Explosives Act 1928.

CONDITIONS AS TO SALE OF EXPLOSIVES.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the fourteenth day of November, 1932.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Victoria.

Sir Stanley Argyle	Mr. Goudie
Mr. Allan	Mr. Chandler
Mr. Dunstan	Mr. Manifold.
Mr. Pennington

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, and in pursuance of the provisions of section 24 of the Explosives Act 1928, doth hereby revoke the Order in Council made on the 20th day of December, 1900, respecting the conditions to be inserted in general and special licences for the keeping for safe custody or sale and for the selling of explosives, and, in lieu thereof, doth prescribe the following conditions, that is to say:—

APPLICATION FOR A LICENCE.

1. Application for a licence to keep and sell explosives shall be made to the Chief Inspector of Explosives.

2. Every application must state the name in full of the applicant, his occupation and full address, the kinds of explosive to be sold, the maximum quantity of each kind of explosive to be kept on the premises of the applicant, and the place where explosives are to be kept.

3. Upon approval of the application, a licence shall be issued on payment of the licence-fee.

LICENCES TO KEEP AND SELL FIREWORKS.

4. Every licence to keep and sell fireworks shall be issued subject to the following conditions, that is to say:—

- (1) The licence shall be valid only for the person to whom the same is issued.
- (2) The words "Licensed to sell Fireworks" shall be painted or affixed over the door of the premises.
- (3) No fireworks shall be sold or delivered to any child under the age of thirteen years.
- (4) All fireworks shall be stored in a suitable spark-proof receptacle exclusively kept for fireworks. (For 50 lbs. a suitable receptacle is an ordinary japanned iron trunk with the word "Fireworks" painted on the outside.) The receptacle shall be effectively closed and kept out of the way of shop traffic and articles of an inflammable nature. The receptacle shall be kept clean, and dust from fireworks shall not be allowed to collect in the interior.
- (5) Matches, including Bengal matches, shall not be kept in the fireworks receptacle.
- (6) Fireworks shall not be left out of the receptacle, and shall not be exposed on shelves or in shop windows.
- (7) No fireworks shall be hawked, sold, or exposed for sale in or upon any highway, street, road, public thoroughfare, or public place.
- (8) Any quantity of fireworks exceeding 1 lb. in weight when sold shall be in a substantial package, made and closed so as to protect the fireworks, and on the outside of such package there shall be affixed in conspicuous characters by means of a securely attached label or mark the word "Fireworks."
- (9) The maximum quantity of fireworks that may be kept on any premises shall not exceed 200 lbs.; but there shall not be kept at any one time an amount of fireworks exceeding the amount prescribed by the licence.
- (10) The licence shall permit the licensee to keep and sell small manufactured fireworks, and small specially defined fireworks, such as throwdowns, sparklers, and amorces; and shall not permit the licensee to keep and sell any other explosive.
- (11) Every licensee and every person employed in and about the premises shall take all due precaution for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion, and for preventing unauthorized persons having access to the fireworks therein, and shall abstain from any act whatever which tends to cause fire or explosion, and is not reasonably necessary for the purpose of the work on such premises.

LICENCES TO KEEP AND SELL SAFETY CARTRIDGES.

5. Every licence to keep and sell safety cartridges shall be issued subject to the following conditions, that is to say:—

- (1) The licence shall be valid only for the person to whom the same is issued.
- (2) The words "Licensed to sell Safety Cartridges" shall be painted or affixed over the door of the premises.

- (3) No safety cartridges shall be sold or delivered to any person under the age of sixteen years.

NOTE.—Under section 208 of Police Offences Act 1928, it is prescribed that pea-rifle or similar small-bore cartridges shall not be sold or delivered to any person under the age of eighteen years.

