The rate quoted must be at per cwt., and for the whole quantity from the whole of the institutions enumerated.

It is necessary that tenderers should possess a Noxious Trade Licence.

Tenders must be accompanied by the preliminary deposit of £10 in bank notes, or a bank draft in favour of the Secretary to the Tender Board, which will be detained from the successful tenderer as security for the due fulfilment of the contract. Cheques, Savings Bank deposit books, fixed deposit receipts, State or Commonwealth Treasury bonds or Government debentures, or references to securities on existing contracts will in no case be received or entertained as preliminary deposits. Preliminary deposits will be returned within ten days to unsuccessful tenderers on their application.

The amount of the deposit required with each tender must be enclosed and the amount must be carefully written in and the designation stated, whether marked cheque, bank draft, or bank notes, as the case may be.

The contract must be signed within five days of acceptance of the tender, failing which the service may be again advertised or another tender accepted.

Tenderers failing to take up their accepted tenders may be disqualified from tendering for Government supplies for a period of twelve months.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest of any tender.

Tenders, enclosed in an envelope, marked "Tender for Purchase of Rags," must be deposited in the Tender-box at the Pay Office, Treasury, Melbourne, or, if sent by post, postage must be prepaid and tenders addressed to the Chairman of the Tender Board, Treasury, Melbourne, which office they must reach by first post on the date of closing of tenders.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT.

1. Delivery of the Rags from Ararat, Ballarat, Beechworth, and Sunbury must be taken at Spencer-street Railway Station, and for Yarra Bend, Mont Park, Royal Park, Kew, and Pentridge at the institutions themselves.

2. Bags will be supplied by the institutions requiring the service, and must be returned by the contractor as soon as emptied.

3. The rags must be removed at such time or times as may be stated in the order issued to the contractor.

4. The contractor shall bear the cost of removing the rags, and of the return of the empty bags from and to Spencer-street, Yarra Bend, Mont Park, Royal Park, Kew, and Pentridge; railway freight from the institutions will be covered by a Stores and Transport consignment note issued by the institution concerned when forwarding the rags.

5. The contractor shall be duly notified of each consignment, and shall bear any cost that may be incurred for demurrage, or for any delay in taking delivery of the rags consigned.

6. In the event of the contractor failing to remove the rags at the times directed, the officer of the Department ordering the removal is hereby empowered to send them to any store in Melbourne, there to be stored at the contractor's risk and expense, and, on report to the Tender Board, the amount will be deducted from the security money.

7. Payment is to be made on the net weight of the rags when bagged. No allowance will be made for any foreign material that may be mixed with them. All practical care will, however, be exercised to keep them free from such impurity.

8. The contractor must make payment within one month of delivery to the officer of the Department ordering the removal of the rags.

9. Under no circumstances will a contractor be permitted to abandon his contract.

TENDERS FOR GRAZING LANDS.

FOR THE PERIOD 1ST SEPTEMBER, 1924, TO 30TH SEPTEMBER, 1925, EXCEPT WHERE OTHERWISE STATED.

Tender Forms can be obtained on application to the Lands Department, Melbourne, or any of the Land Offices in the country.

Tenders should be placed in the Crown Lands Office Tender-box on or before Noon on Friday, 29th August, 1924.

NOTE.—No tender will be accepted unless the fee for the full period and fee of Five shillings for licence are forwarded.

TENDERS will be received on or before Noon on Friday, 29th August, 1924, for the right to depasture stock on the following unappropriated portions of land subject to the Regulations approved by the Governor in Council and also the subjoined Special Conditions.

Every licence granted under section 121 of the Land Act 1915 shall be subject to the conditions set forth in the Schedule hereto and to such special conditions and payment in advance of such fee as the Minister may determine, and shall be issued by an officer of the Department of Lands and Survey duly authorized in that behalf.

CONDITIONS.

1. The issue of this licence shall not prevent the land comprised therein, or any part or parts thereof, being sold, leased, licensed, alienated, or dealt with under any of the provisions of the Land Acts, except under the 121st section of the Land Act 1915, or being resumed by order of the Governor or Administrator of the Government of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council.

2. In case the said land, or any part thereof, should be sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid, the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation other than that which the responsible Minister of the Crown for the time being administering the Land Acts may think fit.

