The member shall have a discretion to determine whether the policy shall or shall not provide for participation in any surplus that may be distributed by the life office from time to time by way of reversionary additions to the sums assured under participating policies.

2. The Board may agree to accept into the Scheme an existing policy of assurance on the life of a member if—

(a) the policy is transferred in statutory form to the Board and is not then encumbered in any manner; and

(b) either the conditions of the policy are not repugnant to these Rules or the policy has already been accepted by the Federated Superannuation System for Universities (Great Britain).

3. The member shall contribute annually 5 per centum of his salary (hereinafter called "the member's contribution"), and the Board shall contribute annually a sum equal to 10 per centum of the member's salary (hereinafter called "the Board's contribution"). Both these contributions shall be applied by the Board in payment of the yearly premiums on the policy effected on the life of the member or accepted into the Scheme, pursuant to Rule 2 hereof.

4. The Board shall out of its moneys pay to the Fund—

(a) such sums as shall be payable by it in accordance with these Rules for or in respect of any member; and

(b) if the yearly premium on the policy effected on the life of a member has not been paid one year in advance of the date (as determined by the Board) on which he becomes liable to make contributions to the Fund, an amount equal to the member's contribution during the period of one year after the said date.

5. (1) The Board shall as from the date (as determined by it) on which a member becomes liable to make contributions to the Fund deduct by equal instalments from the salary of the member as and when his salary shall be paid—

(a) the amount of his contribution to the Fund; or

(b) in the case of any member in respect of whose policy the Board has paid into the Fund an amount pursuant to paragraph (b) of Rule 4 hereof—

(i) during the period of three years next after the date on which deductions are commenced an amount equal to the sum of the contributions required to be made by the member to the Fund for the said period together with the amount so paid by the Board; and

(ii) thereafter the amount of his contribution to the Fund—

which deduction shall continue to be made from the salary of the member until he attains the age for retirement or until such earlier time as he ceases for any reason to be employed by the Board.

(2) The Board shall from time to time pay to the Fund the amount of instalments as aforesaid less any sums required to recoup it for any payment made pursuant to paragraph (b) of Rule 4 hereof.

(3) In the event of any member described in paragraph (b) of sub-rule (1) of this Rule ceasing for any reason to be employed by the Board before it has been recouped for a payment or part thereof pursuant to paragraph (b) of Rule 4 hereof, the Board may deduct the amount of the payment, or part thereof, from any sum due under these Rules to the member or any person claiming through him.

6. (1) If at any anniversary of the date of commencement of the Fund or at other more convenient date determined by the Board the annual salary of a member shall be higher by at least Fifty pounds than that upon which his and the Board's contributions shall then be based, his contribution and that of the Board shall be increased to 5 per centum and 10 per centum respectively of the higher salary, and the sum assured in respect of the member shall be increased accordingly.

(2) If at any anniversary or other date as aforesaid the annual salary of a member shall be lower by at least Twenty-five pounds than that upon which his and the Board's contributions shall then be based, either the Board or the member may elect to have the member's and the Board's contributions reduced to 5 per centum and 10 per centum respectively of the lower salary, and upon any such election being made the sum assured in respect of the member shall be reduced accordingly.

(3) If a member is absent from the service of the Board for any reason whatsoever with or without remuneration from the Board he shall unless the Board otherwise determines pay to the Board his contribution and that which the Board would normally pay in respect of him during the period of his absence, and in default of his so doing the Board may, at its discretion, treat the member as if he had resigned from the staff of the Board and his resignation had been accepted by it.

7. Every policy effected pursuant to this Scheme shall be either in the name of the Board or in the name of the member, and in the latter case it shall be assigned in statutory form by the member to the Board. Each policy shall be delivered by the Life Office to the Board and shall be held by it subject to the provisions of this By-law. The policy in respect of any member shall be available for inspection by him at any reasonable time. Every member and any person claiming under or through him shall execute all such documents or writings as the Board may require for transferring any policy to it.

8. No member shall, whilst he remains on the staff of the Board, assign, without the consent in writing of the Board, his interest either absolutely or by way of mortgage charge or otherwise in any policy effected on his life under this Scheme or taken into the Scheme pursuant to Rule 2 hereof. If any member—

(a) becomes bankrupt or assigns or charges, or attempts to assign or charge any of his rights or interests in any such policy without the consent in writing of the Board or does or suffers anything by which his rights or interests under the Scheme or any part thereof through his act or default or by operation or process of law would or might become vested in or payable to any other person or corporation; or

(b) becomes a lunatic or incapable of managing his own affairs, of which last-mentioned disability the Board shall be the sole judge, the rights and interests of the member thereby affected shall forthwith determine and the Board shall be entitled upon such determination to surrender the policy or if it deems fit to continue the policy for the time being and surrender it later or to continue it until maturity or the prior death of the member. Any moneys representing the member's rights and interests thereby determined which may be received by the Board, whether by way of surrender or at the maturity of the policy or on the death of the member, shall be applied at the option of the Board either towards the maintenance or benefit of the member or his dependants or of such one or more of them to the exclusion of the other or others as the Board, in its discretion, deems fit, or in any one of the ways mentioned in Rule 10. hereof, or in the cases mentioned in paragraph (a) hereof by payment thereof into the Fund.