- (4) Safety cartridges exceeding 5 lbs. in quantity shall be kept in packages in a cool and dry place, at a safe distance from any article of an inflammable nature.
- (5) No safety cartridges shall be hawked, sold, or exposed for sale in or upon any highway, street, road, public thoroughfare, or public place.
- (6) There shall not be on the premises at any one time safety cartridges exceeding the quantity prescribed by the licence.
- (7) The licence shall not permit the licensee to keep and sell any other explosive.
- (8) Every licensee and every person employed in and about the premises shall take all due precaution for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion, and shall abstain from any act whatever which tends to cause fire or explosion, and is not reasonably necessary for the purpose of the work on such premises.

LICENCES TO KEEP AND SELL EXPLOSIVES.

6. Every licence to keep and sell explosives shall be issued subject to the following conditions, that is to say:—

- (1) The licence shall be valid only for the person to whom the same is issued.
- (2) The words "Licensed to sell Explosives" shall be painted or affixed over the door of the premises.
- (3) No fireworks shall be sold or delivered to any child under the age of thirteen years, and no other explosive shall be sold or delivered to any person under the age of sixteen years.

NOTE.—Under section 208 of Police Offences Act 1928, it is prescribed that pea-rifle or similar small-bore cartridges shall not be sold or delivered to any person under the age of eighteen years.

- (4) No explosives shall be hawked, sold, or exposed for sale in or upon any highway, street, road, public thoroughfare, or public place. No explosives other than those defined in the 1st Division of Class 6 (Ammunition) shall be exhibited upon any premises. All explosives for sale other than those defined in the 1st Division of Class 6 (Ammunition) must be kept only in the building or receptacle provided for the storage of the same.
- (5) Every person selling nitro-compounds for blasting and detonators shall keep a record as prescribed by the Explosives Act 1928 of all sales of such explosives.
- (6) All explosives exceeding 1 lb. in weight when sold shall be in a substantial case, bag, canister, or other package made and closed so as to prevent the explosives from escaping, and on the outside of such package there shall be affixed in conspicuous characters, by means of a securely attached label or mark—
 - (a) In the case of gunpowder, the word "Gunpowder"; and
 - (b) In the case of explosive other than gunpowder, the name of such explosive, with the addition of the word "Explosive."
- (7) All explosives exceeding 5 lbs. in amount of the 1st Division of Class 6 (Ammunition), or of the 2nd Division of Class 7 (Firework), and all other explosives exceeding 1 lb. in amount, shall be kept in a substantial case, bag, canister, or other package made and closed so as to prevent any explosive from escaping, and no package of gunpowder shall be opened unless the explosive therein is contained in inner packages or wrappers.
- (8) No explosives except those specified in the licence shall be kept on any premises, and all explosives on the premises, except those defined in the 1st Division of Class 6 (Ammunition), shall be kept in one or other or both of the following modes, namely:—

Mode 1.—In a substantially constructed building or receptacle detached from a dwelling-house and at a safe distance from any public thoroughfare or public place; provided that such building or receptacle is exclusively appropriated to the keeping of explosives.

Mode 2.—In a receptacle exclusively appropriated to the keeping of explosives and placed inside any building which is not itself qualified for the keeping of explosives in mode 1. The receptacle shall be placed in a safe position, away from all goods of an inflammable nature, and shall, (except in cases where the amount of explosives authorized to be kept therein does not exceed 50 lbs.) be on wheels so as to be readily removed in the event of a fire taking place.

(9) There shall not be on the premises at any one time an amount of any sort of explosive exceeding the amount prescribed by the licence, and the maximum quantities of the various explosives that may be kept on any premises shall be, as follows:—

Two hundred pounds of gunpowder, or in lieu thereof 200 lbs. of fireworks or 100 lbs. of nitro-compounds for blasting, and in addition loaded safety cartridges containing not more than 500 lbs. of explosive, 500 detonators, and percussion caps unlimited.

Provided that—

(a) A maximum of 2,000 detonators and of 2,400 lbs. of explosive contained in loaded safety cartridges may be kept on the premises if the other explosives (excepting percussion caps) be reduced in the proportion of 10 lbs. of gunpowder or fireworks or of 5 lbs. of nitro-compounds for blasting for every additional 100 detonators and 120 lbs. of explosive contained in loaded safety cartridges.

