chambre du Conseil.

Le Gouvernement prendra l'avis de la Chambre des Mises en Accusation de la Cour d'Appel dans le ressort de laquelle l'étranger aura été arrêté.

L'audience sera publique, à moins que l'étranger ne réclame le huis-clos.

Le Ministère Public et l'étranger seront entendus. Celui-ci pourra se faire assister d'un conseil.

Dans la quinzaine à dater de la réception des pièces, elles seront renvoyées avec l'avis motivé au Ministre de la Justice, qui statuera et pourra ordonner que l'inculpé soit livré à la personne qui sera dûment autorisée au nom du Gouvernement de Sa Majesté Britannique.

2. In case of a person convicted—

The course of proceeding shall be the same as in the case of a person accused, except that the conviction or sentence of condemnation issued in original, or in an authenticated copy, to be transmitted by the Minister or other Diplomatic Agent in support of his requisition, shall clearly set forth the crime of which the person claimed has been convicted, and state the fact, place, and date of his conviction. The evidence to be produced shall be such as would, according to the Belgian laws, prove that the prisoner was convicted of the crime charged.

ARTICLE IV.

A fugitive criminal may, however, be apprehended under a warrant signed by any Police Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, and such evidence, or after such proceedings as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in that part of the dominions of the two contracting parties in which he exercises jurisdiction: Provided, however, that, in the United Kingdom, the accused shall, in such case, be sent as speedily as possible before a competent Magistrate. He shall be discharged, as well in the United Kingdom as in Belgium, if within fourteen days a requisition shall not have been made for his surrender by the Diplomatic Agent of the requiring State in the manner directed by Articles II and III of this Treaty.

The same rule shall apply to the cases of persons accused or convicted of any of the crimes specified in this Treaty, and committed on the high seas on board any vessel of either country which may come into a port of the other.

ARTICLE V.

If within two months, counting from the date of arrest, sufficient evidence for the extradition shall not have been presented, the person arrested shall be set at liberty. He shall likewise be set at liberty if, within two months of the day on which he was placed at the disposal of the Diplomatic Agent, he shall not have been sent off to the reclaiming country.

ARTICLE VI.

When any person shall have been surrendered by either of the High Contracting Parties to the other, such person shall not, until he has been restored, or had an opportunity of returning to the country from whence he was surrendered, be triable or tried for any offence committed in the other country prior to the surrender, other than the particular offence on account of which he was surrendered.

ARTICLE VII.

No accused or convicted person shall be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded shall be deemed by the party upon which it is made to be a political offence, or to be an act connected with (connexe à) such an offence, or if he prove to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, or of the Court before which he is brought on habeas corpus, or to the Secretary of State, that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or to punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VIII.

Warrants, depositions, or statements on oath issued or taken in the dominions of either of the two High Contracting Parties, and copies thereof, and certificates of or judicial documents stating the fact of conviction, shall be received in evidence in proceedings in the dominions of the other, if purporting to be signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of the country where they were issued or taken.

Provided such warrants, depositions, statements, copies, certificates, and judicial documents are authenticated by the oath or solemn affirmation of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE IX.

The surrender shall not take place if, since the commission of the acts charged, the accusation, or the conviction, exemption from prosecution or punishment, has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the country where the accused shall have taken refuge.

ARTICLE X.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers, on account of other crimes committed upon their respective territories, his surrender shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date; unless any other arrangement should be made between the Governments which have claimed him, either on account of the gravity of the crimes committed, or for any other reasons.

ARTICLE XI.

If the individual claimed should be under process, or condemned by the Courts of the country where he has taken refuge, his surrender may be deferred until he shall have been set at liberty in the course of law.

