(1) For Order LIV., there shall be substituted the following Order:—

"Order LIV.

1. Every application at Chambers not made ex parte shall be made by summons.

1A. The office of a Master shall be deemed to be Judge's Chambers for the purposes of any matter referred to or ordered by or under these Rules to be dealt with by a Master.

Rules 1, 6, 6A, 7, 27 (16), (20), Order LXVII. Rule 6.

1C. If any matter arising under the Rules specified in Rule 1B of this Order appears to a Master proper for the decision of a Judge the Master may refer such matter to a Judge and the Judge may either dispose of the matter or refer it back to the Master with such directions as he may think fit.

1D. Any person affected by any order or decision of a Master made under the rules specified in Rule 1B of this Order may appeal therefrom to a Judge in Chambers. Such appeal shall be by notice in writing to attend before the Judge, without a fresh summons, within five days after the decision complained of or such further time as may be allowed by a Judge or the Master. Unless otherwise ordered there shall be at least one clear day between service of the notice of appeal and the day of hearing. An appeal from the decision of a Master shall not operate as a stay of proceedings unless so ordered by a Judge or the Master.

1E. No matter which is authorized by or under this Order to be dealt with by a Master shall be brought before a Judge or the Court except—

(i) on a reference from the Master; or

(ii) on an appeal under this Order; or

(iii) by special leave of the Court or a Judge.

2. An originating summons issued under Order LIV. (A) or under Order LV., Part 2, shall be in the Form No. 1B in Appendix K, with such variations as circumstances require. It shall be prepared by the applicant or his solicitor, and shall be sealed at the Prothonotary's Office, and when so sealed shall be deemed to be issued. The person obtaining the summons shall leave at such office a copy thereof, which shall be duly filed.

4A. The parties served with an originating summons under Order LIV. (A) or under LV., Part 2, shall, before they are heard in Chambers, enter appearances in the Prothonotary's Office and give notice thereof. So far as applicable, the provisions of Order XII., and of order XVI., Rule 18 and the forms in Appendix A, Part II., shall apply mutatis mutandis to the entry of such appearances.

4C. Every summons, other than an originating summons, shall be served within a reasonable time before the return thereof, and in no case later than Two o'clock of the day previous to its being made attendable, or in the case of any such summons attendable on a Monday not later than Two o'clock in the afternoon of the preceding

Friday, and shall operate as a stay of proceedings from the hour at which it is attendable. Provided that it shall be lawful for a Judge, if under special circumstances he shall see fit, to order that any such summons operate as a stay of proceedings from the time of service, when it shall be drawn up accordingly and signed by such Judge.

5. Where any of the parties to a summons fails to attend, whether upon the return of the summons (not being an originating summons issued under Order LIV. (A) or Order LV., Part 2), or at the time and place fixed for the hearing of the summons (being an originating summons issued under Order LIV. (A) or Order LV., Part 2), as the case may be, or at any time appointed for the consideration or further consideration of the matter, the Judge may proceed ex parte, if considering the nature of the case he thinks it expedient so to do. No affidavit of non-attendance shall be required or allowed, but the Judge may require such evidence of service as he may think just.

6. Where the Judge has proceeded ex parte, such proceedings shall not in any manner be reconsidered in the Judge's Chambers, unless the Judge shall be satisfied that the party failing to attend was not guilty of wilful delay or negligence; and in such case the costs occasioned by his non-attendance shall be in the discretion of the Judge, who may fix the same at the time and direct them to be paid by the party or his solicitors before he shall be permitted to have such proceedings reconsidered or make such other order as to such costs as he may think just.

7. Where a proceeding in Chambers fails by reason of the non-attendance of any party, and the Judge does not think it expedient to proceed ex parte, the Judge may order such an amount of costs (if any) as he shall think reasonable to be paid to the party attending by the absent party or by his solicitor personally.

8. Where matters in respect of which a summons has been issued are not disposed of upon the return of the summons (not being an originating summons issued under Order LIV. (A) or Order LV., Part 2), or at the time and place fixed for the hearing of the summons (being an originating summons issued under Order LIV. (A) or Order LV., Part 2), as the case may be, the parties shall attend from time to time without further summons, at such time or times as may be appointed for the consideration or further consideration of the matter.

9. In every cause or matter where any party thereto makes any application at Chambers, either by way of summons or otherwise, he shall be at liberty to include in one and the same application all matters upon which he then desires the order or directions of the Court or Judge; and upon the hearing of such application it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to make any order and give any directions relative to or consequential on the matter of such application as may be just; any such application may, if the Judge thinks fit, be adjourned from Chambers into Court, or from Court into Chambers.

9A. On the application of any party to a matter any Master may, and if the circumstances require it shall, hear and dispose of such matter on behalf of any other Master by whom the application would otherwise have been heard.

10. A summons other than an originating summons issued under Order LIV. (A) or Order LV., Part 2, shall be in the form No. 1 in Appendix K, with such variations as circumstances may require, and shall be addressed to all the persons on whom it is to be served.

10A. The business to be disposed of in Chambers shall consist of the following matters in addition to those which under any other Rule or by any Act may be disposed of in Chambers:—

(a) Applications for time to plead, for leave to amend pleadings, for discovery and production of documents, and generally all applications relating to the conduct of any cause or matter.

(b) Such other matters as the Judge may think fit to dispose of at Chambers.

11. In the case of every application in Chambers other than—

(a) An application made ex parte, and a summons shall be prepared by the applicant or his solicitor, and shall be issued either—

If it is issued by being sealed at the Prothonotary's Office, the person obtaining the summons shall leave at such office a copy thereof, which shall be duly filed. If it is issued by being signed by a Judge or an Associate or a Master the person obtaining the summons shall leave with the Judge or the Associate or the Master a copy thereof, which after the signing of the summons shall be forwarded to the Prothonotary's Office to be duly filed.

12. Unless a Judge, or in the case of a summons returnable before a Master, the Master otherwise directs, summonses shall be returnable at half-past Ten o'clock in the forenoon.

13. An order shall be in the Form No. 2 in Appendix K, with such variations as circumstances require. It shall be prepared by the party entitled to the order, and signed by the Judge by whom it is made or (in the case of orders pronounced after the 1st December, 1949) in the event of such Judge being unable through death retirement or any other sufficient cause to sign the same by any other Judge of the Court upon his being satisfied that the Order as drawn conforms to the order pronounced by the Judge who made it. An order made by a Master shall be signed by him.

14. Whenever any order is made on any originating summons or on any application originating in Chambers and in any other case of an order made in Chambers where the Judge or, in the case of an order made by a Master, the Master does not before the signing of the order direct otherwise there shall be left with the Associate or, in the case of an order made by the Master, with the Master a copy of such order which shall be forwarded to the Prothonotary to be duly filed.
