FRIDAY, JULY 15.

[1949]

DETERMINATION OF THE SHOPS BOARD No. 23 (ELECTRICAL AND RADIO GOODS).

1. That as from the beginning of the first pay period to commence on or after the 24th June, 1949, the last previous Determination of this Board shall be revoked and replaced by this Determination.

WAGES PER WEEK OF 40 HOURS.

PAYMENT WHERE LESS THAN A FULL WEEK IS WORKED.

3. Any person who is ready, available and willing to complete the number of hours for a week's work for which he or she was engaged, shall, if actually employed in any week for less than 40 hours, be paid for each hour up to 30 hours as follows :—

- (a) in any week in which two or more public holidays occur—at the ordinary rate, with an addition of fifty per centum ;
 (b) in any other week—at the ordinary rate, with an addition of thirty-three and one-third per centum ;
 and thereafter the ordinary wage rate up to but not exceeding the appropriate wage rate prescribed for a week of 40 hours.

4. TIMES OF BEGINNING AND ENDING WORK.

| On the other working days of the week | 7.45 a.m. | 5.30 p.m. |

MEAL INTERVAL.

5. No employer shall require any employee to take a longer interval than one hour for a meal.

OVERTIME.

6. Outside the hours fixed in clause 4 } Time and a half.
 Within the hours fixed in clause 4 in excess of the number of hours as fixed for an ordinary week's work }

SPECIAL RATES.

7. Time and a half shall be paid for all work done on Sunday, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Melbourne Cup Day (Metropolitan District only), King's Birthday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and after 12.30 p.m. on Show Day (in such localities mentioned in the Sixth Schedule to the Public Service Act 1946 as are within the area to which this Determination applies). If any other day be by Act of Parliament or proclamation substituted for any of the abovenamed holidays, the special rate shall be payable only for work done on the day so substituted.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

8. Except in a case where an employer or an employee has been guilty of a misdemeanour, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either party or one week's wages paid or forfeited as the case may be, in lieu thereof.

ALLOWANCE.

9. When, in conformity with the custom of the trade, an employee wears, when at work, a washable outer garment the laundering of which is not paid for by the employer, such employee shall be paid 2s. 6d. per week in addition to the ordinary rate.

TEA MONEY.

10. Any employee whose weekly rate is not more than 142s. 6d. who is required to work overtime in excess of two hours on any one day, shall receive an allowance of 2s. 6d. as tea money in addition to the rates provided in clause 6.

NOTICE TO WORK OVERTIME.

11. At least 24 hours' notice shall be given when overtime is required to be worked.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO RATION.

12. Where an employer, owing to slackness of trade, desires to ration his employees, he shall give at least 24 hours' notice to each employee of his intention to ration such employee.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

13. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1946, No. 5111, and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

(NOTE:—In his or her own interests each employer of labour should obtain a copy of the above Act which may be purchased from the Government Printer, Melbourne, at a cost of 9d., plus postage.)

SICK LEAVE.

14. (a) Any employee who, having had at least three months' service with the same employer, is absent from duty as a result of personal ill health or accident shall be entitled to sick pay as follows :—

- (i) during the first year, 3½ hours' ordinary pay for each complete month of service ;
 (ii) during any subsequent year of service—40 hours' ordinary pay. Provided that in either case such employee produces or forwards within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill health or accident necessitating such absence.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed above is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year up to a period not exceeding the equivalent of 120 hours' ordinary pay, which shall be the maximum amount of leave to which an employee may be entitled in any year of service without deduction of pay.

TIME AND WAGES RECORDS.

15. An employer shall keep time and wages records showing the name of each employee, the hours worked each week by, and the wages and overtime paid to each employee.

PAYMENT OF WAGES, ETC.

16. Payment of all wages, overtime, special rates, and allowances due, shall be made during working hours not later than Thursday each week.

REFERENCE.

17. An employee, on severing his or her connexion with an employer, shall be entitled to and shall receive from such employer a reference in writing, stating his or her period of service and qualifications. This provision shall only apply in the case of an employee who has been employed continuously for three months or more.

TRANSPORT ALLOWANCE.

18. (a) When an employee, by arrangement with his employer, uses his own car in the service of the employer he shall be paid an allowance of not less than 4d. per mile ; provided that the total allowance payable shall not be less than 40s. per week and shall not exceed 20s. for any one day or £3 for any one week.

(b) When an employee, by arrangement with his employer, uses his own motor cycle or motor cycle and side-car in the service of the employer he shall be paid an allowance of not less than 2d. per mile ; provided that the total allowance payable shall not be less than 15s. per week and shall not exceed 7s. 6d. for any one day or 30s. for any one week.