In case he should be proceeded against or detained in such country on account of obligations contracted towards private individuals, his surrender shall, nevertheless, take place, the injured party retaining his right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

2. S'il s'agit d'une personne condamnée—

Le cours de la procédure sera le même que dans le cas d'une personne accusée, sauf que le jugement ou l'arrêt de condamnation délivré en original ou en expédition authentique, à transmettre par le Ministre ou l'Agent Diplomatique à l'appui de la demande d'extradition, énoncera clairement le crime pour lequel la personne réclamée aura été condamnée, et mentionnera le fait, le lieu, et la date du jugement. La preuve à produire sera telle que, conformément aux lois Belges, elle établirait que le prisonnier a été condamné pour le crime dont on l'accuse.

ARTICLE IV.

Un criminel fugitif peut, cependant, être arrêté sur un mandat délivré par tout Magistrat de Police, Juge de Paix, ou autre autorité compétente dans chaque pays, à la suite d'un avis, d'une plainte, d'une preuve, ou de tout autre acte de procédure qui, dans l'opinion de la personne délivrant le mandat, justifierait ce mandat, si le crime avait été commis ou la personne condamnée dans la partie des Etats des deux Contractants où elle exerce juridiction: Pourvu que, cependant, s'il s'agit du Royaume-Uni, l'accusé soit, dans un pareil cas, envoyé aussi promptement que possible devant un Magistrat compétent. Il sera relâché, tant dans le Royaume-Uni qu'en Belgique, si dans les quatorze jours une demande d'extradition n'a pas été faite par l'Agent Diplomatique du pays requérant, suivant le mode indiqué par les Articles II et III de ce Traité.

La même règle s'appliquera aux cas de personnes poursuivies ou condamnées du chef de l'un des crimes spécifiés dans ce Traité, et commis en pleine mer, à bord d'un navire de l'un des deux pays, et qui viendrait dans un port de l'autre.

ARTICLE V.

Si endéans les deux mois à partir de la date de l'arrestation des documents suffisants n'ont pas été produits, l'individu arrêté sera mis en liberté. Il sera également mis en liberté si endéans les deux mois du jour où il a été placé à la disposition de l'Agent Diplomatique, il n'a pas été emmené dans le pays requérant.

ARTICLE VI.

Lorsqu'une personne aura été extradée par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, cette personne, jusqu'à ce qu'elle soit rentrée dans le pays d'où elle a été extradée, ou qu'elle ait eu occasion de le faire, ne sera poursuivie pour aucun délit commis dans l'autre pays avant l'extradition, autre que celui pour lequel l'extradition a eu lieu.

ARTICLE VII.

Aucune personne accusée ou condamnée ne sera extradée si le délit pour lequel l'extradition est demandée est considérée par la partie requise comme un délit politique, ou un fait connexe à un semblable délit, ou si la personne prouve à la satisfaction du Magistrat ou de la Cour devant laquelle elle est amenée pour l'habeas corpus, ou du Secrétaire d'Etat, que la demande d'extradition a été faite, en réalité, dans le but de la poursuivre ou de la punir pour un délit d'un caractère politique.

ARTICLE VIII.

Les mandats, dépositions, déclarations, sous serment délivrés ou recueillis dans les Etats de l'une des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes, les copies de ces pièces, ainsi que les certificats ou les documents judiciaires établissant le fait de la condamnation, seront reçus comme preuve dans la procédure des Etats de l'autre Partie, s'ils sont revêtus de la signature ou accompagnés de l'attestation d'un Juge, Magistrat, ou fonctionnaire du pays où ils ont été délivrés ou recueillis:

Pourvu que ces mandats, dépositions, déclarations, copies, certificats, et documents judiciaires soient rendus authentiques par le serment ou affirmation solennelle d'un témoin, ou par le sceau officiel du Ministre de la Justice ou d'un autre Ministre d'Etat.

ARTICLE IX.

L'extradition n'aura pas lieu si, depuis les faits imputés, les poursuites, ou la condamnation, la prescription de l'action ou de la peine est acquise d'après les lois du pays où le prévenu s'est réfugié.

ARTICLE X.

