RAILWAYS CLASSIFICATION BOARD.

Relating to—(1) Certain matters arising out of Award No. 8.
(2) A difference between the Victorian Railways Commissioners and the grade of employees known as Bookstall Employees.

In the matter of the Railways Classification Board Acts and in the matter of Reference by the Victorian Branch of the Australian Railways Union and the Victorian Branch of the Federation of Salaried Officers of Railways Commissioners for interpretations of certain matters arising out of Award No. 8 of the Railways Classification Board.

THESE references having come on for hearing before the Railways Classification Board and the said Board having heard the representations made on behalf of the parties concerned, it is ordered that the matters referred to be and the same are hereby interpreted as follows:—

AWARD No. 8.

Division 2.—Ordinary Hours of Duty.

The hours of duty of salaried officers employed at the General Storehouse, Spotswood, are not governed by clause 2. The "custom" relied upon cannot be construed independently of the location of its operation.

Division 6.—Suburban Broken Shifts.

The provisions of this Division are not applicable to the shift, viz., from 9.30 a.m. to 1.30 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., worked by G. Hamilton, telegraph instructor, on two days per week.

Division 9.—Sunday Duty.

In respect of the Sunday shift of 6 hours 20 minutes worked by W. Henderson, clerk, North Melbourne Locomotive Depot, clause 9 does not make provision for payment.

Division 12.—Travelling and Waiting Time.

(1) The provisions of sub-clause (b) of clause 7 are applicable in respect of the time, viz., from 2.10 p.m. to 7.15 p.m. on 2nd January, 1925, occupied by Guard H. Reeves in waiting for a train to return from Whittlesea to his headquarters.

(2) The provisions of sub-clause (b) of clause 7 are not applicable in respect of the time, viz., from 5.30 p.m. to 9.15 p.m. on 26th November, 1925, occupied by F. Cordingley and W. F. Chaffe in waiting for a train to convey them from Tresco to Swan Hill.

Division 13.—Relieving Expenses.

The provisions of clause 2 are applicable in respect of the duties performed by A. M. Tydell as from the date of his appointment as Relieving Storeman in Charge.

Division 14.—Travelling and Incidental Expenses.

(1) In connexion with the case of a single officer or employee who is called upon to undertake duty at a place away from his head-quarters and before a month has elapsed is sent to one or more other places, attention is directed to the order under this Division given by the Railways Classification Board on 31st August, 1921.

(2) The provisions of clause 9 are not applicable in respect of the shift commencing at 11 p.m. on Saturdays and worked by yard foremen in the Melbourne Yard. In this connexion attention is directed to the order under this Division given by the Railways Classification Board on 5th August, 1925.

Division 19.—Relieving in Higher Positions.

(1) In connexion with the relieving duty performed by M. J. Nolan, clerk, North Melbourne Locomotive Depot, attention is directed to the order under this Division given by the Railways Classification Board on 2nd June, 1925.

(2) The provisions of sub-clause (b) of clause 1 are not applicable in the case of a suburban guard travelling to take up the duties of a goods guard. The words "whilst performing such duties" indicate that the sub-clause referred to applies while the employee is performing the duties of a goods guard and not while he is doing something that is merely incidental to the performance of the higher duties.

Dated this seventeenth day of December, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.

(Sgd.) H. C. WINNEKE,
Chairman, Railways Classification Board.

In the matter of the Railways Classification Board Acts and in the matter of a difference existing between the Victorian Railways Commissioners and the grade of employees of the said Commissioners known as Bookstall Employees.

This difference having come on for hearing before the Railways Classification Board, and it appearing that the above-mentioned employees claim that the rates of wages provided for "All Others—Employed at any other work" in the Determination of the Shops Board No. 21 (Booksellers and News Agents) under the Factories and Shops Acts are applicable to them, and the Commissioners affirm that the rates of wages provided for "All Others—Employed in connexion with the sale or distribution of newspapers" in the said Determination are applicable to such employees, the said Board having heard the representations made on behalf of both parties, doth hereby order that the rates of wages claimed are not applicable to the said employees.

Dated this seventeenth day of December, One thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.

H. C. WINNEKE,
