the deposit required shall be £3,000 and no more, provided further that no company which has been carrying on direct business within the Commonwealth, and which has been re-formed or re-registered under the same or any other name, with or without additional powers (such company being one that actually or virtually replaces the old, or constitutes a continuance of the old company) shall for the purposes of the concession be deemed an acquired company."

(b) In sub-paragraph 2 of the same paragraph the word "any" before the words "such insurer" is hereby repealed.
