LEGAL PROFESSION
PRACTICE ACT

LEGAL PROFESSION PRACTICE ACT.

SOLICITORS (AUDIT AND PRACTISING CERTIFICATES) RULES.

Part I.—Preliminary.

Citation.

1. These rules may be cited as the "Solicitors (Audit and Practising Certificates) Rules 1960", and shall come into operation on the publication thereof in the Victoria Government Gazette.

1A. The Solicitors (Audit and Practising Certificates) Rules 1947 and all Rules amending the same are hereby repealed: provided that—

- (a) all persons things and circumstances appointed or created by or under any of the repealed Rules or existing or continuing under any of such Rules immediately before the commencement of these Rules shall under and subject to these Rules continue to have the same status operation and effect as they respectively would have had if such Rules had not been so repealed;
- (b) in particular and without affecting the generality of the foregoing paragraph, such repeal shall not disturb the continuity of status operation or effect of any application decision appeal proceeding cancellation suspension notice certificate examination appointment fee contribution liability or right made effected issued granted given fixed accrued incurred or acquired or existing or continuing by or under any of such Rules before the commencement of these Rules.

Interpretation.

2. (1) In these rules unless inconsistent with the context or subject-matter:—

"Act."

"Act" means the Legal Profession Practice Act 1958.

"Approved accountant."

"Approved accountant" means a competent accountant or other competent person for the time being approved by the Council pursuant to section 81 of the Act for the examination or audit of a solicitor's trust accounts.

"Auditor."

"Auditor" means—

- (a) a practising public accountant; or
- (b) an approved accountant—employed by a solicitor or appointed by the Council to make an examination or audit of a solicitor's trust accounts.

"Council."

"Council" means the Council of the Institute.

"Institute."

"Institute" means The Law Institute of Victoria.

"Secretary."

"Secretary" means secretary of the Institute.

"Solicitor."

"Solicitor"—

- (a) in Parts 7 and 8 of these rules has the same meaning as in Divisions 4 to 7 of Part V. of the Act; and
- (b) in the remainder of these rules has the same meaning as in Divisions 2 and 3 of Part V. of the Act—except that in its application to any firm of solicitors the word "solicitor" shall apply to the firm and to the members of the firm both jointly and severally.

"Trust account money."

"Trust account money" means money received by a solicitor in the course of or in connexion with his practice for or on behalf of other persons.

"Trust bank account."

"Trust bank account" means an account at a bank into which moneys received by a solicitor for or on behalf of other persons are or are required by law to be paid.

Words and phrases have the meaning assigned thereto by the Act.

As to references to moneys received by a solicitor.

(2) In these rules any reference to moneys received by a solicitor shall be deemed to include a reference to moneys received in the course of or in connexion with the practice by any partner of that solicitor or by any of his or the firm's clerks or servants or by any practitioner with whom he or the firm shares remuneration for any business.

Part 2.—Notifications Relating to Practice.

Notice of employment of practitioner by solicitor.

3. Every practitioner who becomes the employé of any solicitor in connexion with the practice of that solicitor shall within fourteen days after the beginning of that employment notify the Council of the name and address of that solicitor and shall further notify the Council of any change in that employment or the cessation of that employment within fourteen days after the change or cessation.

4. Every solicitor—

- (a) who, whether by himself or in partnership with any other or others and whether or not he has previously been or remains in practice in any other place in Victoria, commences or recommences practice as a solicitor or establishes a branch of his practice as a solicitor;
- (b) who amalgamates his practice or a branch of his practice as a solicitor with the practice or a branch of the practice of any other solicitor;
- (c) who ceases to carry on his practice or a branch of his practice as a solicitor (whether or not he continues to carry on any other branch thereof);
- (d) on the dissolution of a partnership of which he is a member or on the death or retirement of any partner in such a partnership or on the addition of a new partner—

Notice of commencement, cessation, &c.,
of practice by
solicitor.

and the legal representative of every solicitor who dies whilst still engaged in practice on his own behalf and not in partnership with any other solicitor shall within fourteen days after that commencement recommencement establishment amalgamation cessation dissolution death retirement or addition (as the case may be) give notice thereof to the Council.

4A. Every solicitor who takes over or acquires the practice or a branch of the practice of any other solicitor shall within fourteen days of such taking over or acquisition give notice thereof to the Council.

4B. Every solicitor shall, within fourteen days after commencing practice or a branch of his practice and thereafter annually at the time of making application for a practising certificate, give to the Council notice of the address at which he carries on practice or a branch of his practice and shall notify the Council within fourteen days of any alteration of such address.