3. This licence is subject to the rights of the holders of miners' rights or of mining leases now issued or hereafter to be issued to enter upon the allotment hereby licensed, and to search for gold, and to mine thereon, and to erect and occupy mining plant and machinery, without making any compensation to the licensee, his executors, administrators, or assigns, for surface or other damage.

4. Subject to these conditions the licensee shall be entitled to use the land for the purpose for which this licence has been granted until such land, or any part thereof, has been sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid, and thereupon all the interest of the licensee therein shall cease and be determined.

5. No land comprised in roads from time to time surveyed and marked out within the boundaries of the land comprised in this licence shall be deemed within its operation.

6. This licence shall entitle the holder thereof, during the period for which it is granted, to use the land therein comprised for depasturing purposes only, but shall not confer any right to build thereon, or to cultivate or, without the permission of the Minister, fence any portion thereof, or construct a dam or tank.

7. The taking in of stock for agistment or otherwise allowing the use of the land, or part thereof, without the authority in writing by the Minister, is forbidden.

8. That in the event of the Minister granting permission to fence the whole or any part of this area, the licensee shall provide gates or slip-panels in suitable places for the convenience of the public. No compensation will be allowed for fencing erected on boundaries of allotments alienated or in course of alienation.

9. That where improvements are authorized under section 123 of the Land Act 1915 the licensee shall notify, on completion, that such improvements have been made, otherwise the work will not be recognised.

10. The interest in this licence shall not be transferred without the consent of the Minister, and the payment of a fee of Ten shillings.

11. The licensee shall be liable to forfeiture if the licensee commit a breach or neglect to comply with these conditions.

12. The publication of a notice in the Government Gazette, purporting to declare that the Governor or Administrator, with the advice aforesaid, has forfeited this licence, shall be conclusive evidence that the licence is forfeited.

13. The ring-barking of the timber upon the land by the licensee is forbidden, and he shall not be entitled to destroy or cut and take away any such timber.

14. Free access to water shall be kept open at all times for travelling or other stock and for persons desiring to take water for domestic purposes.

15. The licensee shall destroy all noxious weeds on the land, and on the half-width of the adjoining roads, and shall be responsible for the destruction of noxious weeds under the Vermin and Noxious Weeds Act 1922 in like manner as holders of freehold lands.

16. The licensee shall keep the land free from vermin, and should he fail to do so, the licence shall be liable to forfeiture.

17. This licence is issued subject to the right of saw-millers to graze on this area such horses and bullocks as are actually used in connexion with their licensed operations on this land.

18. The licensee shall thoroughly and effectively protect the land within the boundaries of his licensed area from fire, and shall extinguish any fire which may break out on such area or may spread to it. In the event of the area being damaged by fire, the licence may be forfeited, unless the licensee satisfy the Minister that neither he, directly or indirectly, nor his workmen or servants, were in any way responsible for such fire.

19. The licensee shall not interfere in any way with any survey marks on the land hereby licensed.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS.

1. The period of occupation will, except where otherwise specified, be for (13) thirteen months from 1st September, 1924, to 30th September, 1925.

2. The fee for the full period—for which the licence will be issued, and the fee for licence—must accompany the tender, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who complies with this condition may be accepted.

3. Separate tenders must be lodged for each block.

4. Tenders to be addressed to the Secretary for Lands (Tender-box), Melbourne.

5. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

6. Tenderers must give their full name, occupation, and ordinary postal address.

7. The areas are given as more or less, and all appropriated, alienated, or licensed lands (if any) within the boundaries are excluded.

8. The outgoing tenant has the option to remove any existing fencing within one month, or to require the incoming tenant to pay for it in accordance with the provisions of section 124, Land Act 1915.

This does not apply to cases where the land was the subject of an expired Grazing Area Lease. In all such cases, the incoming tenant will be held responsible for the care and maintenance of any improvements.

Plans can be seen and information may be obtained in this office.

Section 121, Land Act 1915, provides:—

1. Where a licensee under section 121 of the Land Act 1915 has, with the consent of the Minister, enclosed with a substantial fence the land which is the subject of his licence, he may impound any cattle, sheep, or other animals found trespassing thereon.

2. Where the licensee holds land under the said section which is unfenced, he may, in any Court of competent jurisdiction, sue the owner of any cattle, sheep, or other animals for damages arising from trespass by such cattle, sheep, or other animals.