(c) Where a bicycle is provided by an employee and is required to be used in connexion with his employer's business, an allowance of 3s. 6d. per week in addition to the ordinary wage shall be paid to such employee.

POSTING OF DETERMINATION.

19. A copy of this Determination shall be kept posted at or near the entrance to any shop or place to which it applies.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

20. The wages rate for employees receiving in excess of the basic wage set out in clause 2 is based upon the following basic wage rates, and, pursuant to the provisions of Section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically adjusted by the same amount and at the same time as such basic wage as prescribed by clause 21. The wages of other employees shall be adjusted proportionately to adjustments of the basic wage, such adjustments to be to the nearest 6d., half or less than half of 6d. to be disregarded.

(R) CONDUCTOR-LEADERS.

A conductor-leader shall be paid the appropriate rate for a member of the orchestra with an addition of 35 per cent. of such rate.

(S) LEADERS.

Where there is a conductor in an orchestra (not being an orchestra to which sub-clause (A) of this Determination applies) the leader in such orchestra shall be paid the appropriate rate for a member of the orchestra with the addition of 20 per cent. of such rate.

(T) HIGHER DUTIES.

If a musician engaged to do certain work is required to do in lieu thereof other work for which a higher rate is prescribed, he shall be paid for such other work at the higher rate with a minimum as for one performance or as for three hours on each occasion on which he is so required.

(For the purpose of this sub-clause, conducting or leading in the playing of the National Anthem, and playing out the audience, shall not be regarded as higher duties.)

(U) LOWER RATES MAY BE AGREED TO.

Where the Federal Council or Federal Executive of the Musicians Union of Australia agrees with any employer that for special reasons rates and/or conditions different from those prescribed herein should be accepted by an employee, lower rates or altered conditions may be agreed upon between the said Union and Employer.

A written copy of any such agreement, signed by the Secretary of the Union and the Employer concerned, shall be lodged with the Wages Board Branch.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

3. (a) In theatres and similar places all moneys payable under this Determination to a weekly employee shall be paid not later than the first interval on a Friday in each week.

(b) In all other cases, all monies payable under this Determination to weekly employees shall be paid on Friday each week.

(c) If a weekly employee's engagement be terminated, all moneys due to him under this Determination shall be paid within 48 hours of the termination of such engagement.

(d) All moneys due under this Determination to a casual employee shall be paid on the completion of the work on which he is engaged, and not less frequently than once a week.

NO DEDUCTION FOR MEALS SUPPLIED.

4. No deduction from any of the payments herein prescribed shall be made for meals supplied by an employer to an employee.

ARRANGING BAND PARTS, ETC.

5. The payments prescribed by this Determination do not include any sums to be paid to a conductor leader, leader, or any other employee for arranging band parts, or doing any orchestration.

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT.

6. (a) Where an employee is not expressly engaged as a weekly employee, he shall be deemed to be engaged as a casual employee.

(b) A casual employee may at any time enter into an agreement with his employer to become a weekly employee, but such agreement shall not affect any casual rates payable by the employer to the employee before such agreement is entered into unless it is entered into within three days of the beginning of his employment as a casual employee, in which case he shall be deemed to have been a weekly employee from the beginning.

(c) Where an employee is required by an employer to go on tour he shall be deemed to be in the employment of the employer for at least from the time at which he begins to travel on the tour and to remain in such employment at least until he finishes travelling on his return from the tour, unless in the meantime the employment has been determined legally for neglect of duty, or misconduct.

(d) The weekly wage prescribed by this Determination shall be paid to each weekly employee who is ready and willing to perform the work provided for by the Determination during any week whether he is required to perform such work or not, and this provision is to apply to all engagements whether for open-air performances or otherwise.

(e) A weekly employee shall be engaged and paid as for at least one week.

(f) The employment of a weekly employee is to be terminated on either side only by a week's notice, either given in writing or plainly posted up on the call board or other place seen by the employees in the ordinary course of their employment, which notice may be given at any time during the week at or before the beginning of work on a day, to expire at the end of the sixth calendar day succeeding such day, or if the sixth day be a Sunday, of the fifth day, and the employee shall only be entitled to payment pro rata for the time up to the expiration of the notice.

(g) Where an employee is engaged as a weekly employee for any fixed number of performances per week, the engagement shall not be altered to a weekly engagement for which a less sum is prescribed, except on a week's notice to the employee.

