PUBLIC SERVICE ACT 1928.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the eighteenth day of November, 1941.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Victoria.
Mr. Mackrell | Mr. Tuckett.

PERMISSION FOR AN OFFICER OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE TO ENGAGE IN DUTIES UNCONNECTED WITH HIS OFFICE AND TO RECEIVE REMUNERATION THEREFOR.

UNDER the provisions of section 161 of the Public Service Act 1928, His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth by this Order grant permission to the under-mentioned officer of the Public Service to engage in the work specified below and to receive remuneration therefor, subject to the conditions that the work be performed by him only during hours outside the ordinary hours fixed for the discharge of his duties in the Public Service:—

H. B. INGLE, Forests Commission—to act as Secretary to a Bush Nursing Hospital and a Lodge.

And the Honorable Albert Arthur Dunstan, His Majesty's Premier for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. W. KINSMAN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS AND SURVEY.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the eighteenth day of November, 1941.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Victoria.
Mr. Mackrell | Mr. Tuckett.

AUTHORITY TO CLOSE STREET WITH UNLOCKED SWING GATES.—SOUTH MELBOURNE.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, pursuant to the provisions of section 550 of the Local Government Act 1928, doth hereby approve that authority be given to close with unlocked swing gates such portion of Neville-street from the eastern side of Mills-street to the Crown right-of-way first north of Wright-street, and situate in section 43<sup>e</sup> in the City of South Melbourne, such authority to be limited to five years from the 6th August, 1941. The gates to be closed only during the times the children connected with the Middle Park Central State School, which adjoins the said street, are at play, between the hours of 8.30 a.m. and 4 p.m. daily (Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays excepted). The Council of the City of South Melbourne has made this application in order to allow safe access to the children from the school to the play area connected with the said school, between Neville and Page streets, in the City of South Melbourne.

And the Honorable A. E. Lind, His Majesty's Commissioner of Crown Lands and Survey for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. W. KINSMAN,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

(Published in lieu of Order appearing in Gazette of 19th November, 1941, page 3937.)

LIST OF CROWN LANDS AVAILABLE.

THE under-mentioned areas are available for application as provided by various sections of the Land Act 1928, and all applications received on or before Monday, 5th January, 1942, will be deemed to have been simultaneously made, but any application lodged after such date may be considered if received in time for inclusion in the advertisement of the cases to be heard at the Local Land Board.

Applications on proper form, accompanied by 5s. duty stamp uncanceled (registration fee), may be delivered or forwarded by post to the Local Land Officer or to any Crown Lands Office in Victoria. Applicants may obtain from Local Land Officers, or the Enquiry Office, Lands Department, Melbourne, a certificate authorizing the issue by the Railway Department of a return ticket at concession fares to enable them to inspect available areas or to attend Local Land Boards. When an applicant is granted an allotment he may, if travelling by rail, obtain reduced fares for his family and also freight concessions in regard to some of his effects.

Subject to the approval of the Minister, when the survey fee exceeds £10, a deposit of £5 may be paid, and the balance over six years in half-yearly instalments.

Marked plans of any particular area, application forms, and any further information may be obtained from the Enquiry Office, Lands Department, Melbourne, and Land Officers, Ballarat, Beechworth, and Sale.

Tenders to be addressed to the Honorable the Commissioner of Public Works, and envelope containing tender marked "Tender for _____, due _____."

GEO. L. GOUDIE,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Melbourne, 26th November, 1941.

TENDERS FOR GRAZING.

(Section 121, Land Act 1928.)

For the period 1st January, 1942, to 30th September, 1942, renewable annually for a further period where stated.

Tender Forms and all particulars can be obtained on application to the Lands Department, Melbourne, or any of the Lands Offices in the Country.

Tenders should be placed in the Lands Department Tender-box, State Treasury Buildings, Melbourne, C.2, at or before Noon on Thursday, 18th December, 1941.

