IN THE SHIRE OF WINCHELSEA.

WHEREAS the Country Roads Board constituted under the Country Roads Act 1928 (No. 3662) has represented to His Excellency the Governor in Council that it appears to it desirable that the deviation herein-after referred to from the existing Otway-street in the Shire of Winchelsea should be made by the said Board: And whereas the said Board in accordance with the requirements of section 4 of the Country Roads Act 1936 (No. 4458) and of section 19 of the said first cited Act has caused to be prepared a map plan and estimate showing the points between which and on and through what land the said deviation is proposed to be made and the cost of acquiring the land: And whereas on an inspection of the said map and plan and a consideration of the said estimate His Excellency the Governor in Council is satisfied that there are funds legally available for acquiring the land: Now therefore be it known by this present Order that His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Victoria with the advice of the Executive Council thereof doth hereby approve of the said road being made, that is to say:—

All those pieces of land in the Parish of Lorne, the boundaries of which are as follow:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE CARE, PROTECTION, AND MANAGEMENT OF THE "CHILTERN VALLEY RECREATION RESERVE."

WHEREAS by section 181 of the Land Act 1928, as re-enacted by section 9 of the Land Act 1941, power is given to the Board of Land and Works to make Regulations in respect of the care, protection, and management of any Crown land which has been reserved under the Land Acts for any public purpose whatsoever and which has not been conveyed to or vested in trustees, and for the further purposes as enacted: Now therefore the Board of Land and Works, in pursuance of the power conferred as aforesaid, doth hereby make the following Regulations in respect of the land in the Parish of Chiltern West temporarily reserved by Order in Council of the 14th May, 1957, as a site for Public Recreation, known as the "Chiltern Valley Recreation Reserve," hereinafter referred to as the "Reserve." The Reserve has been placed under the control of a Committee of Management, hereinafter referred to as the "Committee":—

REGULATIONS.

1. The Reserve shall be open to the public from sunrise to sunset, free of charge, except on such days, not exceeding 52 days in any one year, as the Reserve may be set apart for cricket or football matches, fêtes, sports, or holiday amusements, on any of which occasions a sum not exceeding Five shillings may be charged and taken for admission of every adult to the Reserve.

2. No person shall:—

- (a) Enter or remain in the Reserve who may offend against decency as regards dress, language, or conduct, or who may behave in a disorderly or offensive manner, or create or take part in any disturbance.

(b) Enter or remain in the Reserve whilst in a state of intoxication.

(c) Bring any intoxicating liquor on the Reserve without the consent of the Committee first obtained.

(d) Exercise or train any horse or pony on the Reserve, or any part thereof, without the consent of the Committee first obtained.

3. The Committee shall have the power to hold entertainments, shows, or performances on the Reserve, and to make a charge for admission thereto as herein before provided.

4. The Committee shall have the power to let any portion of the Reserve to any club, association, person, or society for the purpose of holding entertainments, performances, shows, or sports, subject to the payment of such fees and on such terms as it may deem to be reasonable and consistent with these Regulations, and to authorize any club, association, society, or person to make a charge for admission thereto as herein before provided in these Regulations.

5. No person, except the Committee or its officers or employees on duty, shall enter any part of the Reserve on any occasion when a charge is made for admission thereto without first paying the fees chargeable for such admission.

6. The Committee may set apart the whole or any part of the reserve as a place for the parking of vehicles.

7. No person shall park a vehicle within the reserve, except in places set apart by the Committee for the parking of vehicles.

8. The Committee may fix such fee, not exceeding 2s. per day, as they think fit as the fee for the parking of vehicles in any place set apart within the Reserve for the parking of vehicles.

9. Every person who parks a vehicle in a place set apart for the parking of vehicles shall pay to the Committee or its authorized representatives, on demand, such fee as has been fixed by the Committee pursuant to these Regulations as the fee for parking in such place.

10. Every person bringing a vehicle into the Reserve shall obey the reasonable direction of the Committee or its authorized representatives in relation to the driving or parking of such vehicles within the Reserve.

11. No person shall take part in any public entertainment of any sort in the Reserve without the permission, in writing, of the Committee first obtained.

12. No person shall play, practise, or engage in any organized sport or game within the Reserve at any time without permission, in writing, of the Committee first obtained.