(h) Where the period of employment of a weekly employee includes in addition to one or more complete weeks, a part of a week, the weekly employee shall be paid for each whole or fraction of a calendar day included in the part of a week one-sixth of his prescribed weekly wage.

(i) Nothing in this Determination shall affect any legal right to dismiss without notice an employee whether on tour or not for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, and in the case of such dismissal wages and other moneys or allowances due under this Determination shall be payable for the employment up to but not after the time of dismissal.

(j) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Determination, an employer may in the case of any weekly employee deduct payment of wages on any day on which an employee cannot be usefully employed because of—

(i) Any strike; or

(ii) Any breakdown of machinery; or

(iii) Any stoppage of work unavoidable by the employer.

(k) At least 48 hours' notice shall be given of cancellation of casual engagement failing which full payment shall be made.

DURATION OF PERFORMANCES.

7. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Determination, the duration of performances (with intervals included), so far as covered by the rates of pay prescribed in clause 2, shall not exceed the following times respectively:—

(i) Picture shows—three hours fifteen minutes.

(ii) In general theatrical entertainments and all other types of entertainment not specifically covered by smaller number of hours—three hours.

Provided that if during a performance in picture shows the employees are not required to perform for more than two hours in the aggregate, they may be required to work over a spread of three and one-quarter hours.

(b) Where a performance extends in duration to two hours without finishing, an interval of at least ten minutes shall be then allowed, unless it has been previously allowed during the performance, and in either case such interval shall be regarded as time worked.

(c) A performance shall be deemed to have started at the time notified by the employer to the employees as the starting time, or if no such time be notified to have started at the time advertised for starting the performance, but in either case if all the members of the orchestra are not present and ready to start at such time, the performance shall be deemed to start only when the orchestra actually starts playing.

(d) The provisions of this clause apply to all employees whether casual or not unless the contrary intention appears.

DURATION OF REHEARSALS.

8. (a) The duration of rehearsals shall not exceed two hours where the engagement is for a rehearsal not to exceed two hours nor more than three hours in other cases.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein the said hours shall be consecutive.

(c) If a rehearsal having been begun before 1 p.m. will not be completed by that time, and a majority of musicians engaged therein have previously asked or do then ask that it be adjourned for some specified time not exceeding one hour for luncheon, it shall be adjourned for not less than the specified time and not longer than one hour, but the time of such adjournment shall not for any purpose be counted as time worked by the musicians, and the work done after the adjournment shall for the purpose of payment be treated as if done continuously with that done before the adjournment.

(d) If the actors engaged in a rehearsal with musicians refuse to proceed therewith without an adjournment for luncheon and such adjournment be granted, the time of such adjournment not exceeding one hour to be between noon and 2 p.m., shall not for any purpose be counted as time worked by the musicians, and the work done after the adjournment shall be treated for the purpose of payment as if done continuously with that done before the adjournment.

(e) A rehearsal shall be deemed to have started at the time notified by the employer as the starting time, but if all the members of the orchestra are not present and ready to start at such time, the rehearsal shall be deemed to start only when the orchestra actually starts playing.

(f) The ordinary range of hours within which rehearsals are to be held shall be as follows:—

(i) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. if held with actors.

(ii) From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. if held for a continuous picture show or a picture show giving two performances a day.

(iii) From 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. if the engagement be for a rehearsal commencing at or after 3 p.m.

(iv) From 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. except as otherwise provided herein.

(g) Rehearsals beginning at 9 a.m. for continuous picture shows or picture shows giving two performances a day shall be held in the place where the musician is usually employed or in a place within half a mile thereof, and in the latter case the cost of transferring the double bass or drums shall be borne by the employer.

(h) Where a rehearsal extends in duration to two and a quarter hours without finishing, an interval of at least fifteen minutes shall be then allowed unless it has been previously allowed during the rehearsal not sooner than one hour after starting time, and in either case such interval shall be regarded as time worked.

(i) The provisions of this clause apply to all employees whether casual or not unless the contrary intention appears.

ABSENCE FROM DUTY.

9. (a) Any weekly employee absent from duty shall lose pay proportionate to the time of such absence unless he produces or forwards to his employer within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that the absence was reasonable because of either—

(i) any illness of himself due neither to his own fault nor to accident arising otherwise than out of and in the course of his employment;

(ii) any bodily injury to himself caused by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment.

(b) The deduction of pay for absence from a night performance or from a performance, period of work, or rehearsal made part of the week's work for which a rate for the week is prescribed shall be proportionate to that rate and the deduction for absence from a performance or a rehearsal not part of a week's work, shall be proportionate to the rate prescribed for that performance or rehearsal.

