COUNTRY ROADS ACT 1928.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the eleventh day of September, 1939.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Governor of Victoria.
Mr. Bailey | Sir John Harris.

APPOINTMENT OF ARBITRATOR.

WHEREAS a claim for compensation has been made by George Samuel Gay, of Norman-street, Ivanhoe, in the State of Victoria (hereinafter called the claimant), against the Country Roads Board for land taken by the Board from the claimant pursuant to the Country Roads Act 1928, such land being part of portion one, Parish of Keelbundoora, County of Bourke, in the said State: And whereas it is provided in Part XL. of the Local Government Act 1928 that when in any question of disputed compensation as aforesaid the compensation claimed exceeds Five hundred pounds the question whether any or what compensation shall be made shall be determined by a single arbitrator who shall be a County Court Judge appointed to act as such arbitrator by the Governor in Council: And whereas the compensation claimed in connexion with the taking of the land aforesaid exceeds Five hundred pounds: Now therefore His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof doth hereby appoint His Honor Thomas Stuart Clyne, a Judge of County Courts, to act and be an arbitrator to determine such claim of disputed compensation.

And the Honorable Albert Arthur Dunstan, His Majesty's Solicitor-General for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. W. KINSMAN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

LIST OF CROWN LANDS AVAILABLE.

THE under-mentioned areas are available for application as provided by various sections of the Land Act 1928, and all applications received on or before Wednesday, 11th October, 1939, will be deemed to have been simultaneously made, but any application lodged after such date may be considered if received in time for inclusion in the advertisement of the cases to be heard at the Local Land Board.

Applications on proper form, accompanied by 5s. duty stamp uncancelled (registration fee), may be delivered or forwarded by post to the Local Land Officer or to any Crown Lands Office in Victoria.

Applicants may obtain from Local Land Officers, or the Enquiry Office, Lands Department, Melbourne, a certificate authorizing the issue by the Railway Department of a return ticket at concession fares to enable them to inspect available areas or to attend Local Land Boards. When an applicant is granted an allotment he may, if travelling by rail, obtain reduced fares for his family and also freight concessions in regard to some of his effects.

Subject to the approval of the Minister, when the survey fee exceeds £10, a deposit of £5 may be paid, and the balance over six years in half-yearly instalments.

Marked plans of any particular area, application forms, and any further information may be obtained from the Enquiry Office, Lands Department, Melbourne, and Land Officers, Bairnsdale, Ballarat, Beechworth, Benalla, Bendigo, Geelong, Hamilton, Healesville, Melbourne, Redcliffs, Ormsby, Sale, Seymour, and St. Arnaud.

(3) OVERTIME.—Any employee who, in any week, works for any time in excess of 48 hours shall be paid for such extra time at the rate of time and a half.

Provided that ordinary time only shall be payable for the first three hours' overtime in cases where the hours worked during the week do not exceed 51 and together with the hours worked either during the prior week or during the succeeding week do not exceed 96 in the aggregate.

(4) SPECIAL RATES.—Double time shall be the rate payable for all work done on New Year's Day, Australia Day (26th January), Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day (21st April), King's Birthday, Christmas Day or Boxing Day, but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall be payable only for work done on the day so substituted.

(5) ANNUAL HOLIDAYS.—For each six months of completed service with an employer, seven (7) days' leave on full pay shall be granted to any employee. The provisions of this clause shall not apply in any case where an employee is dismissed for misconduct malingering, or neglect of duty.

(6) SICK LEAVE.—Any employee not attending for duty shall lose his or her pay for the actual time lost unless such employee has had not less than twelve months' service with the same employer and he or she furnishes a medical certificate within seven days of the commencement of such absence showing that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill-health or accident, but such employee shall not be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the grounds of personal ill-health or accident for more than one week in each year commencing from the 18th September, 1939.

Provided that for absences of two days or less the production of a medical certificate shall not be deemed necessary.

(7) GARMENT ALLOWANCE.—Where, in conformity with the custom of the trade, an employee wears, when at work, a washable outer garment, the laundering of which is not paid for by the employer, such employee shall be paid 3s. per week if a male, and 2s. 6d. per week if a female, in addition to the ordinary rate.

(8) RELIEVERS ALLOWANCES.—A reliever (i.e., a person required to travel outside the Metropolitan District to take a position for less than two (2) months) shall be paid first class return railway fare. An employee engaged to work outside the Metropolitan District necessitating his or her absence from his or her usual place of residence for a night shall be entitled to an additional payment for expenses at the rate of 6s. a day for the first six days and 30s. a week thereafter. An employee shall not be entitled to payment for expenses under this clause for a longer period than three weeks.

(9) CASUAL WORK.—Any person employed for less than the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work shall be paid as follows :—

- (a) where the number of hours worked is not more than 10 hours for each hour worked at the ordinary wages rate with an addition of twenty per centum subject to a minimum payment of 7s. 6d.
- (b) where the number of hours worked is more than 10 hours and not more than 24 hours for each hour worked at the ordinary wages rate with an addition of fifteen per centum.
- (c) where the number of hours worked is more than 24 hours and not more than 36 hours for each hour worked at the ordinary wages rate with an addition of ten per centum.
- (d) where the number of hours worked is more than 36 hours for each hour worked at the ordinary wages rate calculated pro rata.

