(3) DEFINITIONS.—(a) "Leading hand" means an employee in charge of any operation where no foreman or assistant foreman is employed, or an employee who is empowered by the management to discharge such duties as would devolve upon such foreman or assistant, if employed.

(b) "Machine operator or attendant" means an employee who, in the course of his or her duty, is called upon to operate a machine, and does not include an employee whose sole duty is carrying material to and from a machine.

(c) "Continuous process" means either the working of three shifts per day from Monday to Saturday inclusive, or the working of three shifts per day from Monday to Sunday inclusive.

(4) SHIFTS.—(a) A "day shift" shall be a shift worked between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive, and between the hours of 7 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturday.

(b) A "night shift" shall be a shift worked between the hours of 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. Monday to Saturday inclusive.

(c) In addition to the rates payable to day shift employees, workers employed on night shift shall be paid at the rate of 1s. per shift extra, unless engaged in a continuous process. If employees in such continuous process work three alternating shifts, they shall be paid 5 per cent. extra, if alternating afternoon and night shift 7½ per cent. extra.

(d) Workers employed on a shift extending after 7 p.m. shall be paid at night shift rates for the time worked after 7 p.m., provided that workers employed on a shift commencing after 5 p.m. shall be paid at night shift rates throughout.

(e) By mutual arrangement between the employer and his employees, the hours of duty prescribed herein for workers on night shift may be worked in four shifts without payment for overtime.

(f) The employment of females before 7 a.m. or of males under 18 years of age on night shift is prohibited.

(g) As far as practicable employees shall work shifts in rotation.

(5) OVERTIME.—(a) For work done by an employee before the usual starting time or after the usual finishing time of his or her shift, or after an employee has completed the ordinary daily hours of work, overtime shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first four hours on any one day and double time thereafter.

(b) The usual starting or finishing time in any factory or part thereof shall not be altered except on seven days' notice to the employees, and such starting and finishing times shall be posted on the notice board—see clause (8).

(c) Employees called upon to work overtime for more than one hour, and not notified the day before, shall be paid 1s. 6d. tea money. If the notice is given and overtime not worked (except as a result of a breakdown of machinery or plant), the tea money prescribed herein shall be paid.

(6) TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT.—(a) Employment shall be on an hourly basis, except that notice equivalent to 44 working hours shall be given on either side to terminate employment; such notice may be given at any time. This shall not affect the right of the employer to dismiss any employee without notice for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct (in which case wages shall be paid up to time of dismissal only), or to deduct payment for any day the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike, or through any breakdown of machinery, or any stoppage of work, or any cause for which the employer cannot be reasonably held responsible.

(b) In lieu of such 44 working hours' notice, except in circumstances referred to above, the employer shall pay 44 hours' wages; the employee leaving his or her employment without notice shall forfeit 44 hours' wages, which shall be deducted from any wages due.

(c) Provided that any notice determining the employment solely for the purpose of evading payment for prescribed holidays, and not to determine the engagement finally, shall not deprive the employee of payment for any prescribed holiday occurring or observed between such notice to terminate and any re-engagement.

(7) MEAL HOURS.—(a) A meal interval of not less than 45 minutes and not more than one hour shall be allowed each day, provided that, by mutual arrangement between the employees and the employer, a shorter meal time may be fixed, in which case it shall not be less than 30 minutes.

(b) Time and a half rates shall be paid to any employee required to work during his or her meal hour. No employee shall be compelled to work for more than five hours without a break for a meal. Provided, however, that where three shifts are worked in a continuous process and it is mutually arranged, there shall be no break for meals, but employees may take their meals in the employer's time as opportunity offers.

(c) An employee engaged in the maintenance of plant, when breakdowns occur, shall work meal hours at the ordinary rates herein prescribed whenever instructed so to do.

(d) Meal intervals having been fixed shall not be altered except on seven days' notice posted in the factory.

(8) NOTICE BOARD.—The employer shall permit a notice board to be erected in his establishment for the purpose of posting any notices thereon in connexion with meetings or other business the employees may require, such notice board to be in a prominent position. All such notices shall be submitted to and approved by the employer before being posted.

(9) TOOLS OF TRADE.—Rubber aprons, gloves, and top boots (where necessary for dyehouse work or scouring department), together with all materials and appliances required for the clearing of machinery, shall be supplied by the employer free of charge.

(10) PAYMENT OF WAGES.—(a) Wages shall be paid weekly, not later than Friday, except by mutual agreement between the employer and his employees.

(b) Any employee kept waiting for his or her wages on pay day for more than ten minutes after the usual time for ceasing work shall be paid at overtime rates for the time so kept waiting.

(c) Where the services of an employee are dispensed with, all wages due shall be paid to him or her on dismissal, or forwarded to him or her by post on the day following.

(d) Not more than two days' pay of any employee shall be kept in hand by an employer.

(11) TIME AND WAGES BOOK.—Each employer shall keep a time and wages book or record showing the name of each employee and his or her occupation, the hours worked each day or each week, and the wages or allowance paid each week.

The time occupied by an employee in filling in any time book or in the making of records shall be treated as time of duty, but this does not apply to checking in or out at the beginning or end of duty.

(12) SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.—(a) All work done on Sundays by time-workers (excluding employees on continuous shift work) or on the following holidays shall be paid for at the rate of ordinary time in addition to the ordinary rate. All work done by pieceworkers shall be paid for at the ordinary rate payable to time-workers doing the same class of work, in addition to the piecework earnings:—

New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Eight Hours Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day.

Provided that Melbourne Cup Day shall be observed as a holiday in the Metropolitan District instead of King's Birthday.

(b) If any other day be by Act of Parliament or proclamation substituted for any of the above-mentioned holidays, the special rate shall be payable only for work done on the day so substituted. Time-workers who are off duty on any of the above-mentioned holidays, other than Sunday, shall be paid for such days at the ordinary rates. Piece-workers who are off duty shall be paid for such days at the ordinary rates payable to employees on time-work doing the same class of work.

(c) Where an employee is absent from his or her employment on the working day before or the working day after a holiday without reasonable excuse, or without the consent of the employer, the employee shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

(c) Piece-work prices now paid may be re-adjusted by employers to meet new circumstances created by this Determination before the expiry of six months from the date on which this Determination comes into force, but thereafter such prices shall not be altered except by mutual agreement between the employer and piece-workers concerned.