(b) There shall not be kept under mode 2 more than 100 lbs. of gunpowder, or, in lieu thereof, 100 lbs. of fireworks or 25 lbs. of nitro-compounds for blasting, and, in addition, loaded safety cartridges containing not more than 500 lbs. of explosive, 125 detonators, and percussion caps unlimited.

(10) If two or more classes of explosives be kept on the premises, they must be separated from each other by an intervening partition of such substance and character, or by such intervening space, as will effectually prevent explosion or fire in the one communicating with the other, subject nevertheless to the following:—

(a) Class 1 (Gunpowder), Class 2 (Nitrate Mixture), Class 3 (Nitro Compounds) may be kept in the same building or receptacle without any intervening partition or space.

(b) Detonators shall be kept in a separate receptacle placed at a safe distance from any other explosive.

(c) Fireworks shall be kept in a separate receptacle placed at a safe distance from any other explosive.

(d) Safety cartridges and other explosives of the 1st Division of Class 6 (Ammunition) may be kept in packages in a cool and dry place at a safe distance from any article of an inflammable nature.

(11) With respect to every such building or receptacle, the interior thereof, and the shelves and fittings therein, shall be, so constructed, or so lined or covered as, to prevent the exposure of any iron or steel, or similar substance, and such interior, shelves, and fittings shall be kept free from grit and otherwise clean, and due precaution shall be taken to exclude water; the door or lid thereof shall be provided with a substantial lock; and the outside thereof shall have painted thereon in plain and conspicuous characters the word "Explosives," "Detonators," or "Fireworks," (as the case may be).

(12) Every article of a highly inflammable nature, and every article liable to cause fire or explosion, shall be kept at a safe distance from all explosives, and from all buildings and receptacles containing the same.

(13) Every licensee and every person employed in and about the premises shall take all due precaution for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion, in the same, and for preventing unauthorized persons having access to the premises or to the explosives therein, and shall abstain from any act whatever which tends to cause fire or explosion, and is not reasonably necessary for the purpose of the work on such premises.

(14) Wherever in these conditions an explosive is distinguished as belonging to a particular class or division of a class reference is made to the classification of explosives contained in an Order in Council made in pursuance of section 53 of the Explosives Act 1928.

And the Honorable Ian Macfarlan, His Majesty's Chief Secretary for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

F. P. MOUNTJOY,
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explosives Act 1928.

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE CARRIAGE OF EXPLOSIVES.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the fourteenth day of November, 1932.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Victoria.

Sir Stanley Argyle

Mr. Goudie

Mr. Allan

Mr. Chandler

Mr. Dunstan

Mr. Manifold

Mr. Pennington

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, and in pursuance of the provisions of section 14 of the Explosives Act 1928, doth hereby repeal the Regulations made on the 12th day of October, 1909, respecting the carriage of explosives and, in lieu thereof, doth make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

LICENCE TO CARRY EXPLOSIVES.

1. Application for a licence to carry explosives shall be made to the Chief Inspector of Explosives, and shall state the type of conveyance intended to be used.

2. A licence to carry explosives shall be issued subject to the provisions of the Explosives Act 1928 and the Regulations made thereunder.

3. A licence to carry explosives shall be valid for the person to whom the same is issued, or for any employee in the exclusive service of such person.

4. The Minister may, at his discretion and without assigning any reason, cancel or revoke any licence issued for the carriage of explosives.

CARRIAGE OF EXPLOSIVES.

5. No person shall carry, or cause to be carried, explosives in a carriage or boat whilst such carriage or boat is carrying or plying for passengers.

6. No person shall carry, or cause to be carried, explosives after sunset or before sunrise.

7. No person shall carry, or cause to be carried, any explosive which is not packed, branded, labelled, or marked in the manner prescribed by the Regulations respecting the packing and marking of explosives in a factory.

