PUBLIC SERVICE NOTICES

PUBLIC SERVICE OF PAPUA AND NEW GUINEA.

FOREST OFFICERS FOR NEW GUINEA.

FORESTRY has become one of the main industries in Papua and New Guinea and last year timber products were the Territory's fourth biggest export earner with a total value of $3.8m for log, sawn timber and plywood.

In 1965, a plan was announced to expand the timber industry threefold. This expansion will include the opening up of over 1.4m acres of forest in New Britain and on the North Coast of the mainland and the acceleration of re-forestation work—particularly in the Wau-Bulolo area. As well as the vast stands of klinkii pine in this area, trial plantings of teak are proving very encouraging.

Trained and experienced Forest Officers are urgently needed to help achieve this rapid development. They must have a Degree or Diploma of Forestry from a recognized Forestry School with University status and, for the higher Classes, appropriate post graduate experience.

Salary ranges for single men are—

- Class 1.—$3,565—$5,373 p.a.
- Class 2.—$5,581—$6,221 p.a.
- Class 3.—$6,431—$7,051 p.a.
- Class 4.—$7,297—$7,793 p.a.

Married men receive an additional $360 p.a. Income tax in the Territory is at present about half that paid in Australia.

Engagement is by contract for a minimum of two years or longer if preferred. Applicants employed by a government authority may be considered for secondment to the Territory Service for an initial period of two years with preservation of existing rights.

Leave.—Three months' leave is granted after 21 months' service with assisted leave fares to Australia.

The Department of Forests has its headquarters at Port Moresby with Regional Offices at Lae and Rabaul and Forest Stations at Brown River, Bulolo, Goroka, Keravat, Wau and Wewak. A Forest Officer could be appointed to any of these centres. Accommodation requirements will be discussed at interview.