Part 3.—Employment of Auditors.

5. Subject to the Act and these rules any solicitor may employ any practising public accountant to examine or audit his trust accounts.

Employment of practising public accountant.

6. Any solicitor desirous of employing a person other than a practising public accountant to examine or audit his trust accounts shall apply to the Council for its approval and shall satisfy the Council by such evidence as the Council requires—

Employment
of other competent accountant.

- (a) that the person nominated by him is competent; and
- (b) that no practising public accountant is conveniently available.

7. Any approval given by the Council shall remain in force until withdrawn and may at any time be withdrawn by the Council by notice given as hereinafter provided.

Approval of Council.

8. Notice of the withdrawal of any such approval shall be given by the Council to every solicitor for the audit or examination of whose trust accounts the auditor was approved, and shall also be given to the auditor.

Notice of
of approval.

9. Every solicitor employing an auditor to examine or audit his trust accounts shall within fourteen days after the beginning of that employment give notice thereof to the Council and shall deposit with the Council the written consent of the auditor to that employment.

Notice of
employment
of auditor.

10. Any auditor who for any reason ceases to be employed or to be qualified to examine or audit the trust accounts of a solicitor shall within fourteen days after he so ceases to be employed or qualified give notice thereof to the Council.

Notice of cessation of
employment.

11. (1) A solicitor shall not terminate the employment of or cease to employ an auditor with a view to engaging another auditor or employ any auditor other than the auditor last employed by him unless he first satisfies the Council, by such evidence as the Council requires in any particular case, that it is reasonable in the circumstances to do so.

Auditor's
employment not to be terminated except on reasonable grounds.

(1A) The provisions of the last preceding sub-rule shall not apply where the auditor dies or retires from practice or ceases to be qualified to audit the solicitor's trust account.

(2) When an auditor dies or retires from practice or ceases to be qualified to audit the trust accounts of a solicitor or where the employment of an auditor by a solicitor is otherwise terminated, the solicitor shall within one month after the death retirement cessation or termination (as the case may be), or within such further time as the Council allows in a special case, employ another auditor in his place.

Time for employment of new auditor.

Part 4.—Requirements of Audit.

Procuring of audit, &c.

12. Every solicitor who does not lodge within the prescribed time a statutory declaration pursuant to rule 22 shall procure his trust accounts to be examined or audited by an auditor in the manner prescribed by the Act and these rules.

Conduct of audit, &c.

13. Every auditor employed or appointed to examine or audit the trust accounts of a solicitor shall conduct the examination or audit in the manner prescribed by the Act and these rules.

* * * *

Requirements in respect of subsequent audits.

16. (1) In carrying out any other audit under the Act (excluding audits or examinations pursuant to section 74 of the Act) the auditor shall in the first place be required only—

- (a) to make a general test examination of the trust accounts of the solicitor within the period covered by the audit;
- (b) to ascertain whether a trust bank account or trust bank accounts are and were during the said period kept by the solicitor;
- (c) to make a general test examination of the trust bank accounts and of the pass-books and statements relating to the trust bank accounts of the solicitor during the said period;
- (d) to make a comparison as at not fewer than two dates (one to be the thirtieth day of June being the last day of the period of audit, and the other or others to be a date or dates within the said period selected by the auditor) between—the liabilities of the solicitor to his clients and to other persons in connexion with his practice as a solicitor as shown by his trust accounts; and the balances standing to the credit of his trust bank accounts; and
- (e) to ask for such information and explanations as he may require for the purposes of sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) of this sub-rule.

Further investigation where deficiency, &c., discovered.

(2) If in making those examinations and comparisons the auditor becomes aware of or suspects any deficiency in the trust bank accounts or any substantial illegality or irregularity in relation to the trust accounts he shall carry out such further investigations as will enable him to report fully to the Council upon such deficiency illegality or irregularity.

Personal visit of auditor on or after selected day or days.

(3) On or within one week after the date or dates selected by the auditor for the making of the comparison aforesaid the auditor or a member of his staff acting under his instructions shall without previous notice to the solicitor visit the solicitor's place of business and there examine the trust accounts and the books and papers relating thereto.

Report on annual audit. Schedule, Form 2.

17. (1) Upon completion of the audit for any year, the auditor shall lodge with the secretary a signed report in or to the effect of Form 2 of the Schedule to these rules on or before the 31st day of October in that year and the lodging of that report by the auditor shall be deemed a lodging thereof by the solicitor to whose trust accounts it relates.

(2) The auditor shall at the same time deliver a signed copy of his report to the solicitor to whose trust accounts it relates.