8. No person shall carry, or cause to be carried, any explosive of Class 5 (Fulminate), or any explosive of Class 6 (Ammunition) which contains its own means of ignition, or any explosive of Class 7 (Firework), in the same carriage or boat with any explosive not of the class and division to which it belongs, unless it be sufficiently separated therefrom so as to prevent any fire or explosion which may take place in one such explosive from being communicated to another.

9. No person shall carry, or cause to be carried, explosives in any carriage or boat unless the following conditions be strictly observed:—

(a) Each carriage or boat carrying explosives shall be in the exclusive charge of and constantly attended by some competent person, and such person shall not have charge of more than one such carriage or boat. Provided that, in the case of a carriage forming part of a continuous train on any railway or tramway it shall be deemed sufficient compliance with the provisions hereof if such train is in the charge of, and constantly attended by some competent person.

(b) No person in charge of any carriage or boat carrying explosives shall drive or conduct the same in a dangerous or reckless manner; and no person who is intoxicated shall be in charge of any such carriage or boat.

(c) No person shall smoke whilst on, in, or attending any carriage or boat containing any explosive.

(d) Explosives shall not be carried in a carriage or boat which is carrying as merchandise any article liable to cause fire or explosion or to communicate fire.

(e) A quantity of explosives not exceeding 110 lbs. may be carried in a suitable carriage or boat, provided the explosives are completely covered with painted cloth, tarpaulin, or other suitable material so as to be protected effectually against undue movement and communication of fire.

- (f) A quantity of explosives not exceeding 550 lbs. may be carried in a suitable carriage or boat, provided the explosives are carried in a closed receptacle suitably constructed and exclusively used for the conveyance of explosives. The receptacle when in use shall be firmly attached in the conveyance and shall have the word "Explosives" painted thereon.
- (g) A quantity of explosives not exceeding 2,000 lbs. may be carried in a carriage or boat suitably constructed for the conveyance of explosives, provided that, when explosives are being carried, no other article or substance shall be conveyed as merchandise in or on the carriage or boat.
- (h) A quantity of explosives exceeding 2,000 lbs. shall not be carried in any carriage or boat without the authority of an inspector of explosives.
- (i) There shall be painted or affixed in plain and conspicuous characters on a carriage or boat in which explosives are being carried the word "Explosives."
- (j) There shall not be any iron or steel in the interior of the portion of the carriage or boat where the explosive is deposited, unless such iron or steel be effectually covered with leather, wood, cloth, or other suitable material.
- (k) In the case of a carriage or boat carrying explosives due provision shall be made for preventing the introduction into such carriage or boat of fire, or any substance or article likely to cause fire or explosion, or the introduction of any iron, steel, or grit, so as to come into contact with packages of explosives; and due precautions shall be taken to prevent water from coming into contact with such explosives.
- (l) No explosives shall be loaded or unloaded from any carriage or boat in or upon any public highway, street, road, thoroughfare, or public place, or at any public wharf or landing place, except with the consent of and under conditions approved by an inspector of explosives.
- (m) The loading or unloading of explosives into or out of any carriage or boat, when once begun, shall be continued with all due diligence until the same is completed.
- (n) When two or more carriages or boats carrying explosives are travelling together, a space of at least 50 yards shall be kept between each such carriage or boat and every other such carriage or boat, unless circumstances render it impracticable.
- (o) The explosives shall be carried with all due diligence and without unnecessary delay to the proper destination.
- (p) No person shall forward a consignment of explosives unless he has given due notice to the consignee and has had an intimation of the time at which such consignee is prepared to receive the consignment, and no consignee shall give such an intimation or receive such consignment unless he is prepared either forthwith to despatch the same or to deposit it in a magazine or premises duly licensed for the keeping of such explosives.
- (q) While the loading, unloading, or carriage of explosive is in progress, all persons engaged in such loading, unloading, or carriage shall observe all due precautions for the prevention of accidents by fire or explosion, and for preventing unauthorized persons having access to the explosive so being loaded, unloaded, or carried, and shall abstain from any act whatever which tends to cause fire or explosion and is not reasonably necessary for the purpose of the loading, unloading, or carriage of such explosive, or of any other article carried therewith, or for preventing any other person from committing any such act.
- (r) The owner of every carriage or boat on, from, or in which explosives are loaded, unloaded, or carried who employs others in such loading, unloading, or carriage shall take such measures as may be necessary in order that the persons so employed may be acquainted with the regulations relating to the carriage of explosives.

