RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT

OF THE

STATE OF VICTORIA.

1949.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Supreme Court Acts and all other powers hereunto enabling, the following rule is made and shall take effect on and after the 1st day of April, 1949:—

CHAPTER II.

RULES OF PROCEDURE IN DIVORCE AND MATRIMONIAL CAUSES.

1. On and after the first day of April, 1949, all Rules of Procedure in Divorce and Matrimonial Causes shall be repealed and of no effect except so far as regards all proceedings then pending and on the said first day of April, the Rules hereinafter set out shall come into force, and shall apply to all proceedings commenced on or after that date whether pursuant to the Matrimonial Causes Act 1945 (No. 22 of 1945) of the Commonwealth of Australia or under the law of the State of Victoria. Commencement of Rules.

PETITION AND VERIFYING AFFIDAVIT.

2. (1) Proceedings before the Court to obtain a decree of nullity of marriage, dissolution of marriage, judicial separation or declaration as to jactitation of marriage shall be commenced by filing in the office of the Prothonotary a petition in the form in the Seventh Schedule to the Marriage Act 1928, or to the like effect. Every such petition shall be intituled with the number of the suit and the names of the parties and shall state as distinctly as the nature of the case permits the facts upon which the claim to relief is founded, the name, if known, of the person with whom adultery is charged and, unless otherwise directed by a Judge, shall be signed by the petitioner, or in the case of a person of unsound mind by such person's committee or guardian and shall be filed within thirty days of the signing thereof. Petitions.

(2) No petition in a suit for dissolution or nullity of marriage shall be filed unless there appear on its face in red letters the words "In case of a decree nisi being granted neither the petitioner nor the respondent may legally re-marry until such decree nisi has been made absolute" or words to the like effect.

(3) No supplemental petition shall be filed, and no petition shall be amended, without leave. An affidavit in support of the application for leave shall, unless otherwise directed, be made by the petitioner and, if necessary, some other person or persons and shall verify any new facts which are alleged and distinctly and unequivocally deny that there has been any collusion or connivance past or present, direct or indirect with the respondent or any person liable to be made respondent.

(4) No deputy Prothonotary shall allow a petition to be filed in a suit for dissolution or nullity of marriage without an order of the Court or a Judge where the Petitioner resides nearer to the office of the Prothonotary than to his office.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

Affidavit
petition.

3. Every petition commencing proceedings shall be accompanied by and have filed with it an affidavit, made by the petitioner, and, if necessary, an affidavit or affidavits by some other person or persons, verifying, paragraph by paragraph, the facts, acts, and conduct stated in the petition, distinguishing those within the personal knowledge of the deponent, and those which the deponent can verify only from belief and in the latter case stating the grounds for such belief, and stating the grounds on which the allegation of the domicile of the petitioner and the respondent is based; and also verifying fully and distinctly with dates and all other particulars so many of the following acts and circumstances as are applicable to each case, or assigning explicit reasons for omitting to do so:—

- (1) Age, and place of birth, and domicile of husband and wife respectively.
- (2) Condition of life, means of livelihood of husband and wife respectively, both before and after marriage.
- (3) Names, sexes, dates and places of birth of children, living or dead, if any.
- (4) Cohabitation, tracing it clearly from marriage to last determination, showing fully, when, why, and under what circumstances it ceased.
- (5) Separation or separations, if any, and causes thereof, and substance of deed of separation, if any executed.
- (6) Origin of the acquaintance of the adulterer or adulteress.
- (7) Fact and time of adultery.
- (8) All the occasions on which, within petitioner's knowledge, adultery has been committed.
- (9) The precise occasion when petitioner first suspected any improper or adulterous intercourse.
- (10) Reasons, if any, for not having sooner instituted proceedings.
- (11) The result of any previous proceedings between the parties with reference to the marriage.
- (12) Any other facts or circumstances within petitioner's knowledge bearing on the petition.
- (13) Distinct and unequivocal denial of all collusion or connivance, past or present, direct or indirect, with the respondent or any person liable to be made respondent.

Title of petition for nullity of marriage.

4. In every petition for nullity of marriage the female party thereto shall be described in the title thereof both by the surname acquired by her as a result of going through the ceremony of marriage the subject of the proceedings and by that possessed by her immediately prior to such ceremony, the latter surname being preceded by the expression "otherwise."

Chapter II.—Divorce.

CITATION.

5. Every petitioner who files a petition and affidavit as aforesaid shall prepare a citation according to Form No. 1 in the Schedule, and shall take such citation, together with a praecipe, according to Form No. 2 in the Schedule, to the office of the Prothonotary, and shall file the praecipe, and the citation shall be then signed and sealed.

Form of citation and praecipe.

6. No citation in a suit for dissolution or nullity of marriage shall be issued unless there appear on its face in red letters the words, "In case of a decree nisi being granted neither the petitioner nor the respondent may legally re-marry until such decree nisi has been made absolute" or words to the like effect.

Warning against re-marriage.

7. No deputy Prothonotary shall issue any citation in a suit for dissolution or nullity of marriage without an order of the Court or a Judge where the petitioner resides nearer to the office of the Prothonotary than to his office.

INDORSEMENT OF ADDRESS.

8. Where the petitioner proceeds by a solicitor, every citation and petition shall have indorsed thereon the address of the petitioner, and also the name or firm and place of business of his solicitor, which shall be his address for service, if such place of business is not more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary, and also, if his place of business shall be more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary, another place to be his address for service, which shall not be more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary, where writs, notices, pleadings, petitions, orders, summonses, and other documents, proceedings and written communications not requiring personal service may be left for him. And where any such solicitor is only agent of another solicitor, he shall add to his own name or firm and place of business the name or firm and place of business of the principal solicitor.

Where
petitioner
sues by solicitor.

9. Where the petitioner proceeds in person, he shall indorse upon the citation and petition his place of residence, his occupation and a place to be his address for service, which shall not be more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary, where writs, notices, pleadings, petitions, orders, summonses, and other documents, proceedings, and written communications not requiring personal service may be left for him.

Where
petitioner
proceeds in person.

10. Any petitioner may from time to time substitute another address for service within the like distance by filing the same in the office of the Prothonotary, and serving a notice thereof upon every opposite party.

Change of address.

SERVICE OF CITATION, ETC.

11. (1) Every citation, within two months after filing of the petition upon which it is issued, shall, together with a copy of the petition sealed with the seal of the Court, be served personally on the respondent and every co-respondent, by leaving a copy with each such person, and producing the original, if required so to do.

Personal
service of
citation.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

(2) The time for service may be enlarged at any time and notwithstanding that the prescribed time has expired. Where service has irregularly taken place after the expiration of the prescribed time, such service may be set aside and re-service ordered or, if the Court or a Judge thinks fit, an order may be made that further service be dispensed with.

(3) Unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders where a petition presented by a wife charges adultery with a named person notice in writing thereof shall at least ten days before the cause is set down for trial be served upon the person with whom the husband is alleged to have committed adultery and such notice shall inform that person of her rights under section 118 of the Marriage Act 1928 or any subsequent corresponding enactment.

Petitioner
not to effect
service.

12. Personal service shall in no case be effected by the petitioner or counter-petitioner.

Service out of jurisdiction.

13. (1) No citation shall be served out of the jurisdiction except by leave of the Court or a Judge, and such Court or Judge shall fix the time within which an appearance must be entered and an answer filed. A copy of the order giving such leave shall be served with the citation and the Prothonotary shall insert in the citation the time fixed in such order for appearance.

(2) An order giving leave to effect service outside the British Dominions, shall provide that notice of the citation and not the citation itself, shall, together with a sealed copy of the petition, be served.

Service of amended and supplemental petitions.

14. Unless it is otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge, where leave is given to amend a petition or issue a supplemental petition, a copy of the order giving leave, and a copy of such amended or supplemental petition sealed with the seal of the Court, shall be served personally on the respondent and every co-respondent affected thereby, together, in the case of service upon any co-respondent not previously a party, with a copy citation citing him as such.

Service on infants.

15. Service on the father or guardian of an infant or, if there be no such person, upon the person with whom the infant resides or under whose care he is, shall, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders, be deemed good service on the infant and no infant shall be served personally except as directed by the Court or a Judge.

Service on lunatics.

16. (1) When the ground of any petition for dissolution of marriage or judicial separation is the lunacy or unsoundness of mind of the respondent the petitioner shall on the issue of the citation serve a copy of the petition sealed with the seal of the Court and a copy of the citation—

(a) where the respondent is resident in Victoria—on the Public Trustee; or

(b) where the respondent is resident outside Victoria—on such person as the Court or a Judge may order—and no further service on the respondent shall be necessary.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

(2) In all other cases service on the committee of a person of unsound mind or on the person with whom he or she resides or under whose care he or she is, shall, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders, be deemed good service on the person of unsound mind, provided that if such person be detained in Victoria in a mental hospital, hospital for the criminal insane, receiving house, receiving ward, private mental home or mental treatment institution within the meaning of the Mental Hygiene Acts a copy of the documents so served shall forthwith be delivered to the Public Trustee.

17. After personal service of a citation has been effected, the citation, with the certificate of service indorsed thereon, shall be forthwith returned into and filed in the office of the Prothonotary. Save by leave of a Judge a citation may not be filed unless a certificate of service is indorsed thereon.

Citation to be filed after service.

18. In cases where personal service cannot be effected, application may be made to the Court or a Judge to substitute some other mode of service or to dispense with service altogether; every such application shall be made upon affidavit, and may be granted upon such terms and conditions as the Court or a Judge may think fit; or in the case of a co-respondent an order may be made dismissing him from the suit.

Substituted
service.

19. Unless service has been dispensed with no further proceedings shall be taken save with the leave of the Court or a Judge until an appearance has been entered or an affidavit of service of the citation has been filed in the office of the Prothonotary.

Taking of further proceedings.

APPEARANCE.

20. Appearance shall be entered within the time stated in the citation or in any order dispensing with personal service of the citation, provided that an appearance may by consent in writing of the opposite party or such party's solicitor or pursuant to order of the Court or a Judge, be entered at any time before decree absolute subject nevertheless to compliance with such conditions as may appear in such consent or order.

Entry of
appearance.

21. (1) Entry of appearance shall be made by delivering to the Prothonotary a memorandum in writing in accordance with Form No. 3 of the Schedule hereto. Where such an appearance is entered by a solicitor the memorandum shall be signed by the solicitor personally.

Form and
notice of
appearance.

(2) Notice of appearance in accordance with Form No. 4 of the Schedule shall on the day on which appearance is entered be given to the opposite party or his solicitor.

22. Every entry and notice of appearance shall, where the respondent or other party appears by a solicitor, state the place of business of such solicitor, which shall be his address for service, if such place of business be not more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary, and also if his place of business shall be more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary, another place to be his address for service, which shall not be more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary; and where any such solicitor is only agent of another solicitor, he shall add to his own name or firm and place of business the name or firm and place of business of the principal solicitor.

Address for
solicitor.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

Address for service of party in person.

23. When a respondent or other party appears in person, his entry and notice of appearance shall state his address, and a place, to be his address for service, which shall not be more than three miles from the office of the Prothonotary.

Change of address.

24. Any respondent or other party may from time to time substitute another address for service within the like distance by filing the same in the office of the Prothonotary, and serving a notice thereof upon every other party.

Question of
jurisdiction.

25. If a party wishes to raise any question as to the jurisdiction of the Court, he or she shall enter an appearance under protest.

Appearance
under protest.

26. An appearance under protest shall state concisely the grounds for disputing the jurisdiction of the Court and the party so appearing under protest shall before the expiration of the time allowed for filing an answer apply to a Judge by summons for directions as to the determination of the questions arising by reason of such appearance under protest and, in default of making any such application, such appearance shall be deemed to be an unconditional appearance. Any such directions may provide for the trial upon affidavits or oral evidence of a preliminary issue, with or without a stay of proceedings, or for the determination of the matters in question at the hearing of the cause and for any interlocutory matters incidental thereto.

Appeal from Judge on question of
jurisdiction.

