HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT.

(4) The ordinary hours of employment shall be 44 per week, to be worked, except as to shift workers, between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive, and 7 a.m. to noon on Saturday: Provided that the spread of hours herein prescribed may be altered by mutual agreement between an employer and his employees, and also that the weekly hours may be worked in five days.

SHIFT WORK.

(5) For any afternoon or night shift which has been in operation for five nights consecutively and for less than one month 10 per cent. more than ordinary rates shall be paid, and after such shifts have continued for more than one month 5 per cent. more than the ordinary rates shall be paid. Shifts which do not continue for five consecutive nights shall be regarded as overtime.

OVERTIME.

(6) (a) For all work done outside ordinary hours the rate of wage shall be time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter.

(b) In computing overtime each day's work shall stand alone.

(c) An employee recalled after leaving his workshop to work overtime shall be paid for a minimum of three hours' work at the appropriate rate.

(d) An employee occasionally required to hold himself in readiness to work after ordinary hours shall until released be paid standing by time at ordinary rates from the time from which he is to hold himself in readiness. But any custom now prevailing under which an employee is required to regularly hold himself in readiness for a call back shall continue.

(e) An employee (other than on shift) who has worked up to or beyond midnight shall not be bound to continue work on the following day.

(f) For all work done during meal hours and thereafter until a meal hour break is allowed time and a half rate shall be paid. An employee shall not be compelled to work for more than six hours without a break for a meal.

(g) An employee working overtime shall be allowed a crib time of twenty minutes without deduction of pay after each four hours of work, but this provision shall not prevent any arrangement being made for the taking of a longer meal period without pay.

(h) Before starting overtime after working ordinary hours, a meal break of at least 45 minutes shall be allowed, unless the period of overtime is less than one and a half hours. An employee and his employer may mutually agree to any variation of this sub-clause to meet the circumstances of the work in hand.

(i) An employee being required to work overtime for more than two hours without being notified the day before that he will be required so to work shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or paid 1s. 6d., or if work extends into a second meal hour 2s. 6d. for the two meals, but such payment need not be made to employees who live in the same locality as their workshop, and who can reasonably return home for meals.

If an employee, pursuant to notice, has provided a meal or meals, and is not required to work overtime, he shall be paid for each meal so provided.

(j) Subject to the provisions of the second part of sub-clause (f) of this clause, an employee shall work during meal breaks at the ordinary rates herein prescribed whenever instructed so to do for the purpose of making good breakdowns of plant, or upon routine maintenance of plant which can only be done while such plant is idle.

(k) When an employee working overtime finishes work at a time when reasonable means of transport is not available, the employer shall provide him with a conveyance, or pay him ordinary wage rates for the time occupied in reaching his home.

MIXED FUNCTIONS.

(7) An employee engaged on any day on different grades of work shall be paid at the rates prescribed for time actually worked in each grade.

HOLIDAYS AND SUNDAY WORK.

(8) (a) Employees shall be entitled to the following public holidays (without pay except as hereinafter provided):—New Year's Day, Foundation or Anniversary Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Eight Hours Day (or Labour Day), Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

By an agreement between an employer and his employees other holidays may be substituted for the said days, or any of them, as to such employer's undertaking.

(b) Employees shall be paid at the rate of double ordinary time for work done on Sundays and public holidays, such double time to continue until the employee has been relieved from duty at least eight hours. Provided that the employee shall not be paid for the time he is resting.

Provided further that employees engaged in repairs or renewals of their employer's plant and machinery necessary for resumption of work the next following working day (not including the installation of new machinery) shall on Sundays or holidays be paid at the rate of time and a half.

PIECEWORK RATES.

(9) Subject to the minimum wages herein prescribed, an employer may remunerate any of his employees under any system of payment by results based on rates which will enable workers of average capacity to earn at least 10 per cent. in excess of their prescribed hourly or weekly rates.

EXTRA RATES NOT CUMULATIVE.

(10) Extra rates prescribed in this determination are not cumulative so as to exceed the maximum of double the ordinary rates.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

(11) (a) Wages shall be paid weekly. Where the services of an employee are dispensed with, wages shall be paid to him on the day of dismissal, or forwarded to him by post on the following day.

(b) An employee kept waiting for his wages on pay day for more than a quarter of an hour after the usual time for ceasing work shall be paid at overtime rates after that quarter of an hour, with a minimum of a quarter of an hour.

CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT.

(12) (a) With the exceptions hereinafter stated, employment may be by the week or by the hour. If by the week it shall be terminable on either side by one week's notice given on any day, or (if the employer terminate it without such notice) by payment of one week's wages.

A contract for weekly employment may be terminated by an employer, without liability to pay for more than time actually worked, for misconduct, or absence from work without reasonable excuse. If any employee engaged by the week absents himself from duty, except on public holidays, or for days for which he produces a certificate from a medical practitioner, or other proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness (aggregating four days' sickness in each year), a sum proportionate to his time of absence may be deducted from his pay, i.e., one-sixth of the weekly wage for each day of absence, including Saturdays, in shops working six days, and one-fifth in shops working five days per week. Provided that only time actually lost shall be deducted when an employee is absent, with leave, on a Saturday.

(b) If the contract for employment is for hourly hiring, the total amount of the rates prescribed in clause 2 hereof shall be increased by 5s. per week, but such amount shall not be taken into account in computing overtime, Sunday, and holiday rates.

(c) An employee starting work on hourly hiring shall be entitled to a minimum of four consecutive hours' work, or to four hours' pay for the job; such hours may be deemed to be consecutive if worked in ordinary hours at the end of a day and the beginning of the next succeeding day.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(13) (a) Tools.—The employer shall provide for each employee such tools as were customarily provided at the time of the making of this Determination, and for sheet metal workers, snips used in the cutting of stainless steel, Monel metal, and similar hard metal. The employee shall replace or pay for any tools so provided if lost through his negligence.

The time occupied by an employee in filling in any time books or cards or in the making of records shall be treated as time of duty, but this does not apply to checking in or out at the beginning or end of duty.

(a) Leading hands in charge of not less than three and not more than ten employees, 6s. per week extra; more than ten and not more than twenty, 12s. per week extra; more than twenty, 18s. per week extra.

(b) Except where dismissed for misconduct or when leaving of his own accord, a patternmaker employed for less than three weeks at a workshop or job shall, to the extent of 6s., be reimbursed by his employer any expense incurred in the carting of tools.