4. No builder shall commence any building, erection, or structure, or any addition or alteration to any building, erection, or structure without first delivering at the office of the Surveyor a written notice of such intention before so commencing, and producing to the Surveyor properly-prepared plans and a specification of such building, erection, structure, addition, or alteration, including a block plan of the land showing the location of the proposed buildings, provision for drainage, together with a tracing or copy of the floor plans of such building, erection, structure, addition, or alteration, and also details of dimensions, sizes, and qualities of all materials, and enumerating any old materials proposed to be used in the construction of same.

The original plans and specifications when approved shall be returned to the owner or his agent, but the tracing or copy of the plans and details of materials shall be retained by the Surveyor.

No builder shall commence any building, erection, structure, or any addition or alteration to any building, erection, or structure without having first obtained from the Surveyor a written permit for the commencement of same and for the carrying out of the necessary work appertaining to such building, erection, or structure, or without first having paid to the Shire Secretary a fee of £1 1s.

The Surveyor, at all reasonable times during the progress and during the fourteen days next after completion of any building, structure, erection, or work effected by any of the provisions of this By-law, may enter and inspect such building, structure or work.

GENERALLY.Modification of Regulations in Additions and Alterations.

5. In cases of additions or alterations to buildings now built, upon special inspection and approval by the Building Surveyor, and in some cases where it may deem it necessary for the applicant to obtain a written consent of the owner adjoining, the Building Surveyor or person appointed may recommend that such modification of this Regulation be allowed, providing they shall entail no risk of mischief to the town by fire, no injury to the adjoining owner, and providing they be not contrary to the general tenor and purport of this Regulation, all such special applications shall be made in writing to the Building Surveyor and submitted by him to the Council of the Shire for consideration, approval, or otherwise.

Signboards on Face of Buildings.

6. No showboard or signboard shall be affixed to the front of any building so as to extend over any public footway or roadway.

Classification of Buildings.

7. For the purpose of this Regulation all buildings of whatever kind shall be subject to the provisions herein, and shall be deemed to belong to one or other of the following classes, that is to say:—

First Class.—If a building proposed to be erected is to be utilized as a dwelling-house, or office, or suites, office chambers, or to be occupied or intended to be occupied as such, or as a private stable or coach house, or as like outbuildings, then it is deemed to belong to the first class as hereinafter subdivided.

Second Class.—If the building proposed to be erected is intended to be utilized as a shop or shop and dwelling, manufacturing warehouse, store, or public building, i.e., hall, church, chapel, hospital, or occupied or intended to be occupied as such or for a similar purpose, then it shall be deemed to belong to the second class as hereinafter more specifically described.

Generally.

8. That in case of the erection of any building or portion of a building to which these Regulations cannot be specifically applied, then the Building Surveyor may recommend to the Council the granting of a special permit to build, provided that construction of the building complies with the general tenor and purport of the Regulation.

Alteration of Buildings of One Class to that of Another Class.

9. If any building of either class be subsequently converted into or used as a building of the other class then it shall be deemed to belong to such other class, subject nevertheless to such modifications as shall be sanctioned by the surveyor on the supervision thereof, or if any building be used partly as a dwelling-house and partly for any purpose which would bring it within the second class, then as to it all the conditions prescribed with regard to buildings of such class must be fulfilled as if it had been originally built of such class; subject nevertheless to such modifications as shall be sanctioned by the Surveyor on supervision thereof.

Height.

10. The height of every building is to be ascertained by measuring from the surface of the lowest floor of the building up to the top of the wall plate for receiving the roof.

Area.

11. The area of every building is to be determined by the number of squares (one square equals 100 square feet) contained in the surface of any floor, which shall contain the greatest number of squares at or above the principal entrance to such buildings, including in such surface the area of all the external walls, and such portions of the party walls as belong to such building, but excluding from such surface the area of any area, balcony, or open portico.

Capacity.

12. And the capacity or cubical contents of any building is to be ascertained by measuring within the walls at the surface of the floor, at the principal entrance to such building, and from the surface of the lowest floor to the top of the wall plate for receiving the roof.

Number of Stories.

13. And the stories of any building are to be counted from the foundation upwards.

And if the space in height between the top of the footings and the level of the lowest floor does not exceed 7 feet, then the story above such space is to be considered the lowest or first story; but if such space exceed 7 feet, then such space is to be considered to contain the lowest or first story, and in that case the top of the footing is to be considered the level of the lowest floor.