Si l'individu réclamé par l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes, en exécution du présent Traité, est aussi réclamé par une ou plusieurs autres Puissances du chef d'autres crimes commis sur leurs territoires respectifs, son extradition sera accordée à l'Etat dont la demande est la plus ancienne en date à moins qu'il n'existe entre les Gouvernements qui l'ont réclamé un arrangement qui déciderait de la préférence, soit à raison de la gravité des crimes commis, soit à raison de tout autre motif.

ARTICLE XI.

Si l'individu réclamé est poursuivi ou condamné par les Tribunaux du pays où il s'est réfugié, son extradition pourra être différée jusqu'à ce qu'il ait été mis en liberté selon le cours régulier de la loi.

Dans le cas où il serait poursuivi ou détenu dans le même pays à raison d'obligations par lui contractées envers des particuliers, son extradition n'en aura pas moins lieu, sauf à la partie lésée à faire valoir ses droits devant l'autorité compétente.

July 9, 1902.

ARTICLE XII.

Every article found in the possession of the individual claimed at the time of his arrest shall, if the competent authority so decide, be seized, in order to be delivered up with his person at the time when the surrender shall be made. Such delivery shall not be limited to the property or articles obtained by stealing or by fraudulent bankruptcy, but shall extend to everything that may serve as proof of the crime. It shall take place even when the surrender, after having been ordered, shall be prevented from taking place by reason of the escape or death of the individual claimed.

The rights of third parties with regard to the said property or articles are, nevertheless, reserved.

ARTICLE XIII.

Each of the High Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons whom it may consent to surrender in pursuance of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XIV.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of the two High Contracting Parties.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in a Colony or foreign possession of either Party shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the Chief Consular Officer of the other in such Colony or possession; or if the fugitive has escaped from a Colony or foreign possession of the Party on whose behalf the requisition is made, by the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the respective Governors or chief authorities, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to their Government.

His Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Belgian criminals who may there take refuge, on the basis, as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XV.

The present Treaty shall come into operation ten days after its publication, in conformity with the laws of the respective countries.

From the day when the present Treaty shall come into force, the Treaty of Extradition between the two countries of the 20th May, 1876; the Declaration between the British and Belgian Governments, dated the 23rd July, 1877, extending the Treaty of the 20th May, 1876, to certain additional crimes; the further Declaration of the 21st April, 1887, amending Article I of the Treaty of the 20th May, 1876; and the Convention of the 27th August, 1896, further amending the Treaty of the 20th May, 1876, shall all cease to have effect; but the present Treaty shall apply to all crimes within the Treaty whether committed before or after the day when it comes into force.

Either party may at any time terminate the Treaty on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Brussels as soon as may be within six weeks from the date of signature.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at Brussels, the twenty-ninth day of October, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and one.

ARTICLE XII.

Tout objet trouvé en la possession de l'individu réclamé au moment de son arrestation sera, si l'autorité compétente en a ainsi ordonné, saisi, pour être livré avec sa personne lorsque l'extradition aura lieu. Cette remise ne sera pas limitée aux objets acquis par vol ou banqueroute frauduleuse, mais elle s'étendra à toute chose qui pourrait servir de pièce de conviction. Elle se fera même si l'extradition, après avoir été accordée, ne peut s'accomplir par suite de l'évasion ou de la mort de l'individu réclamé.

Sont, cependant, réservés les droits des tiers sur les objets susmentionnés.

ARTICLE XIII.

Chacune des Hautes Parties Contractantes supportera les frais occasionnés par l'arrestation sur son territoire, la détention, et le transport à la frontière des personnes qu'elle consentirait à extraditer en exécution du présent Traité.

ARTICLE XIV.

Les stipulations du présent Traité seront applicables aux Colonies et possessions étrangères des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes.

La demande d'extradition d'un criminel fugitif qui s'est réfugié dans une Colonie ou possession étrangère de l'une des Parties sera faite au Gouverneur ou au fonctionnaire principal de cette Colonie ou possession par le principal Agent Consulaire de l'autre dans cette Colonie ou possession; ou, si le fugitif s'est échappé d'une Colonie ou possession étrangère de la Partie au nom de laquelle l'extradition est demandée, par le Gouverneur ou le fonctionnaire principal de cette Colonie ou possession.