27. If the Court or a Judge should decide the question of jurisdiction against the party raising it, such party may appeal against the decision, or may appear absolutely and file an answer within such time as the Court or Judge may direct.

Objection to jurisdiction
after unconditional
appearance.

28. Notwithstanding that appearance is or has become unconditional, the Court or a Judge shall have power to give leave to a party to raise a question of jurisdiction at any stage of the proceedings. Such leave, if given, shall be on such terms as to costs as the Court or Judge may think fit.

Default of
appearance.

29. On default of appearance the petitioner may set the cause down for trial.

Co-RESPONDENTS, ETC.

Applications
for dispensing orders.

30. (1) Application to excuse a husband petitioner making the alleged adulterer a co-respondent shall, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise directs, be made by summons supported by affidavit.

(2) Except by leave of the Court or a Judge such application shall not be made at the trial.

Death of co-respondent.

31. Where an alleged adulterer, who has been made a co-respondent or cited as a party, is dead or dies pendente lite, application may be made to the Court or a Judge for leave to strike his name out of the title to the proceedings and to insert the words "since deceased" after his name in the body of the petition.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

32. If the name of any alleged adulterer should be unknown to the petitioner at the time of filing his petition and afterwards becomes known to him, application must be made forthwith to the Court or a Judge to amend the petition by inserting such name therein and for further directions, and the Court or the Judge shall give directions as to such amendment, and such further directions as it or he may think fit as to the service of the amended petition.

Where name of alleged adulterer unknown.

SUITS IN "FORMA PAUPERIS."

33. Any person may, on application to a Judge, be admitted to sue or defend as a pauper on proof that he has not property exceeding Fifty pounds in value after payment of his just debts, his wearing apparel only excepted.

Paupers.

34. The provisions of Rules 22A, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 27A, 28, 29, 30, 31 and 31A of Order XVI. of the Rules of Procedure in Civil Proceedings shall apply mutatis mutandis to proceedings for divorce and other matrimonial causes.

Application of Order XVI. to divorce and matrimonial causes.

35. The affidavit, in support of an application by a wife to prosecute a suit against her husband in forma pauperis, shall state, to the best of her knowledge and belief, the amount of income and means of living of her husband.

Affidavit in application by wife.

36. When a husband has been admitted to prosecute a suit against his wife in forma pauperis, the wife may apply for an order that she be at liberty to proceed with her defence in forma pauperis upon affidavit that she has no separate property exceeding Fifty pounds in value after payment of her just debts.

Where husband proceeds in forma pauperis wife may be permitted so to defend.

37. Where a wife has been permitted to prosecute a suit against her husband in forma pauperis, the husband may apply for leave to proceed with his defence in forma pauperis upon affidavit as to his income and means of living, and proving that beside his wearing apparel he has not property exceeding Fifty pounds in value after payment of his just debts.

Where wife proceeds in forma pauperis husband may be permitted so to defend.

PERSONS OF UNSOUND MIND.

38. A committee duly appointed of a person of unsound mind may file a petition, take out a citation and prosecute a suit on behalf of such person as a petitioner, or enter an appearance, intervene, or proceed with the defence on behalf of such person as a respondent; but if no committee should have been appointed and statutory provisions enabling entry of appearance as guardian ad litem of a respondent to a petition for dissolution of marriage or judicial separation on the ground of lunacy or unsoundness of mind be inapplicable, application shall be made on summons to the Court or a Judge, who shall assign a guardian to the person of unsound mind, for the purpose of prosecuting, intervening in or defending the suit on his or her behalf; and shall give such directions as it or he thinks proper with regard to service of the summons. The affidavit in support of an application to assign a guardian shall contain adequate material relating to the mental condition of the party for whom a guardian is sought, and shall state that the proposed guardian is a suitable person to be so appointed and consents to being appointed.

Proceedings by committee or guardian.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

INFANTS.

Infant may elect guardian.

39. An infant above the age of sixteen years may elect any one or more of his next of kin as guardian, for the purpose of proceeding on his behalf as petitioner, respondent, or intervener in a cause, and shall file in the Prothonotary's office an instrument of election in accordance with Form No. 5 of the Schedule.

Election to be filed.

40. Until the necessary instrument of election is filed no citation shall issue or appearance be entered on behalf of the infant.

When Judge to elect guardian.

41. Where an infant has not elected a guardian pursuant to rule 39 or when an infant under the age of sixteen years becomes a party to a cause the Court or a Judge may, on application supported by affidavit, setting out the age of the infant and that the person proposed as guardian is suitable as such and consents to be appointed, appoint the said person or such other person as it or he may approve to be guardian. The Court or a Judge may at any time cancel an election or appointment of the guardian of an infant and in either such case appoint a new guardian.

Proceedings
by infant.

42. An infant may commence, prosecute, defend, intervene or take any proceedings in a cause by his guardian, provided that it shall not be necessary for an infant, who is joined as a co-respondent, to have a guardian for the purpose of conducting his defence.

Guardian
to infant
respondent.

43. When the respondent, being the husband or wife of the petitioner, is an infant and has not entered an appearance within the time limited therefor, the petitioner shall, before proceeding further with the cause, apply to the Court or a Judge for an order that some proper person be assigned guardian of the infant for the purpose of the cause, and the Court or the Judge may make such order and give such directions as may be necessary.

ANSWER AND FURTHER PLEADINGS.

Form and filing of answer.

44. Within twenty-one days from the service of the citation and sealed copy of the petition, or such further or other time as may be fixed by a Judge, the respondent, having entered an appearance, shall file his or her answer in the office of the Prothonotary according to Form No. 6 of the Schedule, otherwise the petitioner may set the cause down for trial.

Affidavit
answer.

45. There shall accompany every answer or subsequent pleading which contains matter other than a simple denial of the facts stated in the petition, an affidavit by the person filing the answer or subsequent pleading verifying such other matter so far as he has personal cognizance thereof and disposing to his belief in the truth of the rest of such other matter, provided that in no case shall any respondent be compelled to confess the commission of adultery.

Denial of collusion.

46. The respondent, if the husband or the wife, shall, if he or she can, in an affidavit accompanying the answer fully and unequivocally state that there is not and has never been any collusion or connivance direct or indirect between the deponent and the other party to the marriage.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

47. The respondent shall file, in the office of the Prothonotary, his or her answer, together with any affidavit accompanying such answer, and on the same day deliver to the petitioner or his or her solicitor a copy of the answer. Filing and delivery of answer.

48. (1) A respondent may include with his or her answer a petition for cross-relief. Such petition shall bear a heading "Counter-Petition", and shall be divided into paragraphs numbered separately from the paragraphs of the answer. Counter-petition.

(2) No counter-petition seeking dissolution or nullity of marriage shall be filed unless there appear on its face in red letters the words, "In case of a decree nisi being granted neither the petitioner nor the respondent may legally re-marry until such decree nisi has been made absolute," or words to the like effect.

49. A petition included by the respondent with his or her answer shall, as regards pleading and otherwise, be governed by the same rules as apply to petitions generally so far as they may be applicable, but, with respect to the affidavit or affidavits required to be filed with the petition, it shall be a sufficient reason for not verifying any of the acts and circumstances numbered (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) in Rule 3 of these Rules that it has been truly and sufficiently verified by the affidavit or affidavits filed by the petitioner with his or her petition. Affidavit verifying counter-petition.

50. Where the answer of a husband includes a counter-petition on the ground of adultery, unless it is otherwise ordered the name of the alleged adulterer shall be added to the title of the cause as "Party cited," a citation to him shall be issued, and he shall be served personally with a sealed copy of the answer and a copy of the citation. Party cited.

51. Within eight days from the filing and serving of the answer, or if there is included therein a petition for cross relief within 21 days, the petitioner may file a reply thereto, and shall on the same day deliver to the respondent or his or her solicitor a copy thereof. Reply.

52. No pleading subsequent to reply may be pleaded without leave of the Court or a Judge and then on such terms as the Court or Judge shall think fit. Any pleading subsequent to reply shall be delivered within the time specified in the order giving leave to deliver the same, or if no time be so specified, within four days after the delivery of the previous pleading, unless the time shall be extended by the Court or a Judge.

53. At the expiration of eight days from the last day provided by the rules for filing a reply or if further pleadings are allowed, then at the expiration of eight days from the last day for filing the last of such pleadings the cause shall be deemed to be at issue. Cause at issue.

GENERAL RULES AS TO PLEADING.

54. Any party may, by leave of the Court or a Judge, and in such form and upon such terms as the Court or Judge may think fit, amend his or her petition, answer, or subsequent pleading. Amendment of pleadings.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

Time for
next proceeding
after amendment.

55. Unless otherwise ordered, where a petition, answer or other pleading has been ordered to be amended, the time for filing and delivering a copy of the next pleading shall be reckoned from the time of the order having been compiled with.

Delivery of amended pleading and
time for
answer thereto.

56. Unless it is otherwise ordered, a copy of every pleading, showing the amendments made therein, shall be delivered to the opposite parties on the day such amendments are made in the pleadings filed with the Prothonotary; and the opposite parties, if they have already pleaded in answer, shall be at liberty to amend such pleading within four days, or such further time as may be allowed for the purpose.

Failure to file or deliver pleadings.

57. If either party in the cause fail to file or deliver a copy of the answer, reply, or other pleading, or to amend the same, or to deliver a copy of any amended pleading, within the time allowed for the purpose, the party to whom the copy of such answer, reply, or other pleading, or amended pleading, ought to have been delivered, shall not be bound to receive it if tendered, and such answer, reply or other pleading shall not be filed, or be treated or considered as having been filed, or be amended, unless by order of a Judge. The expense of obtaining such order shall fall on the party applying for it, unless the Judge shall otherwise direct.

Further
particulars.

58. Applications for further particulars of matters pleaded shall be made by summons.

GENERAL RULES AS TO SERVICE.

Personal
service of pleadings, &c.

59. Where personal service of any pleading, notice, proceeding, or document is required, the provisions of these Rules, so far as they relate to the service of citations, shall apply, unless in any particular case the Court or a Judge otherwise orders.

Personal
service of decree.

60. When it is necessary to serve personally any order or decree of the Court, the original order or decree, or an office copy thereof, under seal of the Court, must be produced to the party served, and a like copy marked as an exhibit by the Commissioner or other person before whom the affidavit is sworn shall be exhibited to any affidavit of such service.

Address for service.

61. (1) It shall be sufficient to leave all pleadings, notices, notices of appeal, proceedings, and documents, which are required to be given or delivered to the opposite parties in the cause, or to their solicitors, and personal service of which is not expressly required, at the respective addresses furnished as aforesaid by or on behalf of the parties.

(2) If such address be not furnished as aforesaid, or if such address be illusory or fictitious, the opposite party may proceed by filing all such pleadings, notices, notices of appeal, proceedings, and documents in the Prothonotary's office.

Service of notice of motion.

62. When it is necessary to give notice of any motion to be made to the Court, such notice shall be served four clear days previously to the hearing of such motion and a copy of the notice so served shall be filed in the Prothonotary's office.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

63. If an order be obtained on motion without due notice to the opposite parties, such order may be rescinded on the application of the parties upon whom the notice should have been served; and the costs of and incidental to the rescinding of such order shall be borne by the party who obtained the order unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise direct.

Order
without service.

MODE OF TRIAL.

64. Except as otherwise provided by these rules all Matrimonial Causes shall be tried by a Judge without a Jury.

Trial by judge.

65. When a petition for dissolution of marriage is presented charging adultery any party may at any time before the cause is at issue give written notice to the Prothonotary and to all other parties that he or she requires the contested matters of fact in relation to any charge of adultery to be tried by a jury and upon payment of the proper jury fees by the party giving such notice the same shall be so tried.

Petition
charging adultery.

66. When a petition for dissolution of marriage or for judicial separation contains a claim by a husband for damages on the ground that some person has committed adultery with the petitioner's wife the petitioner shall set down for trial before a jury the assessment of such damages and shall pay the proper jury fees for such trial.

Damages.

