TIME OF BEGINNING AND ENDING WORK.

3. Time of beginning—	Time of ending—
7.30 a.m.	12.30 p.m. on the day on which the half-holiday is observed locally.
7.30 a.m.	6 p.m. on the other five working days of the week.

OVERTIME.

4. (a) All time worked outside the usual times of beginning and ending work in the establishment concerned shall be paid for as follows:—

- (1) Time Workers.—At the rate of time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter.
- (2) Pieceworkers shall be paid the ordinary piecework prices for work done and in addition thereto shall receive the following payments:—

- (i) For the first four hours of overtime work an amount equal to one half the amount that a time worker would receive for working the same hours during ordinary working hours.
- (ii) Thereafter an amount equal to the amount that a time worker would receive for working the same hours during ordinary working hours.

(b) In computing overtime each day's work shall stand alone.

(c) An employer may require any employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and such employee shall work overtime in accordance with such requirement.

SUNDAYS AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

5. That double time shall be paid for all work done on Sundays, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Queen's Birthday, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day; but, if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall only be payable for work done on the day so substituted.

HOLIDAYS.

6. (a) All employees shall be entitled to the following holidays without any deduction in pay:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Queen's Birthday, Anzac Day, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, and Fuel and Fodder Picnic Day (only those employed within the Metropolitan District as defined in the Labour and Industry Act and Order in Council thereunder), or day or days substituted by Act of Parliament or Proclamation in lieu of such public holidays. Provided that Melbourne Cup Day may be substituted for Queen's Birthday, at the election of the employers.

Provided further, that in any industry or establishment in which a Picnic Day is observed for the majority of the employees on a working day, such day shall be regarded as the holiday in lieu of the above-mentioned Picnic Day.

(b) An employee absent from his or her employment on the working day or part of the working day before or after a holiday without reasonable cause, or without the employer's consent shall not be entitled to payment for such holiday.

(c) Pieceworkers.—All pieceworkers shall be entitled to the same holidays as are granted to time workers and they shall be paid for such holidays the amount for each holiday based on time wages as set out in this Determination.

OLYMPIC GAMES HOLIDAY.

6A. In connexion with the holding of the Olympic Games in Victoria during the months of November and December, 1956, where a holiday or half-holiday is proclaimed by Order in Council throughout any Municipality or part thereof, or within any defined area, such holiday or half-holiday shall, so far as such Municipality or part thereof, or such defined area is concerned be deemed to be included in the list of holidays prescribed in clauses 5 and 6.

Provided that no employee shall be entitled to the conditions prescribed by this clause for more than the equivalent of one working day.

Provided further that an employee who fails to attend for work on the working day before and/or after such holiday or half-holiday without reasonable excuse shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday or half-holiday.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

7. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts.

SICK LEAVE.

8. (a) Any employee who, having had at least three months' service with the same employer, is absent from duty as a result of personal ill health shall be entitled to sick pay as follows:—

- (i) During the first year—3½ hours' ordinary pay for each complete month of service.
- (ii) During any subsequent year of service—40 hours' ordinary pay.

Provided that, in either case such employee produces or forwards within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill health necessitating such absence.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed above is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall, provided an employee remains in the service of the one employer, or any successor of such employer, be cumulative from year to year. For the purposes of this sub-clause, service prior to the 1st September, 1949, shall be disregarded providing that any accumulated sick leave (not exceeding 80 hours of working time) standing to the credit of the employee on the 1st September, 1951, shall not be reduced by virtue of the provisions of this sub-clause.

REST PERIOD FOR FEMALES.

9. A rest period of ten minutes, between 9.30 a.m. and 10.30 a.m., and between 2.30 p.m. and 3.30 p.m. each day shall be given to all female employees, without deduction of pay.

MEAL MONEY.

10. Any employee required to work overtime for more than one and half hours after the usual finishing time shall either be supplied with a meal by the employer or be paid 5s. as meal money.

TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT.

11. An employee willing, ready and available for work shall be paid the full weekly wage fixed herein. To terminate employment one week's notice shall be given on either side at any time during the week or one week's wages shall be paid or forfeited, as the case may be. This shall not effect the right of the employer to dismiss any employee without notice for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, and in such cases the wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only or to deduct payment for any day or part of a day the employee cannot be usefully employed because of any strike or through any breakdown of machinery or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

EMERGENCY PROVISIONS.

11A. Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this Determination, the following provisions shall apply in the case of an employer who is subjected to restriction or rationing in the use of electric energy and/or coal gas and/or the emergency disconnection thereof in accordance with orders or regulations approved by the appropriate lawful authority.

(i) If by reason of such restriction or rationing or emergency disconnection he is unable usefully to employ an employee for the whole or part of any day, he may deduct from the wages of that employee payment for any part of the day such employee cannot be usefully employed provided that—

(1) if an employer requires the employee to attend for work but is not able to employ him usefully the employee shall be entitled to be paid for two hours' work;

(2) where an employee commences work he shall be entitled to be paid for four hours' work;

(ii) He may require any day worker to perform his ordinary hours of work (or any such ordinary hours of work) at any time on any day other than on a Sunday on the basis of 40 hours per week. The following rates of pay shall apply for such work—

(1) for work performed on Mondays to Fridays from 7 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. and on Saturdays from 7 a.m. to noon—ordinary time;

(2) for work performed between noon and midnight on Saturdays—ordinary rates plus 25 per cent;

(3) for work performed at all other times other than on a Sunday—ordinary rates plus 10 per cent.

(iii) He may alter the time at which meal breaks are usually taken and/or the duration of them, in order to avoid or mitigate the effects of such interference, without being liable to pay penalty rates for work done during the normal meal breaks; provided that the commencing time of any meal break is not made more than one hour earlier or later than usual and that a meal break of at least twenty minutes is allowed; and provided also that the employer shall, whenever it is practicable, consult with the representative of the Union or Unions before acting under this paragraph.

Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this Determination, the provisions of this clause shall also apply (mutatis mutandis) in the case of an employer who uses auxiliary power plant for the purpose of providing employment for his employees whilst such restriction or rationing or emergency disconnection is in force and who—

(i) is unable usefully to employ an employee for the whole of any day by reason of a breakdown in such plant through no fault of his own; or

(ii) because of the inability of the auxiliary power plant to meet the normal demands for power—

(1) finds it necessary to require any employee to perform his ordinary hours of work (or any of such ordinary hours of work) outside the hours normally worked by such employee; or

(2) finds it necessary to alter the time at which meal breaks are usually taken and/or the duration of them.

RIGHT OF ENTRY OF UNION OFFICIAL.

12. The Secretary of the Federated Tagger and Fuel Trades' Industrial Union shall have the right to enter, during the mid-day meal hour, the portion of any employer's establishment in which any of the classes of labour covered by this Determination are done, for the purposes of interviewing employees on legitimate Union business.

PIECE-WORK.

