(2) Such period of annual leave shall not include any public holiday granted by the said Determination, observed on a working day, but shall include all other non-working days within the period of annual leave of the employee concerned.

(3) (a) If any public holiday granted by the said Determination falls within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which, in the case of that employee, would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to his period of annual leave one day, being an ordinary working day on ordinary pay for each such holiday observed as aforesaid.

(b) Where an employee without reasonable excuse, proof whereof shall lie upon him, is absent from his employment on the working day or part of the working day prior to the commencement of his annual leave, or fails to resume work at his ordinary starting time on the working day immediately following the last day of the period of his annual leave, the employee shall not be entitled to payment for the public holidays which fall within his period of annual leave.

(4) Continuity of service shall not be broken nor be deemed to be broken by:—

(a) any interruption or termination of the employment of an employee by his employer, if such interruption or termination has been made with the intention of avoiding any obligation under the Determination in respect of annual leave, and proof that it has not been made with such intention shall be on the employer;

(6) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this clause proportionate payment for annual leave shall be made by an employer in respect of each completed month of continuous service when the employee so serving leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer before the completion of any twelve monthly qualifying period under this clause. Such payment shall be made forthwith on such employee so leaving or on his employment being so terminated as the case may be.

(7) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this clause, annual leave shall be allowed and shall be taken and payment shall not be made or accepted in lieu thereof.

(8) (a) Such annual leave shall be given by the employer and taken by the employee before the expiration of a period of six weeks after the date upon which the right to such annual leave accrues unless otherwise agreed to by the employer and employee concerned.

(b) An employee who has not completed his qualifying period of twelve months by the day on which the customary Christmas holiday period commences in the case of his employer in the year concerned, shall (unless the exigencies of the business otherwise require) be granted such proportionate leave and pay as his service prior thereto entitles him, and thereafter his qualifying period shall in cases not covered by sub-clause (9) hereof start afresh as from the commencement of such proportionate leave.

(c) The employer shall give the employee at least thirty days notice of the date from which such annual leave shall be taken.

(d) Each employee shall be paid in advance by his employer before the commencement of the employee's annual leave his ordinary pay for the said period of annual leave.

(e) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this clause, in no case shall annual leave be given and taken later than the expiration of three months after the date on which such annual leave accrues.

(9) Where an employer closes down his factory or workshop or a section or sections thereof for the purpose of allowing annual leave to all or the majority of the employees in the factory or workshop or section or sections concerned the following provisions shall apply:—

(a) He may by giving to the employees concerned not less than one month's notice of his intention so to do, stand off for the duration of the close down all employees in the factory or workshop or section or sections concerned and allow to those who are not then qualified for two full weeks leave paid leave on a proportionate basis of one sixth of a week's leave for each completed month of continuous service.

(b) An employee who has then qualified for two full weeks' leave, and has also completed a further month or more of continuous service shall be allowed his leave and shall also be paid one-sixth of a week's wages in respect of each completed month of continuous service performed since the close of his last twelve-monthly qualifying period.

