By virtue of deed of assignment, dated the twentieth day of May, 1929, made between the said Perrot and Adams Limited of the one part and your petitioner of the other part, the said Perrot and Adams Limited, for the consideration therein contained, assigned absolutely the said debt of £83 17s. 6d. then due to it and the whole of its beneficial interest, therein to your petitioner.

7. Due notice in writing of such assignment was given by your petitioner to the company on the twentieth day of August, 1929, and your petitioner on the said date demanded from the company payment of the amount of the said debt, but the company failed and neglected to pay the same or any part thereof.

8. On the second day of September, 1929, your petitioner duly commenced an action in the County Court, at Melbourne, by causing a plaint to be entered against the company and a special summons to appear to such plaint to be issued thereout for the recovery of the said amount of £83 17s. 6d. from the company.

9. The company failed to give notice of intention to defend the said action in accordance with the provisions of section 64 of the County Court Act 1915, or at all, and your petitioner, on the seventeenth day of September, 1929, entered judgment against the company for the said sum of £83 17s. 6d., together with £6 4s. 2d. taxed costs, making together a total of £90 1s. 8d.

10. On the thirtieth day of September, 1929, a warrant of execution under the said judgment was issued out of the County Court, at Melbourne, for £90 1s. 8d., together with £1 5s. execution fees, but the bailiff of the said Court, to whom the said warrant was directed, on the third day of October, 1929, returned the same wholly unsatisfied, the company having no goods or chattels within the jurisdiction upon which execution could be levied.

11. The said judgment is wholly unpaid and unsatisfied, and the amount thereof is justly due and owing by the company to your petitioner.

12. The company is unable to pay its debts.

Your petitioner therefore humbly prays as follow:—

1. That the South Comet Lead-Zinc Mine No Liability may be wound up by the Court under the provisions of the Companies Act 1915.

2. Or that such other order may be made as in the premises shall be just.

H. J. CLAPHAM.
