1. The Regulations made by the Commissioners on the 21st October, 1942, approved by the Governor in Council on 2nd November, 1942, and published in the Government Gazette on the 27th November, 1942, and any amendment thereto, are hereinafter referred to as "the Principal Regulations."

2. Regulations Nos. 150 and 151 of the Principal Regulations are hereby repealed, and the following Regulations inserted in lieu thereof:—

"150. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, all goods (other than ales, wines, spirits, or other fermented or spirituous liquors) landed and placed upon a wharf or any area which by resolution of the Commissioners is annexed to a wharf or in a shed shall be removed therefrom—

(a) if the goods be cement, carbon black, plaster, or whiting—within eight hours from the time of landing: Provided that any such cement, carbon black, plaster, or whiting landed between 5 p.m. and 8 a.m. of the following day shall be deemed to have been landed at 8 a.m. on such following day;

(b) in the case of any other goods—

(i) if notice requiring removal be delivered by the Harbor Master to the owner, consignee, or person claiming a right to the goods—within three days of the delivery of such notice,

(ii) in any other case—within three days after the vessel from which they have been landed has ceased discharging cargo at the berth where such goods were landed:

Provided always that if, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the exigencies of trade permit, such goods may be allowed to remain for such further time as they may specify, but in no case for more than six days after the vessel has ceased discharging cargo as aforesaid. Unless such goods be removed within the time mentioned, they may be removed by the Commissioners and stored in any bonded or other warehouse on behalf of and at the risk and expense of the owners thereof: Provided that no goods liable to duty shall be removed, unless with the consent of the Collector of Customs, who shall nominate the warehouse to which such goods shall be removed."

"151. Should any goods be not removed within three days after the vessel from which they have been landed has ceased discharging cargo at the berth where such goods were landed, there shall be payable by the owner as and by way of storage fees in respect thereof the sum of 1s. per ton of such goods for the first three days, and for every subsequent three days the sum of 6d. per ton, additional to the amounts per ton payable for each immediately preceding three days—that is to say, 1s. 6d. per ton for the second three days, 2s. per ton for the third three days, and so on. For the purpose of this Regulation, a fraction of a ton shall be deemed a ton. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the Harbor Master, without notice, removing or ordering the removal to some warehouse of any such goods at any time after the expiry of the time limited for their removal, and the owner of the goods shall pay all charges and expenses connected with such removal, including the warehouse rent and charges, in addition to the said storage fees. If, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the non-removal of goods within the time limited has been due to some cause beyond the control of the owner of the goods, then the Commissioners may, if they think fit, on the application of the owner, grant a refund of such part of the said storage fees paid under this Regulation as exceeds the rate of 1s. per ton per week. The Commissioners may require a statutory declaration verifying the facts of the case by such person or persons as they shall think proper."

(iii) Where an employee without reasonable excuse proof whereof shall lie upon him is absent from his employment on the working day or part of the working day prior to the commencement of his annual leave or fails to resume work at his ordinary starting time on the working day immediately following the last day of the period of his annual leave the employee shall not be entitled to payment for the public holidays which fall within his period of annual leave.

(g) (i) An employer may grant annual leave to an employee before the right thereto has accrued due but where leave is taken in such a case a further period of annual leave shall not commence to accrue until the expiration of the twelve months in respect of which annual leave had been taken before it accrued.

Provided that in cases where such leave is granted at the request of the employee, the employer may when making payment under sub-clause (f) hereof, withhold from the employee a sum equal to one-twelfth for each complete month of the qualifying period not served by the employee at the time of going on such leave and retain such sum until the expiration of such qualifying period.

Proportionate Payment.

(h) Proportionate payment shall be made in respect of each completed month of continuous service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period when an employee lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by his employer through no fault of the employee.

Calculation of Continuous Service.

(c) (1) where an employee is absent from work for any cause whatsoever the employer shall if so requested by the employee notify the employee within fourteen days of the receipt of such request whether the employer regards such absence as breaking either conditionally or unconditionally the continuity of service of such employee. If the employee does not make such request within seven days of his return to work after any such absence such absence shall be deemed to have broken such continuity. If the employer does not give such notice within the said fourteen days such absence shall not be deemed to be such a break.

The employee shall make such request in writing and shall deliver same to the employer's office at the factory where he is employed or if there be no such office to the manager of such factory or in his absence to the employee's foreman.

The employer shall give the notification to the employee by having the same delivered to such employee personally in writing.

Calculation of Month.

(j) For the purpose of this clause a month shall be reckoned as commencing with the beginning of the first day of the employment or period of employment in question and as ending at the beginning of the day which in the latest month in question has the same date number as that which the commencing day had in its month and if there be no such day in such subsequent month shall be reckoned as ending at the end of such subsequent month.

Where an employee is usually employed without any express undertaking to employ him for at least one week his employment shall be deemed to be that of a casual employee, but in all other cases where an employee is not in express terms engaged as a casual employee, he shall be deemed to be, and be employed as a weekly employee.

The following shall be the terms and conditions of weekly employment:—

(a) The engagement shall not be determined on either side, except upon one week's notice, which may be given at any time, but an employer may pay one week's wages in lieu of giving such notice.

(b) Where a notice is given by an employer purporting to expire within the week next preceding Christmas Day or Good Friday, but the employer expressly or impliedly allows the employee to believe that he is to resume work not later than one week after New Year's Day or Easter Monday as the case may be, such notice shall have no effect, and the engagement shall be deemed to have continued unaffected by such notice.

(c) A weekly employee shall not be changed to a casual employee within the week next preceding Christmas Day or Good Friday.

(f) Where an employee becomes disabled by sickness of himself, proof of which is given to the employer by medical certificate or other satisfactory evidence within twenty-four hours of the beginning of the employee's consequential absence, he shall on account thereof be entitled without deduction of pay to absent himself from work for one day in each two months or for a proportionate aggregate in a longer period, but not exceeding one of forty working hours in any year of the employment.

Provided that where an employee is in the service of an employer for a year and has had no sick pay in such year as prescribed and such employee continues in such service he shall not, if he becomes disabled as previously mentioned during the ensuing year, be entitled to absent himself without deduction of pay for more than forty working hours in each ensuing year, but the number of days in any two months or other longer period as aforesaid in such ensuing year on which he shall be entitled to so absent himself shall be increased within such two months or period until the total number of working hours amount to forty.

- (j) Should any employee be dismissed during the course of a week, any wages due to him under this Part shall be paid to him forthwith and in default thereof the employer shall pay such employee an extra 3s. for each and every day or part thereof, whilst such default continues unless the employer satisfies the Wages Board that such default was due to circumstances not under his control and which he could not reasonably have foreseen and which he took reasonable steps to avoid or overcome.

If the time of any such demand shall not be reasonably suitable to an employer (the burden of proof whereof shall be on the employer) for a full and particular inspection and examination of such time book or record by the officials, the employer shall nevertheless produce at such time such time book or record to the officials who shall be then entitled to examine such book or record for the purpose of seeing the nature and general state and condition thereof. A time shall then be agreed upon for the further examination of particulars thereof by such officials and, if not agreed upon, such time between the above hours shall be fixed by the officials and shall not be less than 24 hours or 48 hours in the case of a demand on the day before pay day after the time of the first demand. The officials shall in fixing such time have due regard to the exigencies of the employer's business and must complete each inspection as quickly as reasonably practicable.

(d) Provided that an employer may at his option, in lieu of a time book, provide a mechanical clock for the purpose of recording the time of each employee, in which case each employee shall, at the end of the week, enter or record the wages and overtime received on some card or check used in connexion with such clock.