For the purpose of this Regulation it is not considered necessary to provide for buildings of more than two stories. Special permit from the Council will be necessary for buildings over two stories in height (i.e. 30 feet).

Subdivision of Buildings of First Class A. Brick Buildings. Footings.

14. Every wall shall be built upon a footing constructed of dimensions to the approval of the Surveyor based on solid ground or upon other sufficient foundation as approved of by the Surveyor (this class is also to be taken as generally applying to the buildings of the other class and the subdivision of each class.) Every footing must be built of brick or stone, or such bricks and stones together, laid in and with mortar or cement, or approved concrete in such manner as to produce solid work.

Thickness of Walls.—The clause "footings" as above described shall be taken to mean practically all work to within 6 inches of the footpath or ground level, everything above this height to plate level being termed foundations.

Foundation walls externally, that is to say walls below plate line and down to top of footings in this subdivision, shall not be less than 14 inches thick for single-story buildings, and 18 inches thick for two-story buildings, in case of using 11-in. hollow walls in the superstructure, the 14-in. foundation wall will have to be slightly cored out to take floor plate.

Foundation walls internally to be not less than as follows:—Under 4½-in. walls, 9 inches thick (cored out to take plate); under 9-in. walls, 14 inches (cored out to take plate).

Supports to joists and floor bearers shall be either 9 inch by 9 inch brick (or other approved incombustible material) piers on approved concrete foundations, and spaced not more than 4 ft. 6 in. apart, or alternatively 5 inch by 5 inch redgum or jarrah blocks, or round box blocks of not less a diameter in the average than 8 inches.

Superstructure.

15. The walls externally of the superstructure of building not to be less than one brick thick, i.e., 9 inches or its complement in a hollow wall, i.e., 11 inches. Buildings under this sub-section A of first class may be erected two story with above superstructure, provided always that the height does not exceed 30 feet, and that in no case is the length of the external walls between cross walls over 30 feet. In case of carrying 11-in. walls two story, the intermediate wall plate shall be not less than 2 inches by $\frac{3}{4}$ inch W.I.

Hollow Walls.

16. The external and party walls of the first-class buildings may be built hollow, with a 2-in. cavity, provided the aggregate thickness of the solid portions of such walls is as stipulated in this Regulation for buildings of such class, and provided each hollow wall is doubly bonded longitudinally twice in each story in height with strong galvanized hoop iron and cross tied with stout wire ties at each fourth course at 2-ft. centres, and provided that it is capped with a wall plate, at least full area of top of wall by $\frac{1}{4}$ inch approved timber placed centrally, or by other approved provision for distributing the weight and bonding the walls.

Solid Walls.

17. To be built in approved bond set in mortar and doubly longitudinally bonded with strong galvanized hoop iron twice in each story of its height, capped with wall plate as above described for hollow walls.

Cross Walls.

18. In this section cross walls for a single-story building, or in the lower story of a two-story building, must not be built less than $\frac{1}{2}$ inches thick in brick or its equivalent, but the upper walls of second story may be built with stud partition not less than 4 inches by 2 inches, studs 18-in. centres, and similar top and bottom plates, thoroughly braced, herringboned and lathed and plastered on completion. At least in case of four top courses of all $\frac{1}{4}$ -in. brick walls internally the mortar must be in cement 3 and 1. Above walls may be lined with other fireproof material subject to the sanction of the Surveyor.

All Walls Generally.

19. With regard to walls under this class and also walls generally under all other classes (except those of wood or iron or both provided for hereafter) every wall shall be built of good hard well-burnt bricks or such substituted material as hereafter provided under clause 23 with lime or cement mortar and in such a manner as will produce solid work and every wall shall be carried up to its full thickness to the underside of the plate under the roof and without any kind of openings in it, if, in the case of first-class buildings, it is nearer the boundary of the tenement than 1 foot, and if, in the case of second-class buildings, it is nearer than 2 ft. 6 in. to the boundary of the tenement, otherwise openings of moderate size will be allowed for doors and windows.

In no case will timber be allowed to be built into walls in such a manner that its entire removal would endanger the stability of the wall, nor will any timber be allowed to extend through the wall from side to side. No timber ends of beams, &c., shall be placed nearer than $\frac{1}{4}$ inches to the outer surface of an external wall, or than within $\frac{1}{4}$ inches of the centre of any party wall.