13. Persons renting or hiring any stand, building, erection, or enclosure on the occasion of any sport, fêtes, or holiday amusements may be required to deposit any sum which the Committee may at any time determine by way of guarantee that due care may be taken of such stand, building, erection, or any enclosure, and such Committee, in its absolute discretion, may make good any damage or injury or loss from the sum of money deposited by way of guarantee, and all persons so renting or hiring shall abide by these Regulations and by any order given by the Committee.

14. No person shall in the Reserve interfere with, break, or damage any of the trees, plants, or shrubs, or pluck any flowers, or climb, jump, or get over or under any of the fences, gates, seats, or any other structures therein, or roll or throw stones or other missiles, or leave any bottles, broken glass, paper, orange peel, banana-skins, or any refuse or rubbish whatever therein, or post bills or advertisements on any of the fences, gates, seats, or other structures therein.

16. No persons shall put in the Reserve any cattle, horses, sheep, goats, pigs, or other animals without permission, in writing, of the Committee first obtained.

17. No persons shall camp in the Reserve, nor erect therein any building or any booth for the purpose of offering for sale any article without permission, in writing, of the Committee first obtained.

18. No persons shall play, practise, or engage in any sport, including tennis, cricket, quoits, hockey, or any games, or foot-racing, except in the portions of the Reserve set apart for that purpose, and then only with the permission of the Committee first obtained, and such conditions as the Committee may determine.

19. No persons shall enter the Reserve, or pass over the playing oval, with any vehicle, or on horse-back, without the permission of the Committee first obtained, nor ride or drive amongst or to the danger or annoyance of persons assembled on any part of the Reserve.

20. No persons shall bet publicly in any part of the Reserve without permission, in writing, of the Committee first obtained.

21. No persons, club, or any other body shall without the consent of the Committee first obtained grade or scrape the ground off or cut or burn any grass growing on any part of the Reserve.

22. No persons shall remove any earth, sand, stones, marl, or gravel from the Reserve.—(Rs.7570.)

The common seal of the Board of Land and Works was hereunto affixed this first day of August, 1957, in the presence of—

Labour and Industry Acts.

DETERMINATION OF THE BRICK TRADE BOARD.

(b) On 21st February, 1911, the powers of the Brick Trade Board were extended so that it might fix "the lowest prices or rates which may be paid to any person or persons or classes of persons employed in the process, trade, or business of sand, lime, or cement brickmaking".

(c) On the 14th July, 1953, the Board was deprived of its powers to cover persons employed in the making of cement bricks and such powers were conferred on the Cement Articles Board.

IN accordance with the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts, the Wages Board appointed to "determine the lowest prices or rates which may be paid to any person or persons or classes of persons employed in the process, trade, or business of brickmaking (including clay-digging)" has made the following Determination, namely:—

1. That, as from the beginning of the first pay period to commence on or after the 19th June, 1957, the last previous Determination of this Board shall be revoked and replaced by this Determination.

(c) When the temperature of a kiln, ascertained at a height of five feet six inches from the ground, and at a distance of one foot six inches from the face of the bricks is over 115 degrees Fahrenheit, setters shall be entitled to additional allowances as follows:—

(i) between 115 degrees and 130 degrees 4d. per hour extra;

(ii) over 130 degrees 6d. per hour extra.

Where work continues for more than two hours in temperatures exceeding 130 degrees Fahrenheit, setters shall also be entitled to twenty minutes' rest after every two hours' work without deduction of pay.

SHIFT WORK.

"B" (The provisions of this clause shall have no application to Burners). Employees may be employed on shift work subject to the following provisions:—

(a) Continuous shift work (i.e., work done over a spread of 24 hours for at least six days a week).

(b) Other shift work.

(c) The premium rate to be paid for work done during any afternoon or night shift shall be ordinary rates plus ten per cent.

(d) Shift workers who work on any afternoon or night shift which does not continue for at least five successive afternoons or nights in a five day working week or for at least six successive afternoons or nights in a six-day working week shall be paid at the rate of time and a half.

(e) Twenty minutes shall be allowed to shift workers each shift for crib which shall be counted as time worked.

(f) An employee shall receive at least four days' notice that he will be required to work shift work.

