SPECIAL CONDITION.

Lots 7 and 8 sold subject to the following special condition:—

Until the full purchase money has been paid, the purchaser—

- (a) shall not make any alterations to the buildings and other improvements on the land at the date of sale until the consent of the Minister has been obtained;
- (b) shall, at his own expense, as often as need be and to the satisfaction of the Minister, repair, maintain, and keep in good order and substantial repair and condition, all buildings and other improvements on the land at the date of sale;
- (c) shall, at his own expense, insure and keep insured with an approved company all buildings and other improvements the property of the Crown on the area in the name of the Secretary for Lands for an amount to be fixed by him from time to time, and shall lodge a cover note for such insurance immediately and the policy when available, and shall, at his own expense and in the manner above stated if the Minister so requires, insure all buildings and other improvements on the area whether wholly or partly the property of the purchaser;
- (d) shall, at least 14 days prior to the date of expiry, renew the policy and lodge the renewal receipt with the Secretary for Lands. Should he fail to do so, or to effect repairs or maintenance whenever required to do so, the Secretary for Lands may effect such insurance or repairs or maintenance at the purchaser's expense, and the amount so expended shall become a debt recoverable as purchase money under this sale.

If the purchaser fail to carry out any of the obligations of this condition, the Minister may declare the sale null and void and may re-offer the land for sale.

(3) TIMES OF BEGINNING AND ENDING WORK :—

Times of Beginning.	Times of Ending.
7.30 a.m.	1 p.m.	on the day the half-holiday is usually observed.
7.30 a.m.	6 p.m.	on the other working days of the week.

(4) OVERTIME.—The following rates shall be paid for all work done :—

Outside the times of beginning and ending work	} Time and a half.
Within the times of beginning and ending work, in excess of 44 hours in any week

(5) TEA MONEY.—Any employee required to work overtime for any period in excess of one hour after the usual hour of ceasing duty shall be allowed 1s. 6d. for each meal required if the expense is incurred. Provided that this clause shall not apply where the employee was notified the previous day of the intention to work overtime. Provided further that where the employee was notified the previous day of the intention to work overtime and such overtime was not worked he shall be entitled to the meal allowance herein provided.

(6) TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT.—All employees shall be engaged by the week, and shall be paid weekly. A week's notice shall be given by the employer or employee to determine employment, or, in lieu of such notice, a week's wages shall be paid. Such notice shall be given at the end of a working week. All time of absence from work shall be deducted from the employee's wages, except absence on the holidays hereinafter mentioned and except absence without deduction of pay in accordance with clause (9).

(7) HOLIDAYS.—All employees shall be entitled to the eleven holidays hereinafter mentioned without deduction of pay :—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Labor Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Melbourne Cup Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

(8) ANNUAL HOLIDAYS.—Any employee who has been in the service of the same employer for a period of not less than twelve months shall be granted holidays on full pay for a period of nine consecutive working days in each year (exclusive of the holidays specified in clause (7)). Should an employee's service be terminated before the expiration of twelve months' service he shall be entitled to pro rata holidays on full pay; but should an employee be dismissed at any time for misconduct before the expiration of any period of twelve months of such employment, he shall not be entitled to any annual leave or any pro rata payment in lieu thereof.

Provided that if an employee is given as holidays on full pay all working days between the day observed as Boxing Day and New Year's Day such ordinary working days may be regarded as part of the nine consecutive working days holidays to which the employee is entitled under this clause, and such other working days as will make up the balance of the nine consecutive working days shall be granted at some other time as consecutive holidays on full pay.

Any period of holidays to which an employee is entitled because of completion of twelve months' service shall be given within three months of the completion of such service.

(9) SICKNESS, ACCIDENTS.—Any employee not attending duty shall lose his or her pay for the actual time of non-attendance unless he or she produces or forwards within 24 hours of the beginning of his or her absence evidence satisfactory to the management that his or her non-attendance was due to personal accident arising out of or in the course of his or her employment or to personal ill health sufficient to incapacitate him or her for his or her usual work.

An employee shall not be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of accident or ill health for more than six days in each year.

For the purposes of this clause a year shall mean a period of twelve months commencing on the 1st day of June in each year.

(10) DEFINITION OF FOREMAN.—Where three or more adults are employed in any department of a warehouse, one shall be deemed to be a foreman and entitled to the rate prescribed for such a foreman.

(11) MEAL INTERVAL.—No employee shall be required to work for a longer period than five hours without an interval of at least half an hour for a meal.

(12) SPECIAL RATES.—All work done on Sundays, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Easter Monday, Good Friday, Labour Day, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day shall be paid for at the rate of double time; but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above holidays, the special rates shall be payable only for the days so substituted.

(13) PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.—The wages rates for males set out in clause (2) are based upon the following basic wage, and pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically increased or decreased by the same amount and at the same time as such basic wage. Provided that the wages of apprentices, improvers, and of females shall be adjusted proportionately to adjustments of the basic wage, such adjustments to be to the nearest 3d., half or less than half of 3d. to be disregarded.

The basic wage shown hereunder shall be adjusted as prescribed in clause (14).

(14) ADJUSTMENT OF BASIC WAGE.—(a) Until the beginning of the first pay period to commence in February, 1941, the amount of the basic wage shall be as prescribed in clause (13).

(b) During each future successive period beginning with the first pay period to commence in a February, a May, an August, or a November, the amount of the basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method according to the position and fluctuations (if any) of the Commonwealth Statistician's "All Items" retail price index numbers.

For the purposes of this Determination the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's retail price index numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such index numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician :—

- (1) The index number set to be applied to a place is that assigned to Melbourne.
- (2) The index number for the calendar quarter next preceding the period of thirteen weeks for which the adjustment is made is to be ascertained.
- (3) The amount assigned in the following table (or in any extension thereof) to the index number division comprising that number is to be ascertained.
- (4) The basic wage shall be of that assigned amount during such successive period.