13. The lowest piece-work rates to be paid to any person for doing work of the description referred to in the following Schedule shall be—

Machine repairing wool packs (employer to provide twine)	2d. each.	} Plus 10 per cent. With 25% per cent. added.
Machine repairing first selection washed sugar bags, by darning (employer to provide twine)	4½d. per dozen.
Machine repairing washed sugar bags (employer to provide twine)	5½d. ..
Machine repairing ordinary bags (employer to provide twine)	4½d. ..
Machine repairing mill or coal bags (employer to provide twine)	1½d. ..
Machine repairing uncleaned lime or hide bags—i.e., bags which have not been through any cleaning process such as a mechanical cleaner or by washing (employer to provide twine)	1½d. ..
Machine repairers on piece-work shall also be paid 1s. 9d. per hour for any time occupied in cleaning machines or cutting patches.
Hand repairing ordinary bags (employer to provide twine)	10d. per dozen.
Hand repairing mill, coal, lime, or hide bags (employee to provide twine)	1s. 6d. ..
Hands repairing wool packs (employee to provide twine)	4½d. each.

PIECE WORK WHICH MAY BE FIXED BY AN EMPLOYER.

14. The Board determines that any employer may fix and pay piece-work rates to any person employed at repairing by machine (employer to provide twine) or by hand (employee to provide twine) bags other than those for which the Board has fixed a piece-work rate, provided that such pieceworker shall be paid in any week, at least the amount payable to a time-worker performing the same class of work for the same number of hours as such piece-worker.

WAITING TIME.

15. All piece-workers kept waiting for work, or any materials, or for repair of machines shall be paid the hourly rate of the corresponding time-worker for such waiting time.

UNIFORMS.

16. Where the employer requires any female employee to wear a uniform, the employer shall supply such uniform free of cost to the employee.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT.

3. (i) Except as in this Determination otherwise provided, the ordinary weekly total of hours shall be 40 in number, all to be worked on days other than Sunday.

(ii) Such ordinary weekly total, at the option of the employer, may be spread over five or six days and shall be worked in one period occurring between 7.30 a.m. and 12.30 p.m. on Saturday and between 7.30 a.m. and 5.15 p.m. on other days, subject to the recognized meal hours or intervals and smoke-oh of ten minutes each morning and afternoon, but no other breaks imposed by the employer.

(iii) If a five-day week is worked the ordinary daily total of working hours shall be not more than 8, and if a six-day week is worked such total shall be not more than four on Saturday and not more than eight on any other day.

(iv) Smoke-ohs shall be counted as part of time worked.

OVERTIME, ETC.

4. (a) Except as in this Determination otherwise provided, all time worked in excess of the ordinary weekly or daily hours of work shall be paid at one and a half times the ordinary prescribed rate for the first four hours, and at double the ordinary prescribed rate for the time thereafter.

(b) Horse drivers who, in excess of such weekly or daily total hours of work, are required to spend time in taking charge of teams at the yard, camp, or stable, or in returning teams thereto, shall be paid for such time at the ordinary rate.

(c) If an employee is required by his employer to be for any time anywhere only for the purposes of the employer in respect of the business in which the employee is employed, the employee shall be deemed to be on duty for the employer during such time and shall be paid at the appropriate prescribed rate (if any) for so much of such time as is spent in work, and at the ordinary minimum rate for so much of such time as is not so spent.

Provided that this clause shall not apply to any time spent by an employee in the course of going to or coming from any yard, camp, stable, depot or picking-up place of the employer, or in the course of going to a place of the employer, or in the course of going to a place of work for the purpose of starting work, or in the course of coming therefrom after ceasing work.

(d) Employees recalled to work after the expiration of their customary working time for the day, and after they have left work for the day, shall be paid at the least as for working two hours at one and a half times the prescribed rate.

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT.

5. (a) Subject to exceptions and limitations hereinafter contained any employer shall have the option of engaging any employee either by the week or casually.

(b) (i) If the engagement is by the week it shall be for a continuous period of at least eight weeks, and thereafter shall be terminable on either side by a week's notice which may be made to expire at any time during a week of the employment. Provided that this clause shall not affect the employer's right to dismiss forthwith at any time an employee because of the latter's incompetence or misconduct, in which case the employee shall be entitled in respect of wages for the then current week's employment only to payment proportionate to the aggregate of time worked by him, and of such other previous time (if any) in that week as to which under this Determination no deduction from his week's wages is allowable.

(ii) An engagement shall be deemed to be and to continue casual unless the employer, at the commencement of the engagement or before any change by him of a casual engagement of the employee to one by the week, expressly notifies the employee that he is to be engaged by the week.

Employees on casual engagement shall be paid at the rate of time and a quarter.

(iii) The employer shall have the right to deduct payment for any day upon which the employee cannot be employed usefully because of any strike, or through any breakdown of machinery, or any stoppage of work, or any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

(iv) No deduction shall be made from the wages of any employee, other than a pieceworker, unavoidably absent through illness for not more than 40 working hours in each year, i.e., 10 hours for each three months' service, commencing 1st December, 1942, provided he has submitted, within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence, satisfactory evidence to the employer or his representative that same was not the result of his own misconduct.

Provided that where, under any scheme of insurance or an accident relief or provident fund to secure the benefit of which the employer has paid the necessary premium, or under any Workers' Compensation Act, compensation becomes payable for any of such days of absence, the employer shall not be bound to pay more of such wage than is sufficient, with such compensation, to make up the full pay for any such days.

(c) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed in sub-clause (b) (iv) hereof is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall, provided an employee remains in the service of the one employer, or any successor of such employer, be cumulative from year to year. For the purposes of this sub-clause service prior to the 1st June, 1940, shall be disregarded.

TIME WAGES.

6. Any person employed in a factory or shop on time wages for less than the number of hours fixed for an ordinary week's work shall be paid, for time worked up to one-half the number of hours fixed, at the ordinary wages rate with an addition of thirty-three and a third per centum. For time worked beyond the 20 hours aforesaid, he shall be paid the ordinary wages rate up to, but not exceeding the rate prescribed by this Determination for an ordinary week's work.

CONTRACT WORK.

7. No person shall contract or enter into an agreement with any other person or persons to perform any work connected with the preparation of firewood for sale or for use in any trade or business at a lower rate or price than the appropriate wages rate or piecework price prescribed by this Determination.

SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.

8. (a) Except as herein provided otherwise, if an employee is required to work on a holiday or on a Sunday, he shall be paid at double the ordinary prescribed rate.

(b) If a casual employee desires to work on a holiday and with the consent of the employer does so work, he shall be paid therefor at the ordinary prescribed rate.

(c) In the case of any other employee, other than a pieceworker, engaged by the week no deduction shall be made from his wages for the week because of his not working on a holiday.

(d) The expression "holiday" means any of the following days:—Australia Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Labour Day, Olympic Day (22nd November, 1956), Christmas Day, and Boxing Day, or day or days substituted by Act of Parliament or Proclamation in lieu of such public holidays.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

8a. New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Queen's Birthday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day, or any other day by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the said days shall be observed as public holidays.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

9. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts.

ALLOWANCES.

10. (a) An employee shall have the right to elect whether he shall travel each day to and from the job, or camp at such job. Having so elected, he shall be entitled to the special allowance where applicable, as provided in sub-clauses (b) and (c) hereof.