(g) The definition of shift work shall mean where men are ordinarily rostered to perform a days' work which commences between the hours of 3 p.m. and midnight.

TIME OF BEGINNING AND ENDING WORK.

3. For any person except shift workers, burners, machine drivers, machine riggers, and pan or crusher attendants:—

Time of Beginning.	Time of Ending.
(i) 7.30 a.m.	12 noon on Saturdays.
(ii) 7.30 a.m.	5 p.m. on each of the other five working days of the week.

A meal break of not less than 45 minutes shall be allowed Monday to Friday, inclusive.

SPECIAL RATE.

4. Burners on night shift shall be paid 10 per cent. extra for work performed between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m.

OVERTIME.

5. (a) Any employee who works for any time in excess of the ordinary hours of work per day or in excess of the rostered hours of his shift shall be paid for such extra time at the rate of time and a half.

Provided that an employee working on maintenance work in excess of four hours overtime on any one day shall be paid at the rate of double time for such excess.

Provided further that, where an employee ordinarily works a five-day week, work done on Saturday shall be deemed to be overtime, and shall be paid for as such, except in the case where an employee is required to work on such Saturday to make up for time lost during the preceding five days (except because of public holidays) through any circumstances over which the employer had no control. In such an excepted case the employee shall only be entitled to be paid at ordinary rates for the first four hours worked on such Saturday.

(b) Any employee (other than a burner, machine driver, machine rigger, or pan or crusher attendant) who works outside the spread of hours fixed in clause 3 shall be paid for such time at the rate of time and a half.

(c) All work done by machine drivers machine riggers, and pan or crusher attendants, either before the ordinary starting time or after the ordinary finishing time of the factory, shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half irrespective of the number of hours worked.

(d) A burner who works in excess of 40 hours in any one week shall be paid for such excess at the rate of time and a half.

MEAL ALLOWANCE.

6. An employee required to work overtime for more than two hours without being notified the day before that he will be so required to work, shall be paid a meal allowance of 7s. 6d.

SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.

7. Double time shall be the special rate for all work done on Sundays, and the following holidays:—

New Year's Day, Australia Day, Labour Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday, Christmas Day, and Boxing Day; but, if any other day be, by Act of Parliament or Proclamation, substituted for any of the above-named holidays, the special rate shall only be payable for work done on the day so substituted.

PAYMENT FOR HOLIDAYS.

8. (a) All employees shall, as far as practicable, be granted the holidays mentioned in clause 7 without deduction of pay.

(b) Provided that an employee shall not be entitled to pay for any of the holidays mentioned in Clause 7 if absent from employment without leave on the working day immediately preceding and/or following a holiday or group of holidays unless he produces to the employer a certificate of a legally qualified Medical Practitioner, or failing the production of such certificate, such other evidence as shall be satisfactory to the employer.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

9. (a) All wages due shall be paid not later than Thursday in each week, except where otherwise mutually agreed between employer and employee.

(b) In the event of an employer terminating the employment of an employee, except in the case of misconduct, he shall pay to such employee on the day of the termination of the employment all wages and holiday pay due to him.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY.

10. (a) The annual holiday shall be as prescribed by the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts.

(b) In addition to the above, seven-day shift workers, that is, shift workers who are rostered to work regularly on Sundays and holidays, shall be allowed, for each twelve-monthly qualifying period, one week's leave including non-working days.

(c) Where an employee with twelve months' continuous service is engaged for part of the twelve-monthly period as a seven-day shift worker, he shall be entitled to have the period of two week's annual leave prescribed by the said Act increased by 3½ hours for each month he is continuously engaged as aforesaid.

(d) If, in any twelve-monthly qualifying period, a seven-day shift worker lawfully leaves his employment or his employment is terminated by the employer through no fault of the employee, the employee shall be paid, in addition to all other amounts (including any payment in lieu of annual leave as prescribed by sub-clause (a) hereof) due to him, an amount equal to one-fiftieth of his ordinary pay for the period of employment as a seven-day shift worker.

(e) For the purposes of administering sub-clauses (b) and (d) hereof, service prior to the 1st January, 1952, shall be disregarded.

SICK LEAVE.

