Labour and Industry Acts.

AMENDING DETERMINATION OF THE WICKER AND BABY CARRIAGE BOARD.

IN accordance with the provisions of the Labour and Industry Acts, the Wicker and Baby Carriage Board has made the following amending Determination, namely :—

That, on the 14th November, 1956, the Determination made on the 29th May, 1956, and in force on the 1st June, 1956, shall be amended by adding the following new clause :—

OLYMPIC GAMES HOLIDAY.

22A. In connexion with the holding of the Olympic Games in Victoria, during the months of November, and December, 1956, where a holiday or half-holiday is proclaimed by Order in Council throughout any Municipality or part thereof, or within any defined area, such holiday or half-holiday shall, so far as such Municipality or part thereof, or such defined area is concerned be deemed to be included in the list of holidays prescribed in clause 22.

Provided that no employee shall be entitled to the conditions prescribed by this clause for more than the equivalent of one working day.

Provided further that an employee who fails to attend for work on the working day before and/or after such holiday or half-holiday without reasonable excuse shall not be entitled to be paid for such holiday or half-holiday.

P. A. RANGLES, J.P., Chairman.

J. V. WILLOX, Secretary.

Melbourne, 14th November, 1956.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for transparency and accountability, particularly in financial matters. The text suggests that organizations should implement robust systems to track every aspect of their operations, from procurement to sales, to ensure that all data is captured and stored securely.

2. The second part of the document addresses the challenges of data management in a rapidly changing environment. It highlights the need for flexible and scalable solutions that can adapt to new technologies and evolving business requirements. The author argues that organizations must invest in training and development to ensure their staff are equipped with the skills necessary to manage complex data sets effectively. Additionally, the text stresses the importance of regular audits and reviews to identify potential vulnerabilities and areas for improvement.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the role of technology in enhancing operational efficiency. It explores various digital tools and platforms that can streamline processes, reduce errors, and improve communication. The author notes that while technology offers significant benefits, it also presents challenges, such as data security and integration with existing systems. Therefore, a careful and strategic approach is required when selecting and implementing new technologies. The text concludes by encouraging organizations to embrace innovation and continuously seek ways to optimize their operations.

4. The final part of the document provides a summary of the key points discussed and offers recommendations for future action. It reiterates the importance of a holistic approach to data management, one that considers both technical and human factors. The author calls for a culture of continuous learning and improvement, where organizations are always looking for ways to enhance their performance and stay ahead of the competition. The document ends with a strong statement of intent, expressing a commitment to excellence and a dedication to the highest standards of practice.