67. The petitioner or any party who has entered an appearance may within eight days from the time the cause is at issue apply to the Court or a Judge for an order under section 116 of the Marriage Act 1928 or any similar statutory provision for the time being in force directing that the truth of any question of fact arising in the proceedings be tried by a jury and the time and place of such trial; and if no such application be made the Court or a Judge may direct that such question shall be so tried and the time and place of such trial.

Trial by jury.

68. Issues of fact for trial before a jury shall be tried before six or twelve jurors at any sittings of the Supreme Court.

Jurors.

69. When the only questions at issue are adultery or damages the questions shall unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order be stated as in Form No. 7 in the Schedule. In all other cases in which a cause is to be tried before a jury the terms in which the questions at issue are to be stated shall on the application of either party be settled by the Court or a Judge.

Issue for trial.

SETTING DOWN FOR TRIAL.

70. In causes to be tried by a jury the petitioner shall, when the issues relate to adultery or damages only, within fifteen days of the cause being at issue, and in all other cases within eight days after the questions of fact have been settled, file the questions as stated in the Prothonotary's office and at the same time set down the cause for trial, and on the same day serve notice of his having done so and a copy of the said questions on each party for whom an appearance has been entered.

Questions of fact to be filed and cause set down.

71. In causes to be tried without a jury, the petitioner shall, within fifteen days from the time the cause is at issue, set the cause down for trial, and on the same day give notice of having done so to each party in the cause for whom an appearance has been entered.

Where cause to be heard
without jury.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

Respondents
may proceed
where petitioner
fails.

72. If the petitioner fails to file the questions of fact for the jury or set down the cause for trial or to give due notice thereof, for the space of one month after the questions of fact might have been filed or the cause might have been set down, any party entitled to be heard at such trial may file the questions for the jury, and set down the cause for trial, and shall on the same day serve notice of his having done so and a copy of the said questions, if any, on the petitioner and on each of the other parties to the cause for whom an appearance has been entered.

TRIAL.

Time and place
of hearing.

73. All causes shall be tried at such times as the Court or a Judge shall direct. Every cause shall, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise order, be tried in the place stated in the citation issued on behalf of the petitioner, and if no place is so stated, or ordered, in Melbourne.

Time for hearing not before twenty-one days.

74. No cause shall be called on for trial until after the expiration of 21 days from the day when the same has been set down for trial and notice thereof has been given, save with the consent of all parties to the suit or by order of the Court or a Judge. Causes may be set down during any vacation.

Decree to be entered.

75. The Associate or other officer shall enter in the Court book the finding of the jury and the decree of the Court, and shall sign the same.

Hearing
respondents
where no
answer filed.

76. After appearance has been entered by or on behalf of any party, he or she may be heard in respect of any question as to costs of suit, and a respondent being the husband or wife of the petitioner may also be heard in respect to any question as to custody of or access to children, alimony, maintenance, or settlement of property, although he or she may have filed no answer to the petition in the cause, but may not file affidavits touching matters in issue in the cause, and no such affidavit shall be read or made use of as evidence in the cause.

Procedure in general.

77. The practice and procedure as to summoning, attendance, and challenging of jurors; summoning and attendance of witnesses; orders made or commissions or letters of request issued for the examination of witnesses; admission of documents; hearing and addresses of counsel; and all other proceedings with reference to the trial of any cause or of any issue, shall, unless otherwise provided, be as nearly as may be according to the practice and procedure of the Supreme Court in civil proceedings.

EVIDENCE TAKEN BY AFFIDAVIT.

Time for filing.

78. Where any party intends on the trial of any cause or any issue to verify his or her case in whole or in part by affidavits, such affidavits shall be filed within eight days after the cause has been set down for trial.

Counter
affidavits.

79. Affidavits in answer to such affidavits may be filed by either party within fifteen days from the filing of the affidavits which they are intended to answer.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

80. Copies of all such affidavits and affidavits in answer shall, on the day the same are filed, be served on each other party who has appeared and where the affidavits are filed by a party other than the petitioner on the petitioner. Copies to be delivered.

81. Affidavits in reply to affidavits in answer shall not be filed without leave of the Court or a Judge. Affidavits in reply.

APPLICATIONS.

82. A summons to attend before a Judge at Chambers may be taken out by any person in any matter pending in the Court, and the practice and procedure thereon in all respects shall, unless otherwise provided for by these rules, be, as nearly as may be, according to the practice and procedure in Chambers of the Supreme Court in civil proceedings. Practice on summons.

83. All applications to the Court, except those expressly required to be made by motion or petition, shall be made by summons; but the Judge before whom such summons shall be heard may direct that it shall be heard in open Court. Applications to court.

84. All orders made upon ex parte applications or on summonses shall be filed in the office of the Prothonotary within fourteen days after the pronouncing thereof, or in default thereof shall be deemed to have lapsed. Orders to be filed.

NEW TRIAL AND RE-HEARING.

85. An application to the Judge for a new trial of issues of fact tried by a jury, or for the re-hearing of a cause, shall unless the Judge otherwise directs, be made by motion within fourteen days from the day on which the issues were tried or the cause was heard. Motion for new trial.

REVERSAL OF PETITION FOR JUDICIAL SEPARATION.

86. Petitions for the reversal of a decree of judicial separation must set out the grounds upon which the petitioner relies according to Form No. 8 of the Schedule. Form of petition.

87. Before such a petition can be filed, an appearance on behalf of the party praying for a reversal of the decree of judicial separation must be entered in the cause in which the decree has been pronounced. Appearance.

88. A copy of such petition, under seal of the Court, shall be served personally upon the party in the cause in whose favour the decree has been made, who may, within fourteen days, file an answer thereto in the Prothonotary's office, and shall on the day on which the answer is filed serve a copy thereof upon the other party, or upon his or her solicitor. Service of petition and filing of answer.

89. All subsequent pleadings and proceedings arising from such petition and answer shall be filed and carried on in the same manner as before directed in respect of an original petition for judicial separation and answer thereto, so far as such directions are applicable. Further pleadings.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

INTERVENTION, ETC., BY THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL AND OTHERS.

Application
for leave to intervene.

90. Application for leave to intervene in any cause pursuant to section 118 of the Marriage Act 1928 or any statutory provision amending or replacing such section may be made at any stage of the proceedings, and shall be made to the Court by motion supported by affidavit, and leave may be given with such directions as to appearance and otherwise as the Court shall think fit.

Interveners.

91. When any person intervening in a cause enters an appearance, the title of the cause shall be amended by adding the name of such person as "Intervener."

Pleadings.

92. Every person intervening shall join in the proceedings at the stage in which he finds them unless it is otherwise ordered by the Court.

At request of court.

93. If in discharge of its or his duties under the Marriage Act the Court or a Judge requests the assistance of the Attorney-General, the Attorney-General may apply ex parte to the Judge hearing the petition for directions as to what part the Attorney-General shall take in the further hearing of the petition, and upon such application the Court or Judge may direct what notices shall be given to the parties or any of them and may generally give such directions as may be just, necessary or convenient with relation to the further hearing of the petition.

Costs.

94. The Court may make such order for the costs incurred by the Attorney-General, pursuant to such request as to it seems just, including an order that his costs be paid by any party to the petition.

By Attorney-General against decree nisi.

95. When the Attorney-General intends to intervene to oppose the making of a decree nisi for dissolution of marriage he shall give to the petitioner written notice of such intention.

By individual.

96. Application for leave to intervene by any person other than the Attorney-General to oppose the making of a decree nisi for dissolution of marriage on any ground involving adultery shall be made to the Court by motion supported by affidavit.

Procedure upon intervention.

97. The Attorney-General shall within fourteen days after he has given notice of his intention to intervene, and any other person shall within fourteen days after he has obtained leave to intervene, enter an appearance and plead to the petition, which plea need not be verified by affidavit; and on the day after he files his plea in the Prothonotary's office he shall deliver a copy thereof to the petitioner or to his solicitor.

Subsequent
pleadings.

98. All subsequent pleadings and proceedings in respect to such intervention of the Attorney-General or other person in a cause shall be filed and carried on in the same manner as before directed in respect of the pleadings and proceedings of the original parties to the cause.

SHOWING CAUSE AGAINST A DECREE.

Form of
application
for leave.

99. Applications for leave to show cause why a decree nisi for dissolution or nullity of marriage should be reversed shall be made to the Court by motion supported by affidavit.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

100. Within eight days after obtaining such leave the Attorney-General or other person desiring to show cause against a decree nisi for dissolution or nullity of marriage being made absolute shall enter an appearance in the cause in which such decree nisi has been pronounced and shall within eight days after appearance file in the Prothonotary's office his plea setting forth the grounds upon which he desires to show cause as aforesaid and on the day he files his plea he shall cause a copy thereof to be served on the party in whose favour the decree nisi has been pronounced.

Appearance
and plea.

101. The plea of the Attorney-General pursuant to the last preceding rule need not be verified by affidavit, but the plea of any other person pursuant to such rule shall be so verified.

Verification of plea.

102. All subsequent pleadings and proceedings in respect to such intervention to show cause shall be filed and carried on in the manner prescribed by these rules in respect of the pleadings and proceedings of the original parties to the suit.

Subsequent
pleadings.

103. The questions raised on such pleadings shall be heard and determined in the same manner as any other issue tried in the Court.

Questions
how tried.

DECREES.

104. In every case where a decree nisi for dissolution of marriage or a decree nisi or absolute of nullity of marriage is pronounced a draft thereof shall be lodged with the chief clerk within fourteen days of such pronouncement and an office copy of the decree as settled by the chief clerk together with the original draft shall be lodged at the Prothonotary's office within seven days after such decree has been settled and such times shall be deemed to be the times prescribed by the statutory provisions for the time being in force relating to the lodging, settling, passing and entering of such decree. In case of non-compliance with the foregoing provisions within the time prescribed the chief clerk or the Prothonotary (as the case may be) may permit a subsequent lodging to be made and shall permit subsequent lodging which has been ordered by a Judge.

Draft to be lodged.

105. On every copy of a decree nisi for dissolution of marriage the Prothonotary shall indorse a notice that if the petitioner or respondent shall contract marriage before such decree has been made absolute he or she will be guilty of bigamy.

Indorsement
on decree nisi.

106. No decree nisi for dissolution or nullity of marriage shall be made absolute till after the expiration of three months from the pronouncing thereof.

Decree nisi
when made absolute.

DISMISSAL OF PETITION.

107. When an order has been made for the dismissal of a petition on payment of costs, the cause will not be removed from the list of causes in the Court books without an order of the proper officer, to obtain which it must be shown to his satisfaction that the costs have been paid.

Removal
from list.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

APPEALS TO THE FULL COURT.

Practice on appeals.

108. The provisions contained in Order LVIII. of the Rules of Procedure in Civil Proceedings shall, subject to any statutory provisions relating to appeals to the Full Court, apply to appeals from the decision of a single Judge so far as the same are applicable.

Time for hearing.

109. All appeals to the Full Court shall be heard at such times during any sitting of the Full Court as that Court may direct.

ALIMONY.

Application
by petitioner.

110. The wife being petitioner in a cause may apply for alimony at any time after personal service of the citation on the husband, or after service in some other mode substituted by order of the Court, or after service on the husband has been dispensed with, provided that the fact of marriage between the parties is established by affidavit filed in the cause.

Application by respondent.

111. The wife being the respondent in a cause after having entered an appearance to the citation may apply for alimony.

Procedure.

112. Every such application shall be by summons returnable before a Judge in Chambers and upon the application either party may require the production of documents and the attendance of the husband or wife or of any witnesses for the purpose of being examined or cross-examined upon their affidavits. Alimony pendente lite shall, unless otherwise ordered, commence from the date of the service of the petition instituting the suit.

Permanent
alimony.

113. Upon a decree of judicial separation being affirmed on appeal, or after the expiration of the time for appealing against the decree if no appeal be then pending, a wife may apply for an allotment of permanent alimony, whether or not alimony shall have been allotted to her pendente lite. Such application shall be made by summons to a Judge in Chambers whether or not alimony has been reserved by the decree and such summons shall be served on the husband or upon his solicitor on the record eight days at least before the date of hearing of such summons and shall be supported by affidavit. Upon any such application either party may require the production of documents, and the attendance upon the hearing thereof of the husband or wife or of any witnesses for the purpose of being examined or cross-examined.