11. (a) An employee who has been in the industry continuously for a period of at least three months and is absent from duty as a result of personal ill-health or accident, shall be entitled to sick pay as follows:—

(i) During the first year—3½ hours' ordinary pay for each complete month of service;

(ii) During any subsequent year of service—40 hours' ordinary pay.

Provided that, in either case such employee produces or forwards within 48 hours of the commencement of such absence, a medical certificate, if receiving medical attention, or a statutory declaration indicating to the employer that his non-attendance was due to personal ill-health or accident necessitating such absence.

For the purposes of this Determination, the second or subsequent year of service for an employee who commenced in the industry prior to the 1st December, 1951, shall be deemed to commence on the 1st March, 1952, and further subsequent years of service shall be deemed to commence on the corresponding date in each following year.

(b) If the full period of sick leave as prescribed above is not taken in any year, such portion as is not taken shall, provided an employee remains in the service of the one employer, or any successor of such employer, be cumulative from year to year. For the purposes of this sub-clause, service prior to the 1st March, 1947, shall be disregarded. Any accumulated sick leave, not exceeding 160 hours, standing to the credit of any employee on the 1st March, 1952, shall not be reduced by virtue of the provisions of this sub-clause.

No employer shall terminate the service of an employee during the currency of any period of sick leave with the object of avoiding his obligations under this sub-clause.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT.

12. In any case where it is intended to close down a kiln or kilns or portion or the whole of the works, one week's notice of such intention shall be given to employees whose services are to be terminated; such week's notice shall not apply when the closing of the works is brought about because of any strike or any stoppage of work by any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.

MORNING TEA INTERVAL.

13. A morning tea interval of seven minutes shall be allowed employees each morning during ordinary working hours without deduction of pay, such interval shall be arranged by the employer so as to avoid the necessity for a stoppage of operations in the establishment.

ASSISTANCE FOR TRUCKERS.

14. Persons trucking 75 yards or over shall be supplied with assistance, and any person so assisting shall be paid at a trucker's rate.

INJURED EMPLOYEES.

15. In all cases of accidents where it is deemed necessary to send the injured person to a hospital or a doctor he shall be accompanied by an attendant.

MIXED FUNCTIONS.

16. On any day or shift any employee (other than a burner) required to perform work of a higher grade, shall be paid whilst so employed, the wages attaching to such higher grade but, in the case of any such employee being required to perform the work of a lower grade to that to which he is classed, he shall not suffer any reduction of pay by reason only of his working temporarily out of his grade. Such work shall not be considered temporary if it continues for more than one week.

CLOTHING ALLOWANCE (FIREBRICK AND TEXTURE BRICK SECTION).

17. An allowance of 2s. 6d. per week shall be paid for wear and tear on boots to burners or burners' assistants engaged as a periodic kiln fired with coal, coke, briquettes, or other solid fuel.

NUMBER OF BURNERS TO BE EMPLOYED.

18. Except in the case of an emergency where one of the men ordinarily rostered for duty is not available, four burners shall be employed on each Hoffman kiln burning.

MINIMUM PAYMENT FOR REPORTING FOR WORK.

19. An employee reporting for work on any day shall, except in the case of wet weather, be provided with minimum of two hours' work or payment for same.

FIRST-AID OUTFIT.

20. An adequate first-aid-kit and a stretcher shall be provided in the clayhole.

Regulations require that a first-aid ambulance chest shall be kept in some accessible place upon the premises, and that such chest shall be equipped and supplied with the following articles :—

INTERMITTENT MANAGERS.

3. (a) Managers may be intermittently employed on a weekly basis for the following hours :—

- (i) For two days per week of not more than 13 hours 20 minutes.
- (ii) For three days per week of not more than 20 hours.
- (iii) For four days per week of not more than 26 hours 40 minutes.
- (iv) For five days per week of not more than 33 hours 20 minutes.

(b) An intermittent manager shall be paid one-sixth of the weekly rate of a fourth schedule manager multiplied by the number of days for which he is intermittently employed, plus 33s.

(c) All time worked in excess of the appropriate hours provided in sub-clause (a) hereof shall be paid for at overtime rates, i.e., time and one-half for the first four hours and double time thereafter.

(d) All other provisions of this Determination shall be applicable to intermittent managers.