Nothing in these conditions shall apply to any explosive of the 1st Division of Class 6 (Ammunition), provided all due precautions are taken for the prevention of accidents.

10. Explosives shall not be carried in any carriage or boat appropriated for the removal of refuse, or be handed or forwarded to any person employed in the removal of refuse.

11. The following additional provisions shall apply to the carriage of explosives on a railway:—

- (i) Explosives, with the exception of those of Class 5 (Fulminate), if packed in outer packages which fulfil all the requirements of the Explosives Act

1928 and are of a pattern approved by the Victorian Railways Commissioners, may be carried with ordinary goods in a truck or trucks not containing any article or substance liable to cause or communicate fire or explosion, provided that—

- (a) No explosive of Class 6 (Ammunition) containing its own means of ignition nor any explosive of Class 7 (Firework) shall be carried in the same truck with any other explosive not of the class and division to which it belongs.
- (b) Not more than 2,000 lbs. of explosives other than detonators and not a greater number than 60,000 detonators shall be so carried in any one goods train.
- (c) Not more than 1,000 lbs. of explosives (other than detonators) and not a greater number than 30,000 detonators shall be carried in any one mixed (passenger and goods) train.
- (d) Immediately on the arrival of a mixed train carrying explosives at a section on which goods trains are running, the trucks containing the explosives shall be detached.
- (ii) The explosives, in excess of 2,000 lbs. (other than detonators) and 60,000 detonators, shall be carried in a truck or trucks suitably constructed and exclusively used for the carriage of explosives and in a train not carrying passengers, but not more than 10,000 lbs. of explosives shall be carried in any one such truck.
- (iii) The number of trucks (not containing explosives or inflammable material) which shall intervene between the engine or the passenger carriages and each truck containing explosives shall be as follows:—
- (a) When carrying not more than 300 lbs. of explosives (other than detonators) and not more than 10,000 detonators, one or more.
- (b) When carrying more than 300 lbs. of explosives (other than detonators) and more than 10,000 detonators, not less than three.
- (iv) Not more than 40,000 lbs. of explosives shall be carried in any one train at any one time, and not less than three trucks (not containing explosives or inflammable material) shall intervene between each 10,000 lbs. of explosives.
- (v) Wherever in this Order an explosive is distinguished as belonging to a particular class or division of a class, reference is made to the classification of explosives contained in an Order in Council made in pursuance of section 53 of the Explosives Act 1928.

And the Honorable Ian Macfarlan, His Majesty's Chief Secretary for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Tenders to be addressed to the Honorable the Commissioner of Public Works, and marked "Tender for ———."

J. P. JONES,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Melbourne, 16th November, 1932.

WRITING AND PRINTING PAPERS, ENVELOPES, ETC.

TENDERS will be received until Eleven a.m. on Tuesday, 10th January, 1933, from persons willing to supply, at Melbourne, Paper and Envelopes, &c., for the Victorian Government, as per Schedule, in the quantities and at the time stated therein.

Forms of tender, conditions of tendering, schedules, conditions of contract, and samples may be obtained on application to the Secretary, Tender Board, Gisborne-street, Melbourne.

Tenders must be accompanied by the preliminary deposit, as shown in the schedule, in a bank draft or bank cheque in favour of the Secretary to the Tender Board. Cheques, Savings Bank deposit books, fixed deposit receipts, State or Commonwealth Treasury bonds or Government debentures, or references to securities on existing contracts will in no case be received or entertained as preliminary deposits. Preliminary deposits will be returned within ten days of acceptance of tenders to unsuccessful tenderers on their application.