Before any tender is accepted the provisions of the National Security (Land Transfer) Regulations must be complied with.

TENDERS are invited and must be lodged at the Lands Department, Melbourne, at or before Noon on Thursday, 18th December, 1941, for the right to depasture stock on the following unappropriated portions of lands subject to the Regulations approved by the Governor in Council and also the subjoined conditions.

CONDITIONS.

1. The period of occupation will be for nine (9) months from 1st January, 1942, to 30th September, 1942, renewable annually for a further period where stated.

2. The rent for nine months—for which the licence will be issued, and the licence-fee of 7s. 6d.—must accompany the tender, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who complies with this condition may be accepted.

3. The licensee shall pay shire rates and all other charges for the period of occupation.

4. Separate tenders must be lodged for each block.

5. Tenders to be addressed to the Secretary for Lands (Tender-box), Melbourne.

6. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

7. Tenderers must give their full name, occupation, and ordinary postal address.

8. Where permission to fence has been granted, the outgoing tenant has the option to remove any existing fencing owned by him within one month, or he may arrange with the incoming tenant to pay for it in accordance with the provisions of section 124, Land Act 1928.

This does not apply to cases where the land was the subject of an Expired Grazing Area Lease. In all such cases, the ingoing tenant will be held responsible for the care and maintenance of any improvements.

In addition to the foregoing conditions, the following will apply to lots 33, 34, 35, and 36 only:—

The Minister may grant permission to cultivate. No advances will be made by the Board of Land and Works with respect to these areas.

Existing improvements, including clearing, to be maintained to the satisfaction of the Minister.

The Board of Land and Works reserves the right to sell or remove from each lot the surplus houses or other buildings not required for the reasonable working of the areas.

The Minister may grant permission to the licensee to remove any internal fencing to complete the boundary fences.

NOTE.—No provision has been made for the supply of water; consequently each licensee will be required to make his own arrangements.

A. E. LIND.

Commissioner of Crown Lands and Survey.

(a) Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in this Determination contained, where an apprentice is under the age of 21 years on the expiry of his apprenticeship, he shall be paid four-fifths of the tradesman's time wage until reaching the age of 21 years.

(b) All wages shall be paid without deduction for specified holidays or for unavoidable absences through sickness certified as in clause 9 (c) to the number of four days per annum.

(vii) The ordinary hours of employment of apprentices shall be the same in each workshop as those of journeymen.

(viii) Where practicable, no apprentice under the age of 18 years shall be required to work overtime.

(ix) No apprentice shall work under any system of payment by results.

(x) Any apprentice who cannot complete his full term of apprenticeship before reaching his twenty-second birthday may, by agreement with his employer, serve as an apprentice until he reaches the age of 23 years.

(xi) The apprentice at the end of the calendar period of any year in which he has actually given service to the employer upon less than the ordinary working days prescribed in this Determination, or in which he has unlawfully absented himself without the employer's consent shall, for every day short of the said number of working days, and for every day of such absence, serve one day, and the calendar period of the succeeding year of his service shall not be deemed to begin until the said additional day or days shall have been served.

(xii) No employer shall, either directly or indirectly, or by any pretence or device, receive from any person or require or permit any person to pay or give any consideration in the nature of a premium or bonus for the taking or binding of any probationer or apprentice.

(xiii) Apprentices attending technical colleges or schools and presenting reports of satisfactory conduct shall be reimbursed at fees paid by them.

(xiv) A person who is for a term not exceeding two years taking practical training in a workshop in continuance of a course of training for professional work shall not be taken into account in calculating the proportion of apprentices to journeymen.

MALE JUNIOR WORKERS.

For the duration of the present war, the system of calculating the wages of male junior workers on the basis of age plus experience shall be suspended. At the conclusion of the war, that system shall be reverted to, but without prejudice to the right of the Unions, or any of them, to seek alterations thereto.

Unapprenticed male junior workers may be employed in any occupation covered by this Determination.

Subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided, the minimum rates of wage for unapprenticed male juniors shall be the following—

										Wages per Week of 44 Hours.
										£ s. d.
Under 16 years of age	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	1 2 0
16 years of age	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	1 11 0
17 " "	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	2 2 0
18 " "	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	2 12 6
19 " "	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	3 6 6
20 " "	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	..	3 19 6

Provided that the rate payable to any employee shall not be less than 20s.

Each total rate shall be calculated to the nearest sixpence, and any part of sixpence in the result which does not exceed three pence shall be disregarded.

An unapprenticed male junior, who at the date upon which this clause comes into effect is entitled to a rate higher than that hereby prescribed for an employee of his age, shall be paid not less than the rate to which he is so entitled until the rate prescribed by this clause exceeds his existing rate.

Unapprenticed male juniors under 18 years of age assisting at furnaces shall be paid 3s. per week in addition to the above rates.

Changed rates shall be payable as from the beginning of the first pay period to commence after the birthday of the employee concerned.

Employees shall furnish proof of age by means of birth certificate or sworn declaration by parent or guardian, upon which the employer shall be entitled to rely.

The proportion of male juniors that may be employed by any employer shall be one junior (whether he be an indentured apprentice, a trainee apprentice, or an unapprenticed male junior) to every three male adults employed in the shop or factory.

HOURS OF EMPLOYMENT.

(5) (a) With the exceptions herein set out, the ordinary hours of employment shall be 44 per week, to be worked in five days of eight hours each and one day (Saturday) of four hours, or five days of 8 hours 48 minutes each, continuously except for meal hour breaks at the discretion of the employer between 7 a.m. and 5.30 p.m. on Monday to Friday inclusive and 7 a.m. to noon on Saturday; provided that the spread of hours herein prescribed may be altered by mutual agreement between any employer and his employees.

(b) By agreement between any employer and his employees ordinary hours may be worked on the basis of 88 per fortnight with one week of 40 and one of 48 hours.

(c) It shall be optional for the employer to work either the 5 or the 5½ days' week provided that the option once exercised shall only be altered by a week's notice.

(d) For the purpose of performing work which is preparatory to the daily operations of a plant, employees engaged on such preparatory work may be required to commence their ordinary hours of employment at or after 6.30 a.m. on any day other than Sunday.

SHIFT WORK.

A.—CONTINUOUS WORK SHIFTS.

(6) (a) For the purposes of this clause the expression "continuous work" means work carried on with consecutive shifts of men throughout the 24 hours of each of at least six consecutive days without interruption except during breakdowns or meal breaks (if any).

(b) Employees working on continuous work shifts shall work thereon such number of shifts up to six per week as may be required: no such shift to exceed eight hours inclusive of meal breaks (if any) nor to be discontinuous except for meal breaks (if any).

(bb) The ordinary hours of actual work or duty exclusive of meal breaks off duty (if any of employees working on continuous work shifts shall not exceed—

(i) eight in any one day; nor

(ii) 48 in any one week; nor

(iii) an average of 44 per week during the period of employment upon such shifts; nor

(iv) such average reduced to 43 hours 5 minutes if such shifts include Sunday shifts; nor

(v) a total of 176 hours during any four weeks of the period of employment upon such shifts; nor

(vi) such total reduced to 172 hours 20 minutes during any such four weeks if such shifts include Sunday shifts.

Provided that such average and total shall not be so reduced to 43 hours 5 minutes and 172 hours 20 minutes if the employees on such shifts are for each ordinary hour worked thereon by them paid in the case of weekly employees at the rate of one-forty-third ( $\frac{1}{43}$ ) of the prescribed weekly wage and in the case of hourly employees at the rate of forty-four-forty-thirds ( $\frac{44}{43}$ ) of the prescribed rate for such employees which payments the employer shall have the option of making: nor shall they be so reduced if, in addition to other holidays (if any) to be given under this award to such employees, such employees are given in each year one week's holiday on full pay, which week's holiday the employer shall have the option of giving.