(3) Where a solicitor engages in practice in partnership with one or more other solicitors the auditor shall lodge with the secretary a separate report in respect of each member of the partnership, which report shall cover not merely the trust accounts of the partnership but all the trust accounts within the definition contained in section 51 of the Act of the solicitor concerned.

Report to be available to subsequent auditor.

18. The report of an auditor upon the audit of the trust accounts of any solicitor for any year shall, at all times at which that office is open for business, be available in the office of the Institute for inspection by the auditor employed or appointed to audit the trust accounts of the solicitor for the next succeeding year.

19. Upon making any audit of the trust accounts of any solicitor the auditor shall— Certificates to be given by auditor.

- (a) return to the solicitor the statement produced to him by the solicitor pursuant to rule twenty-seven of these rules and certify thereon under his hand that the statement was so delivered; and
- (b) certify under his hand in the register of negotiable securities referred to in rule twenty-eight of these rules that he has examined such of the securities listed in that register as appear from the register as not having prior to the time of his audit passed out of the solicitor's possession and control.

20. An auditor shall not, in connexion with any audit or examination of a solicitor's trust accounts, take any objection to the solicitor's having drawn from his trust bank account and having applied to his own use— As to drawings from trust bank account.

- (a) money properly required for or towards payment of a debt due to the solicitor by the client or in reimbursement of money expended by the solicitor on behalf of the client; or
- (b) money properly required for or towards payment of the solicitor's costs where a bill of costs or other written intimation of the amount of the costs incurred is delivered to the client.

21. In any audit or examination under these rules, in vouching any payment the auditor shall accept such evidence as ought reasonably to satisfy him that the payment has been duly made, including the production of cancelled cheques. Evidence of payments.

22. The statutory declaration to be delivered to the Secretary pursuant to section 81 of the Act by a solicitor to whom sub-section (3) of that section applies shall be in or to the effect of Form 2A of the Schedule to these rules.

22A. Within two months after any solicitor ceases to carry on his practice or the dissolution of any partnership or such further time as the Council shall allow such solicitor or the respective partners (as the case may be) and the legal representative of any deceased solicitor shall cause the trust accounts of the solicitor or solicitors concerned to be audited and reported upon pursuant to the Act and these rules for the period from the previous first day of July up to the date of such cessation or dissolution and in such case all the relevant provisions of the Act and these rules shall, as far as possible, apply to such audit and report save that the date of the cessation or dissolution shall be substituted for the thirtieth day of June.

22B. (a) The statutory declaration to be made pursuant to section 81A of the Act by a solicitor who has ceased to practise shall be in or to the effect of Form 9A of the Schedule to these rules.

(b) The statutory declaration to be made pursuant to section 81A of the Act by the legal representative of a deceased solicitor shall be in or to the effect of Form 9B of the Schedule to these rules.

Part 5.—Special Duties of Solicitors.

* * * *

24. (1) A solicitor may, in respect of any trust account money which is received by him and which is not paid into a trust bank account— As to payments made direct to client, &c.

- (a) if he receives the money in the form of cash, pay the money in cash to the client or other person due to receive the same; or
- (b) if he receives the money in the form of a cheque or draft—
 - (i) endorse the cheque or draft in the ordinary course of business over to the client or other person due to receive the same; or
 - (ii) transmit or hand over the cheque or draft to the client or other person due to receive the same—and shall in every case forthwith make appropriate entries in his trust accounts.

(2) Where a solicitor receives trust account moneys and forthwith pays them to the credit of a non-trust account or forthwith transmits or hands over to the person due to receive the same any cheque drawn on a non-trust account and in every such case duly makes proper records of such receipts and disbursements in separate books of account kept in respect of such account, the auditor shall for the purposes of this rule accept the entries in those books as if they were entries in the trust accounts of the solicitor and no entries in respect thereof in the solicitor's trust accounts shall be necessary.

(3) In this rule "non-trust account" means an account in a bank, the moneys to the credit of which are not solely or exclusively under the control of a solicitor or solicitors.

Keeping of trust accounts.

25. Every solicitor shall keep trust accounts in such a manner as to disclose to the auditor the true position of the funds recorded therein and to enable the trust accounts to be conveniently and properly audited.

Statement in respect of trust bank accounts.