(c) This clause shall not affect any right of the employer to determine the employment in accordance with clause 6 of this Determination.

OVERTIME PAY AND ALLOWANCES.

10. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Determination, any time worked over or outside the prescribed time limit or range of any performance, period of work, rehearsal, or other work or after a break in working time prescribed to be worked consecutively or continuously shall be paid for at the rate of 1s. 11½d. for each fifteen minutes or portion thereof up to midnight and of 3s. 5½d. for each fifteen minutes or portion thereof after midnight.

Provided that in the case of rehearsals commencing before 3 p.m. not to exceed two hours, the payment for any time up to one hour worked over the said two hours shall be paid at the rate of 1s. 8½d. instead of the rate of 1s. 11½d.

(b) Where the time limit of any performance, period of work, or rehearsal is exceeded by less than five minutes, such excess shall not be counted as overtime worked, but if it is exceeded by five minutes or more sub-clause (a) shall apply in respect of the whole of such excess.

(c) No overtime shall be payable in respect of the first performance of a production which is within sub-clause (B) of clause 2, and which continues to be produced at the same theatre for at least six nights, but an alteration in items of a production shall not be regarded as the first performance of such alteration a first night within this sub-clause.

(d) All time to be paid for under this clause or as overtime under any other part of this Determination shall be computed weekly in the aggregate.

(e) The provisions of this clause apply to all employees whether casual or not unless the contrary intention appears.

SUNDAYS AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

11. (a) For any work done on a Sunday payment shall be made at least as follows:—

(i) To weekly employees in addition to their prescribed pay for the rest of the week—

(a) For performing otherwise than at a rehearsal, 16s. per hour, with a minimum payment as for two and three quarter hours in picture theatres and three hours elsewhere.

Provided that this provision for a minimum payment does not apply to work continued from Saturday over midnight into Sunday and that work continued from Sunday over midnight into Monday shall for the purpose of this sub-clause be deemed all to be done on the Sunday.

(b) For each rehearsal, double the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.

(ii) To casual employees double the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.

- (b) (i) All work done by weekly employees on Christmas Day, Good Friday, and Labour Day shall be paid for at double rates.
- (ii) To casual employees—double the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days shall be paid.
- (c) For any work done on other holidays, payment shall be made at least as follows:—
- (i) To weekly employees—in addition to their appropriate rates prescribed elsewhere herein, if the work be included in the week's work or be covered by the prescribed weekly rate, one-twelfth of the appropriate weekly rate prescribed in clause 2 of this Determination; and if the work be any performance not so included, time and one-half of the ordinary rate prescribed in clause 2 of this Determination for a performance not so included.
- (ii) To casual employees—one and one-half times the appropriate rate prescribed for work on ordinary days.
- (d) The other holidays above referred to are the days observed in the State where the employment occurs on New Year's Day, Australia Day, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Boxing Day, and all other days regarded and observed as holidays throughout the States of the Commonwealth.
- (e) Where any of the days specified as holidays in sub-clauses (b) and (c) hereof falls on a Sunday, and in consequence a holiday is generally observed on an ordinary week day which would not otherwise be kept as a holiday, work done on such ordinary week day shall be deemed to be done on one of the days to which the sub-clause (c) hereof applies, and shall be paid for accordingly.
- (f) In the case of weekly employees, if by reason of any of the aforesaid holidays being a holiday, no work is done thereon, the prescribed weekly wage shall nevertheless be paid, and such holiday shall be treated for the purpose of sub-clause (A) of clause 2 as if one of the seven performances provided for in that sub-clause has occurred thereon, and for the purpose of the rest of the clause, where six or twelve performances are provided for, shall be treated as if one-sixth of the number of the performances so provided for had occurred thereon, and where no number of performances is provided for, shall be treated as if one-sixth of the ordinary amount of work provided for as covered by the weekly wage had been done thereon.
- (g) If an employee is required by his employer to travel on a Sunday he shall, unless he is paid in pursuance of this clause for working on the said Sunday, be paid 10s. therefor.

TRAVELLING.