(b) Employees who, in order to be available for their work, have to live in a camp established either by the employer or employees for the purpose of enabling employees to be so available by living therein, shall be paid a camping allowance of 2s. for each day on which they are required to hold themselves, and do hold themselves available in the camp throughout the said day to serve the employer's purpose on that or any other day, whether or not work is done on the said day, but this clause shall not apply to any Sunday, unless the employee is required to work on that Sunday.

(c) An employee who finds it necessary to travel five miles or over to his place of employment shall, unless transport is provided by the employer free of cost to the employee, be paid a travelling allowance of 2s. per day.

TIME RECORD.

11. (a) The employer shall keep a record of the names of the employees of such employer, and in respect of each such employee, a record from week to week of the periods, times, and class of work done, and the rates of wage and amounts of wages paid, and shall obtain from week to week the signature of each employee to such record.

(b) The secretary or duly accredited representative of the Federated Fodder and Fuel Trades' Industrial Union authorized in writing to that effect by such secretary shall be allowed, on any day coming two days after a pay day between 10 a.m. and noon, or at such other times as may be agreed upon, to inspect such records so far as may be reasonably necessary to obtain information therefrom relating to any member or members of the said union.

WET WEATHER PROVISIONS.

12. (i) (a) In the event of rain being sufficiently heavy to justify a temporary cessation of work, such work shall cease forthwith and during the cessation of work employees shall hold themselves in readiness for work during ordinary working hours, and shall be paid for the actual time of waiting at ordinary time wages rates of pay.

(b) When weather conditions are suitable employees shall resume work immediately.

(ii) If the employer's representative considers the weather justifying the cessation of work is likely to continue for a lengthy period the payment, as set forth in sub-clause (i), may be discontinued, and employees shall not be bound to hold themselves in readiness for a resumption of work.

Provided that, for any day on which an employee is ready and willing to commence work, he shall be entitled to payment as though he had worked for a minimum of four hours.

(iii) The employer shall provide adequate and suitable shelter from the rain for the employee.

(iv) The employer shall provide adequate facilities for the employee to dry off his wet clothes.

SPECIAL TREATMENT OF INJURED.

13. The employer, as soon as reasonably possible, shall supply means free of charge to convey to the nearest hospital or doctor any employee so seriously injured that it is not reasonably possible for such employee to travel independently of such conveyance.

FIRST-AID AND MEDICAL OUTFIT.

14. The employer shall provide at every main place of employment a first-aid outfit. Such outfit shall consist of at least the following:—Boracic acid, iodine, picric acid (bottle solution), 1-in. bandages, lint, cotton, triangle bandages, lysol, permanganate of potash, snake-bite scarifier, splints capable of being used in 12-in. lengths, and one pair of scissors.

ACCOMPANYING SICK OR INJURED EMPLOYEES.

15. No employee suffering from illness or injury sustained on the job shall be permitted to leave the job unless accompanied or assisted by a sufficient number of employees, except in the case of his removal by ambulance, to his home or nearest hospital. All expenses incurred in such patient's removal shall be paid by the employer, and no employee assisting or accompanying an injured or sick person shall lose any wages by so doing.

PIECEWORK.

16. (a) A schedule of piecework prices (as shown hereunder) to be paid to any person for doing certain kinds of work has been fixed by the Board, and in addition to these prices, when required to do so, pieceworkers shall be paid 4½d. per ton extra to stack tops, or 6½d. per ton extra to stack and burn tops.

(b) The schedule of piecework prices includes a loading to provide for two weeks' annual holiday and to compensate for times lost through sickness (1 week) and for time lost on account of public holidays (10 days).

NOTE.—The Board determines that no person shall be employed as an apprentice.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT.

18. (i) Except as in this Determination otherwise provided, the ordinary weekly total of hours shall be 40 in number; all to be worked on days other than Sunday.

(ii) (a) Such ordinary weekly total, at the option of the employer, may be spread over five or six days and, except on shift work, shall be worked in one period occurring between 7.30 a.m. and 12.30 p.m. on Saturday and between 7.30 a.m. and 5.15 p.m. on other days, subject to the recognized meal hours or intervals and smoke-oh of ten minutes each morning and afternoon, but no other breaks imposed by the employer.

(b) If a five-day week is worked the ordinary daily total of working hours shall be not more than 8, and if a six-day week is worked such total shall be not more than four on Saturday and not more than eight on any other day.

(iii) The employer may require employees to work such ordinary weekly total on a shift or relay, being one of either two or three shifts or relays worked in the 24 hours, but subject only to the following conditions:—

(a) Each shift shall be worked in one period with no break except for recognized meal intervals and smoke-oh.

(b) In each shift during which the employee does not receive the same amount of time for a meal interval or smoke-oh as that which day workers receive under this Determination he shall be paid at ordinary rates for twenty minutes' crib time and two smoke-ohs of ten minutes each.

(c) Where a shift comprises within its period any time between 7 p.m. and 6 a.m. the whole of the time worked during the shift shall be paid for at ordinary rate plus $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.

(d) Where practicable, shifts shall be changed in rotation each week.

(iv) Smoke-ohs shall be counted as part of time worked.

OVERTIME, ETC.

19. (a) Except as in this Determination otherwise provided, all time worked in excess of the ordinary weekly or daily hours of work shall be paid at one and a half times the ordinary prescribed rate for the first four hours, and at double the ordinary prescribed rate for the time thereafter.

(b) Horse drivers who, in excess of such weekly or daily total hours of work, are required to spend time in taking charge of teams at the yard, camp, or stable, or in returning teams thereto, shall be paid for such time at the ordinary rate.

(c) If an employee is required by his employer to be for any time anywhere only for the purposes of the employer in respect of the business in which the employee is employed, the employee shall be deemed to be on duty for the employer during such time, and shall be paid at the appropriate prescribed rate (if any) for so much of such time as is spent in work, and at the ordinary minimum rate for so much of such time as is not so spent.

Provided that this clause shall not apply to any time spent by an employee in the course of going to or coming from any yard, camp, stable, depot or picking-up place of the employer, or in the course of going to a place of the employer, or in the course of going to a place of work for the purpose of starting work, or in the course of coming therefrom after ceasing work.

(d) Employees recalled to work after the expiration of their customary working time for the day, and after they have left work for the day, shall be paid at the least as for working two hours at one and a half times the prescribed rate.

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT.

20. (a) Subject to exceptions and limitations hereinafter contained any employer shall have the option of engaging any employee either by the week or casually.

(b) (i) If the engagement is by the week it shall be for a continuous period of at least eight weeks, and thereafter shall be terminable on either side by a week's notice which may be made to expire at any time during a week of the employment. Provided that this clause shall not affect the employer's right to dismiss forthwith at any time an employee because of the latter's incompetence or misconduct, in which case the employee shall be entitled in respect of wages for the then current week's employment, only to payment proportionate to the aggregate of time worked by him, and of such other previous time (if any) in that week as to which under this Determination no deduction from his week's wages is allowable.

(ii) An engagement shall be deemed to be and to continue casual unless the employer, at the commencement of the engagement or before any change by him of a casual engagement of the employee to one by the week, expressly notifies the employee that he is to be engaged by the week.

Employees on casual engagement shall be paid at the rate of time and a quarter.