The amount of the deposit required with each tender must be enclosed and the amount must be clearly written in and the designation stated, whether bank draft or bank cheque, as the case may be.

Security will be required, as provided on the tender form, either in Victorian or Commonwealth Government Debentures, Savings Bank Deposit Book, or Bank Deposit Receipt in favour of the Secretary to the Tender Board, or cash deposit, as the tenderer may elect. Such deposit to be forfeited in the event of the successful tenderers failing to complete within the time specified.

The security must be completed and contract signed within five days of acceptance of the tender, failing which the contract may be again advertised, or another tender accepted.

Preference will be given by the Tender Board, provided the quality of the articles offered is satisfactory and the rates charged are considered reasonable—

- (a) to tenders for articles manufactured within the Commonwealth;
- (b) to tenders for articles manufactured within any other part of the British Empire.

Tenders are to be Free of Exchange.

The Government will pay the Telegraphic Transfer rate of Exchange ruling at time of delivery, on the C.I.F. London price.

Tenders, enclosed in an envelope, and having the words "Tender for Supplies to the Government Printer" written thereon, must be deposited in the Tender-box at the Pay Office, Treasury, Melbourne, or, if sent by post, they must be prepaid, and addressed to the Chairman of the Tender Board, Pay Office, Treasury, Melbourne.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT.

1. In these conditions and in the form of contract and schedule the words "Government Printer" shall include the officer bearing or acting under that title or such other officer as the Government may from time to time appoint to perform the duty in the matter in relation to which the expression is used. The word "Storekeeper" shall mean the officer (or officers) of the Government who inspects and takes delivery of the stores. The word "Schedule" shall mean and embrace the schedule or schedules.

2. Under no circumstances will a contractor be permitted to abandon his contract. In the event of the contractor failing to carry on the contract, the contract security money will in that case be absolutely forfeited; and, in addition, the contractor will be held liable for any loss which the Government may sustain in consequence of such failure.

3. The Government will order from the contractor all the articles enumerated in the schedules.

4. The first delivery under this contract, equal to one-half the quantity contracted for, shall be made not later than 30th April, 1933, and the remainder to be made not later than 31st May, 1933. Should the contractor so desire, the whole quantity contracted for may be delivered on the first date specified.

5. The supplies are to be in accordance with schedule conditions where so stated, and of the particular manufacture indicated in the schedule of tenders.

6. The value of all packages, cases, wrappings, &c., whether bulk be broken or not, all wharfage fees and duty of Customs must be included in the prices stated in the contractor's tender; all such packages, &c., to be considered the property of the Government, and no charges or expenses whatsoever beyond the price tendered and set out in the schedule will be No. 175.—12221.—2 allowed to the contractor for any articles or packages, cases, wrappings, &c. The net weight or quantity only will be paid for. Contractors must provide, without extra charge, whatever labour, &c., may be required in the packing and delivery of the supplies.

7. All supplies shall be made to the Government Printer. The goods shall be delivered as may be directed by that officer in terms of contract. At the time of delivering the supplies, the contractor shall produce an invoice and specification in duplicate to the officer authorized to accept delivery, and such officer shall give an acknowledgment to the contractor of the receipt of the stores tendered by him.

8. All papers supplied, except Item No. 38, must be supplied in reams, and must be according to the specification as set out in the schedule and cut to the true size ordered. Each ream must contain 500 sheets, and must be supplied flat (not folded). No creased or damaged paper will be accepted.