- (c) The next twelve-monthly qualifying period of each employee affected by such close down shall commence from the day on which the factory or workshop or section or sections concerned is closed down for the annual leave in question.
- (d) If in the first year of his service with an employer an employee is allowed proportionate annual leave under sub-clause (8) (b) hereof, and subsequently within such year lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, he shall be entitled to the benefit of sub-clause (6) of this clause subject to adjustment for any proportionate leave which he may have been allowed as aforesaid.
- (e) Provided always that any employee leaving his employment by reason of non-compliance with clause 13 (a) of the Determination and who when so leaving suffers a deduction of pay under such clause shall be entitled notwithstanding such non-compliance to the benefit of sub-clause (6) of this clause.
- (10) (a) Should an employee be absent from his work on account of sickness or accident, it shall be necessary for such employee to notify his employer that such absence is due to sickness or accident. Such notification shall if required by the employer, but not otherwise be in the form of a written message which shall be sent by or on behalf of the employee within forty-eight hours after the commencement of such absence.
- (b) If an employer within seven days after the receipt by him of advice or when required of a written message sent by or on behalf of an absent employee, alleging that his absence is due to sickness or accident, fails to despatch or give to the employee written notice that he does not accept the message as satisfactory evidence of the facts alleged by or in it, such message shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence that the absence of the employee was due to sickness or accident.
- (c) If an employer within seven days after the receipt by him of such a message despatches or gives to the employee written notice that he does not accept such message as satisfactory evidence of sickness or accident, but requires further evidence thereof the employee shall within a reasonable time furnish such further evidence. If the employer requires the employee to obtain a medical certificate or other proof of sickness or accident the employer shall pay or refund any fee and incidental expenses necessarily incurred or paid by the employee in complying with such requirement. The employee shall submit to medical examination at the employer's expense if so required and shall not obstruct or interfere with inquiries deemed to be necessary by the employer.
- (d) In the event of any dispute arising in regard to any of the foregoing placita (a), (b) and/or (c) of this sub-clause such dispute may be referred for determination to the Wages Board and the said Wages Board shall thereupon consider and determine such dispute and the employee concerned in such dispute shall, if his claim succeeds and the Wages Board so decides, but not otherwise in such cases, be entitled to be paid by his employer for all time lost and for any reasonable expenses incurred consequent on his attendance before such Wages Board.
- (e) In any cases where the period of seven days referred to in placita (b) and/or (c) hereof expires after the finish of the last working day in the calendar week, or on a public holiday, such period shall be deemed to extend to noon of the next ordinary working day and in any case where illness commences after the finish of such last working day such period of forty-eight hours shall be deemed to commence at the starting hour of the next ordinary working day.
- (11) (a) Any absence from work shall not be deemed to break the continuity of service of any employee unless within seven days of the commencement of such absence his employer gives or despatches to such employee notice in writing that he regard other conditionally or unconditionally, such absence as constituting a break in the continuity of the service of such employee.
- (b) In any case where an employee has been absent from his employment for any cause not mentioned in any of the placita (a), (b), (c), (d), (e) of (f) of sub-clause (4) hereof and such employee has been notified in accordance with sub-clause (11) (a) hereof that his employer regards such absence as constituting a break in the continuity of the employee's service, such employee may apply to the said Wages Board within fourteen days of receiving such notification for a decision that it is, under all the circumstances, unduly harsh and unconscionable (proof whereof shall be on the employee) that he should suffer the loss to the full extent of such portion of a qualifying period for annual leave as he may have served up to the time of such absence. The said Wages Board shall upon receipt of any such application consider and make a decision thereon with due regard to all the circumstances of the absence and may decide that, despite the said absence, either the period of continuous service served by the employee prior thereto shall not be lost to him as portion of a qualifying period for annual leave, or that his period of annual leave should be reduced. But in the former case the decision shall be subject to a condition that he serve such period of continuous service as an addition to and part of his full qualifying period as the Wages Board may determine. Such additional period of continuous service shall not be less than the time lost by the employee as a result of the absence of the subject of the dispute.

(a) The week shall terminate on a day other than Monday or Saturday, and all employees shall be paid all moneys due to them in full during the ordinary working hours not later than two working days following the termination of the week. In order to terminate employment of a weekly employee, two days' notice shall be given on any day, with payment to date of termination, or in lieu thereof two days' pay shall be paid or deducted. When employment is terminated by an employer, the employer shall, upon the date of such termination, pay to the employee (weekly employee or piece-worker) all moneys due to him or her, and, when employment is terminated by an employee in accordance with the terms of this Determination, the employer shall pay to the employee (weekly employee or piece-worker) all moneys due to him or her.

(b) All weekly wages shall be paid to the employees in full, with the following exceptions:—

(1) Turns to be Observed.—In slack times the employer shall observe turns of employment for weekly workers and piece-workers (including outside workers) not engaged on making samples in the respective class or classes of work at which they are engaged, provided always that journeymen and journeywomen having apprentices under their control shall be allowed in their turn extra work equivalent to the wages of the apprentice during the time the turn system is in operation. (3) Employees Working Shortened Hours.—If it is desired to work a week of shorter hours in slack times, instead of standing the employees off in turn, the employer may make an arrangement to work his employees for shortened hours, but such arrangement shall be made only where, on the vote of the employees being taken, a majority of the whole of the employees votes in favour of such arrangement.

Where such an arrangement is made, the employees shall be informed on the day ending each week of the shortened hours to be worked in the following week.

(d) Stoppage of Work re Breakdown of Machinery.—In the event of the work of a factory being stopped by a breakdown of machinery or a stoppage of supply of power, or for any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible, all weekly hands who present themselves for work shall be found work for that day, or paid one day's wages in lieu thereof, but when such breakdown or stoppage occurs the employer may give notice to an employee that his or her services will not be required on the following day or days, and the employee shall not be entitled to any further payment in respect of any further days on which he or she is out of employment by reason of such break-down or stoppage.

(e) Terminating Employment in Relation to a Holiday.—

- (i) Where the employer terminates the employment of an employee within fourteen days of a day on which a holiday occurs, and such employee is re-employed within a period of one month after such holiday, the employee shall be paid for such holiday or holidays prescribed by this Determination, provided that such employee has been employed by the employer for a period of at least one week prior to the termination of the employment.
- (ii) Should the employment of an employee be terminated, or should an employee be stood off within fourteen days prior to any holiday or to the commencement of any group of holidays prescribed in this Determination, such employee shall be paid for such holiday or group of holidays, provided that such employee has been employed by the employer for a period of at least one week prior to the termination of the employment.
- (iii) When any two or more of the holidays prescribed in this Determination occur within two weeks of one another, such holidays shall for the purposes of sub-clause (ii) hereof be deemed to be a group of holidays.