CASUAL EMPLOYEES.

4. A casual employee is an employee engaged and paid by the hour. A casual employee for working ordinary time shall be paid per hour one-fortieth of the appropriate weekly wage with the addition of 20 per cent., with a minimum payment as for four hours in respect of each start.

HOURS.

5. (i) The ordinary hours of work for weekly employees shall not exceed 40 hours per week. A week shall be reckoned Monday to Saturday, inclusive, or alternatively any six consecutive working days excluding Sundays.

(ii) The ordinary hours of work shall commence not earlier than 9.30 a.m. and finish not later than 11.20 p.m., provided that the hours of work under this sub-clause must be worked within a spread of twelve hours.

TIME OFF.

6. (a) Weekly employees covered by the First Schedule shall, as arranged by the employer, be entitled to one afternoon, as from 1 p.m., and one night off each week.

(b) Weekly employees covered by the Second, Third and Fifth Schedules shall, as arranged by the employer, be entitled to two afternoons off each week as from 1 p.m.

ROSTERS.

7. Each employee shall be provided with a written statement setting out his normal weekly working hours, and in particular, the starting and ceasing times and meal breaks to be observed by the employee concerned. The employer shall not, except in case of emergency, alter the employee's normal hours of work as specified in the aforesaid statement unless and until he withdraws the said statement and furnishes the employee with a statement setting out the altered hours of work for the employee concerned. No rosters shall be withdrawn without giving to the employee concerned at least ten days' notice thereof, except in the case of emergency or with the employee's consent.

TIME AND WAGES BOOK.

8. (a) Every employer shall keep or cause to be kept at the theatre a time and wages record hereafter prescribed in respect of employees covered by this Determination and employed at that theatre.

(b) The time and wages records required to be kept in the last preceding sub-clause shall be correctly written up in ink from day to day and shall contain the following information in respect of each employee:—

- (i) His full name and address;
- (ii) His classification under this Determination;
- (iii) His actual commencing and ceasing time on each working day;
- (iv) Time taken off duty for meals or other purposes;
- (v) The amount of weekly wage payable to him.

(c) The time and wages records hereinbefore specified shall be preserved in good order and condition and shall be available for inspection for a period of 18 months.

(d) Such time and wages records shall be available for inspection of a duly accredited official of the Theatre Managers Association at any time during the usual theatre hours of the theatre, provided that not more than one such inspection shall be made in any one fortnight at the same theatre.

(e) The official making such inspection shall be entitled to enter upon the theatre premises and shall be entitled to take a copy of any entries from such time and wage records.

MIDNIGHT PERFORMANCES.

9. An employee called on to work at a performance which begins after the usual closing time of 11 p.m. or thereabouts shall be paid for that performance one-third of his appropriate weekly rate.

ADDITIONAL PERFORMANCES.

10. Where an employee covered by the Third Schedule works in any one week during more than eight performances he shall be paid in respect of such week the appropriate rate applicable to his classification under the Second Schedule. Any performance commencing at or after 4 p.m. on Saturday or on a public holiday or on a midnight performance shall not be deemed an additional performance for the purpose of this clause.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained where any employee is entitled to overtime under the provisions of clause 11 of this Determination he shall, in addition to any extra remuneration payable under this clause, be paid overtime in accordance with the provisions of the said clause 11.

OVERTIME.

11. (i) All time worked outside the times of beginning and ending work as prescribed in Clause 5 shall be paid for at the rate of double time.

(ii) All time worked within the times of beginning and ending work in excess of the hours fixed for a week's work shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half for the first four hours and double time thereafter; provided that all time worked outside the spread of eleven hours but within a spread of twelve hours in any one day shall be paid for at the rate of time and a half and outside the spread of twelve hours at the rate of double time. Provided further that overtime worked in any one day outside the spread of eleven hours, but within a spread of twelve hours shall stand alone and shall not be included as overtime to be calculated on a weekly basis.

(iii) Time off shall not be given in lieu of payment for overtime.

(iv) The calculation of rates in this clause shall, except where it is agreed that the actual rate paid includes an amount to compensate for overtime worked or to be worked, be on the actual rate paid to the employee. The rates payable under this clause shall not be cumulative.

