STOCK DISEASES ACT 1958 (No. 6382) AND
STOCK DISEASES (AMENDMENT) ACT 1959 (No. 6316).

At Government House, Melbourne, the first day of June, 1961.

PRESENT:

His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of Victoria.

Mr. Chandler

Mr. Reid.

WHEREAS by section 4 of the Stock Diseases Act 1958, as amended by the Stock Diseases (Amendment) Act 1959, the Governor in Council amongst other things is empowered to prohibit or restrict the introduction into Victoria of any stock or of any carcass or animal product either generally or from such places and during such periods as may appear to him necessary or expedient for the purpose of preventing the introduction into Victoria of any disease: And whereas an outbreak of Swine Fever has occurred in the State of New South Wales: And whereas Swine Fever has been declared a "disease" for the purpose of the Act by Order approved by the Governor in Council on the 31st October, 1958: Now therefore the Administrator of the Government of the State of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth by this Order prohibit the introduction into Victoria from the State of New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory of any pig or the carcass of any pig or the animal product of any pig during the period from the date hereof until the thirtieth day of June in the year One thousand nine hundred and sixty-two: Nothing in this order shall prohibit the introduction into Victoria of pig meats derived from pigs of Queensland origin and processed in that State and which have been consigned with the prior permission of the Chief Inspector of Stock of Victoria for direct transport by rail through New South Wales to any place in Victoria.

And the Honorable Gilbert Lawrence Chandler, Her Majesty's Minister of Agriculture for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. MAHLSTEDT,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