Partition Walls in Lath and Plaster.

20. Lath and plaster walls as hereinbefore mentioned may be used where they are not an essential part of the construction of the building, or where in the opinion of the Surveyor they will not reduce its stability.

Damp Course.

21. Every wall not being entirely of wood, or wood and iron, shall have a damp course below the level of the floor throughout its whole thickness and length, of lead, asphalt, or other mineral substance impervious to moisture, either at one level throughout or at different levels in horizontal layers, overlapping at least 6 inches, with a vertical connexion touching the horizontal layers. All parapets shall have similar damp courses below the level of the roof.

Ventilation.

22. In no case will floor timbers be allowed nearer the earth than 6 inches, and a proper through current of ventilation below floor levels shall be provided by means of galvanized iron or other approved air bricks built into the walls, also ventilations of timbers between floors in case of two-story buildings must be provided.

All rooms shall be ventilated by ventilators communicating directly with the outside air, placed near the ceiling of each room, and of an area satisfactory to the Council.

Buildings Constructed of Other Incombustible Material than Brick.

23. The Regulations hereinbefore mentioned as applying to brick residences may be taken to apply equally to buildings of brick or stone, artificial stone, concrete blocks, and reinforced concrete or the like material laid or set with lime or cement mortar in such a manner as to produce solid work, provided that in no case will the erection be, in the opinion of the Surveyor, less substantial than the brick erection specifically mentioned. The nature and purport of this clause will also generally apply to the erection of buildings of all classes not herein particularly described, and any restriction herein placed upon the manner and detail of the construction of brick walls will in like manner apply to buildings erected with composite walls as above described.

SUBDIVISION B. FIRST CLASS. WOODEN BUILDINGS.

Number of Stories and Height of Walls.

24. Buildings of this class shall be only one story high, except in case of private stables, which are limited to the area of $\frac{1}{4}$ squares only, which will be allowed to have a loft floor in order to form a loft.

The height of walls shall not be less than 7 ft. 6 in. for skillions, 10 feet for ordinary buildings, and not more than 14 feet, except in case of private stables, which may be 16 feet high.

Special provision is made for attic accommodation in residences.

Foundations.

25. All walls shall be built in piers of brick, stone, or concrete not less than 9 inches by 9 inches set in mortar on $\frac{1}{4}$ inches brickwork, with 9-in. by 9-in. piers spaced every 4 ft. 6 in., and set on approved concrete foundations, alternatively 5-in. by 5-in. redgum, jarrah, or box blocks may be used in place of brick foundations for wood buildings, not more than 4-ft. centres and having properly strutted sole plates.

Construction of Walls.

26. The studs throughout shall not be spaced more than 20 inches from centre to centre, and shall not be of less scantling than 3 inches by 2 inches or 4 inches x $\frac{1}{4}$ inches for walls up to 13 feet high; 4 inches by 2 inches of over 13 feet high, and shall be diagonally braced, and (if plastered), double herringbone strutted, properly framed and secured to top and bottom plates, and covered with good weatherboards, galvanized iron, or some material that, in the opinion of the Surveyor, is equally good and substantial. The inside of the walls and ceilings are to be close lined throughout with 6-in. by $\frac{1}{2}$ -in. lining or its equivalent in some other material to the approval of the Surveyor, such as stamped steel, fibrous cement, &c., or on the contrary may be lath and plastered throughout. It shall be optional then to paper and canvas and paper over the above materials. In the case of lath and plastered walls herringbone stiffening pieces are to be fixed in wall two rows in height of walls and again bridging pieces with ceiling properly hung thereto are to be fixed over all lath and plaster ceilings of greater span than 10 feet.

Distance of Buildings of this Class from Boundaries and Other Buildings.

27. Every building of this class shall be a single tenement and completely isolated, that is to say, no building of this class shall be hereafter built, rebuilt, erected, or placed nearer to land of an adjoining owner or an adjoining occupier than 5 feet measured in each case from the boundary of the tenement or land in the same occupation to the face of the wall of the building unless and until in each and in every case brick end walls with parapets are erected similar and of the same dimensions as provided and specified for party wall in semi-detached buildings under this class (section 14). Where any right-of-way divides any two properties the boundary of each property shall be considered to be the middle of the right-of-way.