9. The acceptance of the supplies shall be subject to the approval of the Government Printer, whose decision shall be final. If, after the delivery of the supplies has been taken, any deficiency or defect is discovered therein, such deficient or defective stores may be returned to the contractor. All rejected goods must be removed by the contractor within forty-eight hours after notice has been given to him by the Government Printer of such rejection, and if not so removed the Government Printer is hereby empowered to send same to any store in Melbourne, there to be stored at the contractor's risk and expense, such expenses to be deducted as in clause 10. Delivery will not be deemed to have been made until the goods have been approved. In case of the rejection or return of any supplies, the contractor shall bear the whole cost of replacing the supplies rejected or returned, otherwise purchases will be effected at the contractor's risk, and the extra expense deducted as in clause 10.

10. In the event of the goods not being delivered within the time stated the Government Printer may, on giving the contractor twenty-four hours' notice, purchase the supplies, or any like supplies that are suitable for the service, at the contractor's risk, and the extra expense incurred over and above the contract price (if any) will be deducted from the contractor's account or from the security money.

11. A refusal to execute orders, irregularity in the quantity or quality of the supplies, or delay in delivering or replacing them when required, will subject the contractor, upon report from the Government Printer to the Tender Board, to such mulct, not exceeding One hundred pounds, for each and every default as the Treasurer may direct, and the amount may be deducted as set out in clauses 2 and 10. It will also be in the power of the Treasurer, upon such refusal, irregularity, or delay, to terminate the contract forthwith, and declare forfeit the whole or any portion of the security money; and, in addition, the contractor may be disqualified from tendering or holding any future contract or contracts for a period of twelve months from the date of such disqualification.

12. Contractors are not at liberty to transfer their contracts under cover of power of attorney, coupled with an interest or otherwise; and no such transfer will be recognized by the Government.

13. In the event of any alteration in the duties of Customs which may affect any of the items included in these contracts, the Government or the contractor, as the case may be, will make a proportionate allowance by way of deduction from or increase of the price of the item so affected, provided that the duty on such item at the altered rate has actually been paid.

14. Each package shall be branded "O.H.M.S., The Government of Victoria, The Government Printer, Melbourne," and numbered consecutively, and each package shall also be marked with the number of the contract and contents of same for identification purposes.

15. Every account must be in prescribed form, including the number of the contract and the number of item in same, and must show full details of how the same is made up.

16. Payment for contracts to be made in Melbourne when delivery of supplies has been accepted.

STANLEY S. ARGYLE,
Treasurer.

THE "VICTORIA GOVERNMENT GAZETTE."

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—The Subscription, including Postage, is £1 10s. 4d. per annum, or 7s. 7d. per quarter, payable in advance.

Subscriptions are required to commence and terminate with a month.

A lesser period than three months cannot be subscribed for.

Subscribers do not receive the Acts of Parliament with the Gazette.

ADVERTISEMENTS are charged at the rate of EIGHTPENCE per line throughout.

The title (£5 Reward, Dissolution of Partnership, &c.) forms one or more lines, as a heading.

On an average, eleven words make a line.

Every signature must likewise be counted as a line.

The final words of a paragraph, though only portion of a line, must be counted as one line.

Signatures (in particular) and proper names must be written very plainly in the text; ONE SIDE ONLY of each slip of paper should be WRITTEN UPON.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS should be addressed to "The Government Printer, Melbourne."

ALL DOCUMENTS illegibly written will be returned unpublished, and, where brands occur unprovided for by the ordinary letters of the alphabet, a worded explanatory description must be furnished.

THE VICTORIA GOVERNMENT GAZETTE is published on WEDNESDAY EVENING in each week, and Notices for insertion will be received by the Government Printer at or before Two p.m. at ordinary rates, and late advertisements between Two p.m. and FIVE p.m., at double rates, on the day preceding the day of publication.

Single copies of the VICTORIA GOVERNMENT GAZETTE are Stapence, posted Sevenpence, each.

NO GAZETTES prior to January, 1921, in stock.

ALL PAYMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN ADVANCE. Remittances should be made by postal note, money order, or draft in favour of the Government Printer. Advertisements unaccompanied by a remittance sufficient to cover the cost of insertion will be returned unpublished.