(iii) The employer shall have the right to deduct payment for any day upon which the employee cannot be employed usefully because of any strike, or through any breakdown of machinery, or any stoppage of work, or any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

(iv) No deduction shall be made from the wages of any employee unavoidably absent through illness for not more than 40 working hours in each year, i.e., 10 hours for each three months' service, commencing 1st December, 1941, provided he has submitted, within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence, satisfactory evidence to the employer or his representative that same was not the result of his own misconduct.

Provided that where, under any scheme of insurance or an accident relief or provident fund to secure the benefit of which the employer has paid the necessary premium, or under any Workers' Compensation Act, compensation becomes payable for any of such days of absence, the employer shall not be bound to pay more of such wage than is sufficient, with such compensation, to make up the full pay for any such days.

(c) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed in sub-clause (b) (iv) hereof is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall, provided an employee remains in the service of the one employer, or any successor of such employer, be cumulative from year to year. For the purposes of this sub-clause service prior to the 1st June, 1949, shall be disregarded.

SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.

21. (a) Except as herein provided otherwise, if an employee is required to work on a holiday or on a Sunday, he shall be paid at double the ordinary prescribed rate.

(b) If a casual employee desires to work on a holiday and with the consent of the employer does so work, he shall be paid therefor at the ordinary prescribed rate.

(c) In the case of any other employee engaged by the week no deduction shall be made from his wages for the week because of his not working on a holiday.

(d) The expression "holiday" means any of the following days:—Australia Day, New Year's Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Labour Day, Olympic Day (22nd November, 1956), Christmas Day and Boxing Day, or day or days substituted by Act of Parliament or Proclamation in lieu of such public holidays.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

21A. New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Queen's Birthday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day, or any other day by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of the said days shall be observed as public holidays.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

22. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts.

ALLOWANCES.

23. Employees who, in order to be available for their work, have to live in a camp established either by the employer or employees for the purpose of enabling employees to be so available by living therein, shall be paid a camping allowance of 2s. for each day on which they are required to hold themselves, and do hold themselves available in the camp throughout the said day to serve the employer's purpose on that or any other day, whether or not work is done on the said day, but this clause shall not apply to any Sunday, unless the employee is required to work on that Sunday.

WASHING FACILITIES.

24. Each employer shall provide for all the employees suitable washing troughs or other conveniences, which shall be approved by the Secretary for Labour and Industry or his Inspector.

TIME RECORD.

25. (a) The employer shall keep a record of the names of the employees of such employer, and in respect of each such employee, a record from week to week of the periods, times and class of work done, and the rates of wage and amounts of wages paid, and shall obtain from week to week the signature of each employee to such record.

(b) The secretary or duly accredited representative of the Federated Fodder and Fuel Trades' Industrial Union authorized in writing to that effect by such secretary shall be allowed, on any day coming two days after a pay day between 10 a.m. and noon, or at such other times as may be agreed upon, to inspect such records so far as may be reasonably necessary to obtain information therefrom relating to any member or members of the said union.

WET WEATHER PROVISIONS.

26. (i) (a) In the event of rain being sufficiently heavy to justify a temporary cessation of work, such work shall cease forthwith and during the cessation of work employees shall hold themselves in readiness for work during ordinary working hours, and shall be paid for the actual time of waiting at ordinary time wages rates of pay.

(b) When weather conditions are suitable employees shall resume work immediately.

(ii) If the employer's representative considers the weather justifying the cessation of work is likely to continue for a lengthy period the payment, as set forth in sub-clause (i), may be discontinued, and employees shall not be bound to hold themselves in readiness for a resumption of work.

Provided that, for any day on which an employee is ready and willing to commence work, he shall be entitled to payment as though he had worked for a minimum of four hours.

(iii) The employer shall provide adequate and suitable shelter from the rain for the employee.

(iv) The employer shall provide adequate facilities for the employee to dry off his wet clothes.

SPECIAL TREATMENT OF INJURED.

27. The employer, as soon as reasonably possible, shall supply means free of charge to convey to the nearest hospital or doctor any employee so seriously injured that it is not reasonably possible for such employee to travel independently of such conveyance.

FIRST-AID AND MEDICAL OUTFIT.

28. The employer shall provide at every main place of employment a first-aid outfit. Such outfit shall consist of at least the following:—Boracic acid, iodine picric acid (bottle solution), 1-in. bandages, lint, cotton, triangle bandages, lysol, permanganate of potash, snake-bite scarifier, splints capable of being used in 12-in. lengths, and one pair of scissors.

SHELTER.

29. The employer shall provide adequate and suitable shelter, with seating accommodation for employees.

SANITATION.

30. In every camp where the pan system is not in use, the employer shall install sanitary conveniences, and provide attention hereto. Where no camp is established, practicable and reasonable temporary provision shall be made by the employer.

ACCOMPANYING SICK OR INJURED EMPLOYEES.

31. No employee suffering from illness or injury sustained on the job shall be permitted to leave the job unless accompanied or assisted by a sufficient number of employees, except in the case of his removal by ambulance, to his home or nearest hospital. All expenses incurred in such patient's removal shall be paid by the employer, and no employee assisting or accompanying an injured or sick person shall lose any wages by so doing.

CHARCOAL BURNING.

32. (i) The lowest prices to be paid to any person employed burning charcoal from wood which has to be transported not more than half a mile to the retort or kiln in which it is to be burned shall be those prescribed in the following schedule, viz. :—

	Price per Ton of Charcoal.
	(a) Where more than 50 per cent. of the wood used has to be felled.	(b) In circumstances other than (a).
	s. d.	s. d.
Grey box, red box, red gum, or ironbark	146 10	134 1
Any other variety of wood	158 8	140 5

The above prices shall include all necessary cutting, cartage to the retort or kiln, filling and sewing of bags, and the adequate provision by the employee of food for any horse which is being used in connexion with the work.

The above prices include a loading to provide for two week's annual holiday and to compensate for time lost through sickness (1 week) and for time lost on account of public holidays (10 days).

(ii) If the wood to be burned is situated more than half a mile from the retort or kiln, 3s. 6d. extra per ton of charcoal shall be paid for each extra half mile or portion thereof.

(iii) The employer shall supply, free of charge, all tools, vehicles, and equipment necessary.

 - (ii) If such knives are not returned the employer shall be entitled to deduct their cost from any money owing to the employee.
- (b) The following tools of trade shall be supplied for use in the beef house—choppers, saws, long arms and pritchels. The maintenance of choppers shall be the responsibility of the employee.

RIGHT OF ENTRY.

31. A duly accredited representative of the Australian Meat Industry Employees Union shall have the right to enter employers' premises during the meal hour for the purpose of interviewing employees on legitimate Union business on the following conditions :—

- (a) That he produces his authority to the manager or such other person as may be appointed by the employer.
- (b) That he interviews employees only at the place where they are taking their meal.
- (c) That not more than one representative visits the premises at any one time.
- (d) That not more than one representative visits the same premises more than once in a week; and
- (e) That, if any employer alleges that a representative is unduly interfering with his business or is creating disaffection amongst his employees or is offensive in his methods or is committing a breach of any of the previous conditions, such employer may refuse the right of entry.

BOARD OF REFERENCE.

31A. The Wages Board has determined that in accordance with Section 31 (1) of the Labour and Industry Act 1953, a Board of Reference shall be appointed to determine disputes of facts concerning any provision of its Determination.