(c) For all time of duty outside the limits of the ordinary hours prescribed in sub-clause (bb) hereof an employee on continuous work shift shall be paid at double rates. But this shall not apply to arrangements between employees themselves or in cases due to rotation of shift or when the relief does not come on duty at the proper time: Provided that where not less than eight hours' notice, has been given to the employer by the employee that he will be absent from work and the employee whom he should relieve is not relieved, such unrelieved employee shall be paid time and a half for all time of duty after he has finished his ordinary shift.

(d) Employees on continuous work shifts working afternoon and night shifts shall be paid  $7\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. more than ordinary rates for such shifts.

(e) Employees on continuous work shifts working any Sunday or holiday shift shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for such shift.

B. IN OTHER THAN CONTINUOUS WORK.

(f) In shift work not upon continuous work as herein defined any afternoon or night shift which does not continue for five successive working nights or more in a five-day workshop or six successive working nights or more in a six-day workshop shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half.

(g) For working on any afternoon or night shift which has been in operation for five afternoons or nights or more an employee shall be entitled to the following additional rates:—

(i) 25 per cent. for working on night shift only;

(ii) 10 per cent. for working on alternating night and afternoon shifts;

(iii) 10 per cent. for the night shift for working on alternating day and night shifts;

(vi) 10 per cent. for working on afternoon shift only; and

(v)  $7\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. for the afternoon shift for working on alternating day and afternoon shifts.

(h) The extra rates specified in paragraphs (b), (c), and (e) of sub-clause (g) hereof shall be payable only where shifts are changed at least once in every three weeks.

(i) "Afternoon shift" shall mean a shift commencing not later than 6 p.m. on any day.

"Night shift" shall mean a shift commencing at any time after 6 p.m. on any day.

(j) Shift workers shall be paid overtime at the rate of time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter for all time worked in excess of shift hours.

(k) (i) Except as hereinafter provided, female employees shall not be required or permitted to work on afternoon or night shift.

(ii) By Agreement between the employer and the Union or Unions concerned, female employees may be worked on afternoon and/or night shifts on munitions work.

(iii) Failing agreement as aforesaid, the Secretary for Labour shall have the power to allow the employment of females on afternoon and/or night shifts on munitions work, upon such terms and conditions as he may specify.

MIXED FUNCTIONS.

(7) An employee engaged for more than half of one day or shift on duties carrying a higher rate than his ordinary classification shall be paid the higher rate for such day or shift. If for less than half of one day or shift he shall be paid the higher rate for the time so worked.

OVERTIME.

(8) (a) For all work done outside ordinary hours the rate of wages shall be time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter, such double time to continue to be paid until the employee has been relieved from work for at least eight hours: Provided that an employee shall not be entitled to payment for such rest period.

(b) Except as provided above in computing overtime each day's work shall stand alone.

(c) An employee recalled after leaving his workshop to work overtime shall be paid for a minimum of three hours' work at the appropriate rate.

(d) An employee occasionally required to hold himself in readiness to work after ordinary hours shall until released be paid standing-by time at ordinary rates from the time which he is so told to hold himself in readiness. But any custom now prevailing under which an employee is required regularly to hold himself in readiness for a call back shall continue.

(e) An employee (other than on shift) who has worked up to or beyond midnight shall not be bound to continue work on the following day.

(f) For work done during meal hours and thereafter until a meal hour break is allowed time and a half rates shall be paid. No employee shall be compelled to work for more than six hours without a break for a meal.

(g) An employee working overtime shall be allowed a crib-time of 20 minutes without deduction of pay after each four hours of work, but this provision shall not prevent any arrangement being made for the taking of a longer meal period without pay.

