 Outside the times of beginning and ending work .. .. } Time and a half.
 Within the times of beginning and ending work, in excess of 44 hours in any week .. .. }

TEA MONEY.

5. An employee required to work overtime for any period in excess of one hour after the usual hour of ceasing duty shall be paid as follows for a meal:—

- (a) Males 16 years and over, when no notice of intention to work overtime was given the previous day .. .. 1s. 6d.
- (b) Females and males under 16 years .. .. 1s. 0d.

Provided that when any employee is notified the previous day of the intention to work overtime and overtime is not worked he shall be entitled to the appropriate meal allowance as herein provided.

TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT.

6. All employees shall be engaged by the week, and shall be paid weekly. A week's notice shall be given by the employer or employee to determine employment, or, in lieu of such notice, a week's wages shall be paid. Such notice shall be given at the end of a working week. All time of absence from work shall be deducted from the employee's wages, except absence on the holidays hereinafter mentioned and except absence without deduction of pay in accordance with clause 9.

HOLIDAYS.

7. All employees shall be entitled to the eleven holidays hereinafter mentioned without deduction of pay:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Labor Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Melbourne Cup Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day.

ANNUAL HOLIDAYS.

8. Any employee who has been in the service of the same employer for a period of not less than twelve months shall be granted holidays on full pay for a period of nine consecutive working days in each year (exclusive of the holidays specified in clause 7). Should an employee's service be terminated before the expiration of twelve months' service he shall be entitled to pro rata holidays on full pay; but should an employee be dismissed at any time for misconduct before the expiration of any period of twelve months of such employment, he shall not be entitled to any annual leave or any pro rata payment in lieu thereof.

Provided that if an employee is given as holidays on full pay all working days between the day observed as Boxing Day and New Year's Day such ordinary working days may be regarded as part of the nine consecutive working days holidays to which the employee is entitled under this clause, and such other working days as will make up the balance of the nine consecutive working days shall be granted at some other time as consecutive holidays on full pay.

Any period of holidays to which an employee is entitled because of completion of twelve months' service shall be given within three months of the completion of such service.

SICKNESS, ACCIDENTS.

9. Any employee not attending duty shall lose his or her pay for the actual time of non-attendance unless he or she produces or forwards within 24 hours of the beginning of his or her absence evidence satisfactory to the management that his or her non-attendance was due to personal accident arising out of or in the course of his or her employment or to personal ill health sufficient to incapacitate him or her for his or her usual work.

An employee shall not be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of accident or ill health for more than six days in each year.

For the purposes of this clause a year shall mean a period of twelve months commencing on the 1st day of June in each year.

DEFINITION OF FOREMAN.

10. Where three or more adults are employed in any department of a warehouse, one shall be deemed to be a foreman and entitled to the rate prescribed for such a foreman.

MEAL INTERVAL.

11. No employee shall be required to work for a longer period than five hours without an interval of at least half an hour for a meal.

SPECIAL RATES.

12. All work done on Sundays, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Easter Monday, Good Friday, Labour Day, King's Birthday, Melbourne Cup Day, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day shall be paid for at the rate of double time; but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above holidays, the special rates shall be payable only for the days so substituted.

SHIFT WORK.

13. By mutual agreement between an employer and his employees shifts may be worked subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) The rates of pay for shift workers shall be:—
  - (i) On afternoon shift, 7½ per cent. in excess of ordinary rates.
  - (ii) On night shift, 10 per cent. in excess of ordinary rates.
- (b) Overtime shall be paid at the rate of time and a half for all time worked in excess of 8 hours per shift in any week in which six or more shifts are worked and in excess of 8 hours 48 minutes per shift in any week in which less than six shifts are worked.
- (c) Shift workers who work on any afternoon or night shift which does not continue for at least five successive afternoons or nights in a five-day workshop or for at least six successive afternoons or nights in a six-day workshop shall be paid at the rate of time and a half.
- (d) For the purposes of this clause "afternoon shift" means any shift finishing after 6 p.m. and at or before midnight and "night shift" means any shift worked wholly or partly between midnight and 7.30 a.m.

RIGHT OF ENTRY OF UNION OFFICIAL.