The Board of Reference shall consist of—

- (i) The Chairman of the Wages Board.
- (ii) Two representatives of employers, of whom one shall be a member of the Wages Board, and such representatives shall be appointed by a majority of the employers' representatives on the Wages Board, and
- (iii) Two representatives of employees, of whom one shall be a member of the Wages Board, and such representatives shall be appointed by a majority of the employees' representatives on the Wages Board.

SECTION C.

PERIODICAL ADJUSTMENT OF WAGES.

40. The wages rates set out in clauses 2 to 8 (inclusive), 32, and 33, are based upon the following basic wage rate, and pursuant to the provisions of Section 33 of the Labour and Industry Act 1953, the Board hereby determines that such rates shall be automatically adjusted from time to time in accordance with the variations in the said basic wage as follows :—

- (a) The daily earnings of pieceworkers (except learners and calf skinners skinning cold calves) in clauses 2 to 5 inclusive shall be increased or decreased by 2½d. for every 1s. increase or decrease in the basic wage.
- (b) For every 1s. increase or decrease in the basic wage an amount of .048d. shall be added to or subtracted from the daily earnings of pieceworkers for sick leave loading.
- (c) All other rates shall be increased or decreased in proportion to the increase or decrease in the basic wage plus or minus a sick leave loading of .048d. per day for each 1s.

ADJUSTMENT OF BASIC WAGE.

41. (a) For the purposes of this Determination, the expression "Commonwealth Statistician's 'C' series retail price index numbers" or any like expression means the numbers stated to be such index numbers in any document purporting, and not proved to be wrongly so purporting, to be printed by the Commonwealth Government Printer or to be signed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth Statistician.

(b) Until the beginning of the first pay period to commence in November, 1956, the amount of the basic wage shall be as prescribed in clause 40.

(c) During each future successive period beginning with the first pay period to commence in a November, a February, a May or an August, the amount of the basic wage shall be adjusted by the following method, namely, by multiplying the last published Commonwealth Statistician's "C" series retail index number by the factor .103 taken to one place of decimals, the resultant whole number being the amount of the basic wage expressed in shillings, but should the decimal number reach .5 or more the basic wage shall be taken to the next higher shilling.

STAFF EMPLOYED.

2. For the purposes of this Determination, the number of staff employed shall exclude the Superintendent/Secretary and shall be the staff shown in the last annual return furnished by the respective Ambulance Service to the Hospitals and Charities Commission of Victoria, inclusive of staff employed at Branch Stations.

DEFINITION.

3. "Superintendent/Secretary" shall mean any person employed full time as such.

WORKING WEEK.

4. A week's work shall be spread over five days provided that an officer shall work at other reasonable times as and when necessary.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

5. Employees shall be entitled to the following holidays without deduction of pay:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, the first Tuesday in November, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day, but, if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of these holidays, employees shall be entitled to the days so substituted.

Provided that employees rostered to work on public holidays and fail to do so shall not be entitled to holiday pay for the said holiday.

Provided further that, if an employee works on any of such holidays, or such holiday occurs on his or her rostered day off or during his or her period of annual leave, he or she shall be given—

(a) within four weeks following the date on which such holiday occurred—

- (1) one extra day's pay; or
- (2) equal time off in lieu thereof; or

(b) one day shall be added to his or her annual leave; or

(c) in the case of an employee not qualifying for annual leave and sub-clause (a) (1) and (2) hereof has not been applied, one day's pay shall be added to the payment in lieu of annual leave.

5.A.—In connexion with the holding of the Olympic Games in Victoria, during the months of November, and December, 1956 where a holiday or half-holiday is proclaimed by Order in Council throughout any Municipality or part thereof, or within any defined area, such holiday or half-holiday shall, so far as such Municipality or part thereof, or such defined area is concerned be deemed to be included in the list of holidays prescribed in clause 5 hereof.

Provided that no employee shall be entitled to the conditions prescribed by this clause for more than the equivalent of one working day.

Provided further that an employee who fails to attend for work on the working day before and/or after such holiday or half-holiday without reasonable excuse shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday or half-holiday.

ANNUAL LEAVE.

6. (a) Officers shall be entitled to annual leave of four weeks on the completion of each year of service in any ambulance service. Should any day or days specified in Clause 5 as public holidays occur during an officer's period of annual leave, an additional day shall be added to the period of annual leave for each such specified day so occurring.

(b) Annual leave shall be granted within a period of six months after becoming due, at a time suitable to the Committee.

(c) An officer whose employment is terminated with less than twelve months' service in any qualifying twelve-monthly period shall be granted pro rata annual leave or payment in lieu.

SICK LEAVE.

7. (a) An officer shall be entitled to be absent without loss of pay on account of personal ill-health or accident, proof of which shall be submitted in a manner satisfactory to the Committee, for a period not exceeding in the aggregate 28 working days for each twelve months of service.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (a) hereof, if the full period of sick leave therein contained is not taken in any year such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year.

(c) For the purposes of this sub-clause service prior to the 1st May, 1951, shall be disregarded.

LONG SERVICE LEAVE.

8. (a) Subject to the provisions set out in this clause, all employees after the completion of twenty years' continuous service in the ambulance service shall be entitled to six months' leave of absence on full salary or wage, and such leave shall be granted by the employer as soon as practicable having regard to the needs of his establishment, but the taking of such leave may be postponed to such date as is mutually agreed, or in default of agreement, as the Industrial Appeals Court, having regard to the problems involved, directs; but no such direction shall require such long service leave to commence before the expiry of six months from the date of such direction.

(b) When an employee who has been in the service for at least the period prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof resigns or is retired such employee shall be entitled to a retiring gratuity from the employer equivalent to the salary or wage for the period of leave to which the employee would have been entitled under sub-clause (a) hereof, plus a pro rata amount for all service in excess of twenty years.

(c) In the case of an employee who has completed at least ten years' service but less than twenty years' service with the ambulance service and whose employment is terminated—

(i) by the employer for any cause other than serious and wilful misconduct;

(ii) by the employee on account of illness, incapacity, or domestic or any other pressing necessity where such illness, incapacity, or necessity is of such nature as to justify such termination—

shall be entitled to such amount of long service leave as equals one-eightieth of the period of continuous employment.

(d) Upon the death from any cause of an employee who, at the date of his death, was eligible for the grant of long service leave, the Board shall pay to the nominee or personal representative of the deceased employee the amount that the employee would have been entitled to receive had he retired immediately prior to the date of his death.

(e) For the purposes of this clause the following definitions shall apply:—

"Service" shall mean service calculated as from the date of entering employment with an ambulance service (hereinafter called the employer), whether or not the ambulance service has been transmitted from one employer to another during the period of such employment, as an employee, and shall include all periods during which an employee was serving in Her Majesty's Forces or was made available by the employer for national duty or for other periods of absence approved by the employer.

"Salary or Wage" shall mean—

(i) the employee's salary or wage (exclusive of overtime or other allowance) at the time leave is taken and shall be subject to any variations occurring in the basic wage during the period from the commencement of the leave until the resumption of work; or

(ii) the employee's salary or wage immediately prior to the employee leaving the service or death of the employee (as the case may be).