9. In every case the Board shall have a charge upon the policy effected upon the life of a member and the moneys payable thereunder for all moneys owing by the member pursuant to these Rules.

10. Upon the death of a member whilst in the service of the Board the Board shall receive from the Life Office the policy moneys payable upon his death and, subject to Rules 8 and 9 hereof, shall pay the policy moneys or the balance thereof, as the case may be, to the member's legal personal representatives, provided that should the Board be satisfied that no application for probate of the will or letters of administration of the estate of the member or otherwise for representation of his estate has been made or is likely to be made, then the Board shall, at its discretion, pay the policy moneys or the balance thereof either to the next of kin of the member or into the Welfare Account.

11. Upon maturity of a policy the Board shall receive from the Life Office the policy moneys thereupon payable and, subject to Rules 8 and 9 hereof, shall pay the policy moneys or the balance thereof to the member on the pension date applicable to him. Provided that—

- (i) in the case of a member whose resignation is accepted by the Board after he has reached the age of 60 years but before his pension date the Board may, at its discretion, pay the policy moneys or the balance thereof to the member upon his ceasing to be a full-time member of its staff; and
- (ii) if the member shall continue in the full-time service of the Board after the date of the maturity of the policy effected on his life, pursuant to the Scheme, the policy moneys (or the balance thereof as the case may be) together with such annual contributions as after the maturity date may be made by the member and the Board, pursuant to Rule 3 hereof, shall be retained by the Board and invested in trustee investments or placed on deposit, fixed or otherwise, with any trading or savings bank for the benefit of the member until such time as he shall cease by death or retirement to be in the full-time service of the Board, whereupon the proceeds of the investment shall be paid in case of death in the manner specified in Rule 10 hereof or in the case of retirement to the member.

12. If a member resigns from the staff of the Board and his resignation is accepted by the Board it shall, subject to Rules 8 and 9 hereof, transfer to the member or according to his direction any policy effected on his life pursuant to the Scheme or admitted to the Scheme as provided in Rule 2 hereof, which transfer shall be in full settlement of any claims of the member under the Scheme. The provisions of this rule shall extend to the case of a member appointed to the staff of the Board whose appointment expires by effluxion of time before his prescribed age and is not renewed.

13. If a member is dismissed from the service of the Board for incompetence, or for any reason other than those stated in Rule 14 hereof, the Board shall, subject to Rules 8 and 9 hereof, either—

- (a) transfer the policy to the member if he repays to the Board its contribution within one month of his dismissal or such longer period as the Board may determine; or
- (b) if the policy is not transferred pursuant to the preceding paragraph, surrender the policy and pay to the member the proportion of the surrender value of the policy attributable to the member's contribution.

14. If a member is dismissed for fraud, dishonesty, or misconduct so declared by the Board in its resolution of dismissal, the Board shall surrender his policy and out of the proceeds thereof shall—

- (a) recoup itself for all costs and losses (including the costs of any prosecution or civil proceedings) incurred by it as a result of or incidental to or arising howsoever out of such fraud, dishonesty, or misconduct;
- (b) satisfy any charge which under the provisions of Rule 9 hereof it may have over the policy or the proceeds thereof; and
- (c) pay to the member after deducting the portion of the surrender value of the policy attributable to the Board's contribution (which portion shall be paid into the Welfare Account) the balance (if any) of the said proceeds.

15. The right of a member to any benefit under the Scheme shall not in the event of his dismissal by the Board be a ground for damages or any aggravation of damages in litigation arising out of his dismissal.

16. Any person who being eligible to participate in the Scheme refuses or omits to take the requisite steps to have a policy effected on his life, as provided by these Rules, shall be deemed to have relieved the Board of any obligation to him or his dependants on his retirement or death or on his ceasing for any other reason to be employed by the Board.

