REGULATIONS PROVIDING FOR A POLICE AUXILIARY FORCE AND THE CONDITIONS OF SERVICE THEREIN.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the National Security (Emergency Powers) Act 1939 His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof doth make the following regulations, that is to say:—

- Citation. 1. These Regulations may be cited as the National Security (Police Auxiliary Force) Regulations.
- Definitions. 2. In these Regulations, unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter—“Chief Secretary” means the Chief Secretary for the State of Victoria for the time being.
 “Chief Commissioner” means the Chief Commissioner of Police of Victoria for the time being.
 “Police Force” means officers and men of the Police Force of Victoria.
 “Police Regulations” means the Police Regulations under the Police Regulation Acts.
 “Police Reservist” means any person appointed in accordance with these Regulations to be a police reservist.
 “Police Superannuation Board” means the Police Superannuation Board appointed in accordance with the Police Regulation Acts.
- Appointment of police reservists. 3. (1) Subject to the approval of the Premier of Victoria and the Chief Secretary the Chief Commissioner may appoint so many fit and proper persons to be police reservists as are deemed necessary.
- Police auxiliary force. (2) The persons so appointed as police reservists shall constitute the Police Auxiliary Force of Victoria.
 (3) Every police reservist shall in the execution of his duty act under the direction and control of the Chief Commissioner or any other member of the police force under whom he is placed by the Chief Commissioner.
- Police reservists under control of public statutory corporations, &c. 4. Subject to the last preceding clause of these Regulations fit and proper persons who are officers or employees of any municipality or public statutory corporation may be appointed police reservists and placed by the Chief Commissioner under the direction and control of such municipality or public statutory corporation for the purpose of protecting any property owned by or under the control of such municipality or public statutory corporation.
- Application of Workers' Compensation Acts. 5. Any police reservist who pursuant to the last preceding clause of these Regulations is placed under the direction and control of any municipality or public statutory corporation shall be a worker for the purposes of the Workers Compensation Acts, but save as aforesaid no police reservist shall as such be a worker for the purposes of the Workers Compensation Acts.
- Purpose for which police reservists appointed. 6. Every police reservist shall be appointed:—
 (a) in anticipation of enemy action, for the preservation of the public peace safety and order and for the protection and security of the people and property in the State of Victoria; or
 (b) for the protection of property of a municipality or public statutory corporation.
- Oath. 7. (1) A person appointed to be a police reservist shall not be capable of holding such office or of acting in any way therein until he has taken and subscribed the following oath:—
 “I, _____, swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lord the King as a member of the Police Auxiliary Force of Victoria, without favour or affection, malice or ill-will; that I will see and cause His Majesty's peace to be kept and preserved; and that I will prevent to the best of my power all offences against the same, and that while I shall continue to be a member of the Police Auxiliary Force I will to the best of my skill and knowledge discharge all the duties legally imposed on me faithfully and according to law. So help me God.”

(2) Such oath shall be administered by a Justice of the Peace, and shall in all cases be subscribed by the person taking the same, and when so taken and subscribed shall be forwarded to the Chief Commissioner.

8. Subject to clause 4 of these Regulations every person appointed a police reservist shall on taking and subscribing such oath and until he is legally discharged have, exercise, and enjoy all such powers, authorities, advantages and immunities, and be liable to all such duties and responsibilities as any member of the Police Force appointed under the Police Regulation Acts now has or may have at any time hereafter by virtue of the common law or any statute for the time being in force.

Powers and privileges.

9. A person shall not be deemed a fit and proper person for appointment as a police reservist if he—

Qualifications.

- (a) is suffering from any illness or physical defect which would render him physically unfit to perform the duties of a police reservist; or
- (b) is not of good character and reputation.

10. A police reservist may be required by the Chief Commissioner to qualify by attending the course of instruction and training laid down by the Chief Commissioner.

Training.

11. For the purpose of maintaining discipline, a police reservist shall be subject, as far as may be applicable, to the disciplinary code as set forth in Chapter 6 of the Police Regulations.

Discipline.

12. Each police reservist shall be supplied free of charge with such equipment as may be deemed by the Chief Commissioner to be necessary for the carrying out of the duties of his office.

Equipment.

13. A police reservist shall not resign his office or withdraw from the duties thereof unless expressly authorized in writing so to do by the Chief Commissioner or other person authorized by the Chief Commissioner, or unless he gives to the Chief Commissioner or other person authorized by the Chief Commissioner fourteen days' notice in writing of his intention so to resign or withdraw.