12. (a) For all work by an employee to be done outside a 30-mile radius of the city or town where the engagement with him is made, he shall be provided with first class return air, boat, or train accommodation.
- (b) Employees when travelling by train at night shall be provided with sleeping accommodation, or if such sleeping accommodation is not provided, shall be paid the sum which is usually charged to the employer by the Railway Department for such sleeping accommodation.
- (c) If an employee is required to travel intrastate or interstate on his employer's business and is unable to return to his home each night he shall, in addition to the rates of pay prescribed by this Determination be paid a living allowance of £5 5s. per week or, if the period is less than one week, at the rate of £1 1s. per day of twenty-four hours. Provided that where meals are supplied when travelling by boat, train or air, the rate shall be £2 12s. 6d. per week and 10s. 6d. per day of 24 hours.
- (d) Where an employee not engaged with a view to his working on tour has been continuously employed by an employer in any one city or town for at least twelve continuous months, this clause 12 shall not apply to him in respect of his return to the place of engagement.
- (e) The employer shall transport or pay the reasonable costs of transporting the double bass or drums or other bulky instruments when they are to be used for the purpose of the employment.
- (f) Where a suggestion is made by or for an employer or proposed employer to a person that the latter will be employed by the former in a certain place if he presents himself there, and such person does so present himself and is employed there, such employee shall receive from the employer all provisions, allowances and payments which would be due under this clause 12 to an employee who is situated in the place where such person is when the suggestion is made and who is definitely engaged by the employer to go from that place and work in the place where such person so presents himself and is employed.
- (g) Where a casual employee is engaged and the ordinary fare for return transit from the post office of the city or town where he is engaged to the place of employment is more than 6d. the employer shall pay the reasonable cost of such return transit.

SUPPLY OF UNIFORMS.

13. Where an employee is required to wear special uniform other than evening dress, such uniform shall be supplied by the employer and must be clean and in good order, and the cost of renovation and similar cost must be paid by the employer.

BAND ROOM ACCOMMODATION, ETC.

14. (a) Where practicable, a band room with adequate seating accommodation, air conditioned where an air-conditioning plant is provided for the theatre, together with suitable locker and lavatory accommodation shall be provided by the employer where musicians are regularly employed. Provided that any dispute in relation to this clause shall be referred to the Wages Board.
- (b) There shall be a proper entrance and exit to the orchestra pit or well.

TIME-BOOKS TO BE KEPT, ETC.

15. (a) The employer shall keep a time-book or time-sheet, properly posted in ink, showing the names of and times worked by, each employee, and the wages paid to each employee from week to week.
- (b) The time-book or time-sheet, with all the entries therein shall, on demand be produced by the employer for inspection at the place where it is kept, at any time between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. during any day except pay day, to an official of the Musicians Union of Australia, who has been authorized in writing to inspect the same by the general secretary or secretary of the State branch of the said Union.
- (c) One clear day's notice shall be given to the employer of any intended inspection.
- (d) No authority to inspect shall be given by the said Union unless the general secretary or State branch secretary has good reason to suspect that a breach of the Determination has been committed by the employer, whose time-book or time-sheet is to be inspected.
- (e) For the purpose of interviewing employees on legitimate Union business, not more than two duly accredited representatives shall at the one time have the right to enter the employer's premises, wherein members of such Union or persons in the same calling as such members are engaged, during any non-playing period.

SUB-CONTRACT, ETC.

16. If work of any of the kinds covered by this Determination is done by an employee or arranged to be so done in the interest in any way of an employer, this Determination shall apply to such work, employee or employer, notwithstanding that the employer causes or permits such work to be done for, or through or by means of a contractor or other person, and the employer and employee shall have the same rights and obligations to each other as if they were in respect of such work directly employer and employee.

MIDNIGHT PERFORMANCES.

17. Double time shall be paid for any performance commencing at 11 p.m. or afterwards, except as otherwise provided.

REFRESHMENTS.

18. (a) Where any engagement extends to four hours or more and meals are served to the patrons on the premises or at the place where the engagement is being carried out, meals of the type served to such patrons shall be provided for the musicians free of charge or, in lieu thereof, the musician shall be entitled to the sum of 4s. for each such performance in addition to his ordinary rate of pay.

(b) Where a casual employee is employed for a performance exceeding four hours, such employee shall, unless meals are provided be paid not less than 4s. for refreshment expenses in addition to the payments prescribed by this Determination.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

19. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1946, No. 5111, and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

TRANSPORTATION.

20. If an employee is detained at the place of employment by the employer or his representative after 11.30 p.m. and if so detained until too late to travel by the last train, tram, or vehicle to his or her home, the employer shall provide proper conveyance for the employee so detained, if a female to her home, or if a male to his home if such home is more than a mile distant from the place of employment.

SUPPLY AND UPKEEP OF HARP.

21. Where a second harp is required, the harp shall be supplied by the employer. Where the harp is supplied by the employee he shall be paid an allowance of £1 per week for upkeep of such harp. For casual engagements, where the employee supplies the harp, there shall be a proportionate payment for the upkeep of such harp.