Ces demandes seront faites ou accueillies en suivant toujours, aussi exactement que possible, les stipulations de ce Traité par les Gouverneurs ou premiers fonctionnaires qui, cependant, auront la faculté ou d'accorder l'extradition ou d'en référer à leur Gouvernement.

Sa Majesté Britannique se réserve, cependant, le droit de faire des arrangements spéciaux dans les Colonies Anglaises ou possessions étrangères pour l'extradition de criminels Belges qui y auraient cherché refuge, en se conformant, aussi exactement que possible, aux stipulations du présent Traité.

ARTICLE XV.

Le présent Traité entrera en vigueur dix jours après sa publication dans les formes prescrites par la législation des pays respectifs.

A partir du jour où le présent Traité entrera en vigueur, le Traité d'Extradition entre les deux pays du 20 Mai, 1876, la Déclaration entre les Gouvernements Britannique et Belge du 23 Juillet, 1877, étendant le Traité du 20 Mai, 1876, à certains autres délits, la Déclaration du 21 Avril, 1887, modifiant l'Article I^{er} du Traité du 20 Mai, 1876, et la Convention du 27 Août, 1896, portant nouvelle modification du Traité du 20 Mai, 1876, cesseront leurs effets; mais le présent Traité sera applicable à tous les délits prévus au Traité qu'ils aient été commis avant ou après la date où il sera entré en vigueur.

Chaque Partie peut en tout temps mettre fin au Traité en donnant à l'autre, six mois à l'avance, avis de son intention.

ARTICLE XVI.

Le présent Traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications seront échangées à Bruxelles le plus tôt possible dans les six semaines de la date de la signature.

En foi de quoi les Plénipotentiaires respectifs ont signé ce même Traité, et y ont apposé le sceau de leurs armes.

Fait à Bruxelles, le vingt-neuvième jour du mois d'Octobre, de l'an de grâce mil neuf cent un.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Brussels on the sixth day of December, One thousand nine hundred and one.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to him by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the seventeenth day of March, One thousand nine hundred and two, the said Acts shall apply in the case of Belgium, and of the said Treaty with Belgium.

Provided always that the operation of the said Acts shall be and remain suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in One thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," shall continue in force there, and no longer.

CARRIAGE OF LAMPBLACK ON BOARD SHIP.

THE following Notice to Shipowners and Shipmasters which has been received from the Board of Trade is published for the information of whom it may concern.

By order of the Marine Board of Victoria,
J. GEO. MCKIE, Secretary.
Melbourne, 30th June, 1902.

THE Board of Trade are advised that, although spontaneous ignition of lampblack is an extremely rare occurrence, the possibility of its taking place cannot be entirely dismissed from consideration.

It is, therefore, suggested that special stowage in the vicinity of the hatchways, and where it is protected from the wet, should be provided.

Printed paper should not be used in connexion with the packing of lampblack, but when put up in paper parcels and packed in casks, or in casks simply lined with paper, or in cases or drums, it may be carried on board ship with comparative safety.

TENDERS FOR GRAZING LANDS.

Tenders must be sent in on proper form, which can be obtained on application to the Lands Department, Melbourne, or any of the Survey Offices in the country.

Tenders must be placed in the Crown Lands Office Tender-box not later than Twelve noon on Monday, 28th July, 1902.

NOTE.—No tender will be accepted unless the fee for the period from 1st August, 1902, to 30th June, 1903, and fee of Five shillings for licence, are forwarded with the tender.

TENDERS will be received by the Board of Land and Works up to Twelve noon on Monday, 28th July, 1902, for the occupation, for grazing purposes only, of the following unsuited portions of land, subject to the Regulations approved by the Governor in Council and also the subjoined special conditions.

