RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred by the Supreme Court Act 1958 and all other powers hereunto enabling, the following amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court are made:—

Order LV., Chapter I., of the Rules of the Supreme Court is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) For Rules 65 to 71 (both inclusive) there shall be substituted the following rules:—

“65. The directions to be given by a Judge for or touching any proceedings before the Master shall require no particular form, but the result of such proceedings shall be stated in the shape of a concise certificate to the Judge. It shall not be necessary for the Judge to sign such certificate and unless an order to discharge or vary the same is made, the certificate shall be deemed to be approved and adopted by the Judge.

66. The certificate of the Master shall not, unless the circumstances of the case render it necessary, set out the judgment or order, or any document, or evidence, or reasons, but shall refer to the judgment or order, document and evidence, or particular paragraphs thereof, so that it may appear upon what the result stated in the certificate is founded.

67. The certificate of the Master shall be in the Form No. 10, Appendix L, with such variations as the circumstances may require; and when prepared and settled it shall be transcribed by the solicitor prosecuting the proceedings in such form and within such time as the Master shall require, and shall be signed by the Master either then or (if necessary) at an adjournment to be made for the purpose.

68. When an account is directed the certificate shall state the result of such account, and not set the same out by way of schedule, but shall refer to the account verified by the affidavit filed, and shall specify by the numbers attached to the items in the account which (if any) of such items have been disallowed or varied, and shall state what additions (if any) have been made by way of surcharge or otherwise: and where the account verified by the affidavit has been so altered that it is necessary to have a fair transcript of the account as altered, such transcript may be required to be made by the party prosecuting the judgment or order, and shall then be referred to by the certificate. The accounts and the transcripts (if any) referred to by certificates shall be filed therewith or retained in Chambers, and subsequently filed as the Judge in Chambers may direct. No copy of any such account shall be required to be taken by any party.

69. (1) Any party may, before the Master has signed his certificate, take the opinion of the Judge upon any matter arising in the course of the proceedings.

(2) Any party desiring to obtain the opinion of the Judge under this rule shall obtain a summons for such purpose setting out in such summons the precise matters upon which the opinion of the Judge is to be sought, and such summons shall be served on the other parties as soon as practicable after such summons has been obtained.

(3) Taking the opinion of a Judge as hereinbefore provided shall not operate as a stay of proceedings before the Master but he may at his discretion either continue the proceeding in the course of which the point or matter has arisen, or defer further proceedings until such opinion has been obtained.

(4) In cases arising under Rule 4 of Part II. of Chapter III. of these Rules and in any other case if the Judge so directs or is not available, it shall not be necessary to take the opinion of the Judge by whom the matter was referred to the Master, but the matter may be decided by a Judge for the time being sitting in Chambers who shall give his opinion thereon. Nothing in this Rule shall prevent a Judge from referring the matter to an appropriate List if he sees fit so to do.

70. (1) Every certificate with the accounts (if any) to be filed therewith shall be transmitted by the Master to the Prothonotary's office to be there filed. The Master shall thereupon notify the parties in writing that the certificate has been so transmitted and such certificate shall thenceforth be binding on all parties to the proceedings unless discharged or varied, upon application by summons to be made before the expiration of ten (10) clear days after notice has been given of the transmission of the certificate.

(2) Upon the hearing of any summons under this rule the Judge may if he thinks fit direct the Master to supply a short statement of his reasons for arriving at the result stated in the certificate.

(3) In cases arising under Rule 4 of Part II. of Chapter III. of these Rules, and in any other case if the Judge so directs or is not available, an application to discharge or vary a certificate may be heard and determined by a Judge for the time being sitting in Chambers, notwithstanding that he was not the Judge by whom the matter was referred to the Master. Nothing in this Rule shall prevent a Judge from referring the matter to an appropriate List if he sees fit so to do.

71. A Judge may if the special circumstances of the case require it, upon an application by motion or summons for the purpose, direct a certificate to be discharged or varied at any time after the same has become binding on the parties."