(h) Before starting overtime after working ordinary hours, a break of at least 15 minutes shall be allowed if the period of overtime to be worked is in excess of two hours. An employer and his employees may mutually agree to any variation of this sub-clause to meet the circumstances of the work in hand.

(i) An employee required to work overtime for more than two hours without being notified the day before that he will be so required to work, shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or paid 1s. 6d., or if the work extends into a second meal hour 2s. 6d. for the two meals, but such payment need not be made to employees living in the same locality as their workshop, who can reasonably return home for meals.

If an employee pursuant to notice has provided a meal or meals, and is not required to work overtime, he shall be paid for each meal so provided.

(j) Subject to the provisions of the second part of (f) of this clause an employee shall work during meal breaks at the ordinary rates herein prescribed whenever instructed so to do for the purpose of making good breakdowns of plant or upon routine maintenance of plant which can only be done while such plant is idle.

(k) When an employee working overtime finishes work at a time when reasonable means of transport is not available, the employer shall provide him with a conveyance or pay him his current wage for the time occupied in reaching his home.

(l) Where overtime is worked on account of a breakdown of plant and/or machinery all overtime shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half.

SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY RATES.

(9) (a) Where an employee works on a Sunday, the work done shall be paid for at the rate of double ordinary time.

(b) Where an employee works on union picnic day, the work done shall be paid for at the rate of double ordinary time.

(c) Where an employee works on any of the holidays (including overtime) specified in clause 10 (b) of this Determination, the work done shall be paid for at the rate of double ordinary time, in addition to the allowance to which the employee on hourly hiring is entitled under clause 14 (d) of this Determination.

HOLIDAYS.

(10) (a) The day on which the Coachmakers' Federation trade union picnic is held shall be a local holiday (without pay if such day is a day other than one mentioned in sub-clause (b) of this clause) in any city or town.

(b) Employees shall be entitled to the following public holidays (without pay except as herein provided):—The days observed as New Year's Day, Australia Day (26th January), Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, King's Birthday, Labour Day (21st April), Anzac Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day, or such other day as is generally observed in the locality as a substitute for any of the said days respectively.

PIECEWORK RATES.

(11) Subject to the minimum wages herein prescribed an employer may remunerate any of his employees under system of payment by results based on rates which will enable workers of average capacity to earn at least 10 per cent. in excess of their hourly or weekly rate.

PAY-DAY.

(12) Employers shall pay all moneys due at least once in each week, and not later than Friday in each week, except where it has been the practice to pay fortnightly. All wages shall be paid in employer's time.

PAYMENT FOR PART WEEK.

(13) An employee, working any portion of a week, shall be paid, on ceasing work, for all time worked during that week.

CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT.

(14) (a) With the exceptions hereinafter stated employment may be by the week or by the hour. Unless otherwise specifically agreed, the employment shall be deemed an hourly engagement. If by the week it shall be terminable on either side by one week's notice given on any day or (if the employer terminate it without such notice) by payment of one week's wages.

(b) A contract for weekly employment may be terminated by any employer, without liability to pay for more than time actually worked, for misconduct, or for absence from work without reasonable excuse.

(c) If an employee engaged by the week absents himself from duty, except on the holidays mentioned in clause 10 (b) of this Determination or for days for which he produces a certificate from a medical practitioner or other proof satisfactory to his employer of sickness (aggregating four days' sickness in each year) a sum proportionate to his time of absence may be deducted from his pay, i.e., two-elevenths of the weekly wage for each day of absence, excluding Saturdays in shops working six days and one-fifth in shops working five days per week: Provided that only time actually lost shall be deducted when an employee is absent on a Saturday.

(d) (i) If the contract of employment is for hourly hiring, a weekly allowance calculated as set out in clause 10 (c) of this Determination shall be paid in addition to the total amount of the rates prescribed by clause 2 of this Determination, but such allowance shall not be taken into account in computing any wage rate such as overtime, shift premium, Sunday or holiday rates.

