Prices Regulation Act 1948.

PRICES REGULATION ORDER No. 45.

COPPER.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Regulation Act 1948, I, John Francis Waldron, Prices Decontrol Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Regulation Order No. 45.

Part Revocation.

2. Insofar as they relate to sales of copper in Victoria, Prices Regulation Orders Nos. 694, 2187, 2569, and 2971 made under the Commonwealth National Security (Prices) Regulations are hereby revoked.

Definitions.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—
  - “Prevailing Margin” means with regard to copper bars, blocks, ingots and pigs the margin for any particular quality, quantity or shape or in respect of any particular term or condition of sale that existed between the price of £140 per ton and the particular vendor's selling price on 31st December, 1948, of copper bars, blocks, ingots, and pigs of that particular quality, quantity, or shape, or sold under that particular term or condition of sale.
  - “Copper” means fire refined or electrolytic copper, but does not include scrap.

Maximum Prices.

4. I fix and declare the maximum price at which copper may be sold by any person to be £170 per ton, plus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on 31st December, 1948, was greater than £140 per ton, or minus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on the aforesaid date was less than £140 per ton as the case may be.

Fixation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which copper specified in a notice given in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated this 22nd day of April, 1949.

J. F. WALDRON,
Prices Decontrol Commissioner.

Prices Regulation Act 1948.

PRICES REGULATION ORDER No. 46.

ZINC.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Regulation Act 1948, I, John Francis Waldron, Prices Decontrol Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Regulation Order No. 46.

Part Revocation.

2. Insofar as they relate to sales of zinc in Victoria, Prices Regulation Orders Nos. 62 and 96 made under the Commonwealth National Security (Prices) Regulations are hereby revoked.

Definitions.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“Prevailing Margin” means with regard to zinc the margin for any particular quality, quantity, or shape, or in respect of any particular term or condition of sale that existed between the price of £22 per ton and the particular vendor's selling price on 31st December, 1948, of zinc of that particular quality, quantity, or shape, or sold under that particular term or condition of sale.

“Zinc” means virgin zinc metal, but does not include scrap.

Maximum Prices.

4. I fix and declare the maximum price at which zinc may be sold by any person to be £40 per ton, plus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on 31st December, 1948, was greater than £22 per ton or minus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on the aforesaid date was less than £22 per ton as the case may be.

Fixation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which zinc specified in a notice given in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated this 22nd day of April, 1949.

J. F. WALDRON,
Prices Decontrol Commissioner.

Prices Regulation Act 1948.

PRICES REGULATION ORDER No. 47.

LEAD.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by the Prices Regulation Act 1948, I, John Francis Waldron, Prices Decontrol Commissioner, hereby make the following Order:—

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as Prices Regulation Order No. 47.

Part Revocation.

2. Insofar as they relate to sales of lead in Victoria, Prices Regulation Orders Nos. 62 and 96 made under the Commonwealth National Security (Prices) Regulations are hereby revoked.

Definitions.

3. In this Order, unless the contrary intention appears—

“Prevailing Margin” means with regard to pig lead the margin for any particular quality, quantity, or shape, or in respect of any particular term or condition of sale that existed between the price of £22 per ton and the particular vendor's selling price on 31st December, 1948, of pig lead of that particular quality, quantity, or shape, or sold under that particular term or condition of sale.

“Lead” means virgin pig lead but does not include scrap.

Maximum Prices.

4. I fix and declare the maximum price at which pig lead may be sold by any person to be £35 per ton, plus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on 31st December, 1948, was greater than £22 per ton or minus the prevailing margin where that person's selling price on the aforesaid date was less than £22 per ton as the case may be.

Fixation of Maximum Prices by Notice.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, I declare the maximum price at which lead specified in a notice given in pursuance of this paragraph may be sold by any person to whom such notice is given to be such price as is fixed by the Commissioner by notice in writing to that person.

Dated this 22nd day of April, 1949.

J. F. WALDRON,
Prices Decontrol Commissioner.