Variation of order.

114. Application by wife or husband for an increase or decrease of alimony, whether alimony pendente lite or permanent alimony, may be made at any time; and the course of proceeding in such case shall be the same as required by these Rules in respect of the original application for alimony and the allotment thereof, so far as the same are applicable.

Commencement of permanent alimony.

115. Permanent alimony shall, unless otherwise ordered, commence and be computed from the date of the final decree of the Judge, or of the Full Court on appeal, as the case may be.

To whom payable.

116. Alimony pendente lite and permanent alimony shall be paid to the wife or to some person or persons nominated in writing by her and approved by the Court, as trustee or trustees on her behalf. Application for the discharge of a trustee or the appointment of a new trustee shall be made by summons supported by affidavit.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

MAINTENANCE AND SETTLEMENTS.

117. Application (whether pursuant to leave reserved or otherwise) for securing a sum of money or making weekly or monthly payments after decree nisi for dissolution of marriage, for variation of marriage settlements after decree nisi for nullity or dissolution of marriage, or for the settlement of the property of a wife after a decree of judicial separation or decree nisi for dissolution of marriage on the ground of her adultery, shall be made by summons to a Judge in Chambers, and application for the variation or discharge of any order for security or for weekly or monthly payments shall be likewise made. Application how made.

118. A copy of such summons shall be personally served on the husband or wife (as the case may be), and on the person or persons who may have any legal or beneficial interest in the property in respect of which the application is made, unless the Judge shall direct any other mode of service, or dispense with the service of the same on them or any of them, provided that service upon the solicitor on the record of the party to be served shall, on his undertaking in writing to appear on the hearing of the summons be deemed sufficient service. Service.

119. The costs of a wife of and arising from the application shall not be allowed on taxation of costs against the husband before the final decree in the principal cause, without direction of the Judge. Costs.

CUSTODY, MAINTENANCE AND EDUCATION OF CHILDREN.

120. (1) Applications for interim orders with respect to the custody, maintenance and education of children may be made to a Judge by summons supported by affidavit. Application and evidence.

(2) Where a petition contains a prayer for custody or maintenance of children or a decree nisi or final decree contains an order for, or an order thereafter has been made for, custody or maintenance of children, application with respect to custody or maintenance may (whether or not any such decree or order reserves liberty to apply with respect thereto) be made after decree nisi, final decree or such order to the Court or a Judge, by summons supported by affidavit, and upon such application such order as to custody, access or maintenance shall be pronounced as may be just.

(3) Unless otherwise directed, service of any such summons shall be personal, provided that service upon the solicitor on the record of the party to be served may on his undertaking in writing to appear on the hearing of the summons be deemed sufficient service.

(4) Upon such application any party may file affidavits and may require the production of documents and the attendance of the husband or wife or of any witnesses for the purpose of being examined or cross-examined.

121. A copy of a summons under Part VII. of the Marriage Act, or of a petition under section 105 of the said Act, shall be personally served on the husband or wife (as the case may be) and on any trustee, guardian or person having or claiming the custody or control of the children, unless a Judge shall direct any other mode of service, or dispense with the service of the same. Service of originating proceedings.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

Answer. 122. The husband or wife (as the case may be) and the other person or persons (if any) who are served with a petition under section 105 as aforesaid may, within fourteen days after service, file his, her, or their answer to the said petition together with an affidavit verifying such answer and shall on the same day deliver a copy thereof to the opposite party, or to his solicitor.

Appearance. 123. Any person served with a petition, not being a party to the principal cause, must enter an appearance before he or she can file an answer thereto.

Subsequent pleadings. 124. Within fourteen days from the filing of the answer, the opposite party may file and deliver a reply thereto, and the same period shall be allowed for filing and delivering any further pleading by way of rejoinder.

Evidence and hearing. 125. After such pleadings have been completed, the petitioner shall apply by motion for an order thereon, and notice of the motion shall be given to the opposite party four days previously to the motion being heard, unless the Judge shall dispense with such notice.

NOTICES AND CONSENTS.

Notices to be in writing. 126. Whenever it becomes necessary to give a notice to the opposite party in the cause, or to consent, such notice and consent shall, unless otherwise ordered, be in writing, signed by the party or by his or her solicitor.

OFFICE COPIES, EXTRACTS, ETC.

How made. 127. Office copies and extracts of documents, the originals of which are retained in the office of the Prothonotary will, if required, be examined with the originals from which the same are copies. Every copy so required to be examined shall be certified under the hand of the Prothonotary or other officer to be an examined copy.

AMENDMENT.

General powers of. 128. It shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge sitting in Chambers or at the trial of any cause or issue, if such Court or Judge shall see fit so to do, to amend all defects and errors in any proceeding in any cause whether the defect or error be that of the party applying to amend or not; and all such amendments may be made with or without costs and upon such terms as to the Court or Judge may seem fit.

DAMAGES.

Sanction of compromise. 129. When an agreement for the compromise of a claim for damages has been arrived at, application may be made to the Court or a Judge to sanction the compromise, and for an order amending the petition, by striking out the claim for damages and the prayer to have such claim determined by a jury, discharging any jury which may have been summoned, and directing that the cause be heard by a Judge without a jury, and upon such application such order shall be made as to the Court or Judge appears fit.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

130. Application for the apportionment of damages, if made subsequently to the trial of a cause, shall be made to the Court or Judge by summons. Apportionment.

DISCONTINUANCE.

131. A petitioner may at any time prior to the hearing, or at the hearing, of a petition apply to the Court or a Judge upon motion or summons for leave to discontinue the petition, and the Court or Judge may grant such leave subject to such terms and conditions as may be thought fit. No order for discontinuance shall be effective unless such order and a notice of discontinuance is filed within fourteen days of the making of such order or within such time as may be prescribed. Leave to discontinue.

WANT OF PROSECUTION.

132. Application to dismiss a petition for want of prosecution may be made by motion to the Court or upon summons to a Judge in Chambers and on the hearing of such application, the Court or Judge may order the petition to be dismissed accordingly, or may make such other order, and on such terms, as to the Court or Judge may seem just. Application to dismiss for want of prosecution.

MEDICAL INSPECTION.

133. (1) In proceedings for nullity of marriage on the ground of impotence or incapacity of the respondent, the petitioner shall, after an answer has been filed or if no answer has been filed or appearance entered to the cause after the expiration of the time allowed for filing an answer or entering an appearance, as the case may be, apply on summons to a Judge for the appointment of medical inspectors to examine the parties and the Judge shall upon such application order that two duly qualified medical practitioners, one to be nominated on behalf of the petitioner and one on behalf of the respondent be appointed as inspectors to examine the parties and report to the Court the result of the examination and shall order the attendance of the inspectors and the parties before the Prothonotary or other officer so that the former may be sworn and the latter identified to the former as the parties in the cause. Application and subsequent proceedings.

(2) A copy of the order indorsed with notice of the time and place of the inspection shall, unless it is otherwise directed, be served personally upon the respondent unless the respondent has appeared, in which case it may be served at the address for service stated in the notice of appearance.

(3) The reports of the inspectors shall be delivered to the Prothonotary and each party may make copies thereof.

CHANGE OF SOLICITOR.

134. A party may obtain an order to change his or her solicitor upon application by summons to a Judge. Order for change.

135. No order for change of solicitor shall be necessary if the former solicitor consents to the change and such consent is filed. Consent for change.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

Costs of former solicitor.

136. In case the former solicitor neglects to file his bill of costs for taxation at the time required by the order served upon him, the party may, by leave of a Judge, proceed in the cause by the new solicitor without previous payment of such costs.

Costs.

Preliminary costs in nullity suits.

137. (1) In any proceeding for nullity of marriage when a female, if a petitioner, has duly filed her petition or, if a respondent, has duly entered an appearance, a Judge in Chambers if he considers she has not sufficient separate estate may order—

- (a) that the other party to the proceedings shall pay into Court a sum of money sufficient to enable her to have the merits of her case investigated by a solicitor and that such sum or part thereof shall on the taxing master being satisfied that such sum or part has been properly incurred or spent in ascertaining whether she has a good cause of suit or defence on the merits and giving his certificate accordingly be paid to her or her solicitor; and
- (b) that if after investigating the case her solicitor is of opinion that she has a good cause of suit or defence on the merits and files a certificate to that effect in the office of the Prothonotary the other party to the proceedings shall thereupon pay into Court a sum of Twenty pounds.

(2) An order in respect of the matters referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of paragraph (1) hereof, or an order in respect of the matters referred to in clause (b) alone, may be made.

(3) No order shall be made for the taxation and payment of costs de die in diem, or for the payment before hearing or trial of any costs of or incidental to the hearing of the cause or for the giving of security for such costs.

Application
for preliminary
costs.

138. An application in a suit for judicial separation or for dissolution or nullity of marriage for costs of investigation or payment of £20 costs into Court shall be made by summons supported by affidavit.

Appointment to tax.

139. In all cases in which the Court at the hearing of a cause condemns any party to the suit in costs, such costs shall unless otherwise ordered include all costs reserved for the trial judge and the solicitor of the party to whom the costs are to be paid may forthwith obtain an appointment for the taxation of his bill of costs, provided that such taxation shall not take place before the time allowed for moving for a new trial or rehearing shall have expired, or, in case a motion for a new trial or rehearing shall have been made, until it is disposed of, unless the Court or a Judge, for cause shown, direct a more speedy taxation.

Taxation.

140. Where costs are to be taxed all bills of costs shall be referred to the taxing officer of the Court for taxation, and may be taxed by him without any special order for that purpose.

Order for payment, how obtained.

141. If an order for payment of costs is required, the same may be obtained by summons, on the amount of such costs being certified by the taxing officer.

Chapter II.—Divorce.

142. The order for payment of costs of suit in which a respondent or co-respondent has been condemned by a decree nisi shall, if applied for before the decree nisi is made absolute, direct the payment thereof to the Prothonotary, and such costs shall not be paid out to the party entitled to receive them under the decree nisi until the decree absolute has been obtained.

Order for payment
before decree
absolute.

CUSTODY OF DOCUMENTS.

143. The Prothonotary shall, except where these Rules otherwise provide, have the custody of all pleadings and other documents now or hereafter to be brought in and filed in any matter or suit pending in the Court in its Divorce and Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction, and all orders and fees payable in respect of searches or an inspection or copies of and extracts from and attendances with documents filed in the office of the Prothonotary shall extend to such pleadings and other documents filed in the Court in its Divorce and Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction.

General
provision.

144. The Prothonotary and the clerks and other officers of the Supreme Court shall discharge similar duties in the said Court in its Divorce and Matrimonial Causes Jurisdiction, and in the registry thereof, as they discharge in the other jurisdictions of the Court.

Officers.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE MATRIMONIAL CAUSES ACT 1945 OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

145. A claim for relief under the Act may be made alternatively with a claim for relief under the law of the State of Victoria.

Alternative relief.

146. All applications under the Act for decrees of nullity of marriage, dissolution of marriage, judicial separation, declaration as to jactitation of marriage, or restitution of conjugal rights shall be made by petition in accordance with Form No. 9 of the Schedule where applicable, or where not applicable, forms of the like character, with such variations as the circumstances may require, shall be used.

Country Fire Authority Acts.

VARIAION OF SUMMER PERIOD IN RESPECT OF SPECIFIED PARTS OF THE COUNTRY AREA OF VICTORIA.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by sub-section two of section four of the Country Fire Authority Act 1944, it is enacted that the Governor in Council, after consultation by the Chief Secretary of Victoria with the Minister of Forests, may from time to time by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette proclaim any period as the summer period in respect of the country area of Victoria, or any specified part or parts thereof and, without affecting the generality of the foregoing, may proclaim different summer periods in respect of different parts of the said country area:

And whereas by the said sub-section, it is further enacted that any Proclamation so published shall remain in force until revoked, amended, or varied by a subsequent Proclamation so published:

And whereas by Proclamations issued on the thirtieth day of November, 1948; the third day of December, 1948; the thirteenth day of December, 1948; and the twenty-first day of December, 1948, and published in the Government Gazette of the first day, the eighth day, the fifteenth day, and the twenty-second day of December, 1948, respectively, different summer periods expiring on the thirty-first day of March, 1949, were proclaimed in respect of different parts of the country area of Victoria, including the parts of the said country area specified in the Schedule hereto:

And whereas it is deemed expedient that the aforesaid Proclamations should be varied in the manner hereinafter described:

And whereas the Chief Secretary and the Minister of Forests have consulted accordingly:

Now therefore I, the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria, in the Commonwealth of Australia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, and in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Country Fire Authority Acts, do by this my Proclamation vary the aforesaid Proclamations by proclaiming that the summer period in respect of the parts of the country area of Victoria which are specified in the Schedule hereto shall end on the twenty-third day of March, 1949.