14. A duly accredited representative of the Federated Storemen and Packers' Union of Australia shall have the right to enter employers' establishments during the midday meal hour for the purposes of interviewing employees on legitimate Union business on the following conditions:—

- (a) That he produces his authority to the employer or his representative.
- (b) That he interviews employees only at the place where they are taking their meal.
- (c) That not more than one representative in all be in any establishment at any one time.
- (d) That no one representative visit an establishment more than once a fortnight.
- (e) That if an employer alleges that a representative is unduly interfering with his establishment or is creating disaffection amongst his employees or is offensive in his methods or is committing a breach of any of the previous conditions, such employer may refuse right of entry, but the representative shall have the right to bring such refusal before this Wages Board.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

15. The wages rates for males set out in clause 2 are based upon the following basic wage, and pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically increased or decreased by the same amount and at the same time as such basic wage. Provided that the wages of apprentices, improvers, and of females shall be adjusted proportionately to adjustments of the basic wage, such adjustments to be to the nearest 3d., half or less than half of 3d. to be disregarded.

The basic wage shown hereunder shall be adjusted as prescribed in clause 16.

ADJUSTMENT OF BASIC WAGE.

16.(a) Until the beginning of the first pay period to commence in February, 1945, the amount of the basic wage shall be as prescribed in clause 15.

(b) During each future successive period beginning with the first pay period to commence in a February, a May, an August, or a November, the amount of the basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method according to the position and fluctuation (if any) of the Commonwealth Statistician's "All Items" retail price index numbers.

For the purposes of this Determination the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's retail price index numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such index numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician:—

- (1) The index number set to be applied to a place is that assigned to Melbourne.
- (2) The index number for the calendar quarter next preceding the period of or near a quarter for which the adjustment is made is to be ascertained.
- (3) The amount assigned in the following table (or in any extension thereof) to the index number division comprising that number is to be ascertained.
- (4) The basic wage shall be of that assigned amount during such successive period.

CHARLTON WATERWORKS TRUST.

RATING BY-LAW FOR THE YEAR 1945 (No. 52).

THE Charlton Waterworks Trust, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the Water Acts, doth hereby make the following rates for the supply of water for domestic purposes on lands and tenements within the Charlton Urban District:—

On such lands and tenements, a rate of One shilling and six pence in the pound on the amount of the annual municipal valuation, not exceeding One thousand and sixty pounds. Where the annual municipal valuation exceeds One thousand and sixty pounds the sum of Eighty pounds shall be paid.

Provided that in no case shall the amount of rate payable per annum in respect of any tenement (other than land on which there is no building) be less than One pound six shillings and eight pence, and in respect of any lands on which there is no building, less than Eight shillings, except as are entitled to the provisions of section 237 of the Water Act 1928.

Such rates are made for the year commencing the 1st day of January, 1945, and ending the 31st day of December, 1945, and shall be payable on the 1st day of January, 1945, at the office of the said Trust.

The maximum quantity of water to be supplied in any one year without further charge to any property rated by the Trust is hereby fixed at the quantity which, at a charge of Eight pence per 1,000 gallons, would produce an amount equal to the amount of the rate levied on such property for the said year.

The charge for water supplied by measure to any property rated by the Trust in excess of such maximum quantity, computed as in the last preceding clause, is hereby fixed at Nine pence per 1,000 gallons.

The charge for water supplied by measure shall be payable, on demand, at the office of the Trust.

The foregoing By-law No. 52 was made by the Charlton Waterworks Trust on the 11th day of December, 1944, and the seal of the Trust was hereto affixed in our presence—

(SEAL) E. RICHARDS, Chairman.
G. S. HUDGSON, Commissioner.
E. R. JEFFREY, Secretary.

BOROUGH OF DAYLESFORD WATERWORKS TRUST.

RATING BY-LAW FOR THE YEAR 1945.

THE Borough of Daylesford Waterworks Trust, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the Water Acts, doth hereby make the following rates for the supply of water for domestic purposes of lands and tenements liable to be rated within the waterworks district of the Trust:—

1. On such lands and tenements a rate of One shilling in the pound on the amount of the annual municipal valuation not exceeding £200, and Eleven pence in the pound of the amount of the valuation exceeding £200. Provided that the minimum amount payable shall be Twenty-one shillings on land on which there is a building, and Ten shillings on land on which there is no buildings.

2. Such rates are made and shall be levied upon the occupiers or owners of the said land and tenements for the year commencing on the 1st day of January, 1945, and shall be payable on the 16th day of February, 1945, at the office of the said Trust.

3. (a) The maximum quantity of water to be supplied in any one year without further charge to any property rated by the Trust is hereby fixed at the quantity which, at a charge of One shilling and six pence per 1,000 gallons, would produce an amount equal to the amount of the rate levied on such property for the said year.

(b) The charge for water supplied by measure to any property rated by the Trust in excess of such maximum quantity, computed as in the last preceding clause, is hereby fixed at One shilling and six pence per 1,000 gallons.

(c) The charge for water supplied by measure to any property not rated by the Trust is hereby fixed at One shilling and six pence per 1,000 gallons, and the minimum quantity of water to be charged for in cases where water is so supplied is hereby fixed at 7,000 gallons.

