This shall not effect the right of the employer to deduct payment for any day the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike or through any breakdown in machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

(c) A contract for weekly employment may be terminated by any employer, without liability to pay for more than time actually worked, for misconduct or for absence from work without reasonable excuse.

An employee shall not be entitled to payment for non-attendance on the grounds of accident or ill-health for more than forty hours of working time in each year.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-clause (a) hereof, if the full period of sick leave as prescribed is not taken in any year, such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year up to a period not exceeding eighty hours of working time, which shall be the maximum amount of leave to which an employee shall be entitled in any year without deduction of pay.