SHIRE OF ARARAT WATERWORKS TRUST.

RATING BY-LAW FOR 1949 (No. 1).

THE Shire of Ararat Waterworks Trust, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred by the Water Acts, doth hereby make a rate for the supply of water for domestic purposes of Forty-five pence in the pound on the annual municipal valuation of lands and tenements liable to be rated within the Willaura Urban District.

Provided that in no case shall the amount of rate payable per annum in respect of any tenement (other than land on which there is no building) be less than Sixty shillings, and in respect of any land on which there is no building less than Ten shillings.

Such rates are made and shall be levied upon the occupiers or owners of the said land or tenements for the year commencing on the 1st day of January, 1949, and shall be payable on the 31st day of March, 1949, at the office of the said Trust, Shire Hall, Ararat.

The maximum quantity of water to be supplied in any one year without further charge to any property rated by the said Trust is hereby fixed at the quantity which, at a charge of Twenty pence per 1,000 gallons, would produce an amount equal to the amount of rate levied on such property for the said year.

The charge for water supplied by measure to any property rated by the said Trust in excess of such maximum quantity, computed as in the last preceding clause, is hereby fixed at Twenty pence per 1,000 gallons.

The charge for water supplied by measure shall be payable, on demand, at the office of the said Trust, Shire Hall, Ararat.

The charge for any water supplied to any property not rated by the said Trust shall be fixed by special agreement by the said Trust.

The secretary of the said Trust, for the time being, is hereby authorized to demand, collect, and recover, on behalf of the said Trust, the rates and charges imposed by this By-law.

Passed this 18th day of February, 1949.

The common seal of the Shire of Ararat Waterworks Trust was hereunto affixed this 18th day of February, 1949, in the presence of—(SEAL) ERNEST HEARD, Chairman.

A. W. VANSTAN, Commissioner.
K. N. BISHOP, Secretary.

Approved by the Governor in Council,
15th March, 1949.

A. MAHLSTEDT,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

AVENEL WATERWORKS TRUST.

LANDLORD AND TENANT ACT 1948.

At the Executive Council Chamber, Melbourne, the fifteenth day of March, 1949.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of Victoria.
Mr. Kennedy | Lieut.-Col. Dennett.
Mr. Guthrie

WHEREAS the Governor in Council, for the purposes of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1948, as amended by the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Act 1948, may, by Order published in the Government Gazette, constitute Fair Rents Boards at such places and in respect of premises in such areas as he thinks fit, and may, by like Order, abolish any Fair Rents Board, and by the same or any subsequent Order make provision for the transfer of pending proceedings before such Board to some other

Board: And whereas certain Fair Rents Boards have, in pursuance of the powers aforesaid, been constituted at certain places: And whereas it is expedient to abolish one of such Boards and to constitute other Boards, and to make the provision hereinafter appearing for the transfer of pending proceedings before the Board so abolished to other Boards: Now therefore, His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, and in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him as aforesaid, doth hereby make the following Orders, that is to say:—

1. The Fair Rents Board known as the Metropolitan Fair Rents Board, which was constituted by the Order in Council published in the Government Gazette on the 27th October, 1948, is hereby abolished.

2. A Fair Rents Board to be known as the Metropolitan Fair Rents Board is hereby constituted at Melbourne, and such Board shall exercise the powers conferred by the above-mentioned Acts in respect of any premises situate within the metropolitan area as defined in the Schedule to this Order, and Roy Ellerslie Stapleton is hereby, for the time being, assigned to be the stipendiary magistrate constituting such Board.

3. A Fair Rents Board is hereby constituted at Lilydale, a place at which a Court of Petty Sessions is appointed to be holden, and such Fair Rents Board shall exercise the powers conferred by the above-mentioned Acts in respect of all premises (other than premises within the said metropolitan area) which are nearer to the place at which such Board is constituted than to the place at which any other Board is constituted, and the stipendiary magistrate from time to time assigned to adjudicate at the Court of Petty Sessions at Lilydale is hereby, for the time being, assigned to be the stipendiary magistrate constituting such Board.

4. All proceedings which, at the date of the publication of this Order, were pending before the Board, abolished by this Order in respect of premises situate within the said metropolitan area, or within the North Riding and Western Riding of the Shire of Lilydale, shall be transferred to the Metropolitan Fair Rents Board constituted under this Order.

SCHEDULE.

The metropolitan area shall consist of the following municipalities and portions of municipalities:—

Cities of Box Hill, Brighton, Brunswick, Camberwell, Caulfield, Chelsea, Coburg, Collingwood, Essendon, Fitzroy, Footscray, Hawthorn, Heidelberg, Kew, Malvern, Melbourne, Moorabbin, Mordialloc, Northcote, Nunawading, Oakleigh, Port Melbourne, Prahran, Preston, Richmond, Sandringham, South Melbourne, St. Kilda, and Williamstown; the River Riding, Central Riding, and Southern Riding of the Shire of Braybrook; that portion of the Shire of Broadmeadows which is south of the northern boundaries of the Parishes of Jika Jika and Dousta Galla; the Shire of Doncaster and Templestowe; the Southern Riding and Northern Riding of the Shire of Eltham; that portion of the Shire of Keilor which is south-east of the Albion-Broadmeadows railway line; the Shire of Mulgrave, except that portion which is east of Springvale-road and that portion which is south of North-road and Wellington-road; the Altona Riding of the Shire of Werribee; Borough of Ringwood.

And the Honorable Trevor Donald Oldham, His Majesty's Attorney-General in and for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. MAHLSTEDT,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

2. No person shall leave any bottles, paper, orange peel, cast-off clothing or litter in the Reserve except in the receptacles provided.

3. No person shall climb upon or jump over any buildings, seats, or fences in or on the Reserve, lie on any seats, steps, gangways, or landings, or sit in or on any gangway, steps, or landings, or stick bills on cut letters or marks on, write upon or otherwise deface buildings, seats, fences, gates, posts, or trees therein.

4. No person, except those in the employ of or authorised by the Committee of Management, shall bring any horse or vehicle into plots of ground enclosed for plantation, garden, or other purposes.

5. No person shall bring into the Reserve any dog, unless controlled by a chain or cord. No dog shall be allowed in the Reserve except as hereinbefore provided, and all dogs, goats, pigs, and poultry found in the Reserve shall be liable to be destroyed, and the owner shall make compensation, to be recovered before any justice, for any damage done.

6. No children under five (5) years of age shall be allowed in the Reserve unless in the charge of adult friends or nurses.

7. Any person found in a state of intoxication or behaving in a disorderly or objectionable manner, or creating or taking part in any disturbance, or committing in the Reserve any act or indecency, shall be liable to be forthwith removed by any authorized officer or servant of the Committee of Management, or by any police constable, and shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations.

8. The Committee of Management shall have the power to hold entertainments or performances in the Reserve, and to adopt and enforce a scale of charges for admission thereto, and also may make a charge for the admission of any motor car or other vehicle as provided hereinafter, but on not more than fifty-two (52) occasions in any one year.

9. The Committee of Management shall have the power to let the whole or any portion of the Reserve to any club, association, or person for the purpose of cricket, football, and similar games or for holding agricultural shows, entertainments, performances, or sports, and to authorize such club, society, association, or person to make a charge for admission thereto as hereinafter provided, and may demand the full rental in advance or on such terms as shall be specified in any authority issued by the said Committee in accordance with this Regulation.

10. The Reserve shall be open to the public from sunrise to sunset, free of charge, except on such days as the Reserve may be set apart by the Committee of Management for cricket or football matches, fêtes, sports, or holiday amusements, on any of which occasions the maximum scale of fees which may be charged or taken for admission to the Reserve, and to any stand, building, erection, or enclosure for the time being thereon, exclusive of tax, shall be as follows:—

- (a) For the admission of each person to the Reserve, such sum as the Committee of Management may from time to time determine, not exceeding 2s. 6d.
- (b) For the admission of each person to any stand, building, erection, or enclosure, such sum as the Committee of Management may from time to time determine, not exceeding 10s. 6d.
- (c) For the admission of each saddle horse, exclusive of rider, such sum as the Committee of Management may from time to time determine, not exceeding 2s.
- (d) For the admission of any carriage, cart or other vehicle, exclusive of passengers, drawn by one horse or other animal, such sum as the Committee of Management may from time to time determine, not exceeding 2s.
- (e) For the admission of any carriage, cart or other vehicle, exclusive of passengers drawn by two or more horses or other animals, such sum as the Committee of Management may from time to time determine, not exceeding 4s.
- (f) For the admission of any vehicle driven by motor power, exclusive of passengers, such sum as the Committee of Management may from time to time determine, not exceeding 4s.

11. No person except the members of the Committee of Management and officers and employees of the said Committee on duty shall enter or drive or otherwise propel any motor car or other vehicle into any portion of the Reserve, when a charge is made for admission without first paying the fee charged, unless otherwise authorized by the Committee of Management.

12. No person shall carry firearms in or through the Reserve, or shoot, snare, or destroy any birds therein, unless by authority of the Committee of Management.

13. No person shall engage in cricket, football, tennis, hockey, lacrosse, or any like game or training in the Reserve, without the written authority of the Committee of Management and payment of any fees or charges that may be fixed from time to time by the Committee of Management.

14. No person shall engage in cricket, football, tennis, hockey, lacrosse, or any like game or training in the Reserve on Sunday.

15. No person shall play any unlawful game or by unseemly conduct interfere with the comfort and enjoyment of others within the Reserve.

16. No person shall interfere with or in any way hinder or interrupt in their work any of the employees of the Committee of Management engaged in the Reserve.

17. No person shall sell or offer for sale within the Reserve any article of food or drink, or any other commodity or operate any money-making amusement without the written permission of the Committee of Management, nor without the payment of such fee as the Committee of Management may by resolution determine.

18. No person shall remain in the Reserve at any time when lawfully directed by any officer or employee of the Committee of Management to leave it.

19. No person shall spit or expectorate on the paths or on any structure or erection in the Reserve.

20. No person shall assemble in the Reserve for fêtes, picnics, or concerts, or for the purpose of public worship, preaching or public speaking of any kind, or meeting of a like character, without the permission in writing of the Committee of Management.

21. No person shall light any fires in the Reserve without the written consent of the Committee of Management, and then only where the coppers or fireplaces for supplies of hot water are provided.

22. No male over the age of six years shall enter any building, part of building or enclosure set aside or being used by females, and no female over the age of six years shall enter any building, part of a building or enclosure set aside, or being used by males.

23. Any person driving any horse, motor car, or other vehicle into the Reserve shall tether such horse and park such car or other vehicle in such place and in such manner as any authorized officer of the Committee of Management shall direct.

24. No person shall enter or leave the arena, riding or driving any horse or driving any car or other vehicle at a speed or in any manner dangerous to the onlookers, nor shall a horse be ridden nor a vehicle or motor car be driven among any onlookers. Every such horse, motor car, or vehicle shall travel by the route provided from arena exits to park exit or to horse stalls site or car parking site or vice versa.

25. No person, except with the consent of the Committee of Management, shall ride any bicycle, motor cycle, tricycle, scooter, billy-cart, or other similar velocipede in the Reserve.

26. No person, without the consent of the Committee of Management, shall graze any horse, cow, sheep or other animal within the Reserve, and any wandering stock, or stock tethered without permission, may be impounded by the Committee of Management or its duly authorized officer.

