State Electricity Commission Act 1958 (No. 6377).
PROTECTION OF ELECTRICAL OPERATIONS
REGULATIONS.

PROCLAMATION

By the Lieutenant-Governor as Deputy for His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by Regulations cited as Protection of Electrical Operations Regulations made by the Governor in Council on the seventh day of July, One thousand nine hundred and forty-nine, on the recommendation of the State Electricity Commission of Victoria as amended on the sixth day of February One thousand nine hundred and fifty-one and the seventh day of November One thousand nine hundred and fifty-one it is amongst other things provided that any person who, during a state of emergency as therein defined, contravenes the provisions as to use of electricity therein defined shall be guilty of an offence against the said Regulations: And whereas it is provided that a state of emergency shall be deemed to exist for the purpose of the said Regulations whenever the Governor in Council, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette, proclaims that an industrial strike has occurred or other emergency has arisen at any portion of any undertaking or works or electrical lines of the Commission or the prevention of any interference therewith, it is necessary to prohibit or restrict the use of electricity by consumers: Now I, the Lieutenant-Governor as Deputy for the Governor of the State of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, do hereby proclaim that an emergency has arisen at the whole of the electrical undertakings and works of or operated by the Commission and that for the protection of electrical works or lines of the Commission and the prevention of any interference therewith it is necessary on and after the date of the publication in the Government Gazette of this my Proclamation to prohibit or restrict the use of electricity by consumers. Such state of emergency shall be deemed under the said Regulations to continue until the publication in the Government Gazette of a Proclamation that such state of emergency has ceased to exist.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the State of Victoria aforesaid, at Melbourne, this twenty-seventh day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, and in the twelfth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

State Electricity Commission Act 1958 (No. 6377).
RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF ELECTRICITY
REGULATIONS.

PROCLAMATION

By the Lieutenant-Governor as Deputy for His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by Regulations cited as Restrictions on the Use of Electricity Regulations made by the Governor in Council on the third day of October, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight on the recommendation of the State Electricity Commission of Victoria, it is amongst other things provided that any person who, during a state of emergency as therein referred to, contravenes the provisions as to use of electricity therein defined shall be guilty of an offence against the said Regulations: And whereas it is provided that a state of emergency shall be deemed to exist for the purpose of the said Regulations whenever the Governor in Council, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette, proclaims that an industrial strike has occurred, or other emergency has arisen, at any portion of any undertaking or works of or operated by the Commission, and that for the protection of works or electrical lines of the Commission, or the prevention of any interference therewith, it is necessary to prohibit or restrict the use of electricity by consumers: Now I, the Lieutenant-Governor as Deputy for the Governor of the State of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said State, do hereby proclaim that an emergency has arisen at the whole of the electrical undertakings and works of or operated by the Commission, and that, for the protection of electrical works or lines of the Commission, and the prevention of any interference therewith, it is necessary, on and after the date of the publication in the Government Gazette of this, my Proclamation, to prohibit or restrict the use of electricity by consumers. Such state of emergency shall be deemed under the said Regulations to continue until the publication in the Government Gazette of a Proclamation that such state of emergency has ceased to exist.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the State of Victoria aforesaid, at Melbourne, this twenty-seventh day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, and in the twelfth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II.

(L.S.)

E. F. HERRING.

By His Excellency's Command,
R. W. MACK,
Acting Minister of Electrical Undertakings.