*4. The rate of time and a half shall be paid for all time worked by persons employed in—

(a) Shops and departments of shops where paints, colour, or wall-paper is sold—

(i) Within the times fixed for beginning and ending work—

In excess of 3 hours 55 minutes on the usual half-holiday.

In excess of 8 hours 10 minutes on all other working days of the week.

Or in excess of 40 hours in any week.

(ii) Outside the times of beginning and ending work.

(b) Other shops and departments of shops—

(i) Within the times fixed for beginning and ending work in excess of 40 hours.

(ii) Outside the times of beginning and ending work.

* NOTE.—Section 117 (2) Act 3677 provides that:—Any person may, if notices in writing has previously been sent to the chief inspector, be employed in any shop or at any work in connexion with a shop for any time not exceeding three hours in any one day beyond the ordinary working hours, provided that the total number of days in any one year on which in any shop or at any work in connexion with a shop any such person is so employed shall not exceed twenty-five.

Section 105, however, makes it an offence for any employer to detain an employee later than half an hour on a half holiday.

DAY'S WORK TO BE CONTINUOUS.

5. No employee, except in a case where he has been guilty of misconduct, having commenced work, shall be required to take any time off (exclusive of intervals for meals) until he has completed the full number of hours for that day's work.

TIME RATE.

6. Any person employed on time wages for less than the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work shall be paid, for time worked up to one-half the number of hours fixed for such ordinary week's work, as follows:—

- (a) In any week in which two or more Public Holidays occur At the ordinary wages rate with an addition of fifty per centum.
- (b) In any other week At the ordinary wages rate with an addition of thirty-three and one-third per centum.

and for time worked beyond the one-half aforesaid, shall be paid the ordinary wages rate up to but not exceeding ordinary wages rates for an ordinary week's work, together with any overtime rate which is applicable.

SICK LEAVE.

7 (a) Any employee who, having had at least three months' service with the same employer, is absent from duty as a result of personal ill health or accident shall be entitled to sick pay as follows:—

(i) during the first year—3½ hours' ordinary pay for each complete month of service;

(ii) during any subsequent year of service—40 hours' ordinary pay. Provided that in either case such employee produces or forwards within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill health or accident necessitating such absence.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed above is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year up to a period not exceeding the equivalent of 120 hours' ordinary pay, which shall be the maximum amount of leave to which an employee may be entitled in any year of service without deduction of pay.

MEAL ALLOWANCE.

8. For each day upon which more than one hour's overtime is worked, each person who works such overtime shall be paid 2s. 6d. meal money in addition to the prescribed overtime rate.

MEAL INTERVALS.

9. All employees shall be allowed the following meal intervals with permission to leave the shop for the whole of such intervals, viz.:—From Monday to Friday, one hour for lunch between noon and 3 p.m.

REST PERIOD.

† 10. All employees shall be allowed two rest intervals on each day (Monday to Friday inclusive) as follows:—(a) The first of ten minutes to be allowed between the time of commencing work and the usual meal interval; (b) the second of ten minutes to be allowed between the usual meal interval and the time of ceasing work for the day. Such intervals are to be counted as part of time worked.

† NOTE.—Section 117 (3) of the Factories and Shops Act 1928 (No. 3677) provides that no person shall be employed in any shop more than five hours without an interval for a meal.

CLOTHING ALLOWANCE.

11. Where any employee is required by his employer to wear any special uniform, dress or clothing, of some colour other than black or black and white it shall be supplied, paid for, and, if necessary, laundered by the employer. Provided that, subject to the approval in writing of an official representative of the Shop Assistants and Warehouse Employees' Federation of Australia, an employer may substitute some other colour for black, or black and white, for any employee or section of employees, and under such circumstances the employer shall not be required to supply, launder or pay for such special uniform, dress or clothing.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO RATION.

12. Where an employer owing to slackness of trade desires to ration his employees, he shall give at least two clear working days' notice to each employee of his intention to ration such employee.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY, 5

13. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1946 (No. 511), and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

(In his or her own interests each employer of labour should obtain a copy of the above Act which may be purchased from the Government Printer, Melbourne, at a cost of 9d., plus postage.)

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

14. Except in a case where an employee or an employer has been guilty of misconduct, or where an employee has been engaged temporarily for a period not exceeding six weeks in duration, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either party or one week's wages paid or forfeited, as the case may be, in lieu thereof.

SPECIAL RATES FOR SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.