All costs recovered in proceedings for offences committed against the provisions of these Regulations shall be paid into the funds of the Committee of Management of the said Reserve.

Every person who contravenes or fails to comply with these Regulations shall, in accordance with the provisions of section 181 of the Land Act 1928, as re-enacted by section 9 of the Land Act 1941, for each offence be liable to a penalty of not more than Five pounds, and every person who contravenes or fails to comply with any such Regulation, and who, after he has been warned by any bailiff of Crown lands or by any member of the Police Force, does not desist therefrom, may be forthwith apprehended by such bailiff or member of the Police Force, and taken before some justice to be dealt with according to law, and shall be liable to a penalty of not more than Ten pounds.

The common seal of the Board of Land and Works was hereunto affixed this 16th day of March, 1949, in the presence of—(SEAL) R. C. GUTHRIE, President.

J. E. HUNTER, Member,

- (d) The provision, use, and control of receptacles for the deposit and collection of refuse and rubbish (whether temporary or otherwise), and prescribing the size and shape of and the materials to be used in the construction of such receptacles.
- (e) Regulating or prohibiting the temporary herding of cattle within any area within the municipal district set forth in the By-law, and declared therein to be a populous or residential area.
- (f) Providing for the health of the residents in the municipal district, and against the spreading of contagious or infectious diseases.
- (g) Suppressing nuisances, and for other purposes.

THE President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of South Barwon, in pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Acts and the Health Acts, and by every other Act or power in that behalf it enabling, orders as follows:—

1. In this By-law so far as the context will admit—

“Animals” includes cattle and dogs.

“Birds” includes poultry.

“Cattle” has the same meaning as is assigned to it in sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Local Government Acts.

“Horses” includes horses, mares, fillies, foals, geldings, colts, asses and mules.

“Poultry” includes all kinds of fowls, ducks, geese and turkeys.

“Property” means any land or tenement in separate occupation or separately enclosed.

2. No person shall keep or cause, permit or suffer to be kept, any animal or bird which is or is kept in such manner as to be offensive, injurious to health, or dangerous.

3. The occupier of any property on or in which any animal or bird is at any time kept or housed shall cause every place on such property where such animal or bird is at any time kept or housed to be at all times effectively and thoroughly repaired, cleansed, and deodorized in such manner as may be necessary to prevent such place being offensive or injurious to health, or a danger to the health of any resident in the said Shire.

4. No person shall keep or cause or permit or suffer to be kept any swine or pig-sty within the areas defined in clause 10 of this By-law.

5. The occupier of any property on which is erected a stable or other building for the keeping or housing of horses shall—

- (a) Cause all manure, refuse and rubbish therein to be placed in a properly-constructed receptacle with brickwork walls at least 9 inches in thickness, or concrete walls at least 4 inches in thickness, with brick or concrete floor at least 6 inches in thickness, and lines throughout internally with cement rendering, composed of two and a half parts sand to one part cement.
- (b) Maintain such receptacle at all times in such good state of repair as is necessary to prevent any escape or leakage of the contents thereof.
- (c) Keep such receptacle wholly covered with an effective cover at all times, except when manure, refuse or rubbish is actually being deposited therein or being taken therefrom.
- (d) Effectively deodorize such receptacle and the contents thereof from time to time as may be necessary to prevent its becoming a nuisance, offensive or injurious or dangerous to health.
- (e) Cause all the contents of such receptacle to be removed from such property at least once in every week.

- (f) Keep such stable or other building at all times effectively and thoroughly repaired and cleansed in such a manner as may be necessary to prevent its being offensive or injurious to health, or a danger to the health of any resident in the said Shire.

6. No person shall keep or cause to be kept any cattle or more than 39 poultry on any property within the areas defined in clause 10 of this By-law without the written permission of the Council. Any person desiring to keep any cattle or more than 39 poultry on any property within such area shall deliver to the shire secretary a request, in writing, for the permission of the Council so to do, and every such request shall set out a full and detailed description of the premises whereon it is intended to keep such cattle or poultry, showing the provisions made for drainage and sanitation, and also shall set forth the number and description of cattle or poultry intended to be kept thereon, and such permission shall be given if the Council is satisfied that the cattle or poultry described in the request can be kept on those premises without constituting a nuisance, or being offensive or a danger to the health of any resident in the said Shire.

7. No person shall at any time temporarily herd any cattle anywhere within the areas defined in clause 10 of this By-law, which areas are hereby declared to be residential or populous areas.

8. Any animal or bird which shall contract or develop an infections or contagious disease shall be forthwith destroyed or caused to be destroyed by the person keeping the same.

9. Any person who shall commit any wilful act or default contrary to any provision of this By-law shall be liable on conviction to a penalty of not more than £20 for each offence, and in the case of a continuing offence a further penalty of not more than £5 for each day on which the offence is so continued after a conviction or order by any Court.

10. This By-law shall apply to and have application throughout the areas defined hereunder:—

(a) Belmont Area.—Portions of the Parishes of Barrabool and Corio, County of Grant.—Commencing at the Barwon Bridge on the Princes Highway; thence southerly by that highway to Mt. Colite-road, and by Mt. Colite-road to Bailey-street; thence by Bailey-street to its intersection with Autumn-street, westerly by Autumn-street to Francis-street, north by the western side of Francis-street to the junction of Matilda-street and Francis-street, westerly by the southern boundary of the Mont Bell Estate to Torquay-road, northerly by Torquay-road to its intersection with Settlement-road, west by Settlement-road to its junction with Princes Highway; thence south-westerly by the Princes Highway to its junction with Colac-grove west at the southern point of lot 41 of the Premier Estate; thence northerly by Colac-grove west and a line being the northerly continuation of the western side of Colac-grove west to West-street, and by West-street to its junction with White-street; thence by a line due west to the intersection of such line with Kardinia Creek, and northerly by Kardinia Creek to its intersection with Barrabool-road; thence north-easterly and easterly by the Barrabool-road to the northern corner of Crown allotment 1, section B, Parish of Corio; thence easterly by a line to the point of commencement.

(b) Barwon Heads Area.—Commencing at a point on the Bass Strait Coast line in line with the prolongation of the western side of Golf Links-road; thence north by the said line and Golf Links-road to the Geelong-road; thence easterly by that road to Carr-street; thence northerly by Carr-street to the north-west corner of allotment 33; thence east by the north boundary of the said allotment to a point on the west bank of the Barwon River in line with the prolongation of the aforesaid north boundary of allotment 33; thence southerly and westerly by the west bank of the Barwon River and the Bass Strait Coast Line to the point of commencement.

(c) Torquay Area.—Commencing at the mouth of Spring Creek and following that creek to its intersection with the Torquay-Anglesea-road; thence north-easterly by that road to the Torquay-Geelong-road; thence north by the Torquay-road to Zeally Bay-road; thence east by Zeally Bay-road and a line prolonged from the northern boundary of Zeally Bay-road to the Bass Strait Coast Line; thence southerly by the coast line to point of commencement.

Resolution for passing this By-law was agreed to by the Council of the Shire of South Barwon on the 17th day of August, 1948, and confirmed on the 21st day of September, 1948.

The common seal of the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of South Barwon was affixed hereunto, in the presence of—

SHIRE OF FERNTREE GULLY.

BY-LAW No. 67.

A By-law of the Shire of Ferntree Gully, made under the Local Government Act 1946 and the Police Offences Act, and numbered 67, for regulating the conduct of persons using or being upon or in places of public resort or public recreation, for controlling and managing and preserving commons and public reserves, for suppressing nuisances, for altering By-law No. 42 of the said Shire, and for other purposes.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Act 1946 and the Police Offences Act and of any and every other power it thereunto enabling, the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of Ferntree Gully order as follows:—

1. For clause 6 of the said By-law No. 42 there shall be substituted the following clause, namely:—

"6. No person shall on any Sunday or on Good Friday, Christmas Day, or Anzac Day, in any Reserve, organize, promote, or hold or take part in any football match, or any bicycle, motor cycle, motor car, midget car, horse, or dog race."

2. No person shall, either by himself or his agent, servant, employee, or otherwise, upon any land or premises, or upon any street or footway, create or cause to be occasioned an amount of noise sufficient to be an annoyance or nuisance to users of any public highway—

(a) by shouting, singing, or haranguing with or through any instrument; or

(b) by operating or controlling any instrument.

3. No person upon any street or footway shall, to the obstruction or annoyance of any other person thereon, or to the obstruction or annoyance of any occupier of any shop, dwelling, or other premises—

(a) make or cause to be made any violent outcry, noise, or sound;

(b) sound or play upon any instrument;

(c) sing or harangue; or

(d) beg or solicit alms verbally or by the use of any written sign, notice, or placard.

4. No person upon any street or footway shall, after being required to desist from so doing by any member of the Police Force or by any officer of the Council or by the occupier of any premises which are within 50 yards of such person—

(a) sound or play upon any instrument; or

(b) sing or harangue.

5. In this By-law the word "instrument" shall mean and include any instrument, device, or thing whatsoever capable of making or being used for making sound or noise, and without affecting the generality of the foregoing includes any loud speaker, amplifier, broadcasting set, wireless receiving set, gramophone, or other instrument or device of the like kind.

6. This By-law shall apply to and have operation throughout the whole of this municipal district.

Resolution adopting this Regulation agreed to by the Council on the 11th day of October, 1948, and confirmed on the 8th day of November, 1948.

The corporate seal of the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of Ferntree Gully was hereunto affixed, in the presence of—(SEAL) T. MERRETT, President.

ARTHUR F. PICKETT, Councillor.
CHAS. C. DANCE, Shire Secretary.

Approved by the Governor in Council, 8th March, 1949.—A. MAHLSTEDT, Clerk of the Executive Council. 8018

SHIRE OF KORUMBURRA.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO BORROW THE SUM OF FIVE THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED POUNDS (£5,700) FOR PERMANENT WORKS AND UNDERTAKINGS IN THE SHIRE OF KORUMBURRA.

TAKE notice that the Council of the Shire of Korumburra proposes to borrow, on the credit of the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the said shire, the sum of Five thousand seven hundred pounds (£5,700), such sum to be raised by the issue of debentures, in accordance with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1946.

The maximum rate of interest that may be paid is 4s. 6d. per centum per annum.

Such moneys shall be repayable by not more than twenty equal half-yearly instalments, each including principal and interest, by providing out of the municipal fund such amounts on the 1st day of October and the 1st day of April in each respective year during the currency of the loan.

Such moneys shall be repayable, at Melbourne, at the Bank of Australasia or at the Council's bankers for the time being in Melbourne.

The purpose for which the loan is to be applied is:—

"For the purchase of a caterpillar 12 power grader."

The plans, specifications, and estimate of the cost of the works referred to above, and a statement showing the proposed expenditure of money to be borrowed, are open for inspection at the shire office, Korumburra.

Dated this 18th day of March, 1949.

SHIRE OF YEA.

BY-LAW No. 15.

Building Regulations.

A By-law of the Shire of Yea, made under the Local Government Acts and the Uniform Building Regulations of Victoria, numbered No. 15, for determining, applying, dispensing with or regulating such matters or things as are left to be determined, applied, dispensed with, or regulated by the Council of the said Shire of Yea, under the Uniform Building Regulations of Victoria.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Local Government Acts and the Uniform Building Regulations of Victoria, and of any and every other power it thereunto enabling, the President, Councillors, and Ratepayers of the Shire of Yea order as follows:—

1. The minimum area, depth and width of frontage specified in column three of Table 803 of the Uniform Building Regulations of Victoria (hereinafter called the Regulations), are hereby adopted as the minimum area, depth and width of frontage of land on which a building shall be constructed throughout that portion of the municipal district set out and described in the first Schedule hereto.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Regulations any person may—

(a) Construct a building of Class I. occupancy on land having a lesser area depth or width of frontage or at a lesser distance from boundaries than those specified in column three of Table 803 of the Regulations, or

(b) construct a building of Class III., V., VII. or VIII. occupancy or a building to which a building of Class IV. occupancy is attached on land having an area, depth or width of frontage less than that prescribed in clause 809 of the Regulations, in any case where on the date of commencement of the Regulations such land existed as a separate allotment and has not since been reduced in area or is shown on any plan of subdivision approved by the Council and lodged in the Office of Titles.