"Board" shall mean the Board or Controlling Authority of the ambulance service in which the employee is employed.

Words importing the masculine gender only shall include the feminine gender.

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural number and vice versa.

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCE.

9. (a) An officer required to travel on business in connexion with the ambulance service shall be re-imbursed all reasonable travelling expenses necessarily incurred.

(b) Where an officer is required to use his own motor car in connexion with the business of the ambulance service, he shall be re-imbursed such sum as may be agreed upon between the Committee and himself. In the absence of any such agreement, he shall be paid an allowance at the rate of 9d. per mile.

TERMINATION OF SERVICE.

10. To terminate employment, one month's written notice shall be given by the Committee or the employee, or one month's wages paid or forfeited, as the case may be. This shall not affect the right of a Committee to dismiss an employee for misconduct, in which case wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

ACCOMMODATION.

11. (a) An officer shall reside in quarters provided for him by the Committee. No deduction for use of such quarters shall be made from his wages and the officer shall be on call for matters associated with the ambulance service at all reasonable hours.

(b) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to the metropolitan area as defined in the Labour and Industry Act.

UNIFORMS.

12. One cap, 1 tunic, 2 pairs of trousers, 3 shirts, 1 tie, 1 pair of overalls, 2 pairs of boots, 1 raincoat and, where reasonably necessary, 1 dust coat shall be supplied free of cost to all employees, shall remain the property of the employer and shall be returned to the employer if called upon. Replacement of items of uniform supplied shall be made (as and when reasonably necessary as determined by the Committee).

EXISTING CUSTOMS AND PRACTICES.

13. This Determination is made on the understanding that all existing privileges and conditions, operating prior to August, 1956, shall continue.

PART 2.

This Part Applies to All Employees of Ambulance Services other than Superintendent/Secretaries and Employees of Victorian Civil Ambulance services.

1.

WAGES.

The following rates are based upon a basis wage of £13 : 3 : 0.

	Per Week.

Collector when engaged as such	15 18 0

HOURS.

2. (i) Ordinary hours.—The hours of work for all employees who are employed—

(a) at the Ambulance Headquarters Stations at Ballarat, Bendigo, Geelong, Mildura, Shepparton, Morwell, Horsham, Hamilton, Wangaratta, Warrnambool, Sale, Leongatha, Frankston, Echuca, and Swan Hill shall be 40 hours per week which shall be worked—

(1) in five days ; or

(2) in a fortnight of 80 hours in ten shifts of not more than eight hours each ;

(3) provided that no employee shall be required to work more than ten consecutive shifts without a day off duty. For the purpose of this clause, the working week shall commence at midnight on a Sunday ;

(b) at any one man branch ambulance station shall be 40 hours per week which may be worked in six days.

(ii) Rosters.—Such hours shall be worked according to rosters which shall be exhibited in each station at least one week before the commencing date of the roster and shall show the periods of duty for a period of fourteen days.

In emergency, or in the case of the sickness of any employee, the duty periods prescribed by the roster may be altered. Saturday and Sunday duty shall be equitably distributed amongst the transport staff.

(iii) Employees "on call"—

(a) Time on call means time during which, in accordance with the "on call" roster, an employee who is rostered off duty is required to hold himself in readiness to answer a call ;

(b) Time "on call" shall not be counted as time worked unless an employee is called out for duty, in which case an employee shall be paid at overtime rates for the actual period or periods of duty, with a minimum payment of one hour per call for the time so worked in any day during which the employee is "on call". Provided further that nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit an employee from temporarily leaving the station or his home when rostered for "on call" after having made arrangements satisfactory to the Superintendent or, in his absence, his deputy, for the proper carrying on by him of the service during his temporary absence ;

(c) An employee shall be free from "on call" duty every second weekend and for at least six days in every period of fourteen consecutive days.

(iv) As compensation for time "on call" an employee who, during a period of his employment is required to be "on call" pursuant to paragraph (iii) of this sub-clause shall be paid for each and every week of such period of employment an additional twenty shillings. This paragraph shall not apply to employees in one-man Branch Stations.

(v) One-man Branch Stations.—As compensation for time "on call", employees shall be given accommodation rent free. They shall be given relief from duty for at least one day in each seven days, or at least two days in each fourteen days and shall be paid the rate prescribed by this Determination for "Station Officers". Days of relief from duty may be accumulated by mutual agreement between the employee and the Superintendent/Secretary, up to a maximum of eight days. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to prohibit an employee in a one-man Branch Station from temporarily leaving the station at times when he is rostered on duty after having made arrangements satisfactory to the Superintendent/Secretary or, in his absence, his deputy, for a proper carrying on by him of the service during his temporary absence.

(vi) A daily record shall be kept at one-man Branch Stations of all time actually worked and when the total number of hours actually worked exceed 80 per fortnight, the excess shall be paid for at overtime rates : Time actually worked shall include maintenance of vehicles, collecting, compilation of reports or any other work associated with the conduct of the service.

(vii) Branch Stations.—Two or more employees.—At a branch station with two or more employees an employee if requested to reside in quarters provided by the Ambulance Service may be charged an amount not exceeding 20/- per week as rental for such quarters. The provisions of clause 2 (i) to (iv) inclusive shall apply to Branch Stations with two or more employees.

CASUAL LABOUR.

3. A casual employee, i.e., a person who is employed for not more than sixteen hours in not more than two days, shall be paid per hour an amount equal to one and one-tenth of the weekly rate prescribed by this Determination for the work performed divided by 40.

OVERTIME.

4. Subject to sub-clause (iii) of Clause 2 hereof all time worked in excess of the number of hours fixed for a week's work or a fortnight's work, as the case may be, shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. An employer may require any employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates.

SPECIAL RATES FOR SATURDAY AND SUNDAY.

5. All rostered time of ordinary duty worked between midnight on Friday to midnight on Saturday shall be paid for at the rate of time and a quarter.

All rostered time of ordinary duty worked between midnight on Saturday and midnight on Sunday shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half.

If all time worked on a Saturday or Sunday is in excess of the prescribed rostered hours of duty, the excess period shall be paid at the rate of time and three-quarters for Saturday and double time for Sunday.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

6. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts.

SICK LEAVE.

7. (a) In the event of an employee becoming sick and unfit for duty he shall be entitled to sick leave on full pay as follows :—

- (i) During the first year of service—one working day for each month of service ;
- (ii) During the second, third, and fourth years of service—fourteen working days in each year ;
- (iii) Thereafter—21 working days in each year.

Provided that, in either case, such employee produces or forwards, within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence, evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill-health or accident necessitating such absence.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof is not taken in any year, such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year.

For the purposes of this sub-clause service prior to the 1st May, 1951, shall be disregarded.

(c) For the purposes of this clause a working day shall be one of eight hours.

SPECIAL LEAVE.

8. Leave with pay may be granted in special circumstances at the discretion of the Committee.

LONG SERVICE LEAVE.