15. The special rates for all work done on Sundays or the undermentioned Public Holidays shall be—

[illegible]

If, by Act of Parliament or Proclamation, any other day be substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall be payable only for work done on the day so substituted.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

16. Payment of all moneys due shall be made not later than Thursday of each week, and during working hours;

REFERENCE.

17. An employee, on severing his or her connexion with an employer, shall be entitled to and shall receive from such employer a reference in writing, stating his or her period of service and duties performed. This provision shall apply only in the case of an employee who has been employed continuously for three months or more.

DETERMINATION TO BE AVAILABLE.

18. A copy of this Determination shall be kept in a conspicuous place on each floor of a building in which work covered by this Determination is done. Such Determination shall readily be available for inspection at any time. Nothing in this clause shall however, operate where a copy of the Determination is kept posted on the notice board in a staff room in the establishment.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

19. The wages rates set out in clause 2 are based upon the following basic wage rates, and, pursuant to the provisions of Section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically adjusted by the same amount and at the same time as such basic wage as prescribed by clause 20. Provided that the wages of apprentices, improvers, and females shall be adjusted proportionately to adjustments of the basic wage, such adjustments to be to the nearest 6d., half or less than half of 6d. to be disregarded, provided that no amount shall be increased by a greater amount than that of the basic wage increase.

NOTICE TO WORK OVERTIME.

3. No employee shall be obliged to work overtime unless he has received at least 24 hours' notice of same.

OVERTIME.

4. (a) Any person who works for any time in excess of 40 hours in any week shall be paid for such extra time at the rate of time and a half.

(b) When an employee is required to work more than one hour's overtime after the usual time of ceasing work for the day, he shall be paid 2s. 6d. meal money in addition to the prescribed overtime rate; but such payment need not be made to an employee living within one mile of his place of employment who can reasonably return home for a meal.

SPECIAL RATES.

5. Double time shall be the special rate payable for all work done on Sundays, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and within the Metropolitan District as defined in the Factories and Shops Acts, after 1 p.m. on Melbourne Cup and Melbourne Show Days.

If any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-mentioned holidays, the special rate shall be payable only for work done on the day so substituted.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

6. Seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either employer or employee.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

7. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1946, No. 5111, and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

SICK PAY.

8. (a) Any employee who, having had at least three months' service with the same employer, is absent from duty as a result of personal ill health or accident shall be entitled to sick pay as follows:—

(i) during the first year—3½ hours' ordinary pay for each complete month of service;

(ii) during any subsequent year of service—40 hours' ordinary pay. Provided that in either case such employee produces or forwards within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill health or accident necessitating such absence.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed above is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year up to a period not exceeding the equivalent of 120 hours' ordinary pay, which shall be the maximum amount of leave to which an employee may be entitled in any year of service without deduction of pay.

MEAL INTERVAL.

9. A meal interval not exceeding one hour shall be allowed between the hours of noon and 2 p.m. (Monday to Friday inclusive).

REST PERIOD.

10. A rest period of 10 minutes each morning and afternoon (Monday to Friday inclusive) shall be granted to each employee, such time to be counted as time worked.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

11. The wages set out in clause 2 are based upon the following basic wage rates, and, pursuant to the provision of Section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically adjusted by the same amount and at the same time as such basic wage as prescribed by clause 12.

Provided that the wages of employees receiving less than the amount of the total basic wage, shall be adjusted proportionately to adjustments of the basic wage, such adjustments to be to the nearest 6d., half or less than half of 6d. to be disregarded.

ADJUSTMENT OF BASIC WAGE.

12. (a) For the purposes of this Determination, the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's 'all items' retail price index numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such index numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician.

(b) Until the beginning of the first pay period to commence in August, 1949, the amounts of the basic wage shall be as prescribed in clause 11.

(c) During each future successive period beginning with the first pay period to commence in an August, a November, a February, or a May, the amount of the needs basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method, namely, by multiplying the last published Commonwealth Statistician's "all items" retail price index number by the factor .087 taken to one place of decimals, the resultant whole number being the amount of the basic wage expressed in shillings, but should the decimal number reach .5 or more the basic wage shall be taken to the next higher shilling.

OVERTIME.

3. (a) All time worked in excess of 40 hours in any week shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first three hour and double time thereafter.

(b) All time worked after noon on Saturday shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

TIME WAGES.

4. Any person employed on time wages for less than the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work shall for each hour worked up to 20 hours be paid—

(a) in any week in which two or more public holidays occur .. At the ordinary wages rate, with an addition of fifty per centum.