(ii) Such allowance shall be paid irrespective of the time worked by an employee in any one week, except as provided in sub-clause (e) of this clause.

(iii) An allowance calculated as set out in clause 10 (c) of this Determination shall also be paid in addition to the rates prescribed by clause 2 of this Determination for female workers and male junior workers.

(e) An employee engaged on hourly hiring shall be entitled to a minimum of four consecutive hours' work or to four hours' pay for the job—such hours may be deemed to be consecutive if worked in ordinary hours at the end of the day and the beginning of the next succeeding day. But such employee shall not be entitled to the allowance mentioned in sub-clause (d) of this clause unless the period of employment exceeds four hours.

TIME AND WAGES BOOK.

(15) (a) Each employer shall keep a time and wages book showing the name of each employee and his occupation, the hours worked each day, and the wages and allowances paid each week.

(b) The time occupied by an employee in filling in any time books or cards or in the making of records shall be treated as time of duty, but this does not apply to checking in or out at the beginning or end of duty.

LEADING HANDS.

(16) Leading hands in charge of 5, but not exceeding 15 employees, shall be paid at the rate of 1s. per day extra. From 16 to 25 employees, 1s. 6d. per day extra, from 26 to 35 employees, 2s. per day extra; and over 36 employees, 2s. 6d. per day extra.

AIRCRAFT MAKING.

(17) Employees engaged in aircraft making (in wood, metal, or other materials) in occupations which are similar to those for which classifications are provided in this Determination, shall be paid the rates prescribed for such classifications.

TRAVELLING TIME.

(18) In the event of an employee being sent during working hours to any place other than his usual place of employment, he shall be allowed travelling time and excess expenses. Such time to be part of the ordinary day's work.

Factories and Shops Acts.

DETERMINATION OF THE ASBESTOS-CEMENT WORKERS BOARD.

NOTES.—(a) This Determination applies to the whole of the State of Victoria.

(b) On the 27th November, 1934, the Cement Articles Board was deprived of the power to determine the lowest prices or rates which may be paid to any person or persons, or classes of persons, employed in the process, trade, or business of making portable articles of material containing asbestos and cement in the proportion of not less than one part by weight of asbestos in each twenty parts by weight of the material, and such power was conferred exclusively on the Asbestos-Cement Workers Board.

IN accordance with the provisions of the Factories and Shops Acts, the Wages Board which since 24th April, 1939, has had the power to determine the lowest prices or rates which may be paid to any person or persons, or classes of persons:—

employed in the process, trade, or business of making portable articles of material containing asbestos and cement in the proportion of not less than one part by weight of asbestos in each twenty parts by weight of the material;

has made the following Determination, namely:—

(1) That as from the beginning of the first pay period to commence after the 20th November, 1941, the last previous Determination of this Board shall be revoked and replaced by this Determination.

(3) ALLOWANCE FOR AFTERNOON AND NIGHT SHIFT.—Persons working on afternoon or night shift, shall be paid at the rate of 5s. per week in addition to the rates set out in Clause (2).

(4) OVERTIME.—Time and a half shall be paid for all work done:—

(a) outside the usual starting and finishing times.

(b) Within the usual starting and finishing times, in excess of the number of hours fixed as a week's work.

Provided that a shift worker shall not be entitled to overtime unless he has worked more than 132 hours during any three consecutive weeks.

No. 326.—14065/41.

(5) EMPLOYMENT FOR LESS THAN A FULL WEEK.—Employees who work during any week for less than 44 hours shall be paid for the first 22 hours at the rate of time and a quarter and for all time thereafter ordinary time up to but not exceeding the ordinary wages rate for an ordinary week's work. Provided that if an employee voluntarily terminates his employment or is dismissed for misconduct or neglect of duty he shall be paid only the ordinary rate of wages for the number of hours actually worked.

This clause shall not apply in the case of a shiftworker who, subject to clause (4), is paid three weeks' wages in respect of three consecutive weeks' work; nor in the event of any breakdown of machinery or plant which prevents the continuation of production.

