12. No borrower shall be allowed to have more than one volume at the same time. When, however, the connexion of two or more volumes of one work makes the use of the whole work necessary, several volumes may be issued together.

13. Borrowers must see that books are in good order before taking them from the Library. If any book be found to be written upon, or otherwise injured, borrowers must report the same to the Librarian.

14. Any borrower returning a book which has been written upon, or otherwise injured, shall, within one week of the date upon which the injury has been notified to him, replace such book, or pay to the Librarian the value of any book, set or series, injured, or shall pay such sum for the cost of repair as may be assessed by the Librarian.

15. The borrower shall be entitled to the injured book, set or series, on depositing with the Librarian its full value, or a new and satisfactory copy.

16. Any borrower ceasing to use the Library is required to leave ticket with the Librarian in order to have same cancelled, as until tickets are returned borrowers and their guarantors remain responsible for any books taken out in their names.

17. No loan of a book will be renewed if the book be required by another borrower. Books may not necessarily be re-issued on the same day.

18. The Librarian has power to refuse to lend books to any person who neglects to comply with the rules of the Lending Library, or who, in his opinion, for other reasons, should not be entrusted with books.

Borrowers must report at once to the Librarian in the event of the outbreak of any such disease in the house in which he or she may be dwelling, and if there be a book in the possession of such borrower, such book must be either destroyed within two days of the outbreak of such infectious or contagious disease, and its value paid to the Librarian, or it must be fumigated and returned.

22. Every book must, under penalty of Five shillings, be returned to the Librarian at such times as shall be publicly announced.

23. Borrowers are notified that a book may be reserved on giving notice to the Librarian and leaving One penny for post-card. Borrowers will then be informed when the book is available.

24. The Librarian may issue to the holder of a borrower's ticket a non-fiction ticket, which shall entitle such holder during the currency of such borrower's ticket to borrow, subject to the provisions of the Library Rules, an extra book from any section in the Library other than fiction section.

25. Subject to the directions from time to time of the Library Committee, the Librarian of the said Council, or the person for the time being in charge of the said Library, shall be charged with the carrying into effect of these Rules and Regulations.