(b) in any other week At the ordinary wages rate, with an addition of thirty-three and one-third per centum, and for each hour worked beyond the 20 hours aforesaid shall be paid at the ordinary wages rate up to but not exceeding ordinary wages rates for an ordinary week's work.

Provided that no such person shall be paid for less than two hours on any one Saturday and not less than three hours on any one day other than a Saturday.

SPECIAL RATES.

5. Double time shall be the rate for all work done on Sunday and time and a half shall be the rate for all work done on New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday (except in the area enclosed by and including Flinders-street, Spencer-street, Lonsdale-street, and Spring-street, in the City of Melbourne, where the rate of treble time shall be paid), Easter Monday, Labour Day, King's Birthday, Melbourne Cup Day (Metropolitan District only), Christmas Day, Boxing Day and after 1 p.m. on Show Day (in such localities mentioned in the Sixth Schedule to the Public Service Act 1946, as are within the area to which this Determination applies); but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall only be payable for work done on the day so substituted.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO WORK OVERTIME.

6. At least four hours' notice of intention to work overtime shall be given to an employee before such employee is required to work beyond the usual time of ceasing duty.

MEAL ALLOWANCE.

7. An employee required to work any overtime in excess of one hour beyond the usual time of ceasing duty shall be paid a meal allowance of 2s. 6d. Such allowance shall be paid on the day upon which the overtime is worked and shall be in addition to any payment due for such overtime.

GARMENT ALLOWANCE.

8. Any employee who is required to wear, when at work, a washable outer-garment, dust-coat, or overall, shall be paid 2s. per week in addition to the ordinary wage, unless the garment is both provided and laundered by the employer.

BICYCLE ALLOWANCE.

9. Where a bicycle is provided by an employee and is required to be used in connexion with his employer's business, an allowance of 3s. per week in addition to the ordinary wage shall be paid to such employee.

PAYMENT OF FARES.

10. Where an employee is required by his or her employer to move temporarily from one branch or shop to another all additional fares so incurred shall be paid by the employer.

REFERENCE.

11. An employee, on severing his or her connexion with an employer, shall be entitled to and shall receive from such employer a reference in writing, stating his or her period of service and qualifications.

MEAL BREAK.

12. A meal break of not less than 60 minutes shall be allowed daily (Monday to Friday) to each employee between the hours of 11.45 a.m. and 2.15 p.m., provided that by mutual agreement between an employer and his employee such meal break may be reduced to not less than a break of 30 minutes.

SICK LEAVE.

13. (a) Any employee who, having had at least three months' service with the same employer, is absent from duty as a result of personal ill health or accident shall be entitled to sick pay as follows:—

- (i) during the first year—3½ hours' ordinary pay for each complete month of service;
- (ii) during any subsequent year of service—40 hours' ordinary pay.

Provided that in either case such employee produces or forwards within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill health or accident necessitating such absence.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed above is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year up to a period not exceeding the equivalent of 120 hours' ordinary pay, which shall be the maximum amount of leave to which an employee may be entitled in any year of service without deduction of pay.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

14. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Factories and Shops (Annual Holidays) Act 1948, No. 5111, and any amendments which may be made thereto from time to time.

(In his or her own interests each employer of labour should obtain a copy of the above Act which may be purchased from the Government Printer, Melbourne, at a cost of 9d., plus postage.)

REST PERIOD.

15. All employees shall be allowed two rest intervals on each day as follows:—(a) The first of ten minutes to be allowed between the time of commencing work and the usual meal interval; (b) the second of ten minutes to be allowed between the usual meal interval and the time of ceasing work for the day. Such intervals are to be counted as part of time worked.

TIME AND WAGES RECORDS.

16. An employer shall keep time and wages records showing the name of each employee, the hours worked each week by and the wages and overtime paid to each employee.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

17. Except where the conduct of an employee justifies instant dismissal, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either employer or employee, or one week's wages shall be paid or forfeited, as the case may be, in lieu thereof. This provision shall only apply in the case of the employee who has been employed continuously for three months or more.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

18. Wages shall be paid not later than Thursday in each week and must be paid during working hours.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

19. The wages rates set out in clause 2 are based upon the following basic wage rates, and, pursuant to the provisions of Section 21 of the Factories and Shops Act 1934, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically adjusted by the same amount and at the same time as such Basic Wage as prescribed by clause 20. Provided that the wages of apprentices, improvers, and females shall be adjusted proportionately to adjustments of the basic wage, such adjustments to be to the nearest 6d., half or less than half of 6d. to be disregarded.