(4) OVERTIME—

The rate of time and a half shall be paid for all work done—

- (a) Outside the hours fixed as the times of beginning and ending work.
- (b) Within the hours fixed as the times of beginning and ending work in excess of the maximum number of hours fixed as a week's work.
- (c) In excess of four and a half hours on the day upon which the half-holiday for shops is observed, ten hours on the usual late trading day, or eight and a half hours on any other working day of the week.

(5) TIME WAGES.—Any person employed on time wages for less than the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work shall—

- (i) for each hour worked up to one-half the number of hours fixed be paid—
 - (a) in any week in which two or more Public Holidays occur At the ordinary wages rate with an addition of fifty per centum
 - (b) in any other week At the ordinary wages rate with an addition of thirty-three and one-third per centum.

Provided that any person employed for less than 13 hours shall be paid at ordinary wages rate with an addition of fifty per centum.

- (ii) for each hour worked beyond the one-half mentioned in sub-clause (i) be paid the ordinary wages rate up to but not exceeding ordinary wages rates for an ordinary week's work.

If the time actually worked by an employee, who is definitely engaged for a period less than the number of hours fixed for a week's work, includes a fraction of an hour exceeding five minutes, the employee shall be paid for such fraction as for a full hour.

(6) ALLOWANCES—

- (a) Within the Metropolitan District as defined in the Factories and Shops Acts.—Every employer whose place of business is outside a radius of 6 miles from the General Post Office, Melbourne, shall pay to each employee who is engaged for less than one week's continuous work the fares necessarily expended by the employee in travelling between his home and the employer's place of business.
- (b) Outside the Metropolitan District as defined in the Factories and Shops Acts.—Every employer shall pay the fares necessarily incurred by an employee in proceeding from his home to employment outside the Metropolitan District, and also the fares necessarily incurred by the employee in returning to his home at the termination of his employment with the employer. Provided that the employer shall not be required to pay the fare to his home of an employee who voluntarily leaves the service of the employer before he has completed a period of three months in such employment.

(7) SPECIAL RATES.—Double time shall be paid for all work done on Sundays, New Year's Day, Labour Day, Good Friday, Christmas Day, 26th January (Australia Day), Easter Monday, King's Birthday, and Boxing Day, and, within the Metropolitan District as defined in the Factories and Shops Act, for all work done on Melbourne Cup Day; but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall only be payable for work done on the day so substituted.

(8) UNIFORMS.—Any employee who is required by his employer to provide himself with a special uniform shall have refunded to him, by the employer, so much of the cost of same as exceeds 12s. 6d. per uniform. Such uniform shall become the property of the employee. The entire cost of special uniforms shall be borne by the employer where the employee is employed for a period of less than six months. Where change to special designs in uniforms is required, the employer shall bear the cost of same.

In cases where the employer arranges for the laundering of the uniform of any employee he shall be entitled to deduct from the wages of such employee the actual cost of such laundering not exceeding 9d. per week.

(9) MEALS.—Meal breaks of not less than 45 consecutive minutes shall be allowed to each employee. Such breaks shall commence between the hours of 11.30 a.m. and 1.45 p.m., and between the hours of 4.15 p.m. and 7 p.m. Provided that in the case of any employee who ceases work not later than 6.5 p.m. on any day no second meal break shall be allowed on such day.

In any shop meals may be partaken of only in some room or place in which hairdressing or toilet work is not actually being carried on.

(10) DAY AND LATEST HOUR FOR PAYMENT OF WAGES.—Five o'clock p.m. on Friday shall be the day and latest hour for payment of wages.

(11) ANNUAL LEAVE.—Any employee who has been in the service of the same employer for a period of not less than twelve months shall be granted one week's holiday on full pay in each year (exclusive of the holidays specified in clause 7), and such holidays shall be given within three months of completion of each twelve months' service. Should an employee's services be terminated before the expiration of twelve months' service he shall be entitled to pro rata holidays on full pay, i.e., one day for each two complete months of service.

(12) TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.—Except where the conduct of an employee justifies instant dismissal, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either employer or employee, or one week's wages shall be paid or forfeited in lieu thereof.

In the case of an employee who has been engaged from week to week (whether for an ordinary week's work or for any definite period other than an ordinary week's work) for at least four weeks the expression "termination of employment" shall include any variation of the terms of his engagement whereby he is to work weekly for a shorter period than that for which he was previously engaged. "A week's wages" shall mean the wages in respect of the weekly period for which he was previously engaged.

(13) APPRENTICES AND IMPROVERS ON ELECTRICAL CURLING OR WAVING MACHINES.—Female apprentices and improvers shall assist in operating electrical curling or waving machines only in the presence of a person receiving not less than the minimum wage.

(14) PREMIUMS OR BONUSES.—No person shall, either directly or indirectly, request or permit any other person to pay or give or shall receive from any other person, any premium, bonus, consideration or payment for employing or teaching or purporting to employ or teach any person subject to this Determination any of the callings to which the Determination applies.