17. Upon the dissolution of the Fund from any cause whatsoever, subject to the provisions of this By-law, the Board shall—

- (a) transfer and hand over each policy subsisting pursuant to these Rules to the member on whose life the policy is effected;
- (b) subject to providing for any discretionary benefits as herein provided, divide and distribute the residue of the moneys remaining in its hands (including the moneys in the Welfare Account) amongst the members remaining at the date on which the Fund is dissolved in such shares and proportions as the Board shall consider just and equitable, and every act done and every payment made by the Board pursuant to this rule or purporting to be so done shall be binding upon all parties interested and no liability whatsoever in respect of any such act or payment shall be incurred by the Board.

18. A receipt under the common seal of the Board, or any receipt signed on its behalf by a person or persons authorized by it for that purpose, shall be a sufficient discharge to any Life Office for any policy moneys payable hereunder upon the death of a member or upon the maturity of the policy or upon its surrender or otherwise, and the Life Office shall not be concerned for any reason or purpose whatsoever—

- (a) to inquire whether any rights or powers conferred by this By-law upon the Board or the right to exercise them have arisen or are in existence at any time or from time to time when the Board may claim to exercise them; or
- (b) to see to the application of any moneys received by the Board and the Life Office shall not in any way be affected by notice express or implied that any right or power as aforesaid is intended to be exercised for any purpose other than that for which it has been conferred.

5. The following additional Regulations are enacted:—

"7. (a) Electricity shall not be used in the month of November, 1951, or in any month thereafter at any premises at a rate (expressed as a number of kilowatts) higher than the prescribed maximum rate for those premises for that month.

(b) The prescribed maximum rate for any premises for any month shall subject to this Regulation be a number of kilowatts being a percentage of the highest number of kilowatts at which electricity was used at those premises during the corresponding month of 1950. The said percentage for any month or months shall be such percentage as shall from time to time be specified in an advertisement published by the Commission in a daily newspaper published in Melbourne as the percentage to be used in ascertaining for premises generally the prescribed maximum rate for such month or months and unless and until another percentage is so specified the percentage shall be 87½ per centum.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Regulation the Commission from time to time by notice in writing signed by its Secretary and sent by post by prepaid letter addressed to 'The Consumer' at the address of any premises may specify a rate as the prescribed maximum rate for those premises for any month stated in that behalf in the said notice and the rate so specified shall be the prescribed maximum rate for those premises for that month whether electricity was or was not supplied to those premises in 1950.

(d) If before the commencement of this Regulation any notice has been given by or on behalf of the Commission or Undertakers to the person or persons to whom electricity is supplied at any premises specifying or purporting to specify a maximum rate or demand at which electricity is to be used at those premises whether for any month or other period commencing on or after the first day of November, 1951, or generally such notice shall be deemed to be a valid notice given under the last preceding sub-regulation and the rate or demand which the notice specifies or purports to specify shall be deemed to be a rate specified in a notice given under such sub-regulation.

(e) If the prescribed maximum rate for any premises for any month has been specified by notice given pursuant to sub-regulations (c) or (d) of this Regulation and after the service of such notice the Commission specifies a percentage in an advertisement pursuant to sub-regulation (b) of this Regulation then the maximum rate specified in the said notice shall during the month or months specified in the said advertisement be increased or decreased according as and to the same proportionate extent as the percentage specified in the said advertisement is more or less than the percentage fixed by or under sub-regulation (b) of this Regulation at the date of service of the said notice or the 1st day of November, 1951, whichever is the later.

(g) For the purposes of this Regulation the rate at which electricity is used shall be deemed to be a number of kilowatts equal to four times the number of kilowatt-hours recorded by a meter installed by the Commission or Undertakers as being used in a period of fifteen consecutive minutes or if a meter installed by the Commission or Undertakers has shown that electricity was used at that number of kilowatts in such a period.

8. (a) Electricity shall not be used in any meter-reading period commencing on or after the 1st day of November, 1951, at any premises if and after a number of kilowatt-hours being the prescribed quantity of electricity for those premises for that meter-reading period has been recorded by the meter or meters of the Commission or the Undertakers measuring the quantity of electricity supplied by it or them to those premises as having been used at those premises during that meter-reading period.

(b) The prescribed quantity of electricity for any premises for any meter-reading period—

1st day of February, 1951, which most nearly corresponds with the date of the commencement of the meter-reading period for which the prescribed quantity of electricity for those premises is to be ascertained. The said percentage shall be such percentage as shall from time to time be specified in an advertisement published by the Commission in a daily newspaper published in Melbourne as the percentage to be used in ascertaining the prescribed quantity of electricity for industrial premises for that meter-reading period and unless and until some other percentage is so specified the percentage shall be 100 per centum; and