Every licence granted under section 187 of the Land Act 1901 shall be subject to the conditions set forth in the schedule hereto and to such special conditions and payment in advance of such fee as the Minister may determine, and shall be issued by an officer of the Department of Lands and Survey duly authorized in that behalf.

Conditions:

1. The issue of this licence shall not prevent the land comprised therein, or any part or parts thereof, being sold, leased, licensed, alienated, or dealt with under any of the provisions of the Land Acts, except under the 187th section of the Land Act 1901, or being resumed by order of the Governor or Administrator of the Government of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, for any of the purposes for which land may be reserved under section 10 of the Land Act 1901, or for mining purposes.

2. In case the said land, or any part thereof, should be sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid, the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation other than that which the responsible Minister of the Crown for the time being administering the Land Acts may think fit.

3. This licence is subject to the rights of the holders of miners' rights or of mining leases now issued or hereafter to be issued to enter upon the allotment hereby licensed, and to search for gold, and to mine thereon, and to erect and occupy mining plant and machinery, without making any compensation to the licensee, his executors, administrators, or assigns, for surface or other damage.

4. Subject to these conditions, the licensee shall be entitled to use the land for the purpose for which this licence has been granted, until such land, or any part thereof, has been sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid, and thereupon all the interest of the licensee therein shall cease and be determined.

5. No land comprised in roads from time to time surveyed and marked out within the boundaries of the land comprised in this licence shall be deemed within its operation.

6. This licence shall entitle the holder thereof, during the period for which it is granted, to use the land therein comprised for pasturing purposes only, but shall not confer any right to build thereon, or to cultivate or, without the permission of the Minister, fence any portion thereof, or construct a dam or tank.

6A. That in the event of the Minister granting permission to fence the whole or any part of this area, the licensee shall provide gates or slip panels in suitable places for the convenience of the public. No compensation will be allowed for fencing erected on boundaries of allotments alienated or in course of alienation.

That where improvements are authorized under section 189 of the Land Act 1901 the licensee shall notify, on completion, that such improvements have been made, otherwise the work will not be recognised.

7. The interest in this licence shall not be transferred without the consent of the Minister, and the payment of a fee of Ten shillings.

8. The licensee shall be liable to forfeiture if the licensee commit a breach of or neglect to comply with these conditions.

9. The publication of a notice in the Government Gazette, purporting to declare that the Governor or Administrator, with the advice aforesaid, has forfeited this licence, shall be conclusive evidence that the licence is forfeited.

10. The ring-barking of the timber upon the land by the licensee is expressly forbidden, and he shall not be entitled to destroy or cut and take away any such timber.

11. Free access to water shall be kept open at all times for travelling and other stock and for persons desiring to take water for domestic purposes.

12. The licensee shall destroy all thistles on the land, and on the half width of the adjoining roads, and shall be responsible for the destruction of thistles under the Thistle Act 1890 in like manner as holders of freehold lands.

13. The licensee shall keep the land free from vermin, and, should he fail to do so, the licence shall be liable to forfeiture.

14. This licence is issued subject to the right of saw-millers to graze on this area such horses and bullocks as are actually used in connexion with their licensed operations on this land.

Special Conditions:

1. The period of occupation will be for eleven months—from 1st August, 1902, to 30th June, 1903.
2. The fee for the period from 1st August, 1902, to 30th June, 1903—for which the licence will be issued, and fee for licence—must accompany the tender, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who complies with this condition may be accepted.
3. Tenders to be for so much per lot and block per annum.
4. Separate tenders must be lodged for each block.
5. Tenders to be indorsed—"Tender for Lot 1, Block 2026," or "Lot 2, Block 4986," or "Lot 3 Block 6948," as the case may be.
6. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
7. Tenderers must give their full name and ordinary postal address.

THE Corporation of the Warrnambool Hospital and Benevolent Asylum at a duly constituted meeting held at its Board Room, at its Hospital at Warrnambool, on the sixth day of June, 1902, made and adopted the following resolution and by-laws:—

That By-laws number fourteen to number twenty-one inclusive be revoked, and the following be substituted, viz.:—

14. There shall be one paid resident medical officer, who shall not engage in private practice, and not less than four nor more than eight honorary medical officers, one of whom shall attend the hospital weekly in rotation.