Distances of Buildings of this Class from Boundaries of other Buildings, when Brick Side or Party Walls are provided and Provision for such Walls.

28. Buildings of this class may be placed or left nearer to the boundaries than provided in the foregoing regulation, or abutting on the boundaries, or nearer to one another, or may be divided into two or more tenements, provided in each and every case brick end or side walls next the boundaries or between the buildings or brick party walls if the buildings abut or are divided, are built to each building. No eaves in first-class buildings will be allowed nearer to the boundary of the tenement than 3 ft. 6 in. Each end or side wall or party wall shall be built of solid brickwork without openings (except where such walls are at least 2 ft. 6 in. from the boundary of the tenement, when doors and windows will be allowed) of a thickness not less than 8 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches and extending at each end 1 inch at least beyond the finished face of the wall of the furthest out office, verandah, room, or other projection, both at the back and front of the building, such ends shall be left exposed entirely and without any timber cover whatever at any part, and such wall shall extend above or through the roof, as the case is, to a height of at least 18 inches above the surface of the roof governing abutting on it and be capped with brick on edge in cement mortar, or like impervious capping, and such wall shall comply in all other respects with all the provisions of this regulation relating to brick, &c., walls in general, whether external party, or otherwise. The parapet wall shall be required only on walls 2 ft. 6 in. or less from the boundary of the tenement. The projection of all brick walls with parapets beyond the end or face of verandah will only be required when the outmost projection of face or end of the verandah is 2 ft. 6 in. or less from the boundary of the tenement.

Old or Existing Buildings Moved.

29. No building removed bodily or piecemeal shall be moved on to any site unless seven days' notice is first given to the Surveyor in writing and unless it is in good repair and complies with all requirements of this Regulation as to construction, and when so moved shall comply with all the provisions of this Regulation relating to such class of building, subject to such modification as may be deemed sufficient by the Surveyor on his inspection thereof, as equivalent to the regulation requirements under these Regulations.

Wood Sheds, Closets, &c.

30. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, wood sheds completely open one side and of less area than two squares may be built not nearer than 3 feet from the boundary of the tenement without a brick wall with parapet, provided the buildings (except like buildings of the adjoining tenement), are no nearer than 10 feet, that the approval of the Surveyor shall first be obtained as regards the site, and that in all other respects except height, which must be not less than 7 feet to the eaves, the building shall conform to all the requirements provided for second-class buildings.

No privy, closet, or urinal shall be erected or allowed to remain at a less distance than 30 feet from the door or window of any dwelling-house on the same allotment, or any allotment adjoining, or a less distance than 12 feet from any street, and shall in each case be effectively screened from public view. Provided that in case there is a right-of-way abutting on such allotment the privy, closet, or urinal may be erected to the boundary between such allotment and the right-of-way. No closet or urinal shall be erected or remain in front of any building facing a public highway. Every closet shall be constructed to the satisfaction of the Building Surveyor.

Stables to be generally erected in compliance with the foregoing By-laws, but not necessarily having any lining. Floors of stalls, boxes, &c., to be paved with impervious material and to be drained to outlets. Proper and suitable dung pits (built either in brick or wood) but having bottom of impervious material and drained to approval, will be required attached to all stables now built, proposed, or in course of erection.

Attic Rooms.

31. Rooms in the roof of any building hereafter built or rebuilt shall not be less than 8 feet in height, except at the sloping part, which shall not begin at less than 5 feet nor extend more than 3 feet into the room. There shall be only one floor of such room in any roof. The construction of the attic generally must be submitted to and approved of by the Surveyor in complete detail.

Existing Buildings.

32. If it be at any time proposed to alter or remodel or reinstate premises in the "brick areas" such alterations, remodelling, or reinstatement shall be carried out in strict compliance with the regulations for buildings in this area, subject nevertheless to such alterations as may be sanctioned by the Council on the recommendation of the Building Surveyor after supervision thereof.

SUBDIVISION A. SECOND CLASS.

Shops.

33. The term "shop" shall be taken as including any business premises, store, house, manufacturing workshop, or building to be occupied or intended to be occupied as such.

Generally.

The clauses in relation to the first-class buildings appertaining to height, area, capacity, and number of stories will be read also as applying to buildings of the second class.