(6) HOLIDAYS.—All employees shall be entitled to the ten holidays hereinafter mentioned without any deduction from the weekly rate of pay, viz.:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

This shall not affect the right of an employer to require any employee to work on any such day (except Anzac Day) provided that such employee is paid the extra rates as set out in clause (7) (Special rate for Sundays and Holidays).

(7) SPECIAL RATE FOR SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.—Double time shall be the special rate for all work done on Sunday, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day; but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays then the special rate shall be payable only for the day so substituted.

(8) ANNUAL LEAVE.—Any employee who has been in the service of an employer for a period of not less than twelve months shall be granted as holidays with pay a period of one week in each year (exclusive of the holidays mentioned in clause (6)) within the ensuing twelve months at a time suitable to the employer. Provided that any employee who leaves or is dismissed before the expiration of any twelve months' service shall be given or paid for holidays pro rata in accordance with the length of service, viz., one day for each completed two months of service.

(9) MEAL ALLOWANCE.—A meal allowance of 2s. shall be paid to an employee in respect of any day on which he is required to work for a period of not less than two hours after the usual finishing time, unless he is notified by the employer on the previous day that he will be required to work such extra time.

(10) SICK LEAVE.—Any employee who has been in the service of the same employer for a period of not less than six (6) months, shall be entitled to a maximum aggregate of four (4) days sick leave of absence, with full pay, during each subsequent twelve (12) months' service, provided that he produces within 48 hours, after the commencement of such absence, evidence satisfactory to the employer that such absence was caused by personal ill-health.

(11) PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.—The wages rates set out in clause (2) are based upon the following basic wage and, pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically increased or decreased by the same amount, and at the same time as such basic wage. Provided that the wages of apprentices and improvers shall be adjusted proportionately to adjustments of the basic wage, such adjustments to be to the nearest ld., half or less than half of ld. to be disregarded.

The basic wage shown hereunder shall be adjusted as prescribed in clause (12).

(12) ADJUSTMENT OF BASIC WAGE.—(a) Until the beginning of the first pay period to commence in February, 1942, the amount of the basic wage shall be as prescribed in clause (11).

(b) During each future successive period beginning with the first pay period to commence in a February, a May, an August, or a November the amount of the basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method according to the position and fluctuations (if any) of the Commonwealth Statistician's "All Items" Retail Price Index Numbers.

For the purposes of this Determination the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's Retail Price Index Numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such Index Numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer, or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician.

(1) The Index Number set to be applied is that assigned to Melbourne.

(2) The index number for the calendar quarter next preceding the period of or near a quarter for which the adjustment is made is to be ascertained.

(3) The amount assigned in the following table (or in any extension thereof) to the Index Number Division comprising that Number is to be ascertained.

(3) TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT.—Employees who work less than 44 hours in any week may be paid pro rata according to the number of hours worked.

(4) OVERTIME.—

(a) Places in which the week's work is performed in 5½ days—

Time worked in excess of 8 hours on any one day, Monday to Friday (inclusive) .. Time and a half.

Time worked in excess of 4 hours on Saturday .. .. Time and a half.

(b) Places in which the week's work is performed in 5 days—

Time worked in excess of 8 hours 48 minutes on any one day, Monday to Friday (inclusive) Time and a half.

(c) Any time worked in excess of 44 hours in any week .. .. Time and a half.

(5) TEA MONEY.—An allowance of 1s. 6d. for tea money shall be paid to all employees when work extends for more than two hours beyond the usual time of ending work.

(6) ALLOWANCES.—Employees who are required to wear, when at work, overalls, the laundering of which is not paid for by the employer, shall be paid the following allowance in addition to their ordinary weekly wage:—

Males aged 19 years and over .. ..	2s. per week extra.
Males under 19 years .. ..	1s. 6d. per week extra.
All females .. ..	2s. per week extra.