26. Every solicitor (except where in respect of any year he has delivered to the secretary the statutory declaration referred to in rule twenty-two of these rules) shall within twenty-one days after the thirtieth day of June in the year 1948 and in each subsequent year prepare certify and sign a statement setting forth in detail as at the said thirtieth day of June the following particulars, namely:—

- (a) All trust account moneys held on that day by the solicitors;
- (b) the names of the trust bank accounts in which such moneys are lodged, and the balances on that day of those bank accounts and, in cases where the bank balances are not in agreement with the cash-book balances of the solicitor, a statement reconciling those balances; and
- (c) all securities and documents of title held on that day by the solicitor in his own name for or on behalf of or in trust for other persons.

In this rule the term "bank account" includes any account in the Commonwealth Savings Bank or the State Savings Bank of Victoria or any other savings bank as well as accounts in trading banks.

Production to auditor of statements and register.

27. Every solicitor shall on demand produce to the auditor making an audit of his trust accounts—

- (a) the signed copy of the report of the last preceding examination or audit relating to such trust accounts;
- (b) the statement prepared in respect of the period of audit pursuant to the last preceding rule;
- (c) the last previous statement prepared pursuant to the said rule; and
- (d) the register of negotiable securities.

Register of negotiable securities.

28. Every solicitor shall keep a register, to be known as the register of negotiable securities, in which he shall cause to be entered in respect of all securities for money the title to which is transferable by delivery (hereinafter referred to as "negotiable securities") held by the solicitor for or on behalf of or in trust for other persons (excluding such negotiable securities as are received for immediate collection and conversion into money and are the subject of a trust account receipt and are entered on receipt thereof in a trust account cash-book) the following particulars, namely:—

- (a) The date of receipt of the negotiable security by the solicitor;
- (b) the description of the negotiable security, including the principal sum purporting to be secured thereby;
- (c) the name of the person for whom or on whose behalf or in trust for whom the negotiable security is held;
- (d) the name of the person, if any, in whose favour the negotiable security is expressed to be made;
- (e) the date when the negotiable security is delivered out of the solicitor's possession and control; and
- (f) a short narration of the disposal of the negotiable security on leaving the solicitor's possession and control.

Time of making entries.

29. The entries referred to in paragraphs (a) to (d) of the last preceding rule shall be made forthwith upon the receipt by the solicitor of the negotiable security, and the entries referred to in paragraphs (e) and (f) of the said rule shall be made forthwith upon the delivery of the negotiable security out of the solicitor's possession and control.

30. Every solicitor shall retain every volume of his register of ^{Keeping volumes of} negotiable securities for at least two years after the date of the last ^{register.} entry made therein.

31. Every solicitor shall within fourteen days after the opening of ^{New trust bank accounts.} any new trust bank account notify the auditor thereof.

32. Every solicitor shall at the end of every calendar month ^{Reconciliation of trust account and cash-book balances.} prepare a statement reconciling the balances of his trust bank accounts with the balances of his cash-books relating thereto and shall keep the reconciliation statement for each month in the cash-book or other appropriate book.

Part 6.—Special Receipt Forms.

33. This Part of these rules (so far as it relates to the giving of receipts) shall come into operation on the first day of July, 1948.

34. A solicitor shall not give a receipt for trust account money ^{Special receipt forms to be given.} received by him except on a form supplied to the solicitor by the Institute or some person authorized by the Council in that behalf.

35. The said forms shall be printed in bound books of not less ^{Books of forms.} than one hundred forms in each book arranged so that a carbon duplicate of each receipt issued may be retained in the book, and the said books shall be supplied by the Institute or by the person so authorized to any solicitor at his request and upon payment of such sum for each book as the Council from time to time determines.

36. Such forms shall before being so supplied as aforesaid be numbered and/or lettered consecutively so that each form and each book of forms may be identified and so that each form and its duplicate shall bear the same identification mark. ^{Forms to be numbered, &c.}

37. The Institute or the person so authorized to supply forms shall keep a record of the identification marks of all forms supplied to each solicitor. ^{Record of forms supplied to solicitors.}

38. (1) Subject to the next succeeding rule, every solicitor shall for each sum of trust account money received by him forthwith give to the person paying the same a receipt on one of the forms supplied to him as aforesaid specifying briefly the subject-matter or purpose in respect of which such sum is received, and shall make a legible carbon duplicate of such receipt and retain such duplicate in the book of forms into which it is bound. ^{Solicitors to give receipts in special form for trust account money.}

(2) Upon the coming into operation of this rule, rule twenty-three of these rules shall be superseded and shall have no further force or operation.