3. In that portion of the municipal district set out and described in the Second Schedule hereto, no person shall construct or cause to be constructed any building, the external walls of which are of material other than brick, stone, or concrete.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

The whole of the Township of Yea.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

The whole of the area, being part of the Township of Yea, comprising those parts of sections 5 and 8 bounded on the west by Gifford-street, on the east by Hood-street, on the south side by High-street, and on the north side by a line parallel with High-street and distant therefrom 165 feet.

No. 285.—2601/49.—3

(e) No employee shall be required to work for a longer period than five hours without a suitable interval for a meal.

CASUAL EMPLOYEE.

27. A casual employee is one who is employed from day to day and shall be paid at ordinary rates plus 10 per cent.

WEEKLY ENGAGEMENT.

28. Except in the case of casual employees all employment shall be by the week. Employees to become entitled to payment on a weekly basis shall perform such work as the management shall from time to time require on the days and during the hours usually worked by the class of employees affected.

Employment shall be terminated only by a week's notice on either side, such notice to be given at any time during the week. This shall not affect the right of the management to dismiss any employee without notice for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, in which case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only or to deduct payment for any day the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike or through any breakdown of machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot be reasonably held responsible.

SICK LEAVE.

29. (a) Any employee who has been in the employment of the same employer for a period of not less than three months and who does not attend for duty shall lose his pay for the actual time lost unless such employee produces or forwards within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his non-attendance was due to personal ill-health or accident necessitating such absence, but such employee shall not be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal ill-health or accident for more than six days in each year or a proportionate less time during any shorter period of employment.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof is not taken in any year, such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year up to a period not exceeding twelve days, which shall be the maximum amount of leave to which an employee may be entitled in any year without deduction of pay. For the purposes of this sub-clause year shall be deemed to commence on 10th June, 1943.

OVERTIME.

30. (a) If required for duty on any holiday, half-holiday, Saturday afternoon or Sunday, all employees shall be entitled to pay at double the ordinary rate per day.

(b) If required for duty on other days beyond the hours per day prescribed, all employees shall be entitled to pay at the rate of time and a half.

(c) Where overtime has been earned by an employee for working after the number of hours prescribed as a day's work, such overtime shall be paid to him in addition to his weekly wage, but the hours on which overtime has been earned shall not be counted in computing the working hours of the week.

ANNUAL HOLIDAYS.

31. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1946 No. 5111 and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

PAYMENT FOR HOLIDAYS.

32. Employees (other than casual employees) shall be entitled to the following holidays without deduction of pay :—

Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Labour Day, Anzac Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Melbourne Cup Day, and Butchers' Picnic Day.

SMOKO.

33. Employees shall be given two smokos of ten minutes' duration on each day Monday to Friday and one of ten minutes duration on Saturday at times fixed by the employer.

PAY DAY.

34. Wages shall be paid not later than Friday in each week in the employer's time.

GENERAL CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT.

35. All employers shall keep a time and wages book in which shall be entered the names of all employees, the hours worked and the wages received. Such book shall be opened for inspection during reasonable hours by the Secretary of the Australasian Meat Industry Employees Union.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CARTERS AND DRIVERS EMPLOYED IN CONNEXION WITH ABATTOIRS AND MEAT MARKETS IN ALL AREAS TO WHICH THIS DETERMINATION APPLIES.HOURS OF WORK.

36. The hours of duty of employees shall not (without payment for overtime) exceed 40 hours per week, and the daily hours shall not (without payment for overtime) exceed 9 hours 40 minutes on Monday to Friday, and 6 hours on Saturday.

Except as provided by Clause 2 (A) and except in the case of stablemen and grooms, such daily hours shall be worked between 7 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Monday to Friday, and 7 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Saturday.

The hours of duty on any day shall be continuous except for meal intervals.

No employee shall be required to work for a longer period than five hours without a suitable interval for a meal.

OVERTIME.

37. All time worked in excess of 9 hours 40 minutes on Monday to Friday, and in excess of 6 hours on Saturday, or in excess of 40 hours per week, shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half.

WEEKLY ENGAGEMENT.

38. Except in the case of casual employees, all employment shall be by the week. Employees to become entitled to payment on a weekly basis shall perform such work as the management shall from time to time require on the days and during the hours specified.

Any weekly employee not attending for duty shall lose his pay for the actual time of such non-attendance, unless he produces or forwards within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the management that his non-attendance was due to personal accident arising out of and in the course of his employment or to personal ill-health necessitating such absence.

Provided that an employee shall not be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the ground of personal accident or personal ill-health or both for more than six days in each year.

Employment shall be terminated only by a week's notice on either side such notice to be given at any time during the week. This shall not affect the right of the management to dismiss any employee without notice for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct, in which case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only, or to deduct payment for any day the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike or through any breakdown of machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot be reasonably held responsible.

CASUAL EMPLOYEES.

39. Casual employees (i.e., persons employed during any week for not more than one-half the maximum number of hours fixed as a week's work) shall be paid one-sixth of the weekly wage for the class of work they perform, plus 2s. for each day or part of a day on which they are employed.

Where a casual employee is required to perform more than one kind of function on any one day, he shall be paid for the whole day at the highest rate prescribed for any of the functions.

HOLIDAYS.

40. Employees, other than casuals, shall be entitled to the following holidays without deduction of pay:—

Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, King's Birthday, and Butchers' Picnic Day.

Provided that within the Metropolitan District, Melbourne Cup Day shall be observed as a holiday in lieu of King's Birthday.

SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY RATES.

41. (a) Except as hereinafter provided, all time of duty on Sunday and Public Holidays herein prescribed shall be paid for at the rate of double time, that is two days' pay on Sunday, and one day's pay on public holidays in addition to the weekly wage.

(b) Stablemen and grooms, part of whose duties are to feed and attend to horses every day, shall not be entitled to any extra pay for working on Sunday if they are allowed one clear day's rest in seven. If they work on seven days in one week they shall be entitled to Sunday rates for work done on Sunday.

Stablemen and grooms shall not be entitled to any extra pay for work done on public holidays if engaged in the performance of their ordinary duties.

Stablemen and grooms who are required to work continuously seven days in the week shall be allowed one week's holiday on full pay at the expiration of each twelve months' service.

(c) Drivers who are required to be on duty on Sunday to feed and attend to horses where the employer does not employ any stablemen, shall be paid for such Sunday work at the ordinary rate paid for the other six days of the week.

MINIMUM OF WORK ON A SUNDAY OR A HOLIDAY.

42. Any employee required to work on a Sunday or a holiday as prescribed in clause 41 shall be entitled to four hours' pay at double rates provided that he is available for work during such four hours.

NOTICE TO WORK ON HOLIDAYS.

43. Except in the case of unavoidable accident or emergency, three days' notice shall be given to an employee required to work on a public holiday prescribed in this Determination.

MIXED FUNCTIONS.

44. Where an employee performs on any day functions of a mixed character, he shall be paid for that day at the rate applicable to the function for which the highest rate is payable.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

45. Wages shall be paid not later than Friday in each week in the employer's time.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL OTHER PERSONS.CASUAL EMPLOYEES.

46. (a) A casual employee, that is, an employee who is not employed for a full week, shall be paid one-fortieth of the weekly wage prescribed in this Determination for the class of work he performs, plus 15 per cent. of such daily rate for each day or part of a day on which he is employed. For time worked in excess of 8 hours on any one day, time and a half rates shall be paid.

(b) Where a casual employee is required to perform more than one class of work on any one day, he shall be paid for the whole of that day at the highest wage prescribed in this Determination for any of the work which he performs.

(c) In addition to the rate payable under sub-clause (a) hereof casual employees shall be paid all fares above 4d. per day reasonably and necessarily incurred.

SPECIAL RATES AND ALLOWANCES.

47. Where an employee is temporarily transferred during working hours from one shop or factory to another the employer shall pay such employee all costs of transit and travelling time.

LIMITATION OF FEMALE LABOUR IN RETAIL BUTCHERS SHOPS.

48. Except as provided in this clause no female shall be engaged to work or be employed in a retail butcher's shop: Provided that an employer may engage one or more females to act as a cashier or cashiers and to perform general clerical work in any shop the number so engaged not to exceed that necessarily required to perform such work in such shop: Provided further that a female having been so engaged may perform the following work in addition to her duties as cashier or clerk:—

- (a) wrap meat or small goods in either paper or cartons;
- (b) divide sausages, frankfurts or other small goods and for this purpose may use a knife for cutting purposes;
- (c) sell goods already prepared but not fresh uncooked meat; and
- (d) sell fresh uncooked meat at any time in which all male employees in such shop are necessarily absent therefrom because of the lunch period or other good reason and only during any such time but not otherwise may use a knife for the purpose of cutting fresh uncooked meat.

HOURS.

49. (a) In retail butchers' shops and smallgoods factories and in abattoirs outside the metropolitan area of Melbourne the ordinary working hours shall not exceed in number 40 per week.

(b) The hours shall be worked on five days of the week, Monday to Friday inclusive, during the months of April, May, June, July, and August, in each year and in five and a half days, Monday to Saturday inclusive, during the months of September, October, November, December, January, February and March in each year.

(c) No time worked on a Sunday shall be reckoned as part of such ordinary hours.

(d) (i) Each daily period of work comprised in such ordinary working hours shall be unbroken except by prescribed meal intervals.

Provided that where an employer satisfies the Wages Board that he had prior to the 12th day of May, 1942, fixed the ordinary starting time at 7 a.m. and that it was the practice for his employees to have a break of one hour for breakfast commencing before 10 a.m. without pay and such practice was either expressly or by implication agreed to by the employees, the Board shall grant a certificate setting forth the practice of such employer who may thereupon, provided that such starting time is not altered to later than 7 a.m., break the ordinary working hours for such employee for one hour in accordance with such practice as so certified but not otherwise.

(ii) No such daily period of work shall exceed in duration nine hours exclusive of prescribed meal intervals.

(iii) Such daily periods of work shall be so arranged that on at least one day in each week in the month of September, October, November, December, January, February and March, of each year, the employees concerned shall finish their ordinary hours of work not later than 11 a.m.

(e) No time worked before 6.30 a.m. or after 5.30 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays inclusive or before 6.30 a.m. or after 11 a.m. on Saturdays in retail butchers' shops or before 6 a.m. or after 8 p.m. in smallgoods factories, and in country slaughterhouses shall be reckoned as part of such ordinary hours.

(f) (i) Subject to compliance with the foregoing provisions and with those hereinafter contained the employer shall for any of his employees fix each day's starting and finishing times of ordinary hours of work (inclusive of special starting and finishing times for any day next preceding a public holiday) observed by him for the employee concerned.

(ii) The employer shall state such times in advance in a notice which shall be permanently posted in his establishment so as to be at all times accessible and visible to the employee concerned.

(iii) The employer may from time to time substitute other starting and finishing times if, not less than a week in advance of the substituted times, he states such times in a notice posted so as to be visible at all times to the employees concerned together with the next previous notice concerning such times.

(iv) Every fixation of starting and finishing times shall be made in respect of a period which shall not be less than a week in length.

MEAL INTERVALS.

50. (a) Each employee shall be granted a meal interval of one hour for lunch on a full working day between noon and 2 p.m.

(b) Except in the case of emergency the time for meal intervals shall not be altered except on 24 hours' notice to the employees concerned.

(c) Employees called upon to start work on any day other than Saturday or the half holiday observed in lieu thereof before 7 a.m. shall be allowed one hour for breakfast to commence before 10 a.m.

(d) Employees called upon to start work before 7 a.m. on a Saturday or the half holiday observed in lieu thereof shall be allowed one half-hour for crib time before 9 a.m. such time to be counted as working time.

(e) Any employee called upon to work during a meal interval shall be paid at overtime rates for the period so employed and such overtime rates shall continue until a meal break is allowed.

(f) No employee shall be called upon to work for more than 5 hours without a break for a meal.

