DAY OF PRAYER.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor desires to announce the receipt of advice that the Government of the Commonwealth of Australia has decided that Sunday next, the Eleventh of September, 1938, shall be appointed as a day of the holding of Special Services seeking Divine help and guidance in the conduct of our National Affairs.

His Excellency is advised that his Ministers have indicated their full endorsement of the holding of these Special Services throughout Victoria and invites the full co-operation of all Churches and Citizens in the appropriate observance of this Day.

By His Excellency's Command,

A. A. DUNSTAN,
Premier.

Melbourne,
8th September, 1938.