(d) For water supplied to buildings in course of erection the charge shall be Twenty shillings per cent. on the amount of the contract for brick work, stone, or plastering; or should the Trust require a meter to be put on, the rate shall be One shilling and six pence per 1,000 gallons, none being allowed without charge.

(e) The charge for water supplied by measure shall be payable, on demand, at the office of the Trust.

4. Such person or persons as the Trust may appoint for the purpose are hereby authorized to demand, receive, collect, and recover the said rates and charges.

5. A charge for water for industrial purposes shall be made by agreement.

Dated this fourth day of December, 1944.

(SEAL) JOHN E. GRANT, Chairman.
E. R. MARCHANT, Secretary.

PRIVATE ADVERTISEMENTS.*SHIRE OF FERNTREE GULLY.

BY-LAW No. 54.

A By-law of the Shire of Ferntree Gully, under the provisions of section 197 of the Local Government Act 1928 and section 80 of the Health Act 1928, and numbered 54, for suppressing nuisances, for the regulating or prohibiting of the keeping of animals (including birds), in the opinion of the Council offensive, injurious to health, or dangerous, and generally for maintaining the good rule and government of the municipality.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Act 1928 and the Health Act 1928, the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of Ferntree Gully order as follows:—

1. In this By-law "animal" includes bird; "premises" includes any building and any land.

2. (i) This clause shall apply in respect of any premises whenever—

- (a) At least six persons lodge with the Shire Secretary a complaint, in writing, signed by them, in which they state that they are ratepayers residing within hearing of the sound of animals on the premises, and that the noise made by an animal or animals on the premises is a nuisance to persons who reside in the neighbourhood, and
- (b) the Council is satisfied that a prima facie case exists for the suppression of such nuisance, and
- (c) the Shire Secretary gives to the occupier or one of the occupiers of the premises a notice stating that under this By-law there has been made a complaint that the noise made by an animal or animals on the premises is a nuisance to persons who reside in the neighbourhood, and calling on the occupier or occupiers of the premises to cause the nuisance to be abated within seven days after the service of the notice.

(ii) After the expiration of seven days from the service of a notice, given pursuant to this clause, no persons shall have on the premises, or keep on the premises, or allow to remain on the premises, any animal or animals that make noises so as to be a nuisance to any persons residing in the neighbourhood of the premises.

3. (i) This clause shall apply in respect of any premises whenever—

- (a) The Council resolves that, in its opinion, any dog or dogs that are on the premises, or are kept on the premises, or are allowed to remain on the premises are, or are so kept as to be offensive or injurious to health or dangerous, and
- (b) The Shire Secretary gives to the occupier or one of the occupiers of the premises a notice setting out the resolution of the Council, and calling on the occupier or occupiers of the premises, within seven days after service of the notice, to remove all dogs on the premises that are offensive, or injurious to health, or dangerous.

(ii) After the expiration of seven days from the service of a notice, given pursuant to this clause, no persons shall have on the premises, or keep on the premises, or allow to remain on the premises, any dog to which the resolution of the Council refers.

4. Any notice to an occupier of any premises for the purposes of this By-law shall be deemed to be properly given and served if the notice—

- (a) is signed by the Shire Secretary or by any person acting as Shire Secretary, and
- (b) is addressed either to the occupier by name or to the occupier described as such without his name, and
- (c) is left at any dwelling house on the premises, or at the place of residence of the person who is the occupier, or is sent by registered letter directed to the occupier either by name or described as such without his name, at the premises or at his place of residence, and any notice so given and served shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which it is so left, or, if posted, on the day following the day of posting.

5. (i) Any person who is guilty of any wilful act or default contrary to any of the provisions of this By-law shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty of not more than £5.

(ii) Any person who wilfully continues an offence in respect of the breach of any provision of this By-law, after a conviction or order of the Court in respect of a breach of the same provisions shall be liable, on conviction, to a further penalty of not more than £1 for each day on which the offence is so continued.

6. This By-law shall apply to and have operation throughout the whole of the municipal district of the Shire of Ferntree Gully.

Resolution for passing this By-law agreed to by the Council on the 14th day of August, 1944, and confirmed on the 9th day of October, 1944.

The common seal of the President, Councillors, and Rate-payers of the Shire of Ferntree Gully was hereunto affixed, in the presence of—

R. J. COLLINS, President.
(SEAL) J. C. TYRRELL, Councillor.
C. C. DANCE, Shire Secretary.

Submitted to the Commission of Public Health on the 5th December, 1944.—J. WHITLOCK, Secretary of the Commission.