(7) TIME BOOK OR OTHER RECORD.—The correct times of beginning and ending work shall be recorded daily in a book, time card, or by mechanical means to be furnished by the employer; such record to be open for inspection by the permanent Secretary-Treasurer of the Victorian Branch of the Biscuit Makers' Union of Australia.

(8) MEAL TIME.—A meal period of not less than 30 minutes and not more than one hour shall be allowed after a period of five hours' continuous work. Such meal period shall not be calculated as time worked.

(9) PICNIC DAY.—The second Monday in March, 1942, shall be a holiday for Union Picnic Day.

(10) NIGHT WORK.—

(i) All employees working on night work between the hours of 9 p.m. and 6.30 a.m. shall receive the rate of 2s. per night additional to the usual wage rate.

(ii) No female of any age shall be employed between the hours of 9 p.m. and 6.30 a.m.

(11) SHIFT WORK.—Each employee engaged on shift work shall have a break of 10 hours between shifts.

(12) SUNDAY WORK.—For all work done on Sunday, double time shall be paid with a minimum of 10s.

(13) PAYMENT FOR HOLIDAYS.—Employees shall be granted the following holidays without deduction of pay:—New Year's Day, Australia Day (26th January), Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Labour Day, King's Birthday, Melbourne Cup Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day; or any other day substituted for the above days by Act of Parliament or Proclamation.

Double time shall be the rate for all work done on Sunday, New Year's Day, Australia Day (26th January), Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, King's Birthday, Melbourne Cup Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day, but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall only be payable for work done on the day so substituted.

(14) ANNUAL LEAVE.—Employers shall in each year commencing with the year 1939 give their employees continuously employed as defined, a holiday from and after the day observed as Boxing Day to the 31st December inclusive and shall pay wages for ordinary working days included in that period. Pieceworkers receiving such holidays shall be paid timework rates.

Employees entitled to such holiday and required to work during that period shall be given a week's holiday on full pay at some other time during the year or if dismissed from employment before receiving such holiday shall be paid an extra week's wages on dismissal.

"Continuously employed" for the purpose of this clause means employed (breaks arising from slackening of work being reckoned as being employed) for the six months immediately preceding the 25th day of each December. Any employee dismissed during the three weeks immediately preceding the 25th day of December shall be entitled to payment of one week's wages for such annual holiday.

(15) SICK PAY.—

(i) Any adult employee not attending for duty shall lose his or her pay for the actual time lost unless he or she produces or forwards within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to accident arising in the course of his or her employment or to personal ill-health, but such employee shall not be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of such accident or personal ill-health for more than four days in each year. For the purposes of this clause "year" shall mean a period of twelve months commencing on 27th day of May in each year.

(ii) Any adult employee on piecework not attending for duty on the ground of personal ill-health, shall be paid at the corresponding timeworker's wage for the period of ill-health in all respects as if, during such period, he or she had been a weekly timeworker employed on such days and during such hours as are usually worked by timeworkers upon any day shift, and he or she shall comply with and be subject to the conditions for timeworkers prescribed in paragraph (i) of this clause.

(16) PIECEWORK.—The Board determines, under the provisions of Section 150 of the Factories and Shops Act 1928, that any employer may fix and pay piecework prices to any person or persons or classes of persons employed at any work for which the Board has fixed the minimum wage, provided that any such employer shall base such piecework prices on the earnings of an average worker working under like conditions, and such piecework prices shall be fixed so that an average worker can earn not less than the wages that are fixed by the Board for such work.

(17) AUTHORIZED PERSON MAY ENTER FACTORY.—The permanent Secretary-Treasurer of the Biscuit Makers' Union of Australia, Victorian Branch, shall have the right to enter and inspect, during working hours, any part of a biscuit factory or workshop in which any work is being carried on. The Secretary-Treasurer of the Biscuit Makers' Union shall have the right to interview employees in regard to conditions of employment.