9. (a) Subject to the provisions set out in this clause, all employees after the completion of twenty years' continuous service in the ambulance service shall be entitled to six months' leave of absence on full salary or wage, and such leave shall be granted by the employer as soon as practicable having regard to the needs of his establishment, but the taking of such leave may be postponed to such date as is mutually agreed or, in default of agreement, as the Industrial Appeals Court, having regard to the problems involved directs; but no such direction shall require such long service leave to commence before the expiry of six months from the date of such direction.

(b) When an employee who has been in the service for at least the period prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof resigns or is retired, such employee shall be entitled to a retiring gratuity from the employer equivalent to the salary or wage for the period of leave to which the employee would have been entitled under sub-clause (a) hereof, plus a pro rata amount for all service in excess of twenty years.

(c) In the case of an employee who has completed at least ten years' service, but less than twenty years' service, with the ambulance service and whose employment is terminated—

(i) by the employer for any cause other than serious and wilful misconduct;

(ii) by the employee on account of illness, incapacity, or domestic or any other pressing necessity, where such illness, incapacity, or necessity is of such nature as to justify such termination—

shall be entitled to such amount of long service leave as equals one-eightieth of the period of continuous employment.

(d) Upon the death from any cause of an employee who, at the date of his death, was eligible for the grant of long service leave, the Board shall pay to the nominee or personal representative of the deceased employee the amount that the employee would have been entitled to receive had he retired immediately prior to the date of his death.

(e) For the purposes of this clause the following definitions shall apply:—

“Service” shall mean service calculated as from the date of entering employment with an ambulance service (hereinafter called the employer), whether or not the ambulance service has been transmitted from one employer to another during the period of such employment, as an employee, and shall include all periods during which an employee was serving in Her Majesty's Forces or was made available by the employer for national duty or for other periods of absence approved by the employer.

“Salary or Wage” shall mean—

(i) the employee's salary or wage (exclusive of overtime or other allowance) at the time leave is taken and shall be subject to any variations occurring in the basic wage during the period from the commencement of the leave until the resumption of work; or

(ii) the employee's salary or wage immediately prior to the employee leaving the service or death of the employee (as the case may be).

“Board” shall mean the Board or Controlling Authority of the ambulance service in which the employee is employed.

Words importing the masculine gender only shall include the feminine gender.

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural number and vice versa.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

10. Employees shall be entitled to the following holidays without deduction of pay:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, the first Tuesday in November, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day; but, if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation substituted for any of these holidays, employees shall be entitled to the days so substituted.

Provided that employees rostered to work on public holidays and failing to do so shall not be entitled to holiday pay for the said holiday.

Provided further that, if an employee works on any of such holidays, or such holiday occurs on his or her rostered day off, or during his or her period of annual leave, he or she shall be given—

(a) within four weeks following the date on which such holiday occurred—

(1) one extra day's pay; or

(2) equal time off in lieu thereof; or

(b) one day shall be added to his or her annual leave; or

(c) in the case of an employee not qualifying for annual leave and sub-clause (a) (1) and (2) hereof has not been applied, one day's pay shall be added to the payment in lieu of annual leave.

10A. In connexion with the holding of the Olympic Games in Victoria, during the months of November and December, 1956, where a holiday or half-holiday is proclaimed by Order in Council throughout any Municipality or part thereof, or within any defined area, such holiday or half-holiday shall, so far as such Municipality or part thereof, or such defined area is concerned be deemed to be included in the list of holidays prescribed in clause 10 hereof.

Provided that no employee shall be entitled to the conditions prescribed by this clause for more than the equivalent of one working day.

Provided further that an employee who fails to attend for work on the working day before and/or after such holiday or half-holiday without reasonable excuse shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday or half-holiday.

MEAL INTERVAL.

11. A meal interval of not less than 30 minutes shall be allowed each employee during each shift. Such meal interval shall not be counted as time worked.

UNIFORMS.

12. One cap, 1 tunic, 2 pairs of trousers, 3 shirts, 1 tie, 1 pair of overalls, 2 pairs of boots, 1 raincoat and, where reasonably necessary, 1 dust coat shall be supplied free of cost to all employees and shall remain the property of the employer and shall be returned to the employer if called upon. Replacement of items of uniform supplied shall be made (as and when reasonably necessary as determined by the Committee).

Employees who lose their uniforms or part thereof are liable to pay 60 per cent. of the replacement cost.

The provisions of this clause shall not apply to an employee on probation.

PROTECTIVE CLOTHING.

13. Rubber gloves and all necessary protective clothing and safety appliances shall be provided free of cost for the use of employees and an adequate supply of same shall be maintained.

RELIEVING OTHER MEMBERS OF STAFF.

14. Where an employee is called upon to relieve a station officer in charge of a branch station on annual or sick leave and, by so doing, is required to live away from home, he shall be paid full board and lodging.

An employee appointed to relieve in a higher classification for a period of not less than five days shall receive not less than the minimum rate prescribed for the higher classification.

TRAVELLING TIME AND EXPENSES.

15. (a) Where an employee is directed to report for duty to a Branch or Headquarters Station, other than that to which he is posted, he shall travel to and from such station in the employer's time, and his fares and incidental expenses shall be paid by the employer.

(b) When an employee is required to report to the office of the Superintendent/Secretary on his day off duty he shall be paid a sum of ten shillings.

TRAVELLING ON DUTY.

16. Where an employee is travelling on duty which involves more than ten hours' travelling, he shall be paid all travelling expenses actually incurred, including meals and sleeping accommodation where necessary.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

17. Wages shall be paid weekly and not later than Wednesday following the end of the pay period.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, if a Bank Holiday occurs on a Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday payment of wages may be made on the Thursday.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

18. Except where the conduct of an employee justifies instant dismissal, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either employer or employee, or one week's wages paid or forfeited, as the case may be, in lieu of such notice.

UNION INTERVIEWS.

19. During working hours employees of an establishment subject to this Determination may, with the consent of the person in charge of such establishment (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) be interviewed by the Secretary or other accredited representative of the Hospital Employees' Federation of Australia, or have their Union contributions collected by the steward of the said organization.

EXISTING CUSTOMS AND PRACTICES.

20. This Determination is made on the understanding that all existing privileges and conditions, operating prior to August, 1956, shall continue.

PART 3.

This Part Applies to Employees of the Victorian Civil Ambulance Service other than Superintendent/Secretary.

Ambulance Driver in Training (six months' probation)	17 11 0

The above rates contain an amount to compensate employees required to work on Saturdays and Sundays.

(b) Foreman Trainee.—A foreman trainee (on probation) after three months shall be paid the rate set out in (a) above.

HOURS.

2. (a) Ordinary Hours.—The hours of work for all employees who are employed at the Ambulance Headquarters, Victorian Civil Ambulance Service, shall be 40 hours per week which shall be worked—

(i) in five days; or

(ii) in a fortnight of 80 hours in ten shifts of not more than eight hours each.

For the purposes of this clause the working week shall commence at midnight on a Sunday.

(b) Rosters.—Such hours shall be worked according to rosters which shall be exhibited in each station at least one week before the commencing date of the roster and shall show the periods of duty for a period of fourteen days. In emergency, or in the case of the sickness of any employee, the duty periods prescribed by the roster may be altered.

CASUAL LABOUR.

3. A casual employee, i.e., a person who is employed for not more than sixteen hours in not more than two days, shall be paid, per hour, an amount equal to one and one-tenth of the weekly rate prescribed by this Determination for the work performed divided by 40.