Resignation.

14. The Chief Commissioner may at his discretion terminate the service of or suspend or dismiss any police reservist.

Dismissal, or termination of service.

15. (1) When any police reservist is dismissed or ceases to hold his office, all powers and authorities vested in him shall immediately cease.

Cessation of powers on dismissal, &c.

(2) Any police reservist so dismissed or ceasing to hold office shall forthwith deliver over all equipment supplied to him for the execution of such office, or in his custody by virtue thereof, to a member of the Police Force or any other person authorized by the Chief Commissioner to receive the same.

Return of equipment.

(3) Any Justice of the Peace may issue his warrant for and seize to the use of His Majesty all equipment not so delivered over wherever the same is found.

16. (1) The Chief Commissioner may make payments to police reservists by way of—

Payment of out-of-pocket expenses, &c.

- (a) reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses necessarily incurred in the execution of duty, or an allowance in lieu thereof, including a subsistence, lodging, or travelling allowance not exceeding the amounts specified in Chapter 18 of the Police Regulations;
- (b) an allowance in consideration of wages lost by a police reservist while required for temporary duty: Provided that any such payment shall not exceed the amount of wages lost and in no case shall exceed the amount of pay that would have been due had the police reservist been a member of the Police Force duly appointed in his first year of service;
- (c) an allowance in consideration of any continuous period of duty by a police reservist not exceeding the amount of pay that would have been due had the police reservist been a member of the Police Force duly appointed in his first year of service;
- (d) an allowance in consideration of any temporary incapacitation of a police reservist by infirmity of mind or body occasioned by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default—but, save as aforesaid, no police reservist shall be entitled to any remuneration in respect of his services as such.

(2) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to police reservists referred to in clause 4 of these Regulations.

- Pensions and gratuities. 17. (1) A police reservist who is permanently incapacitated from following his ordinary employment by infirmity of mind or body occasioned by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, or by illness which is shown to the satisfaction of the Chief Secretary to have been contracted in the execution of his duty without his own default, shall be entitled to a pension or gratuity.
- (2) If a police reservist dies from the effect of any such injury or illness as aforesaid his widow shall be entitled to a pension or a gratuity and his children shall be entitled to allowances.
- (3) Subject to these Regulations all such pensions, gratuities or allowances shall be at the same rates and subject to the same conditions, as nearly as may be, as those which apply in respect of members of the Police Force appointed after the 1st day of January, 1924.
- (4) This clause of these Regulations shall not apply to police reservists referred to in clause 4 of these Regulations.
- Computation of pensions, &c. 18. For the purpose of computing any such pension, gratuity or allowance, the following provisions shall apply:—
- (a) The period of approved service shall be reckoned as one completed year;
- (b) The pay shall be reckoned as at the rate of 12s. 1d. per day;
- (c) Any pension, gratuity, or allowance, the amount of which is dependent, in the case of a member of the Police Force, on his rank, shall be computed in the case of a police reservist at the amount appropriate to the rank of Constable.
- Recommendation of Police Superannuation Board. 19. All pensions and gratuities granted to police reservists or their widows and any allowances granted to their children under the provisions of these Regulations shall be paid subject to recommendation by the Police Superannuation Board.
- Liability under Police Regulation Acts. 20. Any person receiving a pension, gratuity or allowance under these Regulations shall be liable, so far as may be applicable, to the same penalties, disabilities and responsibilities as any person receiving a pension, gratuity or allowance under the Police Regulation Acts.
- Moneys to be provided by Treasurer. 21. Any moneys required pursuant to these Regulations to be provided for—
- (a) payments to or maintenance of police reservists;
- (b) the provision of equipment for police reservists;
- (c) the payment of pensions gratuities or allowances—
- shall be provided by the Treasurer of Victoria.
- Exemption from jury service. 22. Any police reservist appointed under these Regulations who is summoned to serve on any jury shall be exempted from serving on the jury on presenting a certificate signed by the Chief Commissioner, or an Officer not below the rank of Inspector authorized by the Chief Commissioner for the purpose, stating that he is a police reservist belonging to an organized force and that he is ready to undertake duty when required.
- Personation of police reservists, &c. 23. No person shall for any unlawful purpose or without proper authority put on the dress or accoutrements or take the name, designation, or character of a police reservist.
- Obstructing, &c., police reservists. 24. No person shall assault, resist, or obstruct any police reservist whilst in the execution of his office, or promote, incite, or encourage any other person so to do.