Width and Height of and Level of Top of Footings.

34. The bottom of the footing of every external or party or cross wall shall in width exceed the thickness of the wall standing thereon by two-thirds of the thickness of such wall.

The top of every footing shall be at least 6 inches below the level of the footpath adjoining.

In all walls below wooden ground floors a set off of 2½ inches extra thickness to be added to that of the wall above shall be built to carry plates.

The height of every footing shall be at least equal to the thickness of the wall standing thereon.

Footings.

35. Clause 14 in reference to footings is to be generally taken as applying to all classes of brick buildings.

Superstructure.

38. In single-story buildings whose height does not exceed 13 feet and length between cross walls 30 feet, the superstructure walls shall not be less than 9 inches thick (or its complement in hollow wall 11 inches). Single-story buildings that exceed the above measurement in height or width between cross walls shall have walls increased to 14 inches thick (or its complement in hollow work 16 inches), or as an alternative a wall 9 inches may be built in with piers (in solid work set in cement mortar), and whose area shall be equal to one-sixth the superficial area of the wall, i.e., a 9-in. wall with an 18-in. pier every 9 feet. Foundations and footings to be increased to correspond.

Two-Story Buildings.

39. In two-story buildings whose height does not exceed 30 feet (i.e., from plate to plate, see clause 22 height) and whose length between cross walls does not exceed 50 feet, then the walls as for the lower or ground floor and upper story shall not be less than 14 inches (or its complement, 9 inches with piers as above), either wall of course may be carried out in hollow work, thickness corresponding. In cases where the above measurements are exceeded then the walls on the ground floor must be increased to 18 inches, and those of the upper floor to 14 inches, or both walls may be built 14 and 9 inches respectively, provided always that piers are built as alternatively before stipulated.

If such external wall to any building be at least 8½ inches in thickness in every part, and be of sound and proper materials and in good condition, then such wall may, at the discretion of the Building Surveyor, with the consent in writing of the adjoining owner, be used as a party wall; but if the house of which such wall forms a part be rebuilt, then such wall must become subject to the provisions of this Regulation in respect of party walls, according to the class to which the said wall belongs.

Division of Buildings in Separate Tenements.

43. If any building already built, or which shall be hereafter built, be converted, used, or occupied as two or more separate buildings, each having a separate entrance or staircase, such conversion, use, or occupation not having been made, or not having taken place prior to this Regulation coming into operation, then every such building shall be deemed to be two or more separate houses, and such separate houses must be divided from each other by a party wall, or party arch or arches, party floor or floors, built in the manner and of the dimensions and of the materials required for party walls, or for party arches, or for party floors, for the class to which the largest of the buildings so divided shall belong, that is so far as they adjoin vertically, they must be separated by a party wall, and so far as they adjoin horizontally then they must be separated by a party arch or party floor.

of its length of 6 inches at the least at each end for spans up to 14 feet upon a sufficient pier of brick or stone. The bearing must be increased 1 inch at each end for every 4 feet or portion thereof by which the span exceeds 14 feet, in addition to which the breastsummer must be supported, at the discretion of the Building Surveyor, on one or more story posts of iron or steel with properly constructed caps and bases, fixed upon solid and sufficient foundations, to the satisfaction of the Building Surveyor. Every breastsummer supported on any wall or any brick or stone pier (both the latter shall be on sufficient and approved foundations, as the case requires) shall bear upon a template or corbel of stone or iron tailed through at least one-half the thickness of each wall and of sufficient width to properly distribute the pressure for walls and for the piers a template at least the area of their top, and sufficiently thick in all cases to distribute the pressure without failure. All breastsummers and story posts shall be of ample strength for their work, with a minimum of deflection.

SUBDIVISION B. SECOND CLASS.

If any building in either subdivision of second class correspond in form, structure, or disposition with buildings of the first class, then the thickness of the external or party walls and the footings thereof shall be built in accordance therewith. Provided always that in the case of buildings that have practically only external walls, such as churches, halls, &c., full and ample provision is made to strengthen the walls and take the thrust of the roof by means of buildings with the walls properly constructed piers and buttresses (in cement mortar). The construction of such walls will necessarily have to be submitted for special approval of the Council, on the recommendation of the Building Surveyor. If a building in this subdivision correspond in form of structure to that of the "shop" section then it shall be constructed accordingly.
