

VICTORIA
GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Published by Authority.

[Registered at the General Post Office, Melbourne, for transmission by post as a newspaper.]

No. 136.]

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 1.

[1913

TO THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY.

I HEREBY give you notice that it is my intention, on Thursday next, the fourth day of September, to issue a Writ for the Election of a Member to serve in the Legislative Council of Victoria for the East Yarra Province.

Dated this first day of September, One thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

JNO. M. DAVIES,

President.

1. The first part of the document is a title page. It contains the title of the document, the author's name, and the date of the document. The title is "The History of the United States of America". The author is "John Adams". The date is "1776".

2. The second part of the document is a preface. It contains the author's introduction to the document. The author states that the document is a history of the United States of America, and that it is written for the purpose of informing the public of the events that have shaped the nation.

3. The third part of the document is the main body of the text. It contains the author's account of the events that have shaped the United States of America. The author begins with the founding of the nation, and then proceeds to describe the various events that have occurred since that time.

4. The fourth part of the document is a conclusion. It contains the author's final thoughts on the history of the United States of America. The author states that the nation has been shaped by the events that have occurred, and that it is the duty of the citizen to understand the history of the nation in order to participate in its future.

5. The fifth part of the document is a list of references. It contains the names of the various sources that the author has used in writing the document. The references include books, articles, and other documents that have provided the author with the information needed to write the history of the United States of America.

6. The sixth part of the document is a list of footnotes. It contains the author's explanations of the various references that have been used in the document. The footnotes provide additional information about the sources, and help the reader to understand the author's use of the sources.

7. The seventh part of the document is a list of appendices. It contains the author's additional information about the history of the United States of America. The appendices include maps, charts, and other documents that provide additional information about the events that have shaped the nation.

8. The eighth part of the document is a list of indexes. It contains the author's list of the various topics that are covered in the document. The indexes help the reader to find the information that they are looking for in the document.

9. The ninth part of the document is a list of glossary. It contains the author's definitions of the various terms that are used in the document. The glossary helps the reader to understand the meaning of the terms, and provides additional information about the history of the United States of America.

10. The tenth part of the document is a list of bibliography. It contains the author's list of the various sources that have been used in the document. The bibliography provides additional information about the sources, and helps the reader to understand the author's use of the sources.