SPECIAL RATES.—SUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS.

12. (a) (i) An employee called upon to work on a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or Labour Day shall be paid at the rate of double time for all time worked with a minimum payment as for a full day at double time.

This provision shall not apply to employees who commence work on a Saturday for a performance, other than a midnight performance, and who are required to remain on duty after midnight. Such employees shall be paid at the rate of double time for all time worked after 11.20 p.m. on the Saturday night.

(ii) Casual employees shall be paid double the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.

(b) (i) Double time shall be the rate payable for all work done on Boxing Day, New Year's Day, Australia Day, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Anzac Day, the Birthday of the Sovereign, and all other days regarded and observed as holidays throughout the State.

(ii) Casual employees shall be paid one and a half times the appropriate rates prescribed for work on ordinary days.

(c) A casual shall not be employed on a Sunday when another employee of the employer is ready, willing and able to undertake the work.

(d) The calculation of rates in this clause shall, except where it is agreed that the actual rate paid includes an amount to compensate for overtime worked or to be worked, be on the actual rate paid to the employee. The rates payable under this clause shall not be cumulative with the rates payable under clause 11, so as to entitle an employee to payment in excess of double time.

MEAL HOURS.

13. The following shall be the prescribed hours for meals:—

Luncheon—Not less than one continuous hour between 11.45 a.m. and 2.15 p.m.

Dinner—Not less than one continuous hour between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Supper—Not less than a continuous half an hour between 10 p.m. and midnight, where a further performance is to commence after 11 p.m.

If an employee is required to work during the time when a meal interval should be allowed he shall be paid for such time worked at the rate of time and one half in lieu of ordinary time.

DRESS SUIT AND FOOTWEAR ALLOWANCES.

14. (a) Employees required so to do shall provide their own dinner dress for evening wear in a first class condition.
- (b) The employer shall pay to such employee the sum of twelve shillings and sixpence per week to cover the cost of replacing, maintenance, repair and cleaning and laundering.
- (c) Employees employed at drive-in theatres shall be paid by the employer the sum of six shillings per week as a footwear allowance.
- (d) Where an employer requires an employee to wear full evening dress suit, white coat or other prescribed wear, the employer shall provide it in first-class condition and any expense incurred for maintaining and laundering it occasioned by use when on duty shall be defrayed by the employer.
- (e) The provisions of sub-clauses (b) and (c) of this clause shall not apply to employees while on sick leave or annual leave.

TERMS OF ENGAGEMENT.

15. (a) All employees on the permanent staff shall be engaged by the week unless a longer period of engagement be agreed to between the parties.
- (b) Such employment shall be terminated on either side only by two week's notice, which may be given at any time during the week and the employee shall only be entitled to payment up to the time of the expiration of the notice.
- (c) Nothing in this Determination shall affect any legal right of an employer to dismiss without notice any employee for whatever period engaged for malingering, inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct, and in the case of such dismissal wages shall be payable for the employment up to but not after the time of dismissal.
- (d) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Determination an employer may deduct payment of wages for any day on which an employee cannot be usefully employed because of—
- (i) any strike, or
 - (ii) any breakdown of machinery, or
 - (iii) any stoppage of work unavoidable by the employer.

TRAVELLING AND INCIDENTAL EXPENSES.

16. (a) All out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connexion with the employer's business authorized by the employer and properly paid by the employee shall be reimbursed by the employer.
- (b) If an employee is required to travel within the State of Victoria on his employer's business and is unable to return to his home each night, he shall, in addition to his weekly wage, be provided with first-class transport including a sleeping berth on trains where such accommodation is usually available together with a living allowance of £15 per week, or if the period be less than one week, at the rate of £2 17s. 6d. per day or the employer shall have the option of providing and paying for accommodation suitable to reasonable requirements of the employee and as approved by the employee, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld.
- (c) If any employee is detained at the place of employment by the employer or his representative until too late to travel by the last tram, train or vehicle to his or her home, the employer shall provide proper conveyance for the employee so detained, if a female to her home, or if a male to his home if such home is more than a mile from the place of employment.

Provided that this sub-clause shall not apply to employees who receive a locomotion allowance in accordance with the provisions of clause 17 of this Determination.

