BOARD.

1. It shall be the duty of the Board to examine the testimony as to the age of each applicant for a street trader's licence, and to satisfy itself that his moral and material welfare will not suffer by street trading, and that his attendance at school will not be thereby injuriously affected.
2. No members of the Board shall be absent from three consecutive meetings without reasonable excuse or leave of absence.
3. No person shall obstruct, hinder, impede, resist, or oppose any member of the Board, or any officer or persons appointed, employed, or authorized by or under these Regulations in the performance of anything which such member, officer, or person is empowered or required to do.

LICENCES.

4. No male person of or over the age of 12 years and under the age of 14 years who is not a licensed street trader, nor any male person under the age of 12 years, nor any female under 21 years, shall engage in street trading.

7. The folder must be carried by the street trader while engaged in street trading, and must be produced by him whenever required by any member of the Board, or any officer or other person duly authorized in writing by the Board.
8. 10. Any licensed street trader trading without having his folder with him or trading during prohibited hours, or engaging in any street trading of a description not authorized by his licence, may be deprived of his licence or fined for a breach of the Regulations, or both.

11. A register containing the name, address, and date of birth of every licensed street trader, and the purpose and date of expiry of his licence, shall be kept by the secretary of the Board, and any change in the street trader's address or employment shall be at once notified to the secretary in writing.

12. Personal application may, at the discretion of the secretary of the Board, be sufficient for the renewal of a licence, provided that the expired licence and folder are surrendered when such application is made.

13. The Board may at any time cancel or suspend a street trader's licence, if it considers it desirable so to do. Upon cancellation or suspension of any licence, the licensee shall thereupon surrender the licence and folder to the secretary.