OVERTIME.

4. All time worked in excess of the number of hours fixed for a week's work or a fortnight's work, as the case may be, shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half. An employer may require any employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

5. The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts.

SICK LEAVE

6. (a) In the event of an employee becoming sick and unfit for duty he shall be entitled to sick leave on full pay as follows:—

(i) During the first year of service—one working day for each month of service;

(ii) During the second, third, and fourth years of service—fourteen working days in each year;

(iii) Thereafter—21 working days in each year.

Provided that, in either case, such employee notifies Headquarters at least one hour prior to the rostered time of the commencement of the shift and produces or forwards within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that his or her non-attendance was due to personal ill-health or accident necessitating such absence

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof is not taken in any year, such portion as is not taken shall be cumulative from year to year.

For the purposes of this sub-clause service prior to the 1st May, 1951, shall be disregarded.

(c) For the purposes of this clause a working day shall be one of eight hours.

SPECIAL LEAVE.

7. Leave with pay may be granted in special circumstances at the discretion of the Committee.

LONG SERVICE LEAVE.

8. (a) Subject to the provisions set out in this clause all employees after the completion of twenty years' continuous service in the ambulance service shall be entitled to six months' leave of absence on full salary or wage, and such leave shall be granted by the employer as soon as practicable having regard to the needs of his establishment, but the taking of such leave may be postponed to such date as is mutually agreed or, in default of agreement, as the Industrial Appeals Court, having regard to the problems involved, directs; but no such direction shall require such long service leave to commence before the expiry of six months from the date of such direction.

(b) When an employee who has been in the service for at least the period prescribed in sub-clause (a) hereof resigns or is retired, such employee shall be entitled to a retiring gratuity from the employer equivalent to the salary or wage for the period of leave to which the employee would have been entitled under sub-clause (a) hereof, plus a pro rata amount for all service in excess of twenty years.

(c) In the case of an employee who has completed at least ten years' service but less than twenty years' service with the ambulance service and whose employment is terminated—

(i) by the employer for any cause other than serious and wilful misconduct;

(ii) by the employee on account of illness, incapacity, or domestic or any other pressing necessity where such illness, incapacity, or necessity is of such nature as to justify such termination—

shall be entitled to such amount of long service leave as equals one-eightieth of the period of continuous employment.

(d) Upon the death from any cause of an employee who, at the date of his death, was eligible for the grant of long service leave, the Board shall pay to the nominee or personal representative of the deceased employee the amount that the employee would have been entitled to receive had he retired immediately prior to the date of his death.

(e) For the purposes of this clause the following definitions shall apply:—

"Service" shall mean service calculated as from the date of entering employment with an ambulance service (hereinafter called the employer), whether or not the ambulance service has been transmitted from one employer to another during the period of such employment, as an employee, and shall include all periods during which an employee was serving in Her Majesty's Forces or was made available by the employer for national duty or for other periods of absence approved by the employer.

"Salary or Wage" shall mean—

(i) the employee's salary or wage (exclusive of overtime or other allowance) at the time leave is taken and shall be subject to any variations occurring in the basic wage during the period from the commencement of the leave until the resumption of work; or

(ii) the employee's salary or wage immediately prior to the employee leaving the service or death of the employee (as the case may be).

"Board" shall mean the Board or Controlling Authority of the ambulance service in which the employee is employed.

Words importing the masculine gender only shall include the feminine gender.

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural number and vice versa.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

9. Employees shall be entitled to the following holidays without deduction of pay:—New Year's Day, Australia Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Labour Day, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, the first Tuesday in November, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day; but, if any other day be by Act of Parliament or Proclamation, substituted for any of these holidays, employees shall be entitled to the days so substituted.

Provided that employees rostered to work on public holidays and fail to do so, shall not be entitled to holiday pay for the said holiday.

Provided further that, if an employee works on any of such holidays, or such holiday occurs on his or her rostered day off, or during his or her period of annual leave, he or she shall be given—

(a) within four weeks following the date on which such holiday occurred—

(1) one extra day's pay; or

(2) equal time off in lieu thereof; or

(b) one day shall be added to his or her annual leave; or

(c) in the case of an employee not qualifying for annual leave and sub-clause (a) (1) and (2) hereof has not been applied, one day's pay shall be added to the payment in lieu of annual leave.

9A. In connexion with the holding of the Olympic Games in Victoria, during the months of November, and December, 1956, where a holiday or half-holiday is proclaimed by Order in Council throughout any Municipality or part thereof, or within any defined area, such holiday or half-holiday shall, so far as such Municipality or part thereof, or such defined area is concerned be deemed to be included in the list of holidays prescribed in clause 9 hereof.

Provided that no employee shall be entitled to the conditions prescribed by this clause for more than the equivalent of one working day.

Provided further that an employee who fails to attend for work on the working day before and/or after such holiday or half-holiday without reasonable excuse shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday or half-holiday.

MEAL INTERVAL.

10. A meal interval of not less than 30 minutes shall be allowed each employee during each shift. Such meal interval shall not be counted as time worked.

UNIFORMS.

11. One cap, 1 tunic, 2 pairs of trousers, 3 shirts, 1 tie, 1 pair of overalls, 2 pairs of boots, 1 raincoat and, where reasonably necessary, 1 dust coat shall be supplied free of cost to all employees and shall remain the property of the employer and shall be returned to the employer if called upon. Replacement of items of uniform supplied shall be made (as and when reasonably necessary as determined by the Committee). Employees who lose their uniforms or part thereof are liable to pay 60 per cent. of the replacement cost.

The provisions of this clause shall not apply to an employee on probation.

PROTECTIVE CLOTHING.

12. Rubber gloves and all necessary protective clothing and safety appliances shall be provided free of cost for the use of employees and an adequate supply of same shall be maintained.

RELIEVING OTHER MEMBERS OF STAFF.

13. An employee appointed to relieve in a higher classification for a period of not less than five days shall receive not less than the minimum rate prescribed for the higher classification.

TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

14. Where an employee is directed to report for relieving duty at a branch other than that to which he is attached excess fares incurred over and above from his place of residence to Headquarters shall be paid by the employer.

TRAVELLING ON DUTY.

15. Where an employee is travelling on duty which involves more than ten hours' travelling, he shall be paid all travelling expenses actually incurred, including meals and sleeping accommodation where necessary.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

16. Wages shall be paid weekly and not later than Thursday following the end of the pay period. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, if a Bank Holiday occurs on a Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday, payment of wages may be made on the Friday.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

17. Except where the conduct of an employee justifies instant dismissal, seven days' notice of termination of employment shall be given by either employer or employee, or one week's wages paid or forfeited as the case may be in lieu of such notice.

UNION INTERVIEWS.

18. During working hours, employees of an establishment subject to this Determination may, with the consent of the person in charge of such establishment (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld) be interviewed by the Secretary or other accredited representative of the Hospital Employees' Federation of Australasia, or have their Union contributions collected by the steward of the said organization.

EXISTING CUSTOMS AND PRACTICES.

19. This Determination is made on the understanding that all existing privileges and conditions, operating prior to August, 1956, shall continue.
