"Chapter 22.—Long Service Leave."

(b) After Chapter 21 of the said Regulations, there shall be inserted the chapter following:—

"CHAPTER 22.

Long Service Leave.

1. For the purpose of determining the eligibility of a member of the Force for long service leave, pursuant to the provisions of section 24 of the Police Regulation Act 1946, "service" means continuous service in the Police Force of Victoria inclusive of any period of absence on leave, provided that in any case where a member of the Force has been absent on leave without pay (other than for the purpose of service with any Naval, Military, or Air Force of the Commonwealth) continuously for a period extending beyond six months, such part of such period as is in excess of six months shall not be counted as service.

2. The pay to which a member of the Force shall be entitled in respect of any period of long-service leave is pay at the rate of his annual salary together with allowances for the performance of special duties calculated as at the commencement of such leave, but does not include any allowances for quarters, fuel, light, or uniform, or for the performance of higher duties or any other allowance.

Provided that, where any member of the Force while on long-service leave becomes eligible for and is granted an increase in pay, the rate of emolument payable to him shall be increased by the amount of such increase in pay as from and inclusive of the date from which the increase in pay was granted.

3. Where any member of the Force, or the legal personal representative of any deceased member of the Force, is granted pay in lieu of the whole or part of any long-service leave to which such member is or was entitled, the amount of such pay shall be determined as if the period of long-service leave in respect of which pay is granted commenced on the date of the retirement, the termination of the services or the death (as the case may be) of such member, but no increase in such amount shall be payable in respect of any increase in pay to which such member would have been entitled during such period had he continued to be employed in the Force.

4. Payment in respect of long-service leave shall be made fortnightly, but, at the request of the member concerned, payment in full may be made on the last day on which he performs duty prior to the commencement of such long-service leave.

5. No recreation leave will accrue in respect of the period of long-service leave."

And the Honorable Keith Dodgshun, His Majesty's Chief Secretary for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

In cases of personal sickness or accident or absence with reasonable cause the employee to become entitled to the benefit of this sub-clause shall inform the employer in writing if practicable within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence of his inability to attend for duty and as far as practicable the nature of the illness injury or cause and the estimated duration of his absence. A notification given by an employee pursuant to clause 34 (e) shall be accepted as a notification under this sub-clause.

The period of annual leave to be allowed under this sub-clause shall be calculated to the nearest day any broken part of a day in the result not exceeding half a day to be disregarded.

Where the employer is a successor or assignee or transferee of a business if an employee was in the employment of the employer's predecessor at the time when he became such successor or assignee or transferee the employee in respect of the period during which he was in the service of the predecessor shall for the purpose of this clause be deemed to be in the service of the employer.
