DETERMINATION OF THE INDUSTRIAL APPEALS COURT.

IN THE INDUSTRIAL APPEALS COURT:

IN THE MATTER of the Factories and Shops Act 1928-1941,

AND

IN THE MATTER of a Determination of the Horsehair Board made on the 1st April, 1948,

AND

IN THE MATTER of an Appeal against certain provisions of the said Determination.

Before the Industrial Appeals Court (Judge Dethridge, K. H. Boykett, Esq., and J. V. Stout, Esq.)

Monday, the 19th day of July, 1948.

Having heard the above-mentioned Appeal, this Court Doth Order:—

- (i) That in Clause 11 ("Special Rates") and Clause 12 ("Holidays") of the aforesaid Determination, the words "King's Birthday" be deleted, and that, in substitution thereof, the words "Easter Saturday" be inserted:
- (ii) That the Determination of this Court shall be operative on and after the 19th day of July, 1948.

By Order of the Court,

REX L. CECIL,

Registrar.

By Authority: J. J. GOUBLEY, Government Printer, Melbourne.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is pleased to see the Congress assembled, and that he is confident that the country is in a good position to meet the challenges of the future. He also mentions the recent election of Abraham Lincoln as President, and expresses his confidence in the new administration.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the financial state of the country at the beginning of the year. The report states that the country is in a sound financial position, with a strong and stable currency. It also mentions the recent increase in the national debt, and expresses confidence that the government will be able to manage the debt effectively.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the state of the country's natural resources, including land, minerals, and water. The report states that the country is rich in natural resources, and that the government is committed to managing these resources in a sustainable and responsible manner. It also mentions the recent discovery of gold in California, and expresses confidence that this discovery will lead to further economic growth.