LOCOMOTION ALLOWANCE.

17. (a) Any employee, other than a manager of a drive-in theatre, who is required by his employer to use his own motor vehicle in the performance of his duties shall be paid at the rate of 9d. per mile for the actual mileage travelled by his vehicle on any business of the employer, including in all such instances mileage travelled to and from the place where the vehicle is usually housed.
- (b) (i) Where a manager of a drive-in theatre in Division 1 of the fifth schedule of clause 2 is required by his employer to use his own motor vehicle, he shall be paid an amount per day calculated at the rate of 9d. per mile for a total mileage equal to three times the mileage from the place where the vehicle is usually housed and the theatre for each day that he attends the theatre, and in addition he shall be paid at the rate of 9d. per mile for the actual mileage otherwise travelled by his vehicle on any business of the employer.
- (ii) The provisions of paragraph (i) of this sub-clause shall apply to a manager of a drive-in theatre in division 2 or division 3 of the fifth schedule of clause 2 on the days only on which performances are held. On the days on which performances are not held and such a manager is required to attend the theatre, the mileage shall be equal to two journeys from the place of housing of the vehicle to the theatre, and in addition he shall be paid at the rate of 9d. per mile for the actual mileage otherwise travelled by his vehicle on any business of the employer.
- (c) In lieu of the foregoing provisions of this clause, the employer may agree in writing with the Theatre Managers' Association to pay a fixed amount to an employee in respect of "locomotion," and thereupon the employer shall no longer be bound to comply with the provisions of this clause.

REMOVAL EXPENSES.

18. Where an employee is appointed or transferred to a theatre, and the employer desires the employee to reside in a particular suburb or town, then the cost of removal and expenses necessarily incurred shall be borne and paid for by the employer.

ANNUAL LEAVE.

19. (a) All full time employees, other than casuals, shall be entitled to and shall take three weeks' annual leave on full pay and in the event of the employment of an employee, other than a casual, being terminated before the expiration of twelve months, such employee shall be paid one and one-half days' pay for each completed month of service.
- (b) The employer shall give each employee at least one calendar month's notice of the date from which his annual leave shall be taken.
- (c) The annual leave shall be given and taken in three consecutive weeks unless otherwise mutually arranged.
- (d) Where any Public Holiday as prescribed in clause 12 occurs during the period of the employee's annual leave, the leave shall be increased by one day for each holiday falling as aforesaid.

SICK-LEAVE.

20. (a) Any employee engaged by the week absent from duty shall lose pay proportionate to such absence unless he provides or forwards to his employer within 24 hours of the commencement of such absence evidence satisfactory to the employer that the absence was reasonable because of either—

(i) Any illness of himself due neither to his own default nor to accident arising otherwise than out of and in the course of his employment; or

(ii) Any bodily injury to himself caused by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment.

(b) This clause shall not affect any right of the employer to determine the employment in accordance with clause 15 of this Determination.

PAYMENT OF WAGES.

21. All moneys payable to an employee shall be paid not later than 9 p.m. on the last day or night of the employee's working week, but payment of overtime in respect of any week shall be paid not later than in the subsequent week.

RIGHT OF ENTRY OF ASSOCIATION OFFICIALS.

22. (1) For the purpose of interviewing employees on legitimate Association business, a duly accredited representative of the Theatre Managers' Association shall have the right to enter employer's premises on the following conditions:—

(a) That he produces his authority to the manager or such other person as may be appointed by the employer for that purpose.

(b) That not more than one representative of the said Association be on the premises at any one time.

(c) That not more than one representative be permitted to visit the premises more than once a week; provided that such representative shall not make his visit earlier than 30 minutes after the commencement of the performance.

(d) That if any employer alleges that a representative is unduly interfering with his work or is creating dissatisfaction amongst his employees or is offensive in his methods or is committing a breach of any of the previous conditions herein, such employer may refuse the right of entry, but the representative shall have the right to bring such refusal before the Board of Reference.

(2) A person shall be a duly accredited representative of the Theatre Managers' Association, if he be the holder for the time being of a certificate which has not been cancelled or revoked, signed by the Secretary and bearing the seal of the Association and bearing the signature of the holder. The certificate shall be in the following form, or in a form not materially different therefrom:—