And the Honorable Albert Arthur Dunstan, His Majesty's Premier for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Clerk of the Executive Council.

NATIONAL SECURITY (EMERGENCY POWERS) ACT 1939.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the second day of October, 1939.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Governor of Victoria.

Mr. Lind		Mr. Tuckett
Mr. Bailey		Mr. Pye
Mr. Hyland		Mr. Martin.

REGULATIONS WITH RESPECT TO BODIES APPOINTED TO INQUIRE INTO AND DEAL WITH CONTRACTS AND TRANSACTIONS CONCERNING THE SALE OR SUPPLY OF COMMODITIES.

HIS Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof and pursuant to the powers conferred under the provisions of section four of the National Security (Emergency Powers) Act 1939 and all other powers enabling him in that behalf doth hereby make the following Regulations, viz. :—

1. These regulations may be cited as the National Security (Transactions in Commodities) Regulations. Citation.

2. In these regulations unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter "the body" means any body appointed for the purposes of section four of the National Security (Emergency Powers) Act 1939, by Order of the Governor in Council and constituted as provided therein. Interpretation.
"The body".

3. The members of the body shall be entitled to be paid such travelling and out-of-pocket expenses as the Premier of Victoria determines. Expenses.

4. (1) Subject to these Regulations the members of the body shall be entitled to hold office for a term of six months and shall be eligible for re-appointment. Tenure of office.

(2) Any person appointed to fill a vacancy (arising otherwise than by effluxion of time) in the office of member of the body shall subject to these Regulations be entitled to hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the member in whose place he is appointed.

5. (1) If any member of the body—

- (a) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the body without leave granted by the Premier of Victoria (which leave the Premier is hereby empowered to grant);
- (b) becomes bankrupt or applies to take the benefit of any Act for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors or by any deed or writing compounds with his creditors;
- (c) becomes incapable of performing his duties; or
- (d) resigns his office by writing under his hand directed to the Premier—his seat on the body shall thereby become vacant. Vacancies.

(2) The Governor in Council may remove any member of the body whose conduct is such that in the opinion of the Governor in Council it is undesirable that he should continue to be a member of the body.

6. Subject to these Regulations the Governor in Council may on the death or removal of any member of the body or in the event of any member of the body vacating his office by Order appoint another person to be a member of the body in the place of such member. Filling vacancies.

7. (1) The body shall meet at such times and places as the chairman or the Premier from time to time appoints. Meetings.

(2) At any meeting of the body the chairman and two other members shall form a quorum.

(3) At any meeting of the body the chairman shall preside and shall in the event of an equal division of votes at the meeting have a second or casting vote.

(4) Meetings of the body shall be held in public unless in any particular case the body otherwise orders.

(5) Subject to these Regulations the body may regulate its own proceedings.

8. (1) The body may with the approval of the Premier make use of the services of any of the officers and employés of any department of the Public Service. Officers.

(2) Every such officer and employé shall continue subject to and shall be removed in accordance with the provisions of the Public Service Acts.

Powers of the body.

9. The body may—

- (a) (upon its own motion or upon any complaint in writing addressed to it by any person) inquire into contracts or transactions concerning the sale or supply of any commodities entered into or made on or after the first day of September One thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine;
- (b) rescind or alter any such contract or transaction if upon inquiry such body is satisfied that such contract or transaction (whether alone or taken in association with any other contract or transaction) was such as to unduly restrict the available sources of supply of such commodity or to place the control of an undue proportion of the commodity in the hands of a limited number of persons and (having regard to pre-war standards of trading) was of an abnormal character; and
- (c) require any commodities delivered pursuant to any such contract or transaction to be returned and any moneys paid pursuant to any such contract or transaction to be repaid.

Summoning of witnesses &c.

10. For the purposes of any inquiry by the body, the body shall have all the powers conferred by sections fourteen to sixteen of the Evidence Act 1928 upon a Board appointed by the Governor in Council and the said sections fourteen to sixteen shall apply as if—

- (a) the body were a Board appointed by the Governor in Council; and
- (b) the chairman of the body were the chairman of a Board appointed by the Governor in Council.

And the Honorable Albert Arthur Dunstan, His Majesty's Premier for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. W. KINSMAN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