- (ii) if the premises are not industrial premises shall subject to this Regulation be a number of kilowatt-hours of electricity being a percentage of the number of kilowatt-hours shown by the records of the Commission or of the Undertakers to have been used at those premises in the meter-reading period which commenced on a day between the 30th day of September, 1949, and the 1st day of October, 1950, which most nearly corresponds with the date of commencement of the meter-reading period for which the prescribed quantity of electricity for those premises is to be ascertained. The said percentage shall be such percentage as shall from time to time be specified in an advertisement published by the Commission in a daily newspaper published in Melbourne as the percentage to be used in ascertaining the prescribed quantity of electricity for premises other than industrial premises for that meter-reading period and unless and until some other percentage is so specified the percentage shall be 90 per centum.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Regulation the Commission from time to time by notice in writing signed by its Secretary and sent by prepaid post addressed to 'The Consumer' at the address of any premises may specify a number of kilowatt-hours as the prescribed quantity of electricity for those premises for any meter-reading period stated in that behalf in the notice and the number of kilowatt-hours so specified shall be the prescribed quantity of electricity for that meter-reading period for those premises whether electricity was or was not supplied to those premises at any time between the 30th day of September, 1949, and the 1st day of February, 1951.

(d) If before the commencement of this Regulation any notice has been given by or on behalf of the Commission or the Undertakers to the person or persons to whom electricity is supplied at any premises specifying or purporting to specify the maximum quantity or quota of electricity to be used at those premises for any meter-reading period commencing on or after the first day of November, 1951, such notice shall be deemed a valid notice given under the last preceding sub-regulation and the maximum quantity or quota which the notice specifies or purports to specify shall be deemed to be a maximum quantity specified in a notice given under such sub-regulation.

(e) If the prescribed quantity of electricity for any premises for any meter-reading period has been specified by notice given pursuant to sub-regulations (c) or (d) of this Regulation and after the service of such notice the Commission specifies a percentage in an advertisement pursuant to sub-regulation (b) of this Regulation then the quantity specified in the said notice shall during the meter-reading period or periods specified in the said advertisement be increased or decreased according as and to the same proportionate extent as the percentage specified in the said advertisement is more or less than the percentage fixed by or under sub-regulation (b) of this Regulation at the date of service of the said notice or the 1st day of November, 1951, whichever is the later.

(f) If electricity supplied by Undertakers is used at any premises in any meter-reading period in excess of the prescribed quantity of electricity for those premises for that meter-reading period the Undertakers shall within fourteen days after the end of that meter-reading period notify the Commission in writing—

- (i) that it has been so exceeded at those premises, and
- (ii) of the address of the premises and the name of the person pursuant to whose application or demand the Undertakers supplied electricity to those premises during that meter-reading period, and
- (iii) of that person's address last known to the Undertakers, and
- (iv) of the quantity of electricity used at the said premises during that meter-reading period, and
- (v) of the prescribed quantity of electricity for those premises for that meter-reading period, and also
- (vi) the prescribed quantity of electricity for those premises for meter-reading periods commencing during the twelve months next following the end of that meter-reading period.

(g) Undertakers shall give to the Commission from time to time notice of commencement of supply of electricity to premises not previously supplied within fourteen days of the commencement of such supply.

(h) The expression 'meter-reading period' in these Regulations means in relation to any premises a period between any two consecutive readings by the Commission or the Undertakers of the meter or meters measuring the supply to the premises such readings being normal periodical readings in accordance with the practice of the Commission or (as the case may be) the Undertakers; 'premises' in this Regulation shall be deemed not to include registered hospitals, pumping stations of a statutory water supply authority or a statutory sewerage authority.

9. Regulations 7 and 8 shall apply in the month of November, 1951, and in each month thereafter and in meter-reading periods commencing in or after November, 1951, except during such months or meter-reading periods respectively as the Commission may from time to time notify by advertisement published in a daily newspaper published in Melbourne.

10. The Commission may by advertisement in a daily newspaper published in Melbourne exempt from the operation of the restrictions on use of electricity imposed by or under these Regulations the use of electricity by persons, for purposes, at or on premises, as to kinds of use, use by apparatus and/or use at times specified, described or indicated in the advertisement.

11. If the Commission by advertisement in a daily newspaper published in Melbourne so declares electricity which is used between hours specified and either for purposes specified or at premises specified in such advertisement and the quantity of which is recorded separately from the quantity of electricity used at the same premises at other hours and for other purposes shall not be included in calculating the total quantity of electricity used at such premises for the purpose of Regulation 8 of these Regulations during any meter-reading period or periods specified in such advertisement.

12. A notice signed by an officer of the Commission who is authorized by resolution of the Commission to sign notices shall be deemed to be a notice signed by its Secretary."

And the Honorable Keith Dodgshun, His Majesty's Minister in Charge of Electrical Undertakings for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