(g) Meal intervals where allowed shall not except as otherwise prescribed be counted as part of the daily or weekly hours worked.

OVERTIME.

51. (a) All time worked outside the ordinary working hours on any one day shall be deemed to be overtime and shall be paid for at time and a half.

(b) Any employee who is notified that he will be called upon to work overtime and is not so worked shall be paid the meal money above prescribed.

(c) Any time worked between 8 p.m. on Friday and 4 a.m. on Saturday shall be paid for at double time.

(d) All time worked after a quarter of an hour beyond the closing time as fixed on Saturday or the day observed in lieu of Saturday (except attention to horses and livestock) shall be paid for at double rate with a minimum of 15 minutes.

No employee shall be called upon to work overtime in retail butchers' shops after 6 p.m. or after 7 p.m. elsewhere on Mondays to Fridays inclusive without a break of one hour and payment of 2s. 6d. meal money.

(e) An apprentice under the age of 19 years shall not be called upon to work overtime for more than four hours in any one week.

(f) Apprentices over 19 years of age, but under 21 years, shall not be called upon to work more than six hours overtime in any one week.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

52. (a) The following days or the days observed in lieu thereof, except for the unavoidable delivery of smallgoods shall be holidays and shall be paid for as though worked :—

New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labor Day, Picnic Day, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Melbourne Cup Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day and any other days which may be proclaimed as holidays.

(b) For work done in the delivery of smallgoods on these days, time and a half rates shall be paid up to 9.30 a.m. and on Good Friday up to 11.30 a.m.

(c) On any such holidays, except Christmas Day, Anzac Day and Union Picnic Day, employees, if required, shall work for not more than two hours and on Good Friday for not more than four hours at time and a half rates. On Christmas Day, Anzac Day and Union Picnic Day, employees may be required to work on essential work only. This sub-clause shall not override the provisions of any Act of Parliament or Regulation dealing with the observance of Anzac Day, and in case of inconsistency between this sub-clause and such provisions the latter shall prevail.

(d) Any employee absent without leave on the working day before or the working day after any holiday shall be liable to forfeit wages for the holiday as well as for the day of absence except where an employer is satisfied that the employee's absence was due to illness or other reasonable cause in which case wages shall not be forfeited. In the event of any dispute arising out of this sub-clause, the dispute shall be referred to the Wages Board.

(e) If an employee is dismissed within 14 days before any of the holidays abovementioned and is re-engaged within 14 days after any of the holidays abovementioned he shall be deemed to have been dismissed for the purpose of evading payment for such holidays and any payment so evaded shall be due and payable to the employee.

(f) For any work done on holidays except as provided in the preceding sub-clauses of this clause double time shall be paid.

(g) Time and a half and double time shall mean time and a half or double time respectively in addition to the ordinary weekly rate for the time so worked.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

53. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1946, No. 5111, and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

SUNDAYS.

54. (a) All work except attention to horses and other live stock performed on Sundays shall be paid for at double rates with a minimum payment as for four hours.

(b) Employees called upon to attend to horses and other live stock on Sundays shall be paid at time and a half rates with a minimum payment as for two hours.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

55. (a) Wages shall be paid in cash in the employer's time between the hours of noon and 5 p.m. on the usual pay day of the employer (which shall not be later than Thursday in each week).

(b) When an employee is dismissed or his employment terminated he shall be paid all monies due to him within two hours of ceasing work.

(c) On each pay day each employee shall receive wages in an envelope or accompanied by a docket showing the total amount of ordinary wages and overtime and all deduction therefrom.

(d) An employer shall not keep more than two days' pay in hand.

(e) Wages due to casual employees shall be paid immediately on the termination of work on each day on which he is engaged.

TIME BOOKS.

56. (a) Each employer at each place at which he carries on business under this Determination shall provide a time book or time sheet in which each day's starting and finishing times, and the times allowed for meals, and each day's hours of work of each employee shall be entered (including overtime, if any), and the wages received each week: such entries shall, at least once a week, be vouched for by the signature of the employer or his representative or manager.

(b) The time book or time sheet shall conform to the following specimen.

ATTENDANCE, TIME AND WAGES BOOK.

[illegible]

I, the above named employee, a * member of the Australasian Meat Industry Employees' Union, employed as a non-member hereby certify that this is a true record of the time worked and the amounts paid to me for week ending 19 .

(c) The time book or time sheet shall, on demand, be produced by the employer for inspection at the place where it is kept at any time between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday to Thursday inclusive and between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. on Friday to an official of the Australasian Meat Industry Employees' Union who has been authorized, in writing, to inspect the same by the General Secretary or the Secretary of a State Branch of the said Union; or to an official of the Meat and Allied Trades' Federation of Australia who has been authorized, in writing, to inspect the same by the General Secretary of a State Branch of the said Federation.

(d) An inspection shall not be demanded unless the Secretary of the Union or Federation or the District Secretary or Organizer of any division of the Union or Federation suspects that a breach of this Determination is being or has been committed.

(e) Only one demand for such inspection shall be made in any one fortnight at the same establishment and no inspection shall be demanded on a Saturday.

"Provided that one further demand may be made within a fortnight of a previous demand if the secretary, district secretary or organizer certifies in writing that the reason for such further demand is that he suspects that a breach of this Determination is being or has been committed and that such certificate is produced to and a copy thereof handed to the employer or his responsible officer at the time of demanding said further inspection."

(f) The official making an inspection shall be entitled to take a copy of entries in the time book or time sheet relating to the suspected breach of this Determination.

(g) Time books shall be kept for at least 12 months after they have been completed.

RIGHT OF ENTRY.

57. A duly accredited representative of the Australasian Meat Industry Employees' Union shall have the right to enter employers' premises during the meal hour for the purpose of interviewing employees on legitimate Union business on the following conditions:—

- (a) That he produces his authority to the manager or such other person as may be appointed by the employer;
- (b) That he interviews employees only at the place where they are taking their meal;
- (c) That not more than one representative visit the premises at any one time;
- (d) That not more than one representative visits the same premises more than once in a week; and
- (e) That if any employer alleges that a representative is unduly interfering with his business or is creating disaffection amongst his employees or is offensive in his methods or is committing a breach of any of the previous conditions such employer may refuse the right of entry but the representative shall have the right to bring such refusal to the Wages Board.

CONTRACT OF EMPLOYMENT.

58. (a) Except as hereinafter provided, employment shall be by the week. Any employee not specifically engaged as a casual employee shall be deemed to be employed by the week. Except as may hereinafter be provided an employee, to become entitled to payment on a weekly basis, shall perform such work as the employer shall from time to time require on the days and during the hours usually worked by the class of employee affected.

(b) Employment other than casual shall be terminated only by a week's notice on either side, and such notice may be given at any time during the week. In lieu of such 40 working hours' notice, the employer may pay 40 hours' wages and vice versa, the employee leaving his or her employment without notice shall forfeit 40 hours' wages which may be deducted from any wages (other than wages for pro rata annual leave or annual leave accrued due but not taken) due. This shall not affect the right of an employer to dismiss an employee without notice for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, in which case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only, or to deduct payment for any day on which an employee cannot be usefully employed, because of any strike or through any breakdown of machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

SICK LEAVE.

59. (a) An employee other than a casual employee who is absent from his work on account of personal illness, or on account of injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment shall be entitled to leave of absence without deduction of pay, subject to the following conditions and limitations:—

(i) he shall not be entitled to paid leave of absence for any period in respect of which he is entitled to workers' compensation.

(ia) he shall within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence inform the employer of his inability to attend for duty and as far as practicable state the nature of the injury or illness and the estimated duration of the absence.

(ii) he shall prove to the satisfaction of his employer (or in the event of dispute, of the Wages Board) that he was unable on account of such illness or injury to attend for duty on the day or days for which sick leave is claimed.

(iii) he shall not be entitled in any one year (whether in the employ of one employer or of several) to leave in excess of 40 hours of working time.

For the purpose of administering paragraph (iii) of this sub-clause an employer may within one month of this Determination coming into operation or within two weeks of the employee entering his employment require an employee to make a sworn declaration or other written statement as to what paid leave of absence he has had from any employer during the then current year, and upon such statement the employer shall be entitled to rely and act.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (a) hereof an employee suffering injury through an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment (not being an injury in respect of which he is entitled to workers' compensation) necessitating his attendance during working hours on a doctor, chemist or trained nurse, or at a hospital, shall not suffer any deduction from his pay for the time (not exceeding four hours) so occupied on the day of the accident, and shall be reimbursed by the employer all expenses reasonably incurred in connexion with such attendance, such cost not to exceed 10s. 6d., unless an ambulance is used when the maximum rate shall be the rate charged.

(c) An employer may by agreement with any employee grant such employee a clear week's holiday on full pay in lieu of payment for absence through sickness or, if such additional week's holiday cannot be granted, give one week's pay in lieu thereof.

(d) For the purpose of this clause "year" shall commence on the 1st day of July.

(e) Sick leave if not taken during any year may accumulate so as to provide for sick leave up to 2 weeks after a period of two years and may then be taken at any time during his future employment under the conditions set out in sub-clause (a) (i), (ii) and (iii) above.

MIXED FUNCTIONS.

60. Where an employee performs on any day functions of a mixed character, he shall be paid for that day the wage rate applicable to the function for which the highest rate is payable.

LEAVE TO ATTEND UNION BUSINESS.

61. Leave of absence from work to attend any Union business shall be allowed by the employer to any employee member of the Union named by such Union, provided fair and reasonable notice is given to the employer.

Provided that such leave shall be restricted to one employee at a time in the employment of any one employer and such employee shall not be entitled to payment for the time he is so absent from the employer.

PROTECTIVE CLOTHING, &c.

62. (a) Each employer shall provide protective clothing, including waterproof aprons or boots to employees working under dirty, greasy or wet conditions.

(b) Employees on objectionable work shall be supplied with antiseptic soap.

ACCOMMODATION.

63. Each employer shall supply :—

- (i) Boiling water in sufficient quantities to make an adequate supply of tea for each employee immediately each meal time or rest period commences ;
- (ii) Wash hand basins each with an adequate supply of running water ;
- (iii) In smallgoods factories where females are employed under the terms of the Determination separate lavatory, dining and change rooms shall be provided.
- (iv) Where it is possible for female employees to sit at their work chairs shall be provided by the employer. Such chairs shall be reasonably comfortable and have backs to them.

FIRST AID- OUTFIT.

64. (a) Every shop, slaughterhouse, abattoirs, or factory shall have a first aid chest upon the premises.

(b) Employers shall supply when required reasonable transport to any injured employee without cost to the employee.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

65. (a) Nothing in this Determination shall relieve any employer of his obligation to comply with all relevant requirements of State Acts and Regulations relating to the guarding of machinery and the installation of dust extracting appliances and other Acts relating to industrial hygiene.

(b) In all cases where an employee's clothing, lunch bags or receptacles used for lunches are damaged by fire, or through the use of any corrosive material, compensation shall be granted by the employer.

(c) In cases where an employer requires an employee to wear any special uniform, coat dress or clothing the employer shall provide such uniform, dress, clothing or hats.

NOTICE BOARDS AND POSTING DETERMINATION.

66. (a) The employer shall permit notice boards to be erected in his establishment for the purpose of posting any notices thereon in connexion with the meetings or other business of the Union. Such notice boards shall be in a prominent position. All such notices shall be signed by the Branch or District Secretary or Organizer of the Union.

(b) A copy of this Determination shall be posted within 28 days of the printing thereof and kept continuously posted in a prominent and accessible place to all employees in each department of the shop, slaughterhouse, abattoirs and factory.

DELIVERY OF MEAT.

67. (a) Deliveries of meat to places other than hospitals, cream or milk waggons, boats, trains, country service cars, bulk meat into shops, hotels, cafes and restaurants shall not be made outside the opening and closing hours of retail shops as the case may be.

(b) An apprentice or juvenile worker shall not be employed on the delivery of meat to householders until he has had three years' experience in the trade.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

68. (i) The wages rates set out in clause 2 (A) are based on the following basic wage rates, and pursuant to the provisions of Section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically adjusted as prescribed in clause 69.
