(b) On the other working days of the week .. .. .	8.30 a.m.	5.40 p.m.

OVERTIME.

4. (a) Overtime shall be paid for as follows:—
 (i) within the times of beginning and ending work in excess of 40 hours in any week, time and a half for the first 4 hours and double time thereafter;
 (ii) outside the times of beginning and ending work, time and a half for the first 2 hours and double time thereafter.
 (b) No apprentice shall be obliged to work overtime or on Sunday.

SPECIAL RATES.

5. (a) Double time shall be the rate payable for all work done on Sundays.
 (b) Double time shall be the rate payable for all work done on New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, King's Birthday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day and within the Metropolitan District as defined in the Labour and Industry Acts, after 12 noon on Show Day and Melbourne Cup Day, but if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall be payable only for work done on the day so substituted.
 (c) If any additional day be proclaimed by Act of Parliament or proclamation to be a general public holiday throughout the State of Victoria it shall be deemed to be included with those prescribed in sub-clause (b) hereof.
 5A. Olympic Day, 22nd November, 1956 (within such area as may be proclaimed by Order in Council), shall be deemed to be included in the list of holidays herein prescribed in clause 5. Provided that any employee who fails to attend for work on the working day before and/or after such holiday without reasonable excuse, shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

6. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts.

SICK LEAVE.

7. (a) Where an employee becomes disabled by personal ill-health or accident, not due to his or her own misconduct, proof of which is given to an employer by medical certificate or other satisfactory evidence within 48 hours of the beginning of the employee's consequential absence, he or she shall on account thereof, be entitled without deduction of pay to absent himself or herself as follows:—

- (i) During the first year of service—for every three months of completed service .. 1½ days (i.e., 14 working hours)
 (ii) During any subsequent year .. .. . 7 working days.

Provided that for absences of two consecutive working days or less, the production of a medical certificate shall not be necessary.

- (b) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (a) hereof, if the full period of sick leave as prescribed above is not taken in any year, such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year.

For the purpose of administering this sub-clause service prior to the 1st July, 1953, shall be disregarded.

GARMENT ALLOWANCE.

8. Where an employee is required to wear, when at work, a washable uniform the laundering of which is not paid for by the employer, such employee shall be paid 7s. per week, in addition to the ordinary rate.

RELIEVERS.

(a) Definition.

9. A reliever is a temporary employee who is called upon to relieve any qualified pharmaceutical chemist or chemists during his, her or their absence from work for any cause for a period of not less than three consecutive working days, or not more than two months.

(b) Wages and Allowances.

A reliever shall be paid not less than the appropriate ordinary rate prescribed in clause 2 for the class of work done (calculated pro rata for any period less than one week) with an addition of 7½ per centum. Provided that a relieving Pharmaceutical Chemist called upon to relieve the proprietor or manager of a chemist's shop shall be deemed to be a Manager Pharmaceutical Chemist whilst so required to act.

(c) Distant Jobs.

Where a reliever cannot conveniently return to his or her home on completion of each day's work he or she shall have reasonable accommodation arranged and paid for by the employer, or alternatively be paid 12s. 6d. per day for a period of less than one week's duration, or £3 per week for a longer period of employment. In addition he or she shall be entitled to be re-imbursed fares necessarily expended in travelling to the job, and in returning to his or her home town on its completion. Such fares shall be first class rail, plane, or road travel whichever may apply at the discretion of the employer.

(d) Travelling Time.

A reliever engaged to work in the country, or sent from one country centre to work in another country centre shall be entitled to be paid at ordinary rates for travelling time during ordinary working hours to and from the job. Such time is to be counted to and from Melbourne, or his or her home town whichever is the nearer.

CASUAL WORK.

10. Any person other than a reliever employed for less than the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work shall be paid as follows:—

- (a) For each hour worked up to 20 hours in any week, the ordinary wages rate with an addition of twenty per centum subject to a minimum payment for four hours work on any one day.
- (b) For each hour worked beyond 20 hours aforesaid, the ordinary wages rate with an addition of seven and a half per centum up to but not exceeding the ordinary wages rate for an ordinary week's work.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this clause, if an employee be not readily available to work the number of hours required by an employer, he or she shall be entitled to be paid only pro rata based on the ordinary rates prescribed in clause 2 hereof.

TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT.

11. Except as provided in clauses 9 and 10 hereof, employment shall be by the week and a weekly employee who is ready, available, and willing to work the number of hours prescribed for a week's work shall be paid the full weekly wage fixed herein irrespective of the number of hours worked, not exceeding 40. Provided, however, that such an employee not attending for duty, except as provided by clause 7 hereof shall lose his or her pay for the actual time of such non-attendance.

MEAL BREAK.

12. A meal break of 60 minutes daily (Monday to Friday) shall be allowed to each employee provided that by mutual agreement between an employer and his employee such meal break may be extended to not more than 75 minutes or reduced to not less than 30 minutes.

REST PERIOD.

13. Each employee shall be allowed a tea period of ten minutes each morning and afternoon (Monday to Friday inclusive) at times convenient to the employer, provided that such periods be not less than one hour from such employee's regular meal break or from his or her starting or finishing time. During any such periods an employee shall not be entitled to leave the premises without the permission of the employer.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

14. Wages shall be paid weekly not later than the ordinary finishing time on Thursday, unless it is otherwise mutually agreed upon between the employer and the employee.

TIME BOOKS.

15. Each employer shall provide and cause to be kept a time book or other record in which each employee shall daily enter his or her starting and finishing times.

LEAVE FOR APPRENTICES.

16. Where an apprentice requires leave of absence for private study for the Pharmacy Board intermediate and/or final examinations, this shall be granted from Monday to Thursday (inclusive) in the week preceding such examinations, without pay.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

17. Except in a case where an employee or an employer has been guilty of misconduct, or where an employee has been engaged as a reliever, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either party or one week's wages paid or forfeited, as the case may be, in lieu thereof.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

18. The adult wages rates set out in clause 2, other than those prescribed for a female shop assistant, and a female un-registered assistant, are based upon the following basic wage, and, pursuant to the provisions of Section 33 of the Labour and Industry Act 1953, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically adjusted by the same amount and at the same time as such basic wage as prescribed in clause 19.

ADJUSTMENT OF BASIC WAGE.

19. (a) For the purposes of this Determination, the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's 'C' series retail price index numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such index numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician.

(b) Until the beginning of the first pay period to commence in November, 1956, the amount of the Basic Wage shall be as prescribed in clause 18.

(c) During each future successive period beginning with the first pay period to commence in a November, a February, a May or an August, the amount of the basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method, namely, by multiplying the last published Commonwealth Statistician's "C" series retail price index number by the factor 103 taken to one place of decimals, the resultant whole number being the amount of the basic wage expressed in shillings, but should the decimal number reach 5 or more the basic wage shall be taken to the next higher shilling.

(d) The wages rates for an adult female shop assistant, and an adult female un-registered assistant, are based on a basic wage being 75 per cent. of the basic wage for adult males calculated to the nearest 6d., half or less than half of 6d. to be disregarded. The wages rates for adult females shall be adjusted by increasing or decreasing such rates by the amount of the difference from time to time in the said basic wage for females.

(e) The wages of apprentices and juvenile workers shall be the appropriate percentages as set out in clause 2, such wages shall be calculated to the nearest 6d., half or less than half of 6d. to be disregarded.