15. In all cases of a critical or protracted nature it shall be the duty of the honorary medical officer in charge to call a consultation with one or more of the other honorary medical officers, and when a majority of the consultants deem it necessary a consultation of the whole medical staff shall be called.

16. No case, having been admitted for medical treatment, shall be discharged as incurable without a consultation by the honorary medical officer in charge with one or more of the other honorary medical officers.

17. In cases of a difference of opinion between the honorary medical officer in charge and one or more of the other honorary medical officers as to the treatment or otherwise of any patient, such difference shall be decided by a majority of the medical staff present at a meeting called for dealing with such cases.

18. All surgical operations necessary shall be performed by or under the direction of the honorary medical officer in charge of the case, but no major operation shall be performed (except in case of great emergency) without a previous consultation with one or more of the other honorary medical officers.

In all cases of serious illness or accident a similar consultation shall be held.

No major operation shall be performed without due notice being given to all the honorary medical officers.

19. The resident medical officer shall be at all times under the professional direction and supervision of the honorary medical staff, and shall visit the several wards of the institution at least twice daily, morning and evening, and keep a register of all cases treated in the institution, which he shall present before the general committee at their monthly meetings, giving the number of patients, describing their diseases, mode of treatment thereof, and number of deaths, if any.

Should he be unavoidably absent he shall secure the services of one of the honorary medical officers to supply his place.

On admission of each patient he shall cause the name, age, date of admission, date of arrival in the State, and religion, together with the name of the honorary medical officer in charge of the case, to be written on a card to be suspended over the bed of such patient.

He shall also lay before the committee at their monthly meetings a detailed health report of the institution, and certify to the committee the names of those inmates who are able to work on the grounds, or patients discharged or fit to be discharged.

19A. Each honorary medical officer shall, during his allotted week, attend the institution daily, or as often as occasion may require.

He shall take charge of all cases received during his allotted week, except the cases of paying patients, who may, with the consent and after arrangement with the visiting committee, select any honorary medical officer they choose.

Every patient shall be in charge of the same honorary medical officer until discharged.

The resident medical officer shall regularly visit every part of the institution, and see that the wards and other parts of the house and grounds are kept in a proper state of cleanliness and order. He shall also have charge of and be accountable for and keep an inventory of all surgical instruments, appliances, and medicines, the property of the institution.

19b. The committee may suspend any honorary medical officer, provided that such suspension be approved by a majority of the members present at a special meeting convened for the consideration of such suspension, and be confirmed at a special meeting of contributors to be held within fourteen days from the decision of the committee.

19c. The resident medical officer shall reside on the premises, and be not absent from his duties for more than four hours without securing the services of one of the honorary medical officers, and be not absent for more than twenty-four hours without arranging with an honorary medical officer and obtaining the president's consent, and that he and the master shall not be absent at the same time.

19p. The resident medical officer shall superintend and control the master, nursing staff, and all servants and inmates of the institution, and in case of neglect of duty or insubordination may suspend any of them and report thereon to the visiting committee.

20. Accident and emergency cases may be received at any time, and shall be attended to by the resident medical officer, pending instructions from the honorary medical officer for the time being in charge, who shall be immediately notified thereof. Ordinary cases may be recommended by a contributor's ticket, countersigned by resident medical officer, and by visiting committee, or, in the absence of the medical officer, by an honorary medical officer. Benevolent patients will not, however, require the consent of the last-named officers.

21. Paying patients, on the production of a certificate of fitness for admission from the resident or an honorary medical officer of the institution, and with the consent of and after making arrangements with the visiting committee, may be admitted on the order of such committee.

INTERNAL MANAGEMENT.

21a. The committee may appoint a house steward or master whose duties shall be the same as those now performed by the master, save and except such of them as have been vested in the resident medical officer.