39. A solicitor shall not be bound to comply with the requirements of the last preceding rule when any of the following payments is received:— ^{Exceptions.}

- (a) Bearer-bond interest or inscribed-stock interest or company dividends lodged by the Government, a local authority or a company direct to the credit of the trust bank account of the solicitor;
- (b) collection of interest, dividends, and the like made by a bank on behalf of the solicitor and credited by the bank direct to the trust bank account of the solicitor;
- (c) interest payments on Government inscribed stock where a special form of receipt is required to be endorsed and is endorsed on the dividend warrant itself;
- (d) moneys received from any Government Department where a receipt is required to be given and is given on the Department's own form of receipt;
- (e) moneys paid out of any savings bank;
- (f) a draft, postal note, money order or not negotiable crossed cheque payable to any person or persons other than the solicitor (either in his own name or any business name under which he is registered pursuant to the Business Names Act 1958 as carrying on business) or any firm of which the solicitor is a member;
- (g) a cheque or warrant payable to the solicitor or his client where the drawer requests that the payee acknowledge receipt on the cheque or warrant or on some special form of receipt sent by the drawer with the cheque.

Receipt to be made and retained in certain cases.

40. Immediately on receipt by a solicitor of a payment of any of the classes referred to in paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (g) of the last preceding rule, the solicitor shall cause to be made out on one of the forms supplied to him as aforesaid a receipt showing sufficiently the source and the subject-matter or purpose in respect of which such payment is received, and shall retain the receipt, together with the carbon duplicate thereof, in the book of forms.

Production of receipt books to auditor.

41. Whenever at any audit or examination of a solicitor's trust accounts the auditor so requires, the solicitor shall produce to the auditor all books of receipts used and unused supplied to the solicitor under this Part of these rules, including the retained duplicates of receipts issued by the solicitor and including receipts and duplicates prepared pursuant to the last preceding rule:

Provided that nothing in this rule shall require a solicitor to retain or produce used books of receipts no one of which relates to accounts of the year to which the audit or examination relates or to the year immediately preceding that year.

Disposal of receipt books on retirement of solicitor.

42. Any solicitor who ceases to carry on his practice shall forthwith deliver to the secretary any unused trust account receipt forms in his possession, and the said forms shall be disposed of as the Council thinks fit.

Disposal of receipt books on death of solicitor.

43. Upon the death of any solicitor practising by himself and not in partnership, his auditor shall as soon as possible take charge of any unused trust account receipt forms, and shall forthwith deliver the said forms to the secretary, and the said forms shall be disposed of as the Council thinks fit.

43A. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the Council may, on the advice of a practising public accountant and subject to such conditions as the Council may impose, permit a solicitor to adopt a system of bookkeeping which does not comply with all or any of the provisions of this Part. The Council may, at any time, vary any such conditions and may, at any time, revoke any permission so granted.

Part 7.—Annual Practising Certificates.

Form of application for practising certificate. Schedule, Forms 3, 4.

44. Each application for a practising certificate shall be in or to the effect of Form 3 or Form 4 (as the case requires) of the Schedule to these rules.

Fee on application for practising certificate.

45. The fee payable on such an application shall be equivalent to the fee in respect of membership of the Institute for the time being payable under any by-law made pursuant to section 24 of the Act by any member of the Institute of a like class (as defined by the Council) to that of the applicant: Provided that a member of the Institute who has paid his subscription to the Institute for the year to which or any part of which the certificate if issued would relate shall not be required to pay any practising fee on lodging any such application.

Amount of contribution to Solicitors' Guarantee Fund.

46. If the applicant is a solicitor to whom Division 2 of Part V. of the Act applies there shall also be payable on such application as a contribution to the Solicitors' Guarantee Fund—

- (a) if paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of section 59 of the Act is applicable—the sum of Five pounds;
- (b) in any other case—the sum of Seven pounds ten shillings:

Provided further that a solicitor who engages in practice in the State of Victoria and in some adjoining State (which latter State is hereinafter referred to as the home State) and whose place or principal place of practice is situated in the home State shall not in respect of any year be required to pay as contribution to the Solicitors' Guarantee Fund a sum in excess of Five pounds if he satisfies the secretary that he has already paid his contribution to the corresponding fund in the home State for the same or substantially the same period.

47A. Every solicitor who engages in practice as a solicitor on his own account or in partnership with another practitioner or upon terms of sharing with another practitioner remuneration for any business and who applies for a practising certificate for the ensuing year shall lodge with his application a statutory declaration in or to the effect of Form 5A of the Schedule to these rules.

48. The declaration to be lodged with the secretary pursuant to section 82 of the Act by a practitioner who has not previously practised as a solicitor or who having previously so practised is not so practising at the time of the application shall be in or to the effect of Form 6 of the Schedule to these rules.